reading back yesterday's tapsplash i guess an apology is in order ... hard to fit a jocular tone to them fightin words but there is truth to it and yes, most money revolves around, gravitates to, is roped in by confolk and by god they will apropo my latest posts (dearest Sonya) i recommend a look at philip jenkins -- just read some altnet comments which have diversity of viewpoints regarding this .. but i been there done that when theo v gogh was offed. .. still think christians and arabs should learn a thing or two from each other .. about alcohol and permaculture mainly ... aint gonna happen any quicker than you bothering to tell some goon to tell me off i know -- and the man whose name i could not remember to add to acharya S was D Fideler (sun of god think cosmopolis.com/df/)

wow, looking for that, to make sure i had his first name right, i find i cannot really click through to my later and last index pages on my laptop which have the conventional pure links pages conveniently on the left side from 1 through 10, last of which made in 03 and firt to have Fideler... even from the present online version one has to battle through to index2 or 3 ... sigh ... if only we could combine my brain with your way of touching people.

owh, spooky, that source (from which i turn away in disgust when the old southern character and dispsish peeks through at to me toxic levels) features the man's fave quote from 09 concerning an illegal alien who (shot the sheriff that was trying to routine check him and) got shot 68 times in the final shootout after a statewide manhunt:

Naturally, the liberal media went nuts and asked why they had to shoot the poor undocumented immigrant 68 times.

Sheriff Grady Judd told the Orlando Sentinel:
'Because that's all the ammunition we had.' Now, is that just about the all-time greatest answer or what!

I'll spare you the rest of the details, the bigger picture is in more and more need of attention:

their guns to use marching on wallstreet. failing that declaring autonomy and all that. the secession noises have as good as ceased. Doug .. the modern examples of unrestrained and inhumane exercise of the powers of the state far exceed those of effective application of the restraints of international law.

piet with the answer that begins demure and polite: agreed but how many of those you sum up are freshly arrived neighbours, have recently emigrated, maintain ties and receive revenues from all corners of the world? Joseph Catron jncatron@gmail.com: I don't buy the Chomsky line on Israel as an American proxy, but the United States certainly exercises a significant degree of influence over its behavior (although probably not as much as we're paying for!)

again, choose one: being the blob for IZards to hide behind puts paid to any demands they can make of it, if anything the money ought to reverse course ... but (what) with all the jew genius (google greedman sucks anybody?) being seen as what 'counts' we may as well consider that score settled too.

Chomsky the blamegamer (Blam!) is right though, IZard's traditional (very fishy gizzyjizzyjazzy folks) transpositionation make the US monstrosities look tiny, cute, and containable, reversible even ... by comparison... and nothing gets the market hogs hoggier than markets in teeter totter contumeliousness.

I feel like a total failure, like when a dear friend comes for help and i can't even be bothered to offer a card-board in time. 1worldcitizen twitter = Ken O Keefe (formerly Ken Nichols, saving turtles tangled in tackle around Hawaii, renouncer of americanhood in amsterdam, human shield in Iraq)

Kenny boy, when i saw you on the news about your human shield action to iraq in 2003 i recognized a colleague in you albeit a much more courageous flesh and blood one. I may be taller than, but am a mere scrawny 'slungel' next to you. 52 years old. born in a village butchershop in the duo-cultural area stretches between the main rhine delta arms before rotterdam, 20km away from it.

i roamed the states for 7 years between 79-92 .. decided against hawaii though by the time i had gotten up and down the west coast a few times and had tried diets with large percentages of fruit it was tempting. John Ray of body-electronics had a base there. His radical therapies got him AMA prosecuted like so many good guys (Rife) and sidestepping to mexico, eventually New Zealand. I tried via conscience development, mostly via indymedia kommentarianistic participation, to stop the war but we all failed didn't we?

Palestine, due to the smidgen of jewish blood i carry (which, though long long since assimilated, does the take one to know one mirrorage for me) bears heavily on my conscience.

i am a fairly blessed person and saved to participate in a land-trust or an intentional community. Also keep up with squats and activist camps but on that front too i failed, though i am, where i type now, at omslag.nl on the edge of eindhoven (philips appliances fame) which is a subcultural thinktank attached to a monestary-church complex. Very 'knus' (intimate, small, only 9 participants today), the library has one or two of my favorite books (tree-housing) and i have to break for the closing ceremony here.

.. Done. Spoke about the gushy possi-stage where hearts overflow from mind/intention mirrorage dump one often finds the rainbow family wasting their gathering on with too few specs and grounding in the mix to root and shoot. One notable exception is Mata Venero in northern spain ... on the whole an transoceanic after trickle of The Farm, etcetera.

I haven't the guts to go for permaculture in Palestine since i am impatient, intolerant and have no fighting spirit. The kin 55 blue eagle escapism aspect made me an ineffective weapon to cap contain and transform events such as hiroshima (which happened under that aegis/seal). Not that i am lacking wonderful ideas to go for energy from and for depth rather than suitable for bomb-building.

Anyway, i hope to be kept posted and should you appear in northern europe i hope to attend.

so long, aloha, god speed and i care to put you in my will, seriously.

davidsheen.com is a toronto jew who filmed the counter-culture (extensively and close-up) then proceeds to betray all of their various though collective values in one simple fell swoop, he moves to Tel Aviv ... if the Zionic mossadists had to think of something to stop their recruitment pool and cannon/compiscreen fodder leaking thataway, this would be it. The green banner thing (something about care) has interviews (some transcribed) including a six part one with PLW .. well interesting (though familiar). In the latter half of the final part he says the basis for the state is human sacrifice.

His argument that B&D (boycotts and divestments) isolate dissenters falls flat .. since these guys are not spyware, surveillance and wesselvessels of spin consumers (unbroken pushchains between ancient and modern, specialty: top the hit

Feints like that determine politics determine economics only under conditions of, as and bycause of info-flow skewery.

Apparantly confident this charade of not seeing (nazioning) palestine can go on he calls for "international commerce" and "more worldly business" - real estate bubbles weren't real enough for him i guess.

Microphilanthropy <http://www.davidsheen.com/giveitaway/> 18 ways to part with bloodmoney .. Rumors that the Israeli commandos burned books after boarding the flotilla turned out to be false. According to the Dissociated Press, what actually happened is that the commandos piled all the psychiatry books on the ships' decks and riddled them with bullets, while shouting, "Now maybe you'll see that your arguments are full of holes!"

<http://the-fourth-world.blogspot.com/2006/09/apocalypse-no.html> Juan Rafael Santos on global crisis (about real and metaphorical cities) he starts of quoting somebody quoting Elie Wiesel# approvingly and biasedly judgemental about christianity. It is enough to make me want to defend that faith failing to ... i mean revolt failing to finish the task/noble cause it set itself and subsequently falling to faith status. bouncing off its target and having been turned back at the latter's vanguard is cause for deep shame. the jews/semities won the war. all of a sudden i see a perfect parallel between the veil and dust issues, truly a back to back deal.

On the one hand veils are home of imaginaton and portals to homey paradise. Though that aside, they of course pragmatically and simply serve first and foremost as dustguard .. but ubiquitousness of dust never gets problematized .. no saharasia discussion).

On the other hand the guarding against discussing ritual abuse of dusts is equally stringent ... and no less orchestrated, Bernays, the man who understood way before Rickels that mass-psychology won the war provided the by now tested and true means to imprint but upped with mediated street theatre tactics a la rothschild staging a news-reception the impression made might as well be as good as and foreshadowing further realtime implantation runnings towards ruins technique ...in this case the hardnosed lie that dust is toxic, precipitous, a tool of pazuzu worse hoppers and such terrorists who can't help but hide behind guards against them cause that is a cultural given for them, like rain is in northern europe, the northwest pacific coast, the monsoon visited regions.

listening to a nova scotia mass choir pod (cbc.ca) i return to chiseling and polishing a very central pillar of thought for me into sharper definition and spark: the americans are torn apart into two extremes leaving the median golden mean and middle of gardenpath heavenonearth network destitute of love and attention, equal parts emptied, robbed and pre-empted ... in order to shore up total denial regarding their occupation status ... being a big dumb giant doing what the evil dwarf told it to and is doing for the umpteenth time .. repeating a succesful meme of the promised land entry, always myopically self-obsessed, obliterating all cultivation of sympathy, fellow feelingness and good neighbourlihood. The reasons for allowing this kind of 'gospel' (fringed with songs replete and awash in seasonal innocent and natural process, taking place in a floating, unlocalizable promissory land, yours for the faithing) to be attached to the record of their shamelessly unadulterated selfishness is that they in fact killed the hero, a pattern they hope to repeat, sending all comers and takers to seek and claim rewards beyond life as much as they want. Try reading the new testament anywhere in israel. The condition for the attachment was endless supply of weapons and decision making positions, plain and simple, honoured to this very day.

via that intrepid Torah scholar in Idaho 300 gold frame framed snappies of civil war youngsters just before carrying their sacrificial blood to the hasbara altar battlefield. --- speaking of snaps, that is all i find left of a wordpress blog called 'Fourth Reich Israel' (556 hits for the term which, being disgusted with the 'whole [[but never healing]] issue' for a while, sorta escaped me .. though i did see this photo series and alerted sargasso 'tweespalters' about it too ... except there is really minimal to negligible contrast between nazi feat photos with zionist ones, even when you deliberately minimize the diff to bring out the similarities more explicitly like these collators did), up and running 4 weeks ago (the Snippets and slappetS sidebar whence i arrived, tells me).

<http://sNippits-and-sLappits.blogspot.com/> ... hey .. i thought it was two Ns not N&L in the course of writing this article i also visit <http://myhatespeech3.blogspot.com/> (via desertpeace) sibling of <http://orwellsdreams.wordpress.com/> wonder why ... to stop offending and smearing good descendants, relatives, neighbours and co-regionalist with bad ones? Which ones, northies or zionists? Those who stupidly followed diabolic orders to hold onto a gun, received from anything but noble blue eyed simple life loving arians do not exactly share their guilt by association ... they dole it out, foist and force it upon their siblings like all violent folks hide among the peaceful while claiming only their targets, the terrorist do so.

this article has a funny illustration:

update on Wilders' efforts to distract from industrial grade hate

Wilders defends first strikers (prior holy book toters), a long since ensconced desert meme set, meanwhile intensified to industrial strength, against an artisan too latecomer version, not about to succeed repeating the occupy, disposes, and assimilate sequence.

The charade (of reversavers[[alizat]]ions) stipulates that christians make a great pretense of defending the second wave (equal parts their pursuers, victims and targets) since the core of the sentiment Wilders thrives on is easily and better focused on them.

The Dutch Rightie star --- who some say is awful brave ... to face and enter life in the mold of the hyper securitized and protected hasbarnazionist while blaming others for it (money is no object for the multiple sourcier) ... but who, as if to show(/say) that words are no use in the face of court bias and hypocrisy -- accusing him of evasiveness .. without specifying that the western world is under the sway of a desert memeset from which Wilders is indeed trying to distract .. by shifting blame for it to a reaction against it (however unsuccessful, infected and tainted by its target judaism, islam is) -- which requires other means of prying out and away from positions of power--- is claiming his right to be silent today ... his day in court (for offending unnecessarily, thus causing rather than fighting hate), thereby claiming the dignified reservation of rock. The two way mirror game always only leaves one and so no choice at all).

A 'welles nietes' (is/aint) effort with no escape from, outcome or product other than its endless repetitive and deadly return from leaving nothing and never 'leaving' -- not a green leaf they can ever take credit for growing though they will cost all of greenery unprotected enough for them to command, their sheer existence and even possibility, being a thanatopic creed that raps about evil (but not that taking up arms is evil perse, simply cause they want to reserve the rights to define and declare evil whatever they feel deserves it besides and along with the ones to take up arms against it ... and call that good).

Like i said, and it bears repeating and underscoring till understood, Wilders distracts from a hate that has long been assimilated, internalized and obscured from consciousness, thereby all the more operative and nasty: (western support and cover for) zionism.

4TH OF OCTOBER

Drew posts a slew of RTA vids, about which, on his next item, i go: arguelles and the like (specially as a mix.. all claiming one and only, biggest widest, most accurate once and for all final absolutation yadaday) are quite instructive and a damn sight better than the blowhard AJones posted the fifth (as NNR C): RTAmerica is a subsidiary of that foulmouth pompous crybaby 'akelig krakeelgeherrie voortgorgelende Alex Jones ... a conclusion i come to after reading headlines and viewing numbers for the latter half of their youtube account (went back nearly 5 months iow) ... everything to do with him gets 5 to 10 times the average amount of Vs and that includes stuff were he leaves little doubt about his bias from the get-go, making the UN out to be a Nazi operation. Why pray tell? Cause they stipulated fairness and equality for Palestinians as condition for a jewish state. You might fault their inconsistency for not beginning a palestinian state at the same time ... but hey we are talking folks into face to face flex, intimacy and beauty with no use for large and stepping stone to worse institutions, absenteeism, hierarchy, etcetera. The jews are committing fratricide and going against what is best from their very own holy books.

sigh ... guess we won't hold our breath till this website discovers Knapp, Beckerath

<http://orwellsdreams.wordpress.com/about/> .. yeah, the AJones flock has growing pains, distractive industries can 'grow' incredibly elaborate .. and are totally bible-besotten in that they set, stipulate and formulate the rules they like and wish their intended prey and victims to live by. --- nother such: <http://govtsslaves.info/>

apropo Beckerath, here's sitings of his friend which i missed so far (not that i looked, ..just found them via a newly found search adress, reached via p22 of google images for 'google custom search' ... thanks geckoandfly.com ... where i also learn about a Real alternative for stream dwnlds: musicZilla# .. easy .. the net should really convey at least this: if it aint easy, drop it for now, it will be easy tomorrow*):

Does Uruguay have multiple currencies? -- hail Heinrich Rittershausen! short article pointing to Fekete, who appears here (shortly before his lecture series in Hungary): atimes.com / atimes / Global_Economy / LG27Dj05.html -- july 27 - Fekete

* - shows up again at p44: easywaystogogreen.com/green-computers/blackle-for-search-heap-media/ ... this by the way, was something i had noticed but not memorized, .. stupid, .. my retention is too rapidly approaching alzheimer levels as it is. <http://ecoiron.blogspot.com/2007/01/black-google-would-save-3000-megawatts.html> blackle.com/ ... +85 .. without date stamp but with a long list of inbound links

- hilariously 'easy' Windows work-around (posted as one of the 6 comments): geckoandfly.com/3181/download-music-from-lastfm-imeem-pandora-and-myspace/

I listened to Fekete on makingitrain (or whatever) speaking about the Real (Goods) Bills Doctrine (inflation preventing transparancy promoting staple subject Beckerath was on about), he is real slow (seems to be fighting a bug at the time or something) and does not speak english very well .. he grew up in russia or steeped in russian culture i am sure.

if he is the best we have to bring this lifesaver to the fore again (discontinued on the very day WW! broke out by the way) we are for the foreseeable future, done for, specially since he seems to not understand how deflation as debt amortization are simply taken out of ordinary people's hands along with the RBD ... but that does not mean it don't happen (tsunami vs irrigation .. a differential useful to those who don't think or feel it unethical to profit from precipitousness and shock doctrinotions which the economy has been infected with by the arms industries holding it [helmsmen] hostage if they can't be bought out/of).

there's a progression from all this written soon after the above and it was also moved from the main pile onto the JA/VV one

well, i am that cause cause i think all wot whitey rightey should put their bibles down (ask for a refund from the jew nearest yew) and get the hell off of turtle island ... come home and help me rewrite the parable of the prodigal son (judaics) stirring up wars and 'returning home' with trauma to visit upon his olive tree loving stay at home bro.

Noor weighs in as 17th of 25 on an UTruth pod thread about Rense (zionism aint judaism) vs Glenn (big rightie radio head) and chats about 'unity being key' ... funny, i just listened to a report on the european championships fashioning (filing) a perfectly blank key until it opens a lock -- mind the marks made going in out in out until the going gets round (kinda like the rubiks cubism) which ends the game .. aint yall sick of all this halfassed not quite sport .. hmmm .. incogman .. and the like ... but that moniker makes the resistance to admit he is a white traitor bothering red folks painfully obvious. Is your cedar from Nuxalk territory perhaps or are you too american, fighting crime like only a whitey over there can, to find out?

you fill a jar with water and dust, give it a shake and see graduation all in the mix and explanations of race n stage, place & rage don't work unless you go that far back (and forward!). I personally learn more about the savantism the badboy variety of djoewism (literally) banks on from folks who never even mention the creatures .. like Andrew Lehman (though he is one .. not quite as thoroughly assimilated as the lowlands where they just fucked and fucked and fucked their brains about).

i personally do not know if Rense is of the inner/outer alien or unusual/secret tec variety .. for the latter (with over tones of inner rather than outer versions) i read naturalresonancerevolution (goes overboard on the inner .. but hey we all aint square but prickly and so stickly.)

refdag.nl/nieuws/met_een_supermarktkarretje_op_de_brede_weg_1_503905
yall know this image? there are versions with a church over a precipice running all the way between the two modes of conveyance .. as well as the original one (for sale as a 10Euro poster in this liddul but rabidly christian town).

ye old crisscross roadhair choice: the path, tree trail, ambulatory, peripatetic mode with a 'hoogstandje' (gems of construction savvy): limb-stairways or the limo/jewp dupebox one .. so that you can switch halfway ... really .. a better version would have all the real advanced permietracktricks (well toward tree lifespan mixes, .. hey .. a nice mix for once ... so that treehouses and all can actually tempt folks from the vacuous ways.. any cameronites who care to do the right thing here?????)

Hmmm, 9 hours later i see 6 more comments but not mine.

There's no end to this locust plague .. after a few at least entertaining (and brow raising) visits in this neighbourhood i run into godsend (1 of the 5 commenters) at Michael Hoffman and it makes me decide i have had quite enough again already, he manages to miraculously extract the pure christianity (free the captive christ? What a hero eh?) from catholicism and zionism (talmudic judaism) ... bunch of stupid gold diggers .. the item itself is interesting:

<http://revisionistreview.blogspot.com/2010/10/joseph-sobran-libeled-as-nazi-by.html>

Wednesday, October 13, 2010 Joseph Sobran libeled as a Nazi by The Atlantic's Jeffrey Goldberg Neocon Liar Jeffrey "Dr. Goebbels" Goldberg Dishonors the Memory of Joseph Sobran ----- by Michael Hoffman | www.RevisionistHistory.org

Michael Hoffman got smeared recently by Knowles in the same dismissive fashion he treats more deserving characters like Cooper to. Knowles copied a few gifs from vigilantcitizen's frontpage and where a Masonic pic and the number of miners mentioned is enough to unleash/attract over 140 sophomorically wandering zombielike contents-free comments ... this blog offers dumber than dumbed down versions of the dumbing down 'principles' (poisons) at work in the world today after writing the above i hear the zionized dutch media repeat a blatant and diabolic inversion of the truth about jews vs palis, tossing opposites about in the deceptive manner of 'balletje balletje'# instead of choosing the ones that will transform and birth a bettering of both.

They manage to claim 'no immediate contact' .. referring to the negotiations over the caught soldier .. no doubt soon to be worth a record number of Palis.

every hour on the hourmeanwhile if you google 'injured palestinian' and press the 'images' link in the upper left corner you get 177.000 results and it is instantly apparent most pictures instead show the suffering from the very most unneighbourly violence in recorded history. One would think that if Jews wish to own gaza they would not pollute it with all the sewage (vid at link, from PSP), phosphor bombs etcetera .. but we are talking about the most crazed cultural meme that survived and broadcasts babylonian memes, thinking in terms of targeting surveillance and repression, infliction of hell in a manner that is sufficiently low key to get away with doing it lastingly. It's a matter of thinking in terms of millenia and not taking the ages of trees as the standard and mooring for it but grains of sand ... which they produce in large and toxic quantity ... one reason the arabs wear veil, a vain gesture of self-defense.

- <http://thimblorig.askdefine.com/> -- thimblorig -- a swindling sleight-of-hand game; victim guesses which of three things a pellet is under -- A game of skill which requires the bettor to guess under which of three small cups (or thimbles) a pea-sized object has been placed after the party operating the game rapidly rearranges them, providing opportunity for sleight-of-hand trickery; a shell game.

betterbadnews is an original way to expose 'fehlschluss drahtzieher' ... and they like naming names while hiding their own ... not shy these folks though, matter of actual fact, the chubby one is a total beaut.

How to turn oneself into a perfectly half way schizofrenic do something and accuse someone else of your misdeed, you are merely reflecting and calling attention to it, at most imitating it a bit too enthusiastically.

For an example of the first axiom check the illustration photoshopped for this assertion: <http://tehdaillsqueak.blogspot.com/2010/09/vile-deb-frisch-violates-her-probation.html>

a few quick notes from the dim dawn's clearest insight slating slot and apportioning portion of the day, my best grasp of ultra stretchy types occur around that time of the morrow:
jesus is the dildo/whip/rod jews lay into their subjects/prey/harassers with.

it is a figure representative of the multi varigated, multi meanced meme jews like to export and tote into remoteness. A cultural proclivity comprising a range of aspects, hardly any of them human anymore, from the stray scout and spy to the scatter projectile, missile and audio-visual overspill (/kill).

for jews jesus is bait, they bring it along (/ON!!!!) to have a good time fishing .. a foreskin the sacrificing of which they promise themselves and feel entitled to enormous returns for, Jesus as the type that can't get himself killed soon enough, he is sacrificed AS a jew FOR jews no matter what christians make of it.

Non-jews do not notice bait is bait and take it for a divine undeserved gift, thus the mindfuck that is saviourism (and hollywood heroism) comes to represent vain hopes for jewish repentance and conversion, for them to slough off babylonian history where, and ever since then, their whole stubbornly stuck to gamble was: taking degenerative diseases due to incest in stride as long as that one in a million neotenous jackpot savant paid off with a succesful trawl for some accounting trick, formula, mannerism, hit-song or other, something serving complexification and stratification. Christians want the jews to be wellbehaved and saved enough to come over to treat 'm to a banquet without strings and fishing lines attached.

In short, jesus as the traitor in the eyes of the jews fits with him being seen as the saviour like hand in glove, like a convex and concave surface produced by one single cut.

palestinian father of 9 yells and gesticulates at a bunch of soldiers standing still amongst the boulders in rough terrain after they get done shooting at protesters who came to the fence cutting them off from their land. he inches closer to them and keeps yelling as loud as he did when at a distance ... it goes on for at least 5 minutes.

"Dana said the man in the video, Adeeb Abu Rahma, is a father of 9, and a few weeks after the video above, the Israeli security forces came to Adeeb Abu Rahma's house in Ramallah and arrested him, and he hasn't been out since."

49th of 65: digest of what follows: lz gets to use US resources in exchange for a very real and necessary service, namely a real genocide obscured rather than recalled, overwritten rather than forgotten by the much more recent and 'fresh' presently threatening one (which on top of imperialism is fratricide) i wrote something about all that yesterday morning .. and this morning after a dream -- with live audio in it (rare for me) coming from a truck almost completely submerged in mud at a fair but able to curl and crawl/claw its way out. The jovial black driver had a genial partner and i talked to her -- i realized i should post it here.

It is prolly more of a repetition than a follow up with a twist.

i used to think in terms of the dumb giant feeling protected by the lightning roddwarf in its neck cause it -- the latter, more and more an 'IT' .. though it really is ironic that all the old nazi stereotypical ignorance of the brief but bright semitic female seductiveness is discounted and dissed if not dissed and dismissed but prolly missed entirely - see mrpandemic02 at youtube -- was attracting all attention to itself and made amorante di arboles feel normal sized (via law of averages and other alien marketing statsefratse ... stadse fratsen is a thing farmers scold city folk about but scaper1 better learn to charge if not fine scaper to) by the way good show Les, and.. hearing Adam H (of mondoweiss) repeat the reversion of truth in lionine and lamblike quality apportionment regarding judaics and christians (in front of a tiny group of geriatric jews in chicago via this account <http://www.radio4all.net/index.php/contributor/2838>) i sure agree but we really should be talking insects rather than warmbloods when it comes to warmbloods who go to ants long enough to go 'i sympathize, i feel you pain, here, let me show what i would do in your place. In that sense jesus is the utterly chimerical hybrid jew/gentile alrite. Nemrud's most promising offspring and most devastating dud ever ... all soil gone .. not a blade of grass left in them sizewise all others beating no longer understood waterworks.

i smoked a cigarette after the dream and regretted not remembering any of the names i read in it, then went to sleep, redreamed faintly (sans couleur, sans aud) but seeing .. and i saw the writing again ... which i now can live to regret not memorizing .. taking note .. etc a second time.

Palestinians will continue to be treated the way they are as long as a shifty and secretive, mostly and where it matters most (matters, most or matters most, take your pick) semitic demograpulation team helps justify and legitimate the continued presence and ongoing rapacity of white (and multicoloured serfs, underlings and orc-like) workers in red territory.

here we go again, .. or still rather ...pretending to be scared of what they secretly wish for and peddle a little guilt if possible? do the jew test find denial of intent and agency when it comes to confessing bad stuff. america is a very sick place ... and i saw certain things coming and counselled (councilled?) best i could ... i urged euros to open their doors and help whities back off of that magical continent (do massive eco-repairs along the way etc).

It is now 5(?) years later (prolly dropped those [[econ]] cultural [[you're all cult E conned]] bomb warnings at Mary Rizzo's place back then) and the euros are rid of their euros in relation to that fabled continent alrite, but not bycause of joint revillagizing effort (with 'the say' off/in big authoritarian blocks devolved, cut up and strung out in a hugely longer, more complex, finer, local and most important, female hands), so not alrite, but all wrong.

Still worse, the siblings, astray overseas (socalled americans) are very very rid of their perceived savings and entitlements also (poof, pop, sunk, splat, split). Their house of christian calling cards (no matter how magisterially I M MEdiately 'banked') collapsed and conquered once again by the jerklerc, the clerical hysterical pulling crowd awing savanterisms out of his voluminous wardrobe (full of crooked and strayed jackey clientele), sucking native local rooted and protective wealth down into a barbaric past, suckling the new on the old testament, performing binary bias (pushing the comma ((along with the bubblier, most blow roly-runaway prone amongst 'numbers', that massive and no matter what, growing bitpile with digital dial)) to the right proves a slippery task).

The colonialists though, besides a genocide weighing down their conscience (if they even dare to try keep one up) ... also lost homes to fires of dereliction, piling waste upon waste in the frenzied potlatch atmosphere that comes about when somewhere ... far far away, a potential receiver loses and/or betrays his foothold, ungracefully abandons his heritage but piles waste and shame on top of shame and waste by ALSO refusing what is on offer wherever he arrives after arduous journey (more heavily 'armed' than he realizes, 'harbouring' scourges he ((only at first, innocently but blankets {{{as Ward Churchill proved}}}), can and have been used to greater effect than bullets in at least one instance, further instances undoubtedly suffering parallel fates we might as well coin a word {{{OR 2}}} for: PROOFICIDE - EVIDENCIDE)) visits upon unsuspecting and alas, skeptical nor cautious hosts, not least amongst which i count the slight/right ((flight/fight)) to alienate, e- and immigrate, rights of alien nations, the lie factor in commercials, minority rights, a slew of problematic 'baxwalls').

Our poor exile, risker, escapee recently began bearing the break-down of repute, the 'bringer of democratic freedom' re'christ'ening attempt upheld since WW2 is a broken scaffold ... and nobody actually got to live and bear out what this lofty title promised no matter how much 'freedom' kept on 'rocking' (IN!?!?) the world since then after a quick back of envelope calculation a general snowballing consensus agreed recent escalations, literal ones, fueling higher (chinese) risings for 'slavelaburbanization' of infra (infractious structuration) couldn't be afforded (bombbuilding for a warfueled economy [[health of the state as Bush told the spokesman for the southern american nations - see last quarter of the Oliver Stone docu South of the border]] perhaps not such a sustainable routine after all)

Our tragic hero, guilty of multiple genocide (simmering unconfessed, unmourned, unrepaired) threatens to 'deliver' worse and still worse ... we already have downright deadly poisons that not only defeat the purpose, since they instantly and for the longest time thereafter eliminate not just the target and supposed obstruct but lock up and those who aim them before those who sent the aimers out of these very (very contested) ground of any and all beings far and wide (Fallujah!!!! you cannot rollover guilt onto the direct and already deceased victims just cause they can bear it better and/or bycause you claimed they caused and provoked your (freedomf)ire in the first place).. along with the creepier socalled 'slower' ones!!!! -- The fact that joining 'the force' is tantamount to joining the ogres who sold their souls is dawning on the general populace similarly to the way creditcon did.

What galls me the most about all this is the subtle way in which hard though rotten core judaics manage to abuse the talents of those of their own who flee and in the process assimilate lots of talent, cover lots of ground, become as good as white, get the better of their new peers etcetera .. only to be bested by their old ones, to end up proving one cannot really betray just one's own heritage... and we are stuck on this lively rock soup for a long time yet. Better get to know each other better.

+7 quite mixed comments the one that tries extrapolate similar to the way i did though from a much lower (more local) vantage point goes 'It's a cycle that must stop.' is quite bitter (not to mention insensitive) in the face of what actually happened.

i have written defenses of police overwhelmed by duties and hampered by restrictions at the same time too, cause nobody ought to be tied to the whipping post ever (gainful employment starts at the compost heap, always an opening (rock waiting [[PATIENTLY]] to be opened) there .. but sure don't feel like it now).

Chavez liberated by his mates .. the police protecting the public on its way to and all the way into parliament is the type of tale america is badly in need of. Who's bad and sorely missing inaction. Not me. Got plenty.

"The next year would take Mr. Holland to court four times, on charges of saying "Jesus Christ" on his own property, ..."

helpful to know that mr Holland looks like the decidedly non-bloaty pacifist type a cowardly macho wannabe man can safely harass .. which is what happened (though he took 3 friends ... just to be safe i guess), mr Holland tried reporting it and a cop, though he came out said 'nothing i can do', then took offense at the expletive and being turned a back to too abruptly perhaps ... who knows or will ever find out right? Been good for 4 court proceeding already so far. Keeps Mr Holland from thinking things through long and deep enough to learn how to appreciate work by the likes of me i guess.

Lesson, don't ever say 'jews' in the course of being critical if you want people to preclude you're attacking the defenseless (don't mention it, not even in the tiniest part of it). It simply is, no matter how mistakenly, taken to mean a race, period. Not a genetico-cultural complex, not a means and manners, heritage-entitlement, training/attitude or what combo have you one.

blood and money, bloodmoney for short, a variety that poisons all other kinds like the jewish mindset and yes, AS the jewish mindset, this is not a racial, racist or racialist observation but a syc soc hist culturally complex one and even then it is not complete and true, AND certainly cannot lead to the solution if geological precursors, components and consequences are left

Since March 2010 Israel has shot 97 Palestinians who were collecting rocks or tending to their crops. In the last three weeks 22 Palestinians have been shot.
What makes this all the more disgusting is that these people are doing this work simply to survive. In the case of collecting rocks they are doing this so the rocks can be crushed and made into cement because cement is banned by the Israeli blockade. Many of those shot are children like the 15 year-old in this video who was shot twice in the legs. It is crystal clear that Israeli soldiers are doing this because they know there will be no punishment; even more perverse, they are undoubtedly doing this because it is some form or entertainment for them.

(posted a few days later) Leiden in last - last(er) in the lead later as a dutch word means slander - 'leiden in last' means faulty leadership, general consternation

a follow up to the post before last
I started writing this (it will break off and resume a few times .. over the course of the next few days) after watching this:
<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4YD9luRojIY> Three Hebrewed Religiooze S...

means, ends; roads, goals; money, the joy of it; obstacles, rewards; races and religions; species and habitats, black and white; all are, beyond the pesky little matter of degrees, one (1 or 1!, take your pick). Herman Keyserling said 'through matter', last week i saw 'through hell' and 'through jews' around these parts. well, how about through rock as the grand unifier? Isn't THE most generally and commonly (transracially and interspecially) acceptable value standard compost? Of course it is. So let 'm rip, let them strike rock and be rewarded for it with that most fabulous factor even software of the goldsackmen cannot deliver.

The exposed interactive surface of rock, even as modestly sized as a fist, changes by a stellar increment if you, instead of picking it up to throw at your plauger, crush and wet it (there is no way TO and through rock and no way to thoroughly soak and wet it, other than to crush it. Then let it down in a place you have the change to return to, protect and reap the benefits from. Presto, multi-life-time investment and insurance).

i been on the crossroads of eco and cultural fronts a while, the gardening front, whereas yours was a guardening career, in isolation yours looks violent and mine utopian but same thing i began saying applies here: the integrity and gradualism (geared and graded dualism) is essential and choosing the dichotomies and oppositions wisely (is) even more important, like ('crowding') rocks instead of your fellowman (no matter how much you may hate him for duping and manouvering you [[and/or your ancestors]] into an imperialistic position) can top that up to quintessential (sexy). . .

Helping Palestinians INTRO the BBC has a big NASA focused report these days and the guy was on a bout a 'changing tide' as i listened.

Hell i fully agree but not in his favour. Turning the tide for and of rockets is to ROCK IT very very much closer to home ... which is our home less and less wholesomely without that vital ingredient coursing and structuring organisms. Outer to inner space .. through rock no man went through before .. certainly turns an obsession/hobby of the comet-like global rock star i share a (dreamspellian) time-stamp with on its head. Alien Rock article by Sean Casteel
<http://www.seancasteel.com/AlienRock.htm>

Gimme a hand putting an end to machismo please, or failing that to put it to good use, ethicalized and all. Since they tend to picked *(on/)*out for breeding, might as well make it (/out) well. As we all know the dominant routinely put life to death, specially when they scare savants into brewing even scarier plagues (calcues kill and the UK is whirl chimp IzzyShallShill didle you frevermore).

The transformation of machismo could save us time and money, not to mention grief in stupendous amounts. Leaving us with enough time .. for once .. and about time! .. to put some towards a tide a turnachearnin, rocks on the crunch .. get it? rocket becomes rock it and the rhythm-noise becomes very substantial anchorment of roots after the let fly (dust blown into rainstorm) phase.

That be not my - but after and without me remains THE - recipe for stopping the betrayal of the whole earth with spacetravel. That would (/will? not sure) be a change of chtonic and titanic proportions ..

By comparison, if all emigrated whities would clean up their act: start restoring whatever their ancestors found, back to the way they found it and return to their own people where a similar (perhaps even harder) task awaits (thoug by then..) .. it would constitute a turnaround of only epic proportions.

And now that i'm on a roll with radical inside outing, how about not just taking a person's nose out of the stars (trailing NASA junk and waste in his 'train'/wake) but personhood altogether?

No lack of projected, burnished, hyped, polished, transpositioned, deified and all the rest of it? Jeebus as the stellar one steps dow nto earth for real this time, to just another idealstic one fancying sounder purposes for metals than put to by coiner and motorer. A mythic owner of might and right becomes a steady stream of season followers, holy men migrating from door to door with musical rockgrinders instead of tinkersmithies (shear sharpeners, story tellers, shamen, snake oil salesman, a complex procession that kept crossculturality on the road instead of dispersed and settled into permanent mayhem).

The only heaven you can ever get is what of it comes down to you. All humans projected into the sky are just a traumatic aftershock of colonialism and the irresponsible, incontinence demography-wise. perped by cowardly machos looking for cannon fodder or Rothchillen (networkers, pigeon breeders and other bird abusers)

Culprits/victims need to be stepped up to in order to help them step down. Step them down from suspenseful apparation positions. Realize we need to keep on counting on (THE REAL) them (ensure compliance, prisons need to become monastic orders, healing herbs grown in full spectrum force carrying (and yielding), freshly composted minerals) in order to and to have a change at successfully counting (THE FAKE) them out, very far out. Out so far them spectres remain in a rightful place, are seen in proportion, as a mere distant trace. Regular, steady .. as a true and nothing more than a real star.

3 wise men (lined up in the sky as ever) moving the star of bethlehem in line with them (the vica versa is equally untrue, purely mental .. as yet in this case, luckily and thank the gods) and then the four of them pointing to the exact spot where the one and only first sun of the year will peep over the horizon?

URLzzz????????? i trust you'll find them, hint: Acharya S made a career out of this knowledge which has gone viral and she is alive and well.

Now for people that move, put and lay their lives more in, on and along lines of more dangerous fire. Meet Ken O'Keefe. <http://kenokeefe.wordpress.com/2011/02/15/the-egypt-under-mubarak-blockade-of-gaza-is-dying/> mr GOD'S (rear/(de)rangement) END raises his comment score with a display of badly split thinking, comes with going astray in (delusional about being a godSend) territory i guess comparing reptiles to termites and ants is inane and stupid, to warmbloods is even dumber. You can take pride nor blame for blowing up xymphora's commentarian community but you were (for at least one, admittedly the most touchy of the bunch) the proverbial drop that did not fit in a full bucket and made disastrous waves. you say (3:29 pm):

"blood which must be shed to water the tree of liberty"

x minutes later (4.37):

"it makes no sense to waste any more innocent blood!"

so you think it can be set to work in the shed intelligently, just the one red kind and not the other red kind? Like i said, delusional. And by the way, for someone trying to be critical of zionazis your belief in hollywood is astounding and counterproductive ... not to mention the jesus thing ... i just wrote a post about the 551k Pali thinktank thread on the RTH efforts with an intro that might interest you on that score. If and/or after i fail to distract you any longer, at least try restrain yourself (every 10 of 11 times i'd say), stop making a (bloody 'soliloquizzically') questionable mess here ... it takes the fun out of subbing to comments.

my comment on a parody of a banned superbowl commercial: like i said in the last few posts, machos raised without my kind of guidance are mean bastards, specially to the spice of life. They are denying green all prospects to be cared for by a fresh crop of little gardeners. I don't even know what this is supposed to be selling.

Aah, of course, .. the dutch are great at selling insurance too ... and so they were actually hit pretty bad but bad banking has been out of the news for ages again already. ... oh wait, the 4 minutes of tv i catch per week (apart from the weekly 20 minutes choirs in churches i watch with my mom) had an asn thing .. not at all making any connection of the diversity of money to same of politics ... so .. another disconnect, fail, missed chance.

Yall ought to stop taking changes and me instead if you ask the service you are ... hopefully not staring or balking .. but simple ARE @ watching this (124th) youtube.com/watch?v=lQubSEsLH3Q 6th comment i am thinking that the wall might turn out to be not quite so self serving as it seems, just turn the entitlements around, palestinians in charge of the wall, a safety zone on the other side where zionists get shot at if moving within bullet range, etcetera. zionism needs to either be fully contained or fully dispersed. jewish blood diluted once and for all. They tampered with demographics around the world, surely it is our turn and we can dampen and temper theirs for a while .. so they don't grow out of their great big and handy wall now you know ... long live monasticism, hermits and keeping water clean as well as fairly shared.

The 'any day now' part is the loaded gun thing, the 'hodosporadikitty'.

I'll give you a quick and dirty example of perceived leadership in a minit, no lack of those who think they are responsible for and capable of decision, departure, (be- en ontsluit, urteil) ... yet despite the obvious pointers (specially in the dutch/german etyms) manage nor mention powder and particulate stages of growth in the radically radiant sense and terms i keep aiming for (yeah, 'gunning' for - dutch root of which carries, harbours and promises the great grant of generosity in it)

Machismo likes to raise tensions (not gardeners), in the conviction that something has to snap ... not realizing a rock has all the tensility they could ever wish to tackle, detente and retensilate through and with. Prowess display opps aplenny in the course of a rock to warmest mud making day though.

Until then, them testy knot cutters pro- and invoke resolution in their own - or damn near every other conceivable - name, for some, any cause or just the hell of it. Testiots invariably testify to readiness to go off, being loaded and to stand for something at all, including most inopportune times, examples abound, listen to Les Visible or anybody in the goldbug department, everybody else on the paranoid right.

Here is a Human Shield member supposedly on one of their leaders (raising heckles and typage rates amongst desk-activists everywhere) but really applicable to all mediated manhood (whose medium falls a good few pounds too short when it comes to hitting rock head on, they leave themselves hanging to try convey the loftiness of their ... fire closeness):

"what does stick in my mind is the, number of times before it happened, how he wrote of the time for confrontation drawing near."

A fuller account of the 550K file (palestinethinktank thread with 169 comment from december 6th to most of januari is here: babble box 'cutter')

The incredibly concentrated discipline it takes to contain them, the morale ho(l)ding them up, focused on the blissful arrival and unerringly keeping on coure towards it, linear as can be, is reflected in feathers, harnas or the type of armour, all depending on the era and locale. you ostentatiously bear up under .. what ... 30 pounds worth is it? .. on that recent vid?

a reply from 'Godsend': Go and have "fun" somewhere else! <http://kenokeefe.wordpress.com/2011/02/15/the-egypt-under-mubarak-blockade-of-gaza-is-dying/#comment-1246> pretend you didn't say that and try to read this: Searched in vain -- site:xymphora.blogspot.com godsend rowan = 0 results, ... so people cannot really check what i will be asserting here ..

Godsend, i must hasten to add that i too have been known to go for 10 little comments in a row at places i felt at home, so i understand and do not wish to offend or stop you if the owner doesn't. I might try tempt you with what i consider better use of you time though.

Honesty commands me to admit that I more than you may have been the precariously balanced and loaded bucket tipping drop 'drip-dribblin' into X's convo-crowd back then. But then again, RB had shown and been known to storm off in a temper for a cool-down someplace else, only logical and natural really, all that entirely without me anywhere near. He pretty much writes publically on his own place now with rare exceptions, as far as i know and i have been banned there for years, proly from since before the demise of lively debates and 'informage' at xymphora

Rowan has resorted to pulling quotes that were sorta flattened into texts out into blockquotes. ... my insistence on NOT doing that and colourfulness (not solely to protect sources i can assure you) on top of that one of the waysAnother thing he has resorted to mining a sense of usefulness from is to replace the word american with USAian.

<http://indexterity.blogspot.com/2011/02/comment-continued.html>

Come to think of it, if you look as whities as halfway to asia (USaSian?) the watery way (the overland one had been done to death) ... and it would be going against prevailing traffic in a way (read Weatherford on the mongols) just yesterday i examined how smoothly asians adopt indian ways, in Manipur they mouth and mimic mainstream India a whole lot faster than actually look anything like it, aint that like turkish sounding mongolians? I will return to Manipur in a minute.

a song called Gun by Todd Rundgren - Album: Arena

metrolyrics.com/gun-lyrics-todd-rundgren.html When tribulation makes me need to unwind And pierce the air like I'm in Palestine Here's my gun This is my rifle, this is my gun This is for fighting and this is for fun I hate to gush but I'm your biggest fan I really love the way you fit my hand You're with me always like a wedding band More than a friend to me, my true identity You're smooth and hard and that's the way you stay

Todd making fun of the fighting fetishism Is this a beat that can be used for a step by step people's army?? A lockstep or a rock step? another song on that album goes: why not here why not now, why not today ... today's the day we're gonna settle our scores .. bycause tomorrow we are gonna wake up even

Or would banging and grinding rocks together over one's head do the trick? Beware flying splinters and bounce off (the most innocent form of blow-back totally betrayed and abandoned by the 'defense' industry .. How far back did Orwell trace that 'usage' [/abuse]? Or did he?)

Aint the most ethical hebrews, rare pearls in a sea of biblical camelslop on (such dubious) record to have had a thing for ashes? Wasn't all easy ashes was it? They weren't all pyromaniacs i trust .. but then again, nor are they famous for insisting on 'nobody for president' and 'afforestation (groves, orchards, treehousing projects) for legacy' are they?

But can we blame them for actively suppressing such reputé? And if so then what? Blame them for white skin in america, Oz, etcetera? Holy book crowders, voice boomers, abused to 'order' ammo rather than blow minds. Are a few herds, dumbled scared and tired enough to spend their days in ammo factories enough to spoil a little little glob (ul)e like ours, like the proverbial bad apple provisioners neglect to remove from the pile?

it's not unimaginable that ([pre]dominance of) a meme like 'women and children first' will sooner or later have the opposite number of such birthing (deathing?) as (inescapable?) consequence: 'martyrs for firing lines' .. unless they are not specially partial to young and tender, including the sewage digesting oxides, that staple for the bottom rungs and humble beginnings of all chains of life and being. Such a people, an accomplished enough band or tribe or gardening guerrilla with permaculture credentials known to even the remotest of their brethren, is not known to me, other than in limbo, the liminal conceptual promisory potency one must accord even the most offended, mocked, betrayed and nearly washed out memory of better days.

i'd grant all tiny grouplets 'gunning' for that all the demographic incontinence they thus afford ... but i despair of getting the cheaters out of the way.

It's like Middle Eastern semites and semi-semites repel each other and drift apart only to meet a full fool's errand round later.

Settle chore = sprinkle the dust across the sewage, render it orderless, preserve the precious compounds ... fertilizer anybody???

Settle chore vs stettle whore

i wonder how long we must wait (around) before revolutions start implying, not drawing lines anew but withdrawing from them, secession .. not ghetto like but as a self-sufficiency AND inviolability measure written into international law AND enforced ... the need for that is obvious for anybody who looks at this area .. and i do not care if they choose to judge by a scope of decades or centuries.

Manipur has an endangered deer with a beautiful rack ... it tells me volumes about the status of noman's land .. not man's (but animal's) land, it vanishes as the borders sharpen and ever sharper shots ring, no matter what language they sing. Installing asian authoritarianism anybody? Andrew Lehman has fun little orientalist 8fold mating and matching schemes on that by the way (neoteny.org)

Where IS the truly white way of sparing no effort and expense for (enhancement and nurture of) noman's land, vying for the honourable title 'lord of animals', every little township it's own league, entirely replacing militance or the goofy footballery ... quite as gay as the banned superbowl ad (good old dutch insurance salesmanship was a bridge too far but mercifully, youtube can take it to 2 miljan people). Any expression of superiority, haughtiness, put down, irredeemability is evidence of contamination with the enemy's arms. Under no none of all possible circumstances are we to use the enemy's methods (soft nor hardwares). Why do you think they get away with a 'Dresden was justified', 'Gaza was a ok'. Well, they rip the denigration out of your hands and use it against you. there is no progress except through temptation. An industry on lockdown (hollowhood) almost as much as Palestine is. True simple truth imaginatively rendered is left nudged pushed to and over the margins without any qualms.

The 'degenerate art' call the nazis made and all that greenishness the vote for them promised and called for was totally betrayed, sacrificed, sold out and slaughtered by the jew and what their 'advance' (financial) forces managed to make Hitler do.

Nevertheless, outmouthing is always reactionary, and using it, like any trojan they slip you, defeatist and counterproductive.

easy for me to say here .. now .. instead of in an all bets 'offing', under fire situation. This realization makes my admiration for Ken that much keener.

Not for nothing did Ken harp on having no use for and having made no use of what he took from his waylayers (a forward thinker would prepare a cache in order to negotiate stuff ... like reciprocal return of property ... if no better agreement [like arms conversion#] than that each be returned their own devices [and return to their own vices] can be reached).

This gets the masses behind you. Show you are stern and principled but not out to kill.

Failing on that front, even if only occasionally and/or in an unmenacing tone is what makes (jew-critical) folks like Alex Linder and Craig Cobb so pitifully marginal and ineffective against their target. Actually, they do it on purpose just as much as they feel [and their constituency does .. that] gun flaunt and flourish is virtuous or something .. like Todd sings. But ... something to be said for everybody being everything part time, down with professionals and work, up with amateurs and hobbies. down with private subscriptions and armies of paperboys, up with libraries/social centres.

So i admire the honour seeking facing off with militance of somebody with a military training ... rather than like mary, suspecting Ken of seeking militance for its own sake, a closet addict to mayhem and megalomania, plagued by vision of it and pretending it's a yearning for justice, like much of the white right does.

#i have some newsletters from the eighties i could show you and see my ideas of the hardware needed to pull of a musical rock grinder act in the festive spirit such an effort so richly deserves and is denied and detracted from by the Bolshiwood wherewithall crowd.

So, .. yet again, ... more and more lately, a piece of writing (which proolly) nobody will get to see. Perhaps the disembodied ones take special comfort and potency from such work. Here's to another gamble on that. Craig would rather suck on a Lara 'up to my waist in sewage' Logan turd - she loves neglecting to tell her banger he's holed up wrong, pounding her shit back up to her belly button again - than glance at my LogosPerMaTeCause long enough to let up on his shilling for white supremacy, just like his colleague Logan (in)

What have either of you ever done to emphasize a need for and suggest ways towards a 'future flag' operation that shows how to fight fair and voluntarily. Volunteering to fight is only half the story. To be fully honourable one must also volunteer to fight FAIRLY!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Y'old voluntarized fight, an ugly but proolly necessary stage towards obsolescing fights altogether. Not out of, these days, on multiple grounds, extremely justifiable grounds of taking fright .. but because your mercurial wings begin to work (another imagination takes flight, ready to defuse the causes for serious[ly {and rapidly diabolicizing} Arm] Harm altogether).

I ranted for years about ignoring and bypassing (laten verkommenen) conveniently centralizing but disastrously obscure elite-issued non-transparent means of payment.

Perhaps the principle is more applicable to the backyardization of glamour and attraction. Localize your special effects.

Detox the military, politicize free-fighting voluntarize and dress the impulse down to matters of pure weight as follows: All contestants are weightpooled for challenging rights -- weightmatch grants challenging rights. All bets are on - whether the challenge is gonna be accepted or even when for all i care, etcetera. Candidates from/with regional conflicts will attract territorial (and remoter ones, monetary) stakes. Ring assignment and ringside ticket sales do not begin until challenge acceptance but promptly thereupon. How difficult is all this?

about Craig's last few posts: what about your yearning for fellow souldyers dude? It's an aim that strives to collectivize you phony fuck! And not a liddul cute one either. What you're doing might be 'free' speech but it aint appealing speech. It does in fact disgust, threaten life and limb, grievous bodily harm - a suggestive hopper, shake and nudge of the constituency to see if any of the halfwit nutters won't be rattled into volunteering for a tragic herohood. You are chronically bent on holding on to the joking general card yet play it also, a pretend play cause your refusal to yield it back to the deck for a fair shake has interrupted the game. Besides, making the joker into a general is the subject of modern horror haven't you noticed? That shtick is a most sad (mossad) (p)oxymoron You just had to do anothere post that glorifies militarism as a solution diddunyou? What if america had occupied 10 square miles of desert in say Iraq in 2002, protected the hi-tec hell out of it in order to turn it green and make it smell nice had turned it into a shangri-la to which invitations and free transport were extended in all directions?????

What is awful curious is that this account has the best reading from that book i found so far. Talk about double facedness, it has lots of Hitch the war-drummer.

America is 'a me rocka', a reel shocka, a den of 'behind the curtain' (and most of the decisive ones from behind the curtain too) jew directors.

A NAZI is a word that describes George W best in my opinion. The type of person who willingly more than knowingly, likes to take orders and cater to the desires of jews. All people have a choice of taskmasters and they range from a full range of/in hollywood platters (one and all the once and for all (over [[and over]] again) the fool range, quite enjoyable and remunerative for those who manage to blind themselves to the truth of the matter)

state power is always in a hurry to tempt their young into cowardly acts so they have a shame vantage over them. Those shamed have a tougher time shaming the shamers than those as yet not succumbed.

last nite i saw my mom watching emoTV .. showing shocking (african) starvation levels and claiming it would be o so easy to help these children and that every single one of them deserved it and/or has a right to be here .. and in de (- if not moral com)mand, or something to that effect. ----- I wondered what sort of 'fucking' justification game was being played here. One that does 'have a prayer' obviously. This 'beggarmanship' even constitutes a source of national pride (not to be confused with the other vakmanschap: baggermanschap. Also compare a site i found yesterday, trying to kindle national shame: 'dontpaytopray').

----- Short (and crude, waaaay too personal and therefore kind of really irrelevant not to mention irreverent) answer kept growing to rival the long one (below): case of black dick envy.
Anyway, what went through my head at that moment (and seeded this rant) was: yeah, the undernourished suckling, most likely, has at least a little better balance of innocence than his father does, but only just. I mean ... how is that man to take the ravages some aliens made of his place into account to the point where it all 'gives him pause' as the saying goes?

Not that a pause taken pans out very well. There are races (of races even, swallowing other whole and wallowing in others wholly unheeding of dire consequences) who always find, and even and/or especially if and when not, pretend to, reasons to feed their wrok en wraakoefening, go after, or if displaced by them aliens, get back to and make them pay. On that note, perhaps i should root for world champs demographic incontinence*, the Izzies, to chain ('their' [[too close!]] rivals) Pallies and everybody else to the compost heap with oldfashioned linkage, rather than, as i have been doing of late, the other way around Either way, time for a kind of 'retente', a trans-armamentation, i'll get back to that, but first, given i wear the skincolour of those aliens who am i to call his response to 'calls of nature' totally irresponsible? ----- The call of nature, is that something like 'coin of the realm', or 'lord of animals', something archaic? ----- Not to beat around the burning bush, i am talking coitus here, privileging those at and from the top down, whereby demographic infrastructure becomes top-heavy, even among the down and out dirt-poor.

----- * - That is to say, needs/urges of multi-cellers take and/or get right of way over the simpler and/YET more numerous ones (and every way you weigh it, quite apart from democratic meterages like bulk weight or something, more decisive). ----- If democracy was the intended cure for this hemorrhage and erosion, it failed. This is the, not legitimate but resonant reason the west has sympathy for drought, famine and demographic pressure stricken regions of africa, both push carrying capacity past breakdown point in their own way. Lester Brown does not put in cheerier terms either. ----- And that he ignores the neoteny theme, just like most analysts do, is the specially depressing factor in this and other ScarCity problems to me.
Neoteny?? Oh, .. that's easy, read Andrew Lehman, the gist and upshot of which is birth-control (and 'early stagewomanshipshapes') taken from the more long term oriented females by the 'fiercies' hoping to feed their fireline fodder or strenghten their spear hurling arm (ie)s or whatever, rather than try to stretch the state of play (comfexity?) further and further into life-cycles in unison (the strike/stroke capabilities here are as short circuiting and impotent when it comes to curing violence as a headscarf is effectively containing dust problems).

Far from honest fist making and team work, these efforts rapidly degenerate into misranking needs and needies,
'progress' that is pretend only, faked, a house of card structure, sure to not simply (pantpant, pantsdown pantsdown) COME but tot COME DOWN if you are deaf to the needs of supporting bottom layers and tiers (single-cellers), this ecological irresponsibility shows democracy to be sham, an invaded, corrupted, emptied, co-opted empty shell, a front as well as an affront, more of them are inclined to rape women than sticking their dicks in a juicy ass or much better yet, a nice warm perfectly hydrated fresh dustpool, see how much sperm that type of mudbath will take before you can smell it. All depends on how zealous our eager males will be to make their thrusts and how they time ritual renewal of the mud (freshest possible, yeah, talking that newly wetted primordial rock jive again, you got a pelvis with that?). ----- That will surely include high profile and rapturous celebration of spreading 'spent' mud on a patch reserved for women's feeding rights (it will be like money in the bank but better), well guarded enough so no whities 40.000 km are gonna have any credibility left the moment they open their mouths to pretend a say in and over it, let alone be totally vital to it's very existence.

long answer: These appeals to morality intended to make charity look a lot nobler than begging - aim to, on the contrary, seem downright magnanimous even. WE feed the world, WE're not just the salt or leaven of it, no, WE can pick and choose a chosen few, WE mediators for this or that group have set a trap
... ehrrr, opened this her 'bonkacunt' for you. ----- In a deeper sense this abominable shlock performance is an age old dependency tricks, far from leveling between highly and not succesful breadwinnerism (nivelleren), it really trips up any autonomating sense of the gradient between suffering and sufficiency, since the latter would prudently buffer for crises, always aiming to deepen soil accounts and stabilize it with perrennials if not centennials, like the savages used to, etcetera. But no, democracy equates to imperialism, clearcuts

It's a neat post-colonial trick to justify by hindsight way past actual colonialism, .. or is it ... a (n intercontinental) continuity beyond the grave???? ----- Emergency aid blitzes fish for pledges and often make a real show of it, (emo-urgent display with a vulgarity that resembles horniness, a non-selfish[?]) version of the 'jewist' mindset) a reputation game that performs defiantly in competition with news about undeliverables, perilously close to the rotten eggs and tomatoes stockpiles both real and figure. ----- Many a tale of previous donations that didn't make it only redoubles the efforts to solicit quick money that quickens all the way to target, opens cheerier perspectives than the hard slog and thankless task of transporting and fighting off the relatively less needy to ultimately serve the actual aid goods to a never satisfactory fraction of the more needy. The sorry spectacles and pretend leadership will continue as long as we lack fairification of contest, the double or nothing championships to fell 'give or take' tribute decisions, out in the open ... only after that will we get to the other, preferred, side of the vote, finally visible and within reach: that mudfun thing.

But then again, the British did take New York from the Dutch by slight of hand. So its little wonder then they'd create such a disturbing distortion of history of their discovery and mapping of this land, and make criminality a perverse notion of autonomy, the foundation for the national psyche. dolf

Between England and Holland runs a frontline that branches out across the world, phenomena like Owenite socialism being but one aspect of it, morphing into immense slaughter throughout eurasia, an arms-race the likes of and consequences whereof are myhypothesized with stories about meteorite belts being a blown up planet. universe-in-libya.html Madsen claims the rebels are the true imperial supremacists, racists, sneaky capitalists and outright thieves (includes Al-Qaida, formerly tortured by, now fighting alongside the CIA, 'ironically', Madsen remarks. Hmmm). Rowan reports on this 'in neutral', a rarity.

He claims this 2010 Pilger vid is fairly rare:
<http://niqnaq.wordpress.com/2011/06/12/john-pilger-the-war-you-dont-see-2010/>

a few days later i learn (via Dre) that Pilger got a last minute cancel note for a big lefty todo in Santa Fe from the head sponsor himself.

Geert Mak in his expensive docu (in europa), well stocked with historical footage, blames Hitler for everything, but for all the wrong reasons. Not for failing to to be consistent and see the very same fractioning and splinters in the alphabet to begin with, nor for failing to stick with his autonomy program and give it depth through investment in all the German virtues a heavy industry of rock grinders would accomplish .. and instead begin mouthing kahalian/communist imperialist/colonialist expansionary ideas and accepting the funding /raw materials to begin constructing the tools of THAT 'trade' (raid!) instead!! He let zionist crony capitalism and it's bomb building epitome, the old (for i know and care pre-semitic, the other side of my own semi-semiticality) class of war-enablers walk all over and into him, speak through him, betraying himself to the very forces he claimed and purported to agitate against. That should have taught him a thing or two about the entartitude of the alphabet right there!!!!!!

ps, starry eyed question: how long would it take to trace a solid black band around the earth if you used a marker on a globe and let the occultation clock run .. forget the right word .. and would the line be continuous and how much overlap would happen?

The news: 13.000 dollar domain names are on sale, with truthwise hi standards. Figure donit? Truth is costly otherwise the subverters and underminers are bought off too easily. It's always under siege, in danger of hi-jacking, beset by snags and instrumentalizers, abusing it as bait in a trap, like the Proverbs in the Bible (though even that chapter is only halfway (split) on the decency front).

Just to humour my staple argument lines and extend my lead into left field by another loopdeleap unbinding ...

ontbinden is, like huishouden, a very polarized word, emptied, hollowed, charged and charged for to extortive and exterminative extents and extremes - skirtscore.

... let me say that whites were eager to enter the entitlement sweepstakes as easily as asians gambling away family members into slavery. The speculative torah (torahge? torahnt? Would that work better than semitosis?) It means upping demographic and geographic (geometric) growth rates and extensivities. Seeing through screens (matrices) instead of seeing to screenage of rock!!! The subjection rackets and gimmicks, mannerisms and buzzwords complex ... (as/the) legitimized raiser and rever of appetite as eraser and irrever of conscience, of temporary expedient and expendable prey.

Michael Dorris wrote a realistically all american imperial and at root arrogant book, cyphering the jewcyperian culprit out (stampeding whites into the red zone as they themselves, instead of repairing deserts, stampeded into various green zones). Dorris may have besides, claiming authorship, taken the blame a little too literally, personally, scapegoatishly. He bowed out of all sorts of tensions and fields of contentions, alcoholism for one, described in some detail but without the necessary depth (Biblical Joseph the disowner vs Biblical fleshpot Prodigal dialectic, iow, jews in the grain spirits industries).

Nowadays this tribe thrives on remixing in that (say mold) same old mode but great care is taken to do it one way, centrifugally, not -petally, so as not to endanger the dangerousness of the rotten core and it's capacity up and down the scales of cruelty, from the knife to slaughter kosherly to the modern coinshaving hi-freq tradewreck software the torture never stops.

Sound like the dutch Norman Finkelstein yet? Sure Betsja .. and there's more:

Tectonic remixage is the oldest game on terraforming atmosphere capable planets. This figures and feeds, reconfigures and kindles needs and bleeds. Fine. Good soil is a mountaintop on its way to an ocean floor.

Skim, harvest, pick and choose all you want until a limit is reached goes for all. But the Jewcypherian rebels and likes to rev things up a bit, get some excitement and stratification going. Public displays of dupieness and damn the torpid OOOOs.

Their 'mimitations' meet no such standards other than sterilized versions as thunderstealing labels, 'goede sier makende' (=appealing) baubels, brag show and bait items. Their tradition is to betray a vital and much more ancient one, blocking access, hiding the ball, stopping the game, wherewith (poor insecure traumatized buggers*) they do shoot themselves in the piscean clay foot, undercut, ration and meter the dwindling supplies they control in order to control still more and they rather poison the rest than leave it alone (dubious demarcation if ever there was one (since poison travels [[35% higher childbirth deaths on the west coast of occupied turtle island since fukushima anybody? Oops, reality already, .. now wait, what CAN i scare some sense into you with?]]), but once your mind works in this accumulation mode all measure is lost).

Witness the most sensible and practical, indeed formerly practiced, dating of money (yes, the stuff has a lifecycle even if you pretend it doesn't, if anything this fact of life is pumped for more and more pronounced shockvalue .. that Joseph thing again).

* If we had been taught about expulsions and monetary history ... hitler's switch from infrastructure to armament even before he got to do anything green (thus making a nazi selling point into a broken promise) .. instead of dubious and wrongdoing further east cloaking and lightning rodding holocaustianity that last point would be not escape common sense like the present housing crisis does. Huge profits from the building itself but all gone to waste other than a distributed monument of the haunted ghostliness of our sense of values.

Blame it on their desert breeding grounds, they can't help themselves. Blame it on a never identified comet a few (or quite a few, innumerably many maybe even) ice ages ago.

added the 26th: Jesus is a pale piscean pawn and reflection of the royalty Cernunnos is and was, in the process of transferring that green rule of thumb (throb rub, to set atremble aflutter and alive hellish death, the under thunder thumb) down into deserts, the whole message got severely mangled and flipped.

a choice bit i just tweaked, originally written the 5th (or 6th) of februari 2004 [\[\[in semitosis04\]\]](#) and posted on brainstorms.rheingold.com:

sense of racism (transracial parametrics) Marx meant (n [[m]]intended) when he said 'we'r all jews now'

Yesterday i inserted an often recurring and occasionally recorded thought into a (then) 6 days old piece, to wit, that the translation of Cernunnos (matriarchal teutonian Green thumbitude, meriting penetration of deserts, especially those to which anthropogenic factors contributed) into Semitic terms, clashed with missionary/expansive zeals running counter to it (it 'went south' as the saying has it as well as literally).

To wit, the semitations recognized the operative principles in the act resulting in rock turned to food, credit to money, abstracted them and applied them to emphasize bias, iow, they went :

'fuck off, leave us alone (we will invade and abandon whom we like and don't respectively, we're the arbiters of favor dontsjaNoo??) we have no obligation to repair ravaged forests, reverse desertifications and all that. We take the gift given and intended to help us with that chore - expand rock to throw [\[\[not just\]\]](#) light [\[\[but water as well\]\]](#) on it, not just on but in and through to (into and through) it - alrite, but emergency operate on it and apply it's operational principle after degrading to mere decontextualized abducted mechanism suited, subjected and enslaved to serve not life in general venerable macro-tradition terms but to serve bias, via/through all sorts of savantically kept cropped and closely kept bookerism, bookiebizzm and for shitshureshort bookskism constructions'.

checking this ppc-3 file (from 08 with material from 04) i run into quite a few places where i remark negatively on this affect turned infect aspect (Biblical leaven and grains of sand similes applied to their own outrageously, not across the (dotted) line and board, garden variotous demographics).

It's a prime useful tidbit of knowledge that will help Semites to achieve hegemony in the real pollution fighting bizz* as the best way to screw their entitlement crazes and delusions back in a few pegs further down, closer to the rest of us/them.

jews started to spread, share and let go of their alphabet when they 'progressed' from being merely (nascently, emergently) to being primarily numerate ... a bit like the US fopping off it's previous generation military equipment to the client states, setting them up as minable and terminable (obombable sosamable) 'recycling' stations and target practice ranges (the UK [\[\[empire phase\]\]](#) pioneered this [\[\[air support/campaigning\]\]](#) in the twenties). Where next can the west invest .. eh .. infest, carry the semitomeme forward, widen the deserts?

Aboutaleb (same name as the Rotterdam mayor -- photos Pieter Hugo - 35 year old South African exposing in Rotterdam and Amsterdam - Cokkie Snoei galleries another 4 days).

Thus we not only cause the desertifications but also export the drawbacks and disservices of one's industrialized savantisms onto/upon those who have every right to stop us and thus qualify themselves for preemptive and practice and gunshow strikes. GibGas!!

I hope i made clear that Agboglobloshie suffers the very real precipitate and material results triggered by a casting off and projection of sins, a rejection of self purging .. flipped into harassing others .. though what they really are and all along were up against (mobilizing half the world to fight it, once safely and securely transpositioned just as firmly rebaptized, remains nobody's but their own 'terrorism').

Agboglobloshie is burdened by the downside of indulgence in shortcut, selectiveness, cutting ground waste (perversion of what compost heapings can do ... pickiness of the spoiled, obsessed with oily spoil).

The ground, the beginning .. discarded, disrespected, dethroned.

Helping rocks to dance and admire the swirl of dustladen drops into the clear (ly) hungry for it, casting glamglances on the progress of hi-polish ... all that would be the opposite and constitutes all above ground, legit and joyful forms of the grind.

Down with the nose up in arms against offenses. Stop the offenses and give the nose a respite, encourage it to stop swelling with up in armyness. A slight tweak of coinshavery and presto, there you have my rock face marble liddul wheel giggly bod smoothity.

no way to measure the top down testy terror Breivik hated what he knew to be defenseless against psychichally ... thus he knew what he'd fall victim to, acting exactly like his worst enemy (perhaps feeling he'd be admired for it in a generation or 2 and mobilize for battle by womb also).

We all and anybody knows deep down that fear compulses to let in, mime mimic and imitate. Stockholm syndrome and all that. The now now boom boom impatience Breivik displayed is a hunter, house party and gamer symptom used to bolster and express the sentiments that are the opposite in every way,

The talent for cultural relativism is a totally tabooed censured, hunted down and threatened one. That leaves those of us informed and fed by perspectives that flow up from taproots longer and wellheads much deeper than average ... no this is not an oppression expressing elitist remark .. simply one denoting the function of time/distance .. and adding a fifth, a human dimension to set harmony aflow and free to fly ... only a handful in a billion know how to conceptualize their feelings. Andrew Lehman (neoteny.org is such a man, read his free book). This many many generation deep echo from the deep past of their psyches (melancholic nostalgic intimate warm) causes the aversion to present harshness, glare and severity. Only those of us note such differences who can 'dis cuss' (take away the curse of) suffering and instead enjoy the dubious and mixed, difficult to deal with blessing of being assimilee offspring (sprung off assimilees, descendants of recent immigrants) who got close enough to mate but have remote origins not just culturewise but biologically, that is to say, disparate enough parents* to hear those echos from the crossroads (times when very different levels of testie and estie jostled for position, splashed and sloshed around), the split of the respective family branches (the branching off point in that hominid primate mammal reptile and rocked up space uniting, harbouring aborning and encompassing tree), the terror they feel about not sharing this, the impossibility to convey these feelings causes a flight to and yet an equivalence in their actions.

That last portion in blue redone in bold grey: Wether cultural circumstance turns it into a point of pride or shame, either way, it takes and will continue to take disparate parents* to hear echos from the physical crossroads of their forebears ..even though what might have been highland then may be ocean floor now.

The split of most folk's family branches is relatively close, uncomfortably so in the case of inbreeding incest and all that. -

Zappa by the way, had great sympathy for the dutch cause he was deflating nivellating like Theo v Gogh, harking back to equality and sharability without which drying out and gaining any ground from waterways efforts are futile and leaky.

Follow branch off points back for a while with me, join the mental excursion, exertion and descend the hominid primate mammal reptile and rocked up space tree with me. Yes it can and does unite, harbour aborn and encompass all of that and us.

Keep moist and green in your mind long enough together with desertified regions and you will realize it's not a good idea to mix indiscriminately. Those traumatized and acculturated by latter may not be healed and restored by but actually constitute an accute danger to the former.

Much depends on the status allotted and help afforded folks like me and the much much more misfortunate multicultural skeptics like Anders

In his case i guess his testy levels had him live under and in his internal terror too much to get very much perspective beyond shallow hallow battle ground ones, let alone pacifist ones.

One needs to resolutely be able to equate the monotheisms with each other and monocultures and redefine multicultures in a micro and garden culture manner PLUS realize what role rock dust has to play in formation of culture between soil and toil. Even that much might prove in vain unless you can spot the foil on top of that.

I'd like to hear Anders, wonder if he makes an impression similar to the one i get from Craig Cobb ... and besides, i have the nagging feeling i ran into this guy someplace over the last 10 years .. but can't remember where.

If he really means to pitch tec against wombwars rather than inspire and train the owners and/or rulers them to peace i condemn his deeds doubly.

He found it not impossible to convey his feelings and wasn't fleeing them into actions, they prolly were a perfect reflection and equivalence of his feelings.

You'd have to be blinded with bias to call those with my type of blood quotient 'well assimilated' when they at the same time hew to semitoid memes and tote the Bible around, the battleground and recipe book of mistaking identity. I simply draw the line at mass migrations wich i do not approve of. And with a voluntarity quotient never before seen. Not to mention the voluntarizing issue. pinkwashingisrael.com/arab-queers-say-no-to-pinkwashing-at-the-ussf/

"Pinkwashing" is usually used in the context of Israel's trumpeting of its progressive position on LGBT rights as a distraction and cover-up for its human rights abuses of Palestinians. ?In general it might be defined as a state's pointing to its enshrinement of LGBT rights as a way of dignifying and legitimizing the oppression of other groups of people. Here's another perspective from a queer Arab group:?

he's saying that it sounds a bit like when western u.s. men chide western feminists: "oh, shut up. At least you're not wearing burkas and > you can drive." ---- It creates a hierarchy of who is more oppressed because, underlying most western marxist and western marxish politics, there's the endless search for the subject of history - the "most oppressed" class which is supposed to truly understand how to struggle against capitalism and with whom we must align ourselves.

so, when you're in the grip of such thinking -- which some people (perhaps many?) do find very persuasive and defensible -- you just tend to think that political struggle in the u.s. is a total waste of time because it is over silly and unimportant things considering that people are way more oppressor (tm) everywhere else. -- shag most pressurized, tensed and froze to the point of paralysis phenomena in stock, is of course, rock, and regularly oppressed too, by being denied agency, rights, development, the whole shebang. Disallowed to feed, structure and together with flightier less congealed forms of light, inform the finest, fondleablest of softwear, humblest, littlest most vulnerable, yet. most. numberlessly. numerous. constituents. of. any. democracy. that. is. not. merely. abuse. of. that. word.

if you do have a grip on such thickening (the tides of thick and thin, you know, ... that funny marriage ingredient?) and can call yourself a grippie (haven't i gone over this with you before? Sure makes it thankless to see the results, or NO results rather).

And yes, if all you knowble and nolegible political strugglers would even allow yourself to become aware of this, you'd nevertheless continue to dismiss it as 'silly and unimportant' and continue to reserve the press, the pressure and all de-, ex, im- and oppression for as well as take it as a call to arms, amen and don't pass the handouts too far down or up.

> But think of how often and multiply they get laid!

but they are asexual! so even if they are born that way - born to be kinky and born to be polyamorous - they aren't interested in fucking. and in spite of all this criticism of our puritan roots didn't you know that it sucks sucks sucks to be asexual in this society. it's a legitimate sexual identity and people are sick sick sick of the constant assumption that the goal in life is to have sex sex sex damn it! it is not that i'm a prude. it is not that i hate sex. i just don't want sex and if someone doesn't recognize the legitimacy of my identity and my right to be the only person who speaks about the legitimacy of that oppression and the only person who can ever actually say anything about it and who should never ever have to endure a question or criticism of anything about it i'm gonna explode. sheesh shag

(all of which is not say, for the benefit of newbs to this list, that i am hostile to identity politics. i have a sympathetic critique of id politics, it just isn't the critique a lot of folks on this list and lefties in general tend to dole out. kthnxbai) ... end 80FF80 hilite

I am so thankful to people who are bold enough to speak out on these issues. The Jews are behind this economic trouble we are having now and they are behind the increase in high fuel cost. All of our money issues are due to them and they are making billions on top of billions off of our economy. That 700 Billion bailout was their idea not Obama's. IRS is their brainchild and so is the FEDRESRV and if i could i would spit in Truman's face for how he sold this country out to them. JFK saw them? for who they were and refused to play ball so they had him killed, and Bobby.

And what if there are more and more and more Jews in Hollywood? Might it tell the story that they are actually more talented and gifted than non-Jews? Let's face it, if they don't draw people into the cinemas then they don't last long in Hollywood, do they? For level-minded and sane people it's not about their religion, it's about their talent and pulling power. I'm sure there aren't many people sat in cinemas enjoying the movie but thinking.. I wish he/she wasn't a Jew.... no, not likely.

Please? stop trying to incite hatred/fear. Good actors are good actors, irregardless of their religion. -----

Oh...and not only that on his YouTube account titled NationalPopulism, he's overtly an admirer of Adolf Hitler. And also in a Marxist-like tone he also lists some of his closet hateful bigot friends to be "cormades" such as YouTuber known as PanFascist85 whom aside from being a proponent of Nazism and Fascism is also a proponent for the Palestinian cause.

This black National Socialist is also friends with many Communists like 1949FUCKUSA, a supporter of totalitarian Communist government of China, and a general proponent of Communism in Asia. Aside from that from being friends of run of the mill Communist and neo-Nazis, he's also friends with 9/11 "Truthers" such as bradleyc79 whom has stupidly put his full name and email in full view. He happily endorses all of Alex Jones' misinformation on 9/11 and also promotes the "Planet X" conspiracy theory.

Isn't this the obvious? Neo-Nazis, Communists and self-hating American "Truthers" are just one bunch of unholy Obvious Traitors.

Blogger Post-Continental Satyr zei...

That Rabbi is exposed in her bourgeois lace to the gaze of the exploitative male heterosexual spectator such as yourself, is aimed at critiquing her pseudo-socialist and pseudo-feminist views. The discord between her "radical" posturing, and her allegiance with bourgeois exploitation, is the subject of that parody - not the sexual arousal of readers. But you took it further into the realm of hetero pornography, including a scene of multiple fucking, which has nothing to do with the Rabbi Chabert brand! In this you exposed how horny you really are, but that has nothing to do with your JOB!

But I think it's a good bet, because she pushes the familiar (like Seymour Lenin) brand of 'identity politics' which passes for 'left' now, but is actually anti-majoritarian i.e. anti-democracy -

Yes her collaborationism consists precisely of this. She defends blacks, gays, women, et cetera from capitalist exploitation and abuse, but has nothing against Commie oligarchs for example; with her currency tradeuring business she is aligned with capitalist oligarchs. And this answers your other question, about world conquest: since the heiress has everything she could possibly want, the only thing that remains is for her to get ALL.

2 september 2011 03:09 Blogger Post-Continental Satyr: Lafayette, this is much better; the structure is good; the vampire genre dovetails neatly with the Rabbi; you still have a problem with stylistics. I'm giving some hints, but I'm not going to do your WURK for ya.

"level" is for video games, here we're talking about a "dimension" - and then if you wanted to do something like BLAKE'S SEVEN you'd have to add something like "a dimension where all good intentions disappear in the mist and the putrid scent of greed marks every passenger's fatal destiny" etc

C: I'll never go hungry again!

I like this, I would add a German "capo" whom she just drained of all blood (but this is more a job for me to draw)

[Scene: (caption: Jerusalem 2011 - Lenstat the vampire - aka Leonard Cohen) plays in 'the old land', Many of 'the old ones' have turned out for the occasion, including Scarlett, now the respectable Rabbi Chabert]

Len (sings): ... fist we'll take Manhattan, then we'll take Berlin...

Leninini is no Leonard Cohen, are you NUTS. It has to be the kind of a figure who would appear on British IDOLS, and much younger.

2 september 2011 04:54 Anoniem Donna
Intertextual: I wasn't thinking of Lenin at all. I don't want involved in that, beyond maybe a very occasional recurring minor role as a media tart and MI5 protege. I'll say this for Chab: she doesn't sell 'the company line' on 9/11. I don't know what she sees in Lenin.

in Holland the expression goes 'drinking some courage in (to oneself)'. but that doesn't result in expression dangerous big truths as a matter of course, let alone articulately. Dangerous petty truths perhaps yes, but i am actually suprised the big one don't happen more often and the fact that jews had such a big hand in the whole chain of events leading to spirits and right up to serving it (russsian jew run taverns are mentioned by Solshenitsyn, and in his case that means documented) not to mention beyond it, acquiring collateral, piling debts, disabling the farmer further with more of the stuff, then claim on his lapsed commitment and consfiscate his property. Off you go to the next jew, the industrial financier, better hurry before the factory into at least socially still more wretched territory

quite a vicious circle to succumb to jew medicine (duh poison! see jewdasDcom .. and he aint even taking the step from grain market to spirits) to tell the truth about the turfNtower religion (well, best of each i guess, seeing how fucking invincibly rapacious they have been for thousands [[and thousands]] of years, our semis, besting the others and bocknfarching between caulk- and straight asians, who can gainsay it?)

The Jewish Double Standard For Race --- DivineFellowship

@justbeingman --- "Jewish religion, culture, and family are intertwined." ---|||--- White religion, culture, & family were entertwined for centuries also. You didn't like it, so weakened them thru cultural movements/propaganda -- while preserving them for yourselves. Rare converts are not seen as authentic.
Jews with no religious interest say "I'm Jewish." YOU COVERTLY PRESERVE RACE WHILE RE-EDUCATING

WHITES TO ABANDON THEIRS. You throw a hissy fit wherever you see a preponderance of Whites.

Hah. The multi-culties and Maxists never said that "integrating," back in the 1960's, had to entail self-destruction, loss of the diverse ethnicities, or of the White race. But of course, many intuited and reasoned that it would, and thus were against it. I'm for a diverse world of peoples. Just not Jews being the only ones who get to have peoplehood and a blood nation.

8th of september Why race realism is unscientific

This isn't a "science can't tell us anything about /insert politically sacred cow here/" anti-reductionist diatribe. Behavioural genetics, for example, is a proper science which can inform human psychology. However, as one would expect from a proper science, its grammatical subjects are a great deal more precise than "black people..." or "white people..."; and its predicates are a great deal more refined than "... have a tendency for violence" or "... have a tendency for paedophilia". It is the sacrifice of detailed truth, to the broad brush of ideological zeal, that's the fatal flaw in racial realism.

With gratitude to Carrie Mae Weems and Avro Part for the theme: face images in this film are artificial syntheses of central African and northern European features. Hopefully, I've made this slow and repetitive enough to bore away adolescents of all ages.

PC-an 'ratiots' & relijizz all in one as one for all in the name of making proper distinctions, you're just taking a pass/piss right? If a religientist takes (aim and) down black and white, he must need 'm all to feed the gods he hid in his pockets to fuel his fuck up rockets @TheSorrowLives it's pathetic to see ZioNazi critics using the ZioNazi's best little secret weapon ever .. opening your mouth and/or tapping keys about 'it' are not accompaniment to deeds rid of and/or apart and emancipated from 'it', and certainly not wayclearings towards that .. this weave is too dark to see through, remember the dark fibre revolution? Squabbles over the projected profits (also known as bubbles) kept them (and everybody in the) dark ... Jews like huge factors ... unrivallable with old saws like harvests or generations ... it has to be more (than) plexexponential ... so get them to notice respect, value and appreciate rootrealm, worth of root ... their proper place is the waste industry.

There aint any jews with green thumbs for anything but fetishized and overprivileged plants gone totally fragile cause it took all that upsetting monoculture (massify what's good and meter the masses till it's no good any longer .. good for nothing but bailing from).

This deautonomization and dediversification process is realizeable with slavery only. Don't matter if all it aimed at for millenia was to celebrate the death of kings and spoil them with more than the spectacle of pyramid scheme funeral piles. It (i mean IT) makes even truth counter*productive -- diabolic E-waste the same way the sun shines on good and bad alike ...

Downtown someplace during dark, black streetpeddler shouts into girls face from armslength distance but uses a microphone and even begins to scream ... while she repeats "horrible ... horrible".

jews, a race used and abused by multiple others as their calculation machines (the sedentary cerebral life did not just subdue but also sublimate and refine testosterone levels). Most of them dreary beancountin functionaries and bureaucrats, instead of the exceptional courtjew, had to make do without context beyond personal ghetto family life. This confinement bred into them got revolted against by an also exceptional yet conspicuous fraction of these people (see '200 years together') that often spread these genes just the same, i am one of the family splitting, continuities breaking and blessings mixing 'beneficiaries' thereof meself. Or call me a victim, if you consider temporary relief ultimately counterproductive.

I am not sure in any case if i am not the result of the other way jewish and heavily culture tweaked spread. A little more about that next.

Jews were thus bound to develop a talent for grudges, engraved into their genetic bedrock make up very deeply (not indelibly but that will take very careful attention) turning a tribe into a culture to be 'reconned' with (pun intended). The numbers-in-books-kept game led to control of the ultimate inner and outer, logically: arms.

It's extreme femininity controlling masculinity.

you are sold the internet and it's billed as the stamp of approval to sniff and shake out agreement, it's the seal of empowerment. Great now you can juse word to point out jews as the evil emasculators who leave one nothing but words to object, protest and just like them expert wordmongers, be hypocritical. Now be a good little orc and whip up some circulation. Go ahead, i am jew and what else again???

the accounting trick was freely given as an early type flesh and blood share ware amongst kings and rulers (read Wittfogel to get an idea).

Hence, Jews ended up at strategic positions almost unwillingly and began to see themselves as the chosen not in the sense that they chose to become such and such or chose to go here and there but were chosen and sent hither and thither, made to become the leaven .. etcetera.

Hence my solution, the only possible and compassionate solution, a place of true honour and embeddiment .. Make Jews Be In Charge of Composting, Recycling, Detox and Pollution Prevention. The factors of gain in both monetary and goodwill terms will be astronomical. The voluntarizing potential of translating and fusing jesus/messiah with cernunnos/johnny appleseed type figures will be enormous. For an idea of what i mean there i'll add a quick and dirty ref to the content confusing title 'when santa was a shaman' (i say that cause the stupidly named book looks at tribal vs national forces and regional druids vs transnational priesthood societies ... later fused into one figure, the santa).

A Really Great Article About Occupy Wall St. In The Guardian
September 25th, 2011 · Sam · News

"We might do well to consider the collapse of the European colonial empires. It certainly did not lead to the rich successfully grabbing all the cookies, but to the creation of the modern welfare state. We don't know precisely what will come out of this round. But if the occupiers finally manage to break the 30-year stranglehold that has been placed on the human imagination, as in those first weeks after September 2008, everything will once again be on the table – and the occupiers of Wall Street and other cities around the US will have done us the greatest favour anyone possibly can."

the world can easily sustain lots of the filthy rich .. from their 'own' point of views anyways, ... but how easy will the enslaved and disowned masses necessary to bring about that polarized, stratified condition really feel about and go along with it. A harrowing, destructive loooooong time it turns out. The rich feel justified and legitimized each time somebody reads a line watched an image (moving or not) catering to pécadillos, altitudes and attitudes the rich and famous get up to. A boycott of petty laws, obligatory fees, mandatory payments and other requirements cannot happen until no-go zones become sustainable and the outrage over bombing of mere competition (places like Lybia, none even begun over that yet to speak of). We, the gentle culture potential carriers are atavistic and ... well, quite frankly, fucked.

With this passage an alert young Canary Island poet named Antonio Viana (1604) recorded his sentiments of the Guanches, a primitive band who once flourished on a rocky volcanic Atlantic island named Tenerife, the last Stone-Age aboriginal settlement of any Indo-European people.

http://www.plaintruth.com/the_plain_truth/2010/07/did-you-know-the-builder-of-the-great-pyramid-is-identified-in-the-bible.html

Even if one has accurately measured the pyramid, how are they going to know which point means which year? Davidson starts with a certain point in the Pyramid and calls it the day of the crucifixion -- -Friday, April 7, 30 A.D. Since that date is proved wrong by the Bible, all his chronology is in error.

Another takes the same point and calls it the date of the crucifixion, Friday, April 3, 33 A.D. Since that date may be proved wrong, too, his chronology errs.

In 1924, a structural engineer from England, David Davidson published a monumental work on the Great Pyramid entitled The Great Pyramid: Its Divine Message. He also believed the Great Pyramid was of divine origin and contained mathematical relations in its architecture. He also included a comprehensive prophetic time line, which also predicted biblical and secular events. He concluded that the Great Pyramid was "an expression of the Truth in structural form and that it establishes the Bible as the inspired word of God. "

from his wiki page:

British Israelism through Covenant Publishing. --- Davidson had worked with Dr. Herbert Aldersmith between 1910-1918 on his book and through Aldersmith converted to being a Christian and

los lunas rock NM

In 1871, Indians showed New Mexico rancher Franz Huning a basalt boulder on his land. The boulder had strange writing on it. The Indians told him that the rock, with its writing, had been there long before their tribes ever came to the area. Scholars were brought in to look at the rock. They identified the writing as paleo Hebrew script of the style in use between 500 and 100 B.C. What did the engraving say on what has come to be known as the Los Lunas Rock? It was an engraving of the Ten Commandments. But who could have made it? Creation Science Fellowship Newsletter, Aug. 1992. p. 4.

GEOCACHINGJEFF

The letters yodh, qoph, and the flat-bottomed shin have a distinctively Samaritan form, suggesting that the inscription may be Samaritan in origin. See Lidzbarski (1902).

Cyrus Gordon (1995) proposes that the Los Lunas Decalogue is in fact a Samaritan mezuzah. The Jewish mezuzah is a tiny scroll placed in a small container mounted by the entrance to a house. The ancient Samaritan mezuzah, on the other hand, was commonly a large stone slab placed by the gateway to a property or synagogue, and bearing an abridged version of the Decalogue. Gordon proposes that the most likely age of the Los Lunas inscription is the Byzantine period. Prosperous Samaritan shipowners were known to live in Greek communities at the time of Theodosius I circa 390 A.D.

8.0 on Richter scale...Piezoelectric phenomena

Seismologists have calculated that the 1811-1812 earthquake sequence registered three massive quakes measuring 8.0 on the Richter scale...10 times stronger than the 1906 earthquake in San Francisco, CA. Large clouds of strange gas escaped out of the bowels of the earth. Other bizarre phenomena occurred including 'earthquake lights' and huge lightning storms, much like the description in 3 Nephi 8:7 stating "And there were exceedingly sharp lightnings, such as never had been known in all the land." Why don't most Americans, including many historians, know about the highly advanced ancient civilization that existed in the 'Heartland' of North America near the time of Christ? The Lost Civilizations of North America is a powerful new documentary film that explores this question of historical importance to all Americans, but especially those of Native American descent.

scariest type jew you could possible be effected by ... the totally stuck up, poor health international jewish official bureaucrat Bouchuguir, the guy who voiced the slander forwarded by Warfalla man Jibril and read it into the UN record, just doing his job routinely, throwing mud like any good cobbler should do daily ... except he aims at the eyes themselves and not at what they will see (AND EMBRACE) if allowed to keep them open.

In this case, YET ANOTHER DIRTY LIE (as Michel Collon makes clear here: tfvsOOSqs8s) began the industrial strength savaging of a thriving region, which i visited the year our diplomat Bouchuguir authored a book about oil market manipulation. I was there on an xt500 with giant side panels for desert crossing ... but i dared not leave tripoli and face benghazi ..instead i got raped and managed to ship to greece only after that.

Lybia was occupied, damaged occupied a little further, damaged some more and about to be stolen altogether by the truer purer semite ... they cannot tolerate neighbours with caucasian admixture going waaaaay back.

None of that homebase on the african continent shit for them. Specially not one as old and legitimate as Lybia (see Barry Fell) Fake brutal and shallow (white on black) ones like Rhodesia, SA and Zimbabwe have been cleansed without provoking a call to cleanse red land (from bl&wh imposition, in fact i have never heard any expressions of guilt from blacks but since they can blame the whites first) ... they don't seem capable of seeing the reddies directly.

Lybia was afflicted bycause it had a potential for helping the suppressed (against just such affliction inflictors, they do sado-maso moves bank and forth endlessly) around the world .. for real .. instead of importing 'demo-diceyness', the facade of honourable impartiality but loaded with dirty money from conception re: guilt. the stuff the 999 guy told me to scrap yesterday like him i guess ... sprinkle it across lybia and then bomb the scrap out of it for better dispersial and to block reconstitution.

grand idea. proud to be white americans love tossing the guilt out and about, The dole out wallop after swell up to one minority after another. They are o so under threat from brutes breeding them out.

Each time i see them project, invert, transfer and delegate just like jews do. Their victims did it (what the jewoids are about to do) and so attracted punishment by them the avenging angel and enlightened liberator.

Each time they haggle, niggle compromise, bribe compensate, legislate ... prophecy and profitsee...
i see them do these things each time they are left at liberty out in the free world instead of strictly among themselves. table turn on all occupied territories .. but don't let the tired say mold same old ways rule and roll out their inevitable routine outcome ... don't keep your head in the praying and hoping for the ESP hundreth critical monkey masses to come help out.

They wanted to borrow money and get in debt ... they wanted to have another drop to drown their sorrow .. they wanted to have a fraction of their confiscated and taxed away crop back to escape starvation.

What the numbers point to matters not a toss ... The decisiveness lies in the overwhelm factor, the rip grip

HousekaterClaudio

134 views -- HousekaterClaudio op 25 okt 2011

This documentation makes it possible to understand how international law and justice works, but mostly how its basic principles can be bypassed. The resolutions passed against Lybia are based on various allegations : notably on the statement claiming that Gaddafi had lead jet attacks on his own people and engaged in a violent repression against uprising, killing more than 6000 civilians. These allegations were spread before they could have been verified. Eventhough it was on the basis of this claim that the Lybian Jamahiriya government was suspended from the United Nations Human Rights Council, before being referred to the United Nations Security Council.

One of the main sources for the claim that Gaddafi was killing his own people is the Libyan League for Human Rights, an organisation linked to the International Federation of Human Rights (the FIDH). On the 21st of February 2011, the General-Secretary of the LLHR, Dr. Soliman Bouchuguir, initiated a petition in collaboration with the organisation UN Watch and the National Endowment for Democracy. This petition was signed by more than 70 NGOs. Then a few days later, on the 25th of February, Dr. Soliman Bouchuguir went to U.N. Human Rights Council in order to expose the allegations concerning the crimes of Gaddafi's government. In July 2011 we went to Geneva to interview Dr. Soliman Bouchuguir.

Soliman Bouchuguir is an unheard of figure for most, but he has authored a doctoral thesis that has been widely quoted and used in strategic circles in the United States. This thesis was published in 1979 as a book, The Use of Oil as a Political Weapon: A Case Study of the 1973 Arab Oil Embargo. The thesis is about the use of oil as an economic weapon by Arabs, but can easily be applied to the Russians, the Iranians, the Venezuelans, and others. It examines economic development and economic warfare and can also be applied to vast regions, including all of Africa.

Bouchuguir's analytical thesis reflects an important line of thinking in Washington, as well as London and Tel Aviv. It is both the embodiment of a pre-existing mentality, which includes U.S. National Security Advisor George F. Kennan's arguments for maintaining a position of disparity through a constant multi-faced war between the U.S. and its allies on one hand and the rest of the world on the other hand. The thesis can be drawn on for preventing the Arabs, or others, from becoming economic powers or threats. In strategic terms, rival economies are pinned as threats and as "weapons." This has serious connotations.

Soliman Bouchuguir, former president of the Libyan League for Human Rights with symbiotic ties to the National Transitional Council, generated the pack of lies that justified NATO's war allegedly to protect the Libyan population. He is currently the new Libyan ambassador to Switzerland.

that memory may have been one of somebody buying or marrying into land and being totally unorthodox and permacultural created a burgeoning family buying out and thus displaying others a little too aggressively .. unsharingly .. kind of like the zionist story doing this all over again ...

the enigma of the 'third position' - November 13, 2011

I stated a few days ago:

The Evola-inspired neo-fascist terrorists of the 'strategy of tension' period in Italy spouted 'Third Position' anti-US rhetoric while in fact, as presumably most of them knew, they were really working for NATO's secret services.

I really think this is true, but I found some more remarks about the contradiction in Kevin Coogan's biography of F P Yockey, "Dreamer of the day":

to represent a kind of northern "Strasserism" inside Italian fascism. At the Jan 1950 MSI convention, the Salo radicals were defeated by a more moderate wing of the party, and in fall 1951 the MSI reversed its earlier opposition to Italian participation in NATO. Almirante had helped in 1946 to create the Fasci di Azione Rivoluzionaria (FAR). Although FAR violently opposed the Italian communists, it also hurled bombs at the US embassy in Rome.

However, the source given for that last claim is a 1951 report by the American Jewish Committee. Coogan's own theory is as follows:

In 1953, Evola published his Men Among the Ruins, in which he seemingly abandoned his anti-US stance, arguing that "the immediate task is that of reinforcing the state, while malgré soi keeping it within the western alliance." The introduction to the book was written by Prince Junio Valerio Borghese, the "Black Prince" of Italian far-right politics. At the end of WW2, Borghese, then commanding the élite Italian Naval commando force Decima Mas, opened up contact with the OSS's James Jesus Angleton, who personally saved him from partisan execution by dressing him in a US uniform and driving him south to Rome. Borghese was convicted of war crimes by an Italian court but released on appeal in 1949. Borghese officially joined the MSI in 1951, a month later becoming its honorary president... The CIA-backed SIFAR spy agency began creating "Gladio" units of ex-fascist combat veterans in 1949. Networks of fascist loyalists in the armed forces and intelligence services also sponsored far-right paramilitary shock troops to intervene in crisis situations. The most important of these groups was Guiseppe "Pino" Rauti's Ordine Nuovo, which was ideologically inspired by Evola, whom Rauti worshipped. Rauti also maintained close ties to Italian military intelligence... "Gladio", however, could not succeed without Borghese's tacit approval. Seen in this context, the fact that Borghese wrote the introduction to Men Among the Ruins takes on special significance.

I have to admit that my opinion of Evola's intelligence, at least in his later years, is somewhat reduced by reading this 1950s footnote added to his 1931 book The Hermetic Tradition:

An ancient ritual manuscript belonging to a Scottish witch, which was shown to me by Professor G B Gardner, director of the Museum for Witchcraft on the Isle of Man...

It is quite revealing that Evola was unable (or perhaps unwilling) to recognise Gardner's forgeries, which were obvious in every respect, from the manuscripts and inks to the spelling and vocabulary. I don't believe the claim made by Robin Wakefield's essay on Evola in Gnosis, No 14, Winter 1990, that "Evola spent most of WW2 in Germany, employed by a branch of the SS as a translator of the archives of various Masonic and other secret societies." In fact, he spent little time in Germany, and the period referred to is 1943-45 in Vienna, where according to Richard Drake in The Revolutionary Mystique and Terrorism in Contemporary Italy (1989), "Evola performed vital liaison services for the SS as Nazi Germany sought to recruit a European army for the defense of the Continent against the USSR and the USA."

well, no .. since jews were always mercantilists and their very founder bases his rights and claims to land on acts of privatizing migrancy .. not to mention the colonization. I am not saying Indians never did that but by and large did not (or else how the way i see it jews are looking for a way to make themselves look good, merciful, friendly and benign. They like to clear their record.

So, .. get huge huge amounts of money stacked into the cellars of digital space, managed from a hi-rise .. on hold, held cold and let interest levels slip and slide as low as they'll go .. i mean make the interest on the hook fishing for collateral look as appetizing as possible ... worked for a good while .. but since nobody can simply call it a gift or support outright like in a socialish country, hardass landians call it debt that stays on the hookbooks cause they tangle and tie stuff up so tight it becomes the all or nothing bid, pull a string and the whole thing goes (Keen's jubilee ideas might make it sooner than RPaul's can, same stringbean wireframe fellatype either way).

an even better way to end all those endless deep past usury echos and recalls is this: robotize the middleman function, digitize derivatives .. turbocize 'm via the cpu race, and, ... lo and behold, they outrun the arms for (sellout)-sale pace ... both bizzes do fine with or without interest rates.

Karl, you leave me flabbergasted. Don't take offense at any of the following:

You are a very entertaining writer. But your style is like the "disgruntled former employee" of a celebrity who writes a book claiming he was the real talent and brains behind the celebrity's career. The celebrity could barely tie his shoelaces without the author.

People like to read that kind of a book, but they don't take it as gospel. They figure the ex-employee was fired and so he has an axe to grind and he is exaggerating and making things up.

I'm not calling you an ex-employee or a liar, everything you say could be 100 per cent true. If it is true, some of it is very shocking.

Your stories also have a Forrest Gump quality – you connected with all these different characters over the years...

I never heard of you before Craig Cobb mentioned his problems with you in Kalispell. I did not know you screened Hal Turner's phone calls. (I was wondering how you knew Turner,)

I have never met any of these people that you write about, I only know them through the internet (mostly VNN forum) and the news. Some of the things you claim about Cobb and the Gaedes are suspicions that have passed through my mind over the years, too. Like I said, don't get mad, I'm just being honest with you.

I am beginning to wish I didn't have a blog. The 'duty' of surveying the international news each morning and extracting nuggets of reality from it is really depressing me. My guess is that NATO will invade Syria, Libya-style, some time early next year. By then, Syria is supposed to have been rendered ungovernable by the large number (thousands) of Sunni guerrillas infiltrated from Turkey. NATO planes will I suppose have to avoid flying within missile range of the Russian carrier Kuznetsov, which is hanging about off the Syrian coast, but that isn't too hard to do. Once a NATO bombing campaign is launched, it will take two months or so to destroy the Syrian state apparatus altogether. On the other hand, I do not see NATO attacking Iran frontally. To do so would cause the world oil price to double, no matter how much extra oil the Saudis pump, and this price increase would cut western industrial production in half. The US 'quantitative easing' program has injected over $16,000,000,000,000 into a fairly small number of 'too big to fail' banks, but this is just monopoly money, which nobody outside the US actually wants, and it will all go on global military schemes, like the 'prompt global strike' program, which is supposed to allow the USA to hit anything on earth within four hours. Well, so what? You can't enslave an entire planet. They're dreaming.

<http://blockyourid.com/~gbpprorg/judicial-inc/>
he has an untended old small youtube account 'theskunk' prothink3 is similar ... they are fascinated with sex offenders and busy infighting someplace i guess one of skunk's last updates earlier this year:

It Makes You Wonder

Judicial is nothing but a 'Cyber Ministry', but Zionists are going to enormous lengths to completely shut down the website. This website fought the Beast for six years, but recent attacks have been devastating.

May 2011 Update

The Communists/Zionists have driven gas prices to a national average of $4.56 a gallon. Gold is near $1,600 an ounce. Israeli snipers are shooting protestors in Syria, and Obama is sending white kids to die in Afghanistan, Pakistan, Iraq, and Libya, while Jewilian children enter Harvard at a 50% enrollment rate.

The stock market is at all time highs, and Zionists are well aware that they can't be seen as the manipulators of the coming economic implosion. It has to be a mega-9/11 type event, and point straight at Muslims. The most logical is a nuclear bomb in a midwest city.

Funding A Movement

The difference between good Christians and these soulless creatures, isn't their 'self-ordained IQ, it's their organizational structure, and their commitment to funding. They committed $20 million in gold to their 1918 Russian Revolution. Today's Zio-hoax is the 'Tea Party', and that's funded by Robert Murdoch, and the Koch brothers.

Judicial-Inc Will Probably Wind Down

Judicial's goal was to create a forum, that as times became more desperate, a group of sensible people could use it to meet and unite. As the American economy implodes, and Israel commits another 9/11, to shift the blame to the Muslims, you need a catalyst. It appears that Zionists must be getting close to some event, because they are no longer going to let Judicial-Inc exist.

How Real Are The Majority Of 'Alternative News' Websites?

Most of the so-called 'Alternative medias' revolve around the Holocaust, and the 9/11 scam.

The Holocaust: ~~ There are twenty various sites that claim to be holy grail of the Holocaust truth. Most center around the question of whether 3.4 million Jews died, or the higher number of 6,000,000. The truth there is that the Red Cross states there were 272,000 deaths in the camps, and maybe 120,000 were Jews. But arguing the Holocaust is a waste of time. It's not worth the effort. It's like arguing about religion, and most people don't care anyway.

Actually there is a ploy here. By denying that silly fable, you are keeping the conversation active, and drawing attention to it.

The 9/11 Attack:~~ The second big camp for the 'Alternative Media' is the 9/11 movement. Basically, a potpourri of spitting bagel munchers talking about minutiae. Did the CIA plant micro nukes at the WTC., why did building 7 collapse, did the jets really land at Area 51, are the passengers alive, and are they living in a remote CIA desert compound?

The truth there is that Israel orchestrated the entire event. There were no 19 young Arab guys trained on a small Cessna. These were trained Israelis. A Sayret Matkal Capt. led the first operation, a mossad operative was identified on the second jet. The third jet, Fl 77, didn't fly for 62 minutes and amazingly avoided the hundreds of fighters at Norfolk, the Seymour Johnson AB, NORAD, Otis, Andrews, Shaw, Pope, etc. It was actually replaced with a remote-controlled plane that hit the Pentagon. Fl 77. The real Flight 77 jet went out in the Atlantic to ram the USS Washington, and Norad shot it down. The 4th jet was shot down, but not over Shanksville.

The War In Iraq:

That is about Zionism's quest to control the world's oil supply. It's about the Mosul-Haifa Pipeline, and the five permanent American bases there to protect it.

The War In Afghanistan:

The Taliban, a religious group, threw out the Zionist opium traders, and cut 94% of the opium supply. The other factor is that now we have troops flanking Iran on both sides.

The Coming War In Iran:

Iran sits on the Zargos oil belt, the largest untapped field in the world.

So Who Funds These Websites, And Their Authors?

Practically 95% of today's websites are Zionist-controlled. If they were real, they would be focusing on the coming collapse, and the various False Flags being used to point the finger at the Israeli intelligence creation called "Al-Qaeda", or Iran. But you won't find any of these Kosher Clowns discussing the Zionist game plans. You can quickly look at these websites and see their agendas. All they do is try and implicate the CIA for 9/11, Madrid train bombs, London bus bombs, or Mid-East assassinations. Then, there is the constant talk about Black and Hispanic crime. Oddly, they conveniently skip over the Madoffs, or the fleecing of America's banks by Zionists. These website's goal is all about diversions from the real problems, and just helping the fomenting race wars.

So What Are The Costs?

A forum like FreeRepublic.com runs $360,000 annually. Some of the bigger websites are very good sources of solid information, but they have advertisers covering the costs. The large and well-disseminated websites, like Huffington.com, are funded by Venture Capitalists.

Zionists Really Aren't Brilliant, But They Are United

Their leaders have used this holocaust nonsense to create a pack of loyal fanatics. And this has lead to a giant social, educational, and business network.

Judicial-Inc Needs To Receive Funding

The other sites are funded by Zionists. Whereas, with Judicial it is a daily struggle with Zio-Thugs, of which 50% are police. Try calling the police station and saying you have a police detective stalking you. The ADL has retained a private detective who directs the harassment, and he has a free hand.

You need to remember that the ADL has tentacles in every major police force.

Now Is Not The Time To Quit

You are getting a small blimp in the stock market, which will be used to portray a fledgling economic recovery, but it's a diversion from the Madoff anger. The ultimate fall guy has to be Muslim terrorists, and certainly not Zio-Bankers. There will be a False Flag staged by the Zionist that triggers everything, and that will make 9/11 look like a hiccup. The timeline is probably 12 months. I can't quite see max agreeing that 'the zionists are the nazis', but he has the facts -- December 6, 2011

Trapped between Jewish Vampires and Goldman Sachs

On a odd article about Jewish Vampires published by Haaretz
And an even stranger interview on World-Dominance published by the BBC. WW~Notes: I was not able to locate this interview anywhere.

Was this a trap? The topic was irresistible. It was unthinkable for me not to refer to it. Was somebody praying for my committing an error during the process?
Did someone expect me to cross that thin and invisible line into racism? Fearing that, I decided to open this article with a picture of the English version of the Haaretz article on Jewish vampire (Published on September 28, 2011 at haaretz.com/weekend/week-s-end/love-thy-vampire-kosherly-1.387182)

In the past, I reported about clear propagandistic articles by the same newspaper (Is the Vatican Training Hezbollah?) and opted this time for the same precautions I took back then. After all Haaretz is widely considered as the most serious Hebrew newspaper and the unofficial voice of the Shin Beth; blame them, not me. Like European myths of the time, medieval Jewish tradition includes stories about bloodsuckers, but with a unique Jewish moral perspective.

True Blood TV poster Jewish vampires? Are they serious? They even called the article: "Love thy vampire, kosherly." This is almost a perfect oxymoron, after all (*consuming blood is not kosher.
Expecting a parody, I began reading and soon found they were serious*).

I'm an Arab, a muslim Arab, and I think the main reason behind the Arab/Israeli conflict is the media. Here in the MidEast, the media portrays Israel as the bad guy, killing? and assaulting Palestinians everyday. Whereas in the West, however, the media portrays Israel as the good guy, just defending its territories from casual terrorist attacks by the Palestinians. I think that the Arab/Israeli conflict can be solved by neutral media and a little sacrifice from both sides.

@heatcooker1 Your comments provide hope that one day there will be true peace throughout the entire Middle-East. Unfortunately 95% of the comments I receive from the Arab world are hateful,? racist and based on ignorance. It is truly refreshing to hear a voice from Saudi Arabia that is not calling for the destruction of Israel and death to all Jews.

israel & the sauds ----- December 14, 2011

As I envisage the future, the aim is to leave Israel completely surrounded by Saudi-GCC Sunni monarchies or military dictatorships, including the 'northern tier', Turkey, Lebanon, and Syria, and the north African seaboard including Egypt. All of these they think they can simply re-design politically, using MB cadres at every level. Even after all this, there will continue to be pin-prick attacks by otherwise unknown Sunni guerrilla units on Israel, but these will be stunts using pseudo-gangs, though the members of these pseudo-gangs may not realise what they are. To the intelligent observer, it will be quite obvious that Israel and the Saudis are strategic regional allies. They have been for decades: they collaborated against Nasser in the 1950s and against independent nationalism in Yemen in the 1960s, for instance. They might currently appear to be backing opposing proxies in south and north Sudan respectively, but this also may be just a game. The US, I suppose, would prefer for all concrete operational coordination between Israeli and Saudi covert or paramilitary operations to go through Langley or the Pentagon, but it won't; after all, the Saudis are undoubtedly running joint covert or paramilitary operations with the Pakistani ISI, and they certainly don't tell the USAians about them in advance.

Laurence A. Rickels, Sigmund Freud Professor of Media and Philosophy at the European Graduate School, has this to say about The Kyoto Man and the Scikungfi Trilogy:

"Not only philosophical and analytic reflection can be found hiding out in SF but even the work of revaluation and reinvention of artistic genres and styles. Against the yawning horizon of contemporary narrative D. Harlan Wilson turns up the vertical contrast of poetic prose. I was invited by my students to visit, as the one it takes to know another one, his laboratory of endopsychic science fiction. Following the deferral of my resistance to the proposed transference of recognition value, I finally did enter. But what took me by surprise was not as much the visualizable elements of the fictional world/word or its intellectual properties—served up on a splatter—as the exploration of poetic style carried forward, to my mind, from a recent repressed past of invention. The Scikungfi Trilogy is our continuity shot wit Ezra Pound's The Cantos."

So, you'd vote for Ron Paul if it weren't for his wacky foreign policy?
U.S. military veterans and active duty soldiers overwhelmingly support Ron Paul for President in 2012. Find out why.

slick music, true text (the late Chalmers) and good people at live scenes ... but alas, .. to defend a cause made of halftruths ... the willingness to fight, to venture, to risk ... the manly virtues ... are, unfortunately, not often in defence, in service of rooted rights, but an escape, a flight forward, a plunge, a lift-off. That's the reckless irresponsibility part unmentioned in this rap intended to stop meddling overseas (Paul gets 10x the support from the service his competition gets) ... yet never mentioning that the place whose honour they mean to defend and where they feel, imagine and think to have claims to birthrights, the United States, is itself an overseas .. by only a few removes (generations). They are heirs to traitors and gullible folk who got hounded from a situation that has only followed them to haunt them again/more. The whole debt and disownment waves and washes are no different than what prompted immediate ancestors of most americans to turn tail and run, clutching at straws in the form of words burbling through strong throats attached to delusional minds.

So, Paul is only half right .. sigh ... more power to him.

Charles, Fear of the elite who control us is the shadow of our messianic desire. Unlimited free energy is an extension of the messiah complex. The desire to eliminate an Elite who enslave us is our desire to control, which is an illusion, which will only turn us into the very thing we despise. The desire to control is ego inflation, or equally corrupting, spiritual inflation. Your work on economics is elucidating that midway point between Capitalism and Socialism, or the balance between self-interest and service to the whole. Rather than a system of control, the gift economy is a way of being, that must be drawn from the core of oneself, in service to the whole. Thanks for the help with that. I am deeply grateful. www.offthegridmpls.blogspot.com

i am fed up with the fed rants
.. been seeing them ever since i entered circles of conspiracy, pockets of resistance, homesteads of landtrusts, and especially the households and homepages of maverick thinkers.
'Think' is, they all stare themselves blind on the rot concentrated at the top whereas building a fresh pyramid right alongside it and this time keep the ups and downs runnin and pumpin transparantly, would solve problems the quickest and turn a single horrified, crick in the neck, monotone shriek into a melodious tune and honest rhythm. This is the occupy message ... the mistake made so far was to take that 'right alongside' too literally -- understandable since the waste and recycleable detritus of depraved urbanity can sustain a lot of protest but feeding stuff into riot cop raid bins and container should get demoralizing soon enough. The occupy movement will just have to revitalize the community one .. and the

as it is and stands, i remain loyal to the underdogs and invisibles i have been want to champion all along, only more and more, again and yet again right now:

only thing wrong with fed levels is their power to decide anything, they need to be restricted to pure and passive though accurate and perfectly see-through, look-up, -over and -out (and yes, always down, only lenses allowed for those who can't stop themselves from fucking with stars) registrations and aggregations of the waves lower levels make.

being jewish is not a racial thing but a crafty trade which favors, encourages and steers making a living (golemic polemic systemic) evil go out into the world .. of ..ship n bridge burning abilities through mongrelization and 'larnin'.

oops, i meant not JUST a racial thing (rather than just not a racial thing). It was most likely shaped by cultural pressures and these in the form of well garded walls will have to do for a cure too. Give them lots of room and permaculture manuel and GoodallMighty guard those walls well!!!!!!

it's not confined to attitude either cause it congeals into objects, obstacles, blocks, locks and walls (not to mention books for props, keeps and bullets .. which to give a way and away is to do away - with the competition) with.

All this bycause of the success of the founding attitude which itself is two fold: to be and learn to be jews so as to henceforth do jewish ... like you can do roadish, resulting in being road ... the state of/for (being) roads/jews.

the dual 'care i age', jewel double dealing devil jew conundrum entails transport of sheeple, their feed and their poison (grain and alcohol) and beancountin autist/savant ghetto dwelling, those who succumb used as a spectre and spectacle to keep the others on othe straight and narrow of boring tasks

... and yet and yet ... don't it all stem from being a provider? the hypervider extremism was hidden in the first name and image scatched into rock wood and clay, the program, the appointment, the treasure map, the signing that afforded conditions to crowd up into the crowding of conditions and conditioning of crowd.

i gave the right and prudent advice warning of things to come waaaaaay ahead of time and most everybody else i've been a model prodigal son of sorts, have a smidgeon of jewish blood, my parents tried to keep from book larnin, teach me their honest butcher trade and they were gonna be the ideal proof that the multicultural project, the bleeding of jewish blood into other flavors, the contamination building had to go and keep on my counsel was just too complex, one the one hand saying don't follow me here (genetic biology wise) on the other hand going come this trailblazing way with me, i'd love the company, i think i can help you get where you most likely want to STAY/return

... yet it all fell on blind eyes and deaf ears .. no thank yous forthcoming with singular exceptions to remote and out of reach places (not to mention declared off limits ones, as physical involvement with all things stateside has been pronounced and declared long since by and for me) .. and so, lacking companions and co operatives, i did not even bother to follow my own advice, figuring i'd go down with the ship with little resistance ... even resigned to keeping an aging mother company in the very denaturalized conditions i grew up in and out of ... well, for a few decades anywayz.

It's way too late anyways to ever enjoy a grove i planted myself as i had planned in my early twenties thirty years ago.

Anyway, the object is not to punish the patients but the doctor for failing to cure them.

PMnews1 -- Craig Cobb - truthergirls - icke1134 -- dallasgoldbug priem (willner) ... and on and on ... the closer look and refolding conundrum ... is this file really in the right one or should it be part of a whole new branching?

like botany at all? Similarities are at least real there, not flattened like in mugshot which multiplies possibilities and speculations, just as digitization did another multifold times .. X (times) the same stacked uncountably different ways into fake dimensions via the blind of black.

not the least of paradoxes in my life and yet another one of the sort that can easily give rise to failures of understanding and misjudgement for the vast majority of time constrained audiences - so, major reason to avoid public life - are the facts that:

A -- i avoid white pages and as the percentage rises of being confronted with too much white on the no alternative standard youtube account my appetite to keep curating the madness on there is rapidly plunging towards abstinence.

B -- i do regret to be the only person i know to fully understand AND be capable of helping crystalize some much needed clarity in the 'yield yield' yell and spell and wheeldeal wilds riven fields of races racisms and race realisms as well as race fables. I prefer a stepped back and far out enough position to afford overview but level (head) sharp multifarious perspective testimony giving runs the risk of coming across as too cool to be called compassionate, let alone equitably AND magnanimously so, on furtive encounters.

about the damascus bombings -- December 25, 2011

First of all, the target buildings have not been fully identified, but the General Security Directorate seems most likely. Its divisions are Homeland Security, External Security, and Palestinian Affairs. In other words, it covers everything, including day-to-day support for Hezbollah and Hamas, so it would make an ideal Israeli target. Someone issued a claim of responsibility in the name of the Syrian MB, but its known leaders deny responsibility for either the claim or the blasts. This sort of targeting, and the professionalism of the attacks, suggest close coordination between CIA, Israeli and Saudi intelligence. One could compare it to many Iraqi bombings, against the Shi'ite government or against Shi'ite religious sites, where ease of access and escape were miraculously provided. Either one posits that some government departments are using their own dirty tricks squads against one another, or one attributes these miraculous conditions provided for the attacks to the combined efforts of several networks of agents of influence not normally working in tandem, viz. CIA, Israeli and Saudi.

Afrosynergy is going ... the 9th of januari [nesseues = wv] .. I admire your work and spirit but the first part of the Qaddafi text read out by your colleague is moronic ... one must bounce the migration harangue off all 6 sides and center of our caged and cubed soul mirror house walls to see what something means overall, it's only when on a roll nothing appears to have any hidden angles cause then the angles are hidden, (reason for cartoon popularity and our being fluid to such large extents).

Let's talk for instance about rain and greenery, the above and below, not just the lateral movement of humans who come (and go) with cultural baggage [[even (maybe especially) when they try escape it]] shaped by weather ... but also, vice versa, culture shaping weather.

Too bad the zionist project's propaganda promise achieved mass appeal status but once underway, were betrayed, pacifist factions thereof crowded out and the opposite of stated purposes, turning deserts green, is, tragically occurring.

What's wrong with europe are the parts and people first af- then infected by similar and the same rapacious meme packages and bundles, they soon thereafter begin executing these desert shaped and escaped programs as well and join the (E)mission, participating down into even as the very heart of it.

I mean you mistake europe for the ravager of africa bycause it let the genie out of the bottle, doling out and giving away it's tecnohow waaaaay too easy.

But in reality, the influx from regions of oppression to those full of not just tribe separating buffer zones and no mans lands but more moderate opps for and rates of mingling, has been far greater and that is a law reaching far beyond mere humans.

a book about bonobos, chimps and humans called 'demonic males' is instructive.

It's typical for desertifying regions to hype up and hystericize birth rates, not to reverse damage but make them worse, add to the capital and climate destruction.

Demografucks instrumentalized by powermongers to make a larger fist has aggravated the nastiest aspects of patriarchy, otherwise typified by micro climate destructive stuff like overgrazing.

Do you want to let it rain in africa as it does in europe or do you want it the other way around? What exactly is the reciprocal factor in weather systems? How many cyclicities can you juggle in you noggin?

Kontext TV: EU Troika drives Greece into humanitarian crisis, interview with Debtocracy-director

Complete Broadcast: kontext-tv.de/node/176
With Aris Chatzistefanou, filmmaker from Athens, director of the documentary "Debtocracy" which has been viewed by more than 1.5 million people worldwide Greece is being driven into a humanitarian crisis by the International Monetary Fund, the European Central Bank and the EU commission, says Aris Chatzistefanou, director of the documentary "Debtocracy". The social achievements of the 20th century are being destroyed in Greece. For the first time since WW II, there is massive malnutrition of children. However, Greek citizens are not those to blame for the crisis, but a destructive financial system and a faulty design of the eurozone which drives some countries into overindebtment and brings excessive surplus to others - as in the case of Germany. The rescue packages have mainly served to bail out the banks again, not the citizens. Only if the citizens strive for real democracy as they have started in the Arab Spring and in the Occupy movements, real change is going to happen.

it's a matter of choices innit? the reprehensibility and illegality of debts/investments and distribution keys have many layers cross overs don't they?
What 'investment' do you invite?
How do you guarantee recompense for previous users?
How do you prevent harm, which products work? Treecrops, treegrove crops, food forests. Biomassive soil growing. Case closed.

And so, my friend, the facts are exactly the opposite of those you assert, Greece is much richer and more advantaged IN PRINCIPLE than more nothern latitudes due to the intensity of sunlight.

Sell a few islands germany on condition they send you the best teutons down to oversee this in plain sight, I suggest Sepp Holzer. Once lush as of old, your tourist intake wil sky rocket.

poetpiet You are correct, all sides of an argument must be examined. The point, is that this side, which credibly stands as one of your six from my perspective, was grossly ignored. So much so, that this man was murdered to suppress these ideas, which, considering the popularity of this channel, proved unsuccessful.

@poetpiet "Religion is amassing an audience" evidence for this? from the numbers i've been reading, religion is losing ground to people who can actually think.

@poetpiet If you look at the scale of the riots in the western world before & after, with an open mind you would agree. Angry oppressed people wake up due to their anger. Then you have riots for all different reasons. A happy person will not riot. Could you please name one riot which was done by happy people, since this barbaric devil worshipping ban? /watch?v=tfYnnPNTl2o -- Qatar Builds Sunni Intervention Force of Libyan, Iraqi Terrorists Against Assad, 1 of 2 ... Dude, i got a few tiffs with you now, .. i mean suggestions for improvement of your already impressive work, let me ring'm up:

1 - instead of the 20 line down taps in 10 seconds use 1 single tap in the 'page down' key.

2 - Debka is, just like the Gospel a wishlist mailed to the prey by the hunter (New Testament as nothing but bundled compliance requests) .. Debka is nothing but an arms lobby division (thanks to NiqNaq for helping me understand this)

Debkafile hopes to 'help' mediackyack massage moutthers to prime and prompt the herd into the support our troops meme (souldears 'protect' our o so beneficial global influence - teccy tiktoc time out the traditional ownership here and there, a metastasized expansion of a jewify the white man project .. which involved drastic migrations).

Debka's argument boils down to this: be alarmist about the wrong guys getting a hold of guns (in many cases the very ones our own very noble soldiers practiced with, written and cast off, replaced).

Bad guys got a hold of these trade ins (and wish to celebrate, i mean challenge w a clash trash bash potshotlatch) so let's go practice (on) and target our own cast offs and second hands, prove we got new and improved here enough to generate demand, up the turn over, open the market, plan a shipment .. so don't kill too many.

Pointing out bad guys got guns succesfully hides the fact that guns make guys go bad.

i am specialized in rites of gauntlet passage exciting and honourable enough to completely obviate, starve, bypass, ridicule and see the stealing of this practice and then calling that 'service' for what it is: barbarity, inability to handle the surpluses love given the reigns delivers: fierce blood.

In one sentence: i will teach the complication of drumming and rhythm made traditionally with the empty space percussed by all sorts of hollowed bodies, vessels and membranes with a type that concentrates to the contrary on FULL space (lessness): rock.

Drum on rock to empty it, mobilize it's content Drum on vacated bodies is vacuous.

The dutch word for army foreshadows this noble task: 'leger'

also means emptyer (not more empty but actively emptying)

Sustain and add grace notes to immediate effects of drumming: intrication of the web of life through slow release, dust diffusion.

If, when and as long as you trumpet and echo outfits (unoutfits?) like Debka you stare at the warmongerers and kids that have gone badly dangerous at the expense of paying attention to alternatives alongside and with them. This is not uncommon, in fact it is endemic to the point of totally starving and orphaning the community, secession, organic and low impact development as well as the permaculture movements. All Occupy site prioriters would not have had to go back to their old life if the priorities had emphasized what is good rather than what's bad.

Most anti-zionist are given and paid to voice truth in order to build credibility in the critic circles, then they get to earn a motherload on denying something or other ... just once, .. and who could resist, if the sum in question will pay the bills for the resumption to regular programming then they are useful in a cat and mouse kind of way too. If relatively observant folks can be fooled it's (by) a job well done.

12th minute is on native A IQ ... ouch ... this confirms my suspicion we have a lady with less ethical ballast and insight than Duesberg has medical standing (in her eyes) and the one noted earlier this week: science and religion are equally scary, symptoms of demographixfuxsups .. but perhaps i shouldn't blame her for obediently following the faultlines that cause IQ tests to divorce ethics from 'chem(echan)ics' [mechemmix] .. i mean when she says bycause i have quickly learned to expect an arbitrary superstition (these days, that translates to a foldering choice). I mean, compare thousand year old family treehouse villages to tuck away a population of trillions, let's call it QI, to IQ: pest boil stink and sorry stratifuck hi-rises shutting down the best land to truck all the preemptions of the former and need i say, much preferred scenario to.

she claims pd was in a 'bad' paper (Medical Hypotheses) which later retracted that piece in 2009, implying that made it worse ("too be bad enough ... that's pretty terrible") rather than asserting the more logical outcome/cause: too much truth content for a 'bad' paper, duuuuh.

Christopher Hitchens Interview John And Tom Metzger in 1991

3.27 (a few seconds later) CH goes: "well, go on then" (explaining 'mud' [[slang for 3rd worlder invasion]] Daddy Metzger on the phone knows so well since he is "a farm boy"), Metzger misses a golden opportunity to testify of and for his pride of place ... but for a whitey so far from home that's quite forgivable. As it happened, he did NOT get into the essence of that most sacred and revered substance of sustainable and ethical cultures whatever colour their particular length and breadth may bestow, iow, that now gone and squandered goodwill whities got from gold/hero/archetypicalfolk like cernunnos -- tools of trade at hand, torque for a crunch and ramhamhead to finish into fines, wealth that will circulate when strewn on the ground, ... think, study and you will agree THAT can only have been and ever be mud, clay and fresh rockdust tablets, coin of the realm, something that got stamps of approval in artist colonies where sculptors and botanists brought together complementary minerals and plants .. plausible? No doubt! Jews tie piners for ethnic harmony to guns like they did Jesus to a cross. In a funny twist that cross was kinda symbolic for the Cernunnos tools, something to go get a blessing out of the underworld with.

In the beginning of part 1 - QfMm8bV7zEY - Tom the guest describes white aryan supremacists as those who resent being occupied by jews. Truth is the wasichu chumps are doing the latter's dirty o:c:c:u:p:a:t:i:o:n work and .. don't they mind??? Just as long as they can be their own boss huh? They would then still choose jewification but independent jewification thus imitating, emulating plagiarizing and remaining sullied by their

do have a quibble with your: "out if it, not deeper into it" (worldly affairs) i am of the firm (er and firmer) opinion that matter and spirit are inseparable .. pretty soon i'll have the clout to make the fist needed to punch a few rocks and feed the compost heaps with finest reducible results!!!

<http://bible.cc/matthew/11-21.htm> Matthew 11:21 in 20 versions

"..would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes."

This, in my opinion (re)presents an inversion of reality, like so:

To repent is to closely observe and participate in natural cycles. Find a stumbling stone and convert dat stubborn lump, loosen and lose it in the compost heap. That's minting nature (ashes the hard way, from rock), thrifty and crafty expenditure of clay-plus, not metal coins. Inner through outer, spirit through (and) out!

It's the ease of childlike neoteny, renewal and profusion of blushing health. If you stack folks into multi-story treehouses from here on down, we ought to have room for double the present world population before another millenium has gone by. Rivers and wells will revive, arms disappear ... all still as easy as childspay.

Quoting from that linked page again:

In sackcloth and ashes. The symbols of mourning and repentance. See Jon 3:5 on the repentance of Nineveh. Sackcloth was a kind of coarse cloth, woven of camel's hair.

.. this in-, re-, and perversion has a parallel in these times: the wrong side controlling a certain infamous wall behind which the world's potential disappears into a morbid past, empowering it to raise and spread suffering. Not what i call a natural cycle.

youtube.com/user/dropmetoheaven/feed forgive me if i'm wrong but the lybian revo was this: manmade river approaching benghazi, water threatens fundamentalists, they hate it but like machine guns, and AlJazeera the Saudis and the Mossad as the operatives of 'extrionism' were ready willing and able to supply. Rock of ages, cleft for me - let me hide myself in thee;

the version i hear on bluegrasshighway (podomatic first march 2012 file, 12th minute) has different lines added:
this world full of arms, is full of troubles lemme rif on that: this world full of rockgrinders, is rich in freshest dust this world full of basicsbankers, is backed by easier and easier credit, dust for the taking ... hard work already bibloids think they get to crawl up the cleft and are actually doing that sort of shy shelter seeking while they rain bombs on those who don't believe that's what they're actually doing. They rather endure that than become as sanctimonious a liar cult member, even if it could save them such a thus phonified life.

Of course, fully in line with my strengthening conviction that the gospels had a lot to do with the rock dust conscious efforts -- of a caste / guild / craft / skill and heroic elder trait, a redeeming property of a pro visionary, providing rather than saving, subsumed as the celtic god who the respect and assistance of roman ones. In general the alphabetized run a much greater risk of catching "lefteousness". With that i mean a susceptibility to haughty attitudes, which range from innocent, cute and harmless to blatant, shameless ("outleft") expressions and practices of supremacy.

McLuhan taught that to alphabetize is to install leftbrain, visual, make believe bias. The catholic McLuhan was aware of it and it's transition to digital media yet succumbed to an old fashioned version of it.

Race, class and gender and environment are highly affected.

The social and ecological (semities / deserts) problems are due to patrist nonpermacultural habits; the 'chosenite' virus for example, is the result of having been subjected and confined to peopling the bookkeeper caste for long enough to cause a genetic residuality and we see it play up and out conspicuously since times immemorial.

The way people like you deal with guilt towards the red race is to pretend you didn't do it, had nothing to do with it (before your time, and other such lame excuses). But that's not enough to get rid of the calls to and qualms of conscience an undying sense of justice cause these are innate to and deeply unearthable treasure in every mammalian soul, it can be muffled, silenced, buried, betrayed and abandoned though, hence the 'attraction' of/to spacey attractions, a step up of the flight/fight dualism, a disrespect to all borders implied in destroying just one of them.

Anyways, the medicine still leaves you uneasy and really the only form an expression of awareness about these matters comes to the fore and reaches the public is to claim you are the victim instead of the perp, the perfect, complete and final state of jewification attainable for an expendable whtie: "look at poor me, kicked and mobbed" ... if only the blacks were trying to kick you off turtle island in order to go home as well and reconstitute the jungle there with some neat rope and branch tricks of course, i'd be right behind them. The Fehme: State Sponsored Killers That Helped Put The Nazis Into Power --- johndcqr op 30 jun 2011 --- 107x --- This is part 4 of a show Dave Emory and Nip Tuck did on July 11, 1985.

5.35 it mentions Paul Winkler whose book* is excellent, about Fehme reaching back into early Roman Empire, pre-maffia. Emory shortcircuits the big picture by associating it with the Junckers only, the sell-outs, pupils, charges of that older crew. Thus Emory misleads exactly the way his buddy does (Lustik? . no sorry, Loftus, who wrote 'war against the jews', which can similarly be made a whole wallop more truthful inverting it to 'war BY/FOR the jews'), thus, like AJones does too, blocking the view to even deeper roots.

What was the first famous Fehme killing really? The murder of Jesus. Also on a type tree significantly enough. The Fehme gangsters used hanging trees which became very infamous, i've seen the remnant of one in southern germany myself. Those capable of actively voicing the will of the people, who were systematically sought out .. for all centuries ever since .. and on orders from places in the deep south (barbarossa in sicily for a while) in the 22nd minute Emory plain lies about the Fehme origins. He claims that Fehme originated between the world wars, contrary to PW's book, thus he propagandistically hi-jacks and appropriates it as 'his' source -- those who bank on, are supported by and 'keep' the dumb dumb (up) don't have to think twice about using dumb tricks, cause they like to target those who come and confront them with that. Subject of your last vid, first one i saw. :::::::::: Yes, NaZis were identical with the Fehme but .. and this is obscured by Emory, Lustik, Jones, etcetera but also with earliest Zionists, in other words, zionist practices are the basis of the new testament. ----- For reasons and in light of what i stated above, i have to disagree when you say, this is "best abstract on the matter I ever found". ----- It attempt to obscure the very lines to pretend to quote and be in the know about. That's like sitting on evidence and pretending you can't get up when somebody comes looking. Old testament 'fun'.

Of course you could make a case for a reverse argument of sorts, as i do elsewhere, namely that light skinned had serious truck towards and in the south (Templars, etcetera, emissaries of the Cernunnos doctrine practising tribes, Fehme members selling their own race and tribes out, etcetera). Which makes truthtelling a lot harder still.

the vid just reviewed uploaded by: johndcqr saved/sent as 'Fehme, Emory, Loftus, mixed memes and (arms) races, .. leggiknitraces' like individuals lovers, groups also demonstrate, bestow and inflict the kind of activity they know they can feel good about and appreciate receiving. Thus, their spatial hermeticism towards the Palestinians is what zionists need gifted to and imposed upon them until they've learned to feel grateful for as well as gifted and graced with it ... in order to heal and regain the respect of groups they have exploited, causing observers to become evermore weary as word gets around.

part 1 of 18 for 'The avoidable war' - 3 hour long 2000
offoffoff, like balkanwitness are dead against the Serb Lobby .. but Bogdanich recruits an impressive collection of top brokers to speak out, among them is Nora Beloff who was already old at the time and has died since then. She impresses me favorably and is in the ragtag sort of camp where you find Peter Handke and all those very but not chosen few outspoken about their support for Serbia at the time and not, as all these hotshot journosies (nope, all scared and coweredly saying thank you when the Moozie propa [Iran helped pay] got handed out ... but i was playing it even safer so i am not looking down on them .. for following a bad example ..) and topdog diplomats in the 'avoidable war' docu, by/per/with/at(??) hindsight.

there's an 18 part playlist hosted by at least 4 accounts for this 3 hour long docu (the link is for 2/2 - the last hour and a half)

it deals with the war (Z) in ex-Yugoslavia, wish it had more than just a few pics of Karl Vuono, real bad guy american (among man involved) with MPRI, a thinktank of kroatian fascists

playlist comment: EurlIslamists using ZionisTactics
How were these astonishing sequences of events even possible?? Western guilt over Palestine ... grant a few Muslims the use of Zionist tricks and tactics in exchange for continuing to apply them throughout Palestine???

jews were trying to offload bad hollywood karma onto pallywood type inscenations muslims were devouring the hollowhood rulebook, biting the bait, eagerly borrowing from a chain of command, which at the end of the line leads to the secondary but major (major yet secondary) reason and features the gunlobby, a frightfully nerdite bureaucracy hidden behind rule walls, our legaloid red 'lights' unto this world, .. red as in blood, not red as in squirt, that is, the bottom line (direct line to peace) is BLOCKED and JAMMED by ... the gun pushers. Hormone / culture / gender / extremists, cross-race, cross-class nasties.

that promote racist (or homophobic, or sexist, or zionist) ideas?

hey kers (cursy cursory cares), here's what the o so respectable are capable of dude:

being bribed, bought, bamboozled and threatened into offering the culturally, memetically, phylogenetically challenging, you name the 'incountenant' ways in which they are perpetually, professionally and professing to be, offended, a coat of arms that suits them as the cloac across the offenses they unleash, a platform, a 'roepetoeter' that hits everybody equally with an impression of unscalable walls, uncrossable divides and dandy dividends from war, surveillance and control genius. nerditude gone para ... and i don't mean paramagnetic. Weren't you the expert on native soil? I seem to recall you had stuff to say about Ward Churchill?

dutch auschwitz committee unleashes hypocritical commotion over a youngster's poem that has been refused at other ceremonies already. But, ... it won a national prize which includes being read at some ponderous occasion or other. One of the many and annually recursing victim rites to choose but god forbid, not deviate from. The kid wrote about good people and bad choices but that's too close to people are good, weapons are bad so they feel obliged and triggered to push for their habitual level of all out intoxicant when it comes to BI&Wh absolute and extremely polarized none but them excess access and axes label allotments and brandage.

Well, these geniuses maintain one cannot at the same time commemorate perps and victims, but what they mean is we shall cure dialectic divides over their dead bodies. It's privilege or bust for them. It's their turn in perpetuity and the way to plan to keep their winning streak up is to point to a worst possible every time the attention threatens to focus on their latest strike.

These balkanwitnesses for instance, fucking devious folks. <http://balkanwitnness.glypx.com/blitz.htm> they sacrifice [Alfred Sherman] who happens to call for geographic, cultural and ethnic harmony (not homogeneity and purity i presume but i have yet to check this dude out -) in that they bring him to the fore .. in hopes to hide the whole bunch he is the exception to (/jew too) behind!!!!

Around that time too it is averred that holow[BrewBroBr]oodsripters have "low standing for majority culture", they allow the underdog to pull it down, reverse roles for a day of misrule (traditional meaning of dress up Halloween celebrations way back pre-biblical perhaps even, an annually cathartic jubilee). the jew looks down on it does he? you counsel to kill tv and seek out alternative infoes ... yet, as one 'alternative' say Syria should strike out (hit back) instead of taking all the blows at home. Look where bellicosity got Ghadaffi. He should have armed loads of undercovers with secret cameras, gps pills and mikes and opened 200 youtube channels .. and another 400 for what i am to describe further on (a 'tactic' for which the champion of africa was very well positioned with his water wealth).

A strategy that, instead of those that bunch, pack and stuff people to go towards the centers of power and dispute their legitimacy .. tempts instead to deurbanize, defuse fronts, 'drain' tensions (drill rain into tense rock throw some waters into a body or pail full of rock basically, caring for compost, gardens, the most fundamental and foundational step TOWARDS, bycause already IN and always OF, paradise), etcetera. Syria has the sunshine no doubt, but i am not sure about water.

Thorny hairy and tricky stuff. Counselling a strike (and i don't mean rock) is not the kind of currency you can spend just anywhere. A real alternative medium wouldn't lend itself to that if it valued it's reputation .. unless it had become inaccessible and shared the back against the wall sentiment you voice and was really under threat with nothing but principles and axioms left to offer.

As a thought excercise, follow me to a place with the wherewithall to teach people permaculture AND feed them AND employ them AND pay them (lucked into a Warren Buffet type, who unlike him, either acquired ethics or squirreled .. i mean quarantined a bit of it away, then revived it to apply meanwhile slightly more illgotten gains to, .. call it composting money).

Imagine me, instead of inviting folks to trade their weapons for skills that can turn undervalued land into paradise with a little patience and some heavy lifting early on (check Sepp Holzer) AND be sponsored when they leave (Syrian state must have some equivalent of BML / Crown land to practice unerring zionism on, the not straying from root(ing)s type) .. so, as i said, .. imagine me, instead of offering all this, telling them to join the army and strike one of the many alCIAduh traincamptrips? Would i be doing good work? Should i align with zionism another way, build a great big well surveilled wall around the compound and all rebels to bring captured soldiers or soldiers to bring captured rebels. What about citizens who's neighbourhoods these testy boys seek out to set their scenes and shoot their cool? Can they focus on the lessons instead of dragging past animosities in?

(THE?) People's notion of recycling is way off, dutch radio is performing another lying piece of hypocrisy, accusing dead and gone Persian rulers of stuff they try smear Amadinejhad (and everybody in between) with. the jews have played out a 'back the better gun' gambol gamble (rumble tremble) game (always in the key of stealth from behind strawmen) since what the dutch still call their 'golden age', when, ironically, gold was a mere, stable and passive fall back plan* .. kinda like righties are happiest when their guns can stay under the (st[R]eam)bed ... a pleasant backdrop, reassurance and substrate (safety net).

The gold and silver of/as the happy cloud lining traditionally circulated ..

B - centralization terminating coffer clearances (treasury dissolutions) in order to disband and disperse soldiers, just noticed).

The gun game is the red to that blue, the bleed to that dust, the sunni to that tutsi, the hutu to that shia, iow, the rich strawmen overturning jew (eternally never done did n don' do nottin but wander) vs the poorest. Don't worry though, ... nuttin a few centuries of strict permie oppservance won't cure. So treecrop away .. a few centuries and we'll all be cured altogether, the deserts will green, the treehousing projects rise steadily story after story ... the soil will deepen and ballsy boys will do rocky gauntlet games with oodles of dust and slippery celebrations

For example, the life of a 17th century broker / banker .. sampling away at a fair, arcade, network .. did not remain 'onbesproken' (a primary,drily factual neutral meaning is overlaid with the regrettable and negative sides of contact and frequentage [[typically as a double denial {{{of dutch billfoldabill-l-T-y}}} : 'not uncontroversial']] ... the erosions, first strides for a pedestalized idol to follow and fall 'freely' towards the spectre that strikes terror into even very distant hearts ...).

A reputé is useful to the incontinence and surplus focused worldtrader.

A global reputé is so inherently celestial a concept it quickly proves too big for merely terrestrial britches. This was true for the dutch golden age, it's good standing was quickly disreputabilated by enormous trafficking ventures directed through and by there. It's good reputé (delta karma exponentiated by the entire Cernunnos dust awareness meme, shortlived but powerfully reverberating through the ages) easily minable and strippable, abductable, migratable, financeable to the point where it's gutted empty hulk was reduced to pump out little besides more and more absurd enforcement that made signing away on faith, legal transference of title and an end to continuity with prehistory.

. where was i ... oh yeah, fall back plan .. for the veritable permaculture of/as money, there were 1000 kinds of money in circulation, hence meticulously reported on ... nowadays that pic is per- and inverted into 1000 lying MNCs stampeding their sphere of influence all over each other if they can't achieve their goal of having and/or getting the greatest mendicant into their camp with competition eliminating snipery anymore.

Their 'use' is a short circuit, a last resort, a resorting to finality - which cannot even be ever really resorted to .. i don't care how high and far off a god of gods you claim to have evidence of (they stack infinitesimally into the tiniest of tiny and nearest of dear).

Unfun fundie finality (bullseye!) can be reached for however .. and taught, .. and drilled .. etc, .. one instills and installs a faraway (out)look in people so they don't look out for what's close at hand (typically obvious in the fact that to defend home one must go far away, ... duuuuhh!?!)*

Capture, disarm and detain rebels cleverly, as non-violently as possible must be the aim ... and the best (even voluntarizing) way to do that is to establish a reputation for making these folks happy and grateful for firm guidance towards and transformation into permaculturists. The heaven they hope for in the afterlife brought to life up close and in their face. High walls around as spacious a patch as possible, plenny permaculture manuels, seeds, composting materials and some handtools is all it takes.

* - indeed, the monoculturally religious do sacrifice, discard and show their lack of interest and care for mere proximate petty circumstance ... it's a fucking drought stricken place anyway right? Better be night active when it's cooler, etcetera ... hence all the garden ruining schemery, plottage, projecti(tti)lacionz and ballistizoid buybullshite smearing .. code .. alphabet empty gestures ... if they leap out of their desert environments it's temporary since they themselves are carriers (uitdraggers/missionaries) and spread it from the outside in almost as fast as their escape velocity gives them the illusion they got away.

i'll forgive not being rootED as long as one is rootING .. the pacifist green thumbing part of zionism, without territorial claims, on the run so to speak. Much like the treeplanting crews that sprang up over the somewhat alarmist but on the whole very justified worries caused by clearcutting - financializing the present and cutting off the future ... like what happens now with E-waste to the poorest around the world whence this form of freedom's 'otherING' side of the coin finds IT's way, like water taking the course of least resistance.

From where i'm standing we are already at war, we are already being attacked, it makes sense to fight back wouldn't you say?

Syria was a haven for the refugees from 'warz for Iz' and the influxees have been left to act up and LIVE OUT, rather than taken in to be RELIEVED OF their traumata in the sense i already sketched. It happens all over Europe on a tiny scale compared to what your country suffers.

When people like me act up we are being bombed like Judi Bari

- The ad world is akin to the type top down religion that sets up a spectacle to draw a crowd as opposed to the bottom up religion that comes from last ditch hope for help out of nowhere; either way, it's a dispensational thing, it dispenses something (even if it's just the shout 'follow me!' in passing, or a daylong event like a marketstall) ... An example of the bottom up type is the reverence for landmarks, like the reassuringly ageless glob called uluru or the holy jihad inspiring meteor shower that stampeded entire tribes and made them warlike and wandering, af- and infecting neighbours who in turn mobilized also, one hitherto peaceful tribe after another. This is a speedy version of what patrist overgrazing fistmakers bring about, but more gradually, .. and eventually it reversed cause the Chiemgau comet, though it's noxious gases killed about a 13th of what is now germany, the event was too local to affect the climate. And so, not too long after this local holocaust, the stuff that fell in a hail of molten metal had cooled and was beginning to be mined and turned into superior metals, thus keeping up the origination of warlikeness from that region (southern germany - chiemgau) for a good while.

i dont give a crap why, the fact is in the west women and homosexuals are granted far greater civil? rights than any islamic dominated country and that fact alone should be defended. exactly, if you mean that the idiocy lies in the pretense, turning a blind eye to the export of violence. A muslim is less inclined to go heavily industrial on your ass, he doesn't like to delegate matters of honour to specialists as much, sell-outs excepted of course.

heros don't come in packs and a soldier disqualifies himself not in his choice of arms cause a soldier has little choice in the matter and not that much more regarding his choice for arms.

It might just take a single person a little while's worth of exposure (after decades of undaunted slog) to begin functioning as that once in a lifetime (christians blow that up to once in a universe, making it seem even more lonely at the top so let's go/get*), so over it we come down the other side.

a crystallization point for the right thing: recruit every bit of moisture to restore shade and form soil. "You have to remember Genetic Expression is all Chemistry, and often selection occurs for a chemical change but not a noticable physionomic, geological or anatomical change, ... thus, even if there is a change in the genotype, it doesn't always reflect a difference in phenotype"

Yeah, that lag/gap you mention between geno/pheno (inner/outer) is exactly the cover our beloved pharmies (and armies, strongarmers .. the dutch word doubles its nothing as emptiers 'legers') exploit when cutting corners from appearance to content, from profit/promise/price to nutrition, it's how our* homesteads were invaded by the tribute demanders, the cross the board propagandizers.

... it's how fems get beat by the butches (the flamboyant by the repressed, the poor by the rich, the shia by sunnis, etcetera)

* - it aint all cozy & cute i full well realize ...neoteny has a runaway demographics prob.. or two
A race that has been known to bank on it, got quite upset about being strong armed for generations ... understandable ... and later on (thanks again, Solzh) obsessed with hot hot hotting up the dancage .. to get it out of the way (of real headcase work); it breeds a kind ruthlessness in the venturesome/hard luck type fates which gets the practitioners a bad rap but once the degenerative diseases of inbreeding (to keep the most valuable of neotenous 'ousider pool draining' tricks coming) ... choices got dear.

Physiological or anatomical. - I never said "Geological" or anything like it. What are you talking about?

Dutch: 'leger' = 'emptier' and 'army' ... hints at deeper task of 'defense' efforts worthy that name, empty a rock, turn content to soil..less than loving arms procurers managed to and subvert.

My bad, you indeed never said geological but i stand by my point about exploited gaps: nutritional value/content can drop drastically before it before visible to less than discerning eyes, artificial fertilizers cut corners from appearance to content, from profit/promise/price to nutrition.

what i called lag, gap and cover is the chemical activity and the threshold before it becomes visible

he gets served a very prompt (and convincing reply)

 that 'high' recommendation.

After most people had reconverged after food, James Armstrong from TLIO then gave a workshop on the subject of the Common Agricultural Policy (CAP) - as a protection-racket for large landowners and corporations.

<http://groups.yahoo.com/group/Diggers350/message/2860>

James first began by quoting examples of CAP recipients and the amount of money they have received, such as the Queen who got £1,183,508 over 2 years just for privately-owning Sandringham (20,000 acres), £81 million to British Sugar in 2009 for building a biofuel plant, and £19 million per annum to sugar/biofuel broker Czarnikow (£129 million across Europe; Tate & Lyle across Europe get £828 million).

The figures for the UK-only were retrieved from the DEFRA website, but are now no longer available following an announcement by the government that it would not be in the public interest to reveal these figures belonging to the Royal Family! (read here:

<http://groups.yahoo.com/group/Diggers350/message/3282>).

----- James revealed how even getting an official figure of the UK's contribution to the EU proved exacting, after no reply from the Office of National Statistics (it was finally revealed by the Treasury in a written correspondence; puzzling

however how the figure quoted of £10.3 billion was omitted from the Annual Abstract of Statistics by the ONS). After explaining the origins of CAP and how the new system of Single-Farm Payments (reformed from the previous system of production-subsidies) still rewards the largest landowners, this time quite unashamedly in accordance of land-area, he went onto a discussion around the subject of comparing this situation with the original objective of what CAP actually stands for – which was to “reward agricultural-workers” (Treaty of Rome). In a situation of widespread closures of small farms, the merits of this were discussed.
 James identified that in order to maintain a fig-leaf of public accountability, the EU issued a questionnaire on the CAP as part of a consultation over it's ongoing reform.
 However, the EU managed to get just 196 respondents to the questionnaire in the entire UK!!! James also identified how this questionnaire was filled up with loaded questions, such as “do you believe agriculture is important in the EU?”, suggesting the existing framework should continue which a positive response from a respondent would consent to.
 James then briefly introduced his own questionnaire, which he had been doing all afternoon to people individually. In it are questions about the reality of the CAP, (ie; who it benefits, amount of money for whom, asking people's opinions on whether these aspects are a good or bad thing). We also touched on the subject of supermarket power and further trends in agricultural intensification with megafarms and

end of 54th minute on the Jon Azaziah rant he goes 'filth, destruction and subversion' in as indignant a tone as he can muster, hard to do after constantly trying to up emo settings in that direction, notch after notch, sentence after sentence. Runaway tension building, trauma installing, rubble piling, onslaught suffering in a rather suspiciously pure, onesided mode intent on leaving one conclusion inescapable, possible and true: I am hurt, plagued tortured and pestered, robbed, disowned and exiled, woe is me and that there is the demons who did it, these and them and those behind 'm too.

Don't mean to provoke him into: 'don't be crampin my style', on the contrary i'd love to get a shot at improving it, .. perhaps as follows: effectiveness of your work would increase if you chose more dispassionate tones, stopped implying that a battle is the only solution and instead threw some insight of how you understand perfectly well how it all came to be this way and went so horribly wrong way way a ways away down into darkened buried, compacted, ossi- and petrified pasts* ... just don't go overboard thataway either or else you are sure to meet and/or be lumped in with Winter, Kealy and (recently discovered, a Lette massage therapist operating in the East of Holland .. Blomer, youtube account 'besteberatung' .. in Geman, inspired by Russian style antisemitology). Stupidity is more than enough cause for the havoc we are seeing, evil intent is only a minor fraction of it; cynical exploitation is much smaller than awareness of it.

the 10th minute is a gem, you totally contradict the rest of your cheering and hyping but it's also the most truthful minute. Closer to what's really at stake and play in/behind / underneath your argument: moving, crossing lines, migrations .. and how to police them.

All you've done is given us a containment via natural immunity (insu-/isolation) argument to legitimize (but in fact held hostage to) wrongheadedness.

Often, those who were steeped in and hold on to an anachronistic and obsolesced - though much more decent than presently dominant - set of sensibilities, facilitate and give much worse a pass. They just haven't the experience with toxicity. They do not perceive, discern, distinguish, much less separate, refuse and fight, but DO scold those more sensible and sensitive 'childish whiners', or 'collectivism hating lefties' if you go by your moronation book.

The 'target, pinpoint and eliminate' response to epidemics (terra-rouse'm, etcetera) which the very fighters and combatters cause in the first place, with monoculture, mechanic worldviews and the like, ... is way sick, wayside sick, mercenary vector thinking of the odious kind. Beware.

apart from the plausibility of arguing the opposite, listening to this a fresh thought strikes me:

Is this Karl Kraus imitated by jealous folks, who unlike him don't vent and cultivate a grudge but threaten? Did Karl Kraus own shares in the metal industries?

what if we can blame Kraus for being catastrophically catalytic in the arms race? Key figures there adopt the same indignant and slighted .. 'allarmmof' [upset and upsetting over being set up] tone, not to vent and jog(gle toggle) thoughts but for making credible threats, credit promises work disproportionately too and only slightly more discriminating.

Having fingers in pies and on buttons .. things are gonna blow ... i see a hardening in syrian girl when she is just like the jews she is fixated on mentioning chemical weapons close to lines about phoenix rebirths and going 'its' (?) alone.

Study neoteny dotty org and conclude with me that a portion of all peoples is cagey, closeted, withdrawn and even au- if not artistic. But, even though they are decidedly pacifist - and therefore so much more reasonable and ready to be reasonable (but alas, unable to muster the perception of and the admiration FOR being reasonable) their clever cornercuts are weaponized by their counterparts/siblings, who, once they learn to steal the populist thunder (with or without organs) with vocalized frustration talents (or elections outright of course) are perceived as dangerous and taken as an excuse for and by the instigators to have to take up arms 'in defense' and 'reluctantly'. This is why the bible works best as a silent emissary, far from the places of it's birth. Where we to use jews to read the bible out loud, they, it and/or both would soon be dead and forgotten.

But, according to the Talmud a Jew who is teaching

Next stop: energy weaponizionismz.

To prevent, repent and redeem that doom just blacken your soul, i mean SOIL, deepen it's carbon store and take care to not kill with harsh artificial stuff and lab monstrosities or wash it out with heavy machines. Hitch scolds theism, not for having propelled monomania (on the contrary, he cheers THAT on - pro-Iraq 'worrier' remember?) but to cover for the latter and create a distraction for it with focus on personal consequences and quirks of a colony ravaged and readied to be let go of, trashed, the rocketstage nearly spent and about to drop away.

This whole sham is in turn a distraction for that other major master of his and his doublefacedness: alcohol. Breivik was yet another false flag; here's why:
he defended the changes earlier waves of semitozioids installed and rule, despite the contestations and violent token/signal revolt his atrocity is aimed to evoke; that second wave of semites by the way would just take over the changes rather than change the changes back (differences between islam and talmud are negligible in my opinion); this is a truer sense in which Breivik is extemely, even extremistically, arbitrary.

I am all for non delegation of violence but it needs to be voluntarized though not merely, voluntarizing is the next step; the mobilized must aim to mobilize that which below them to that which is above them (feed leaves with rocks).

what i said about the bible thrown at northern trees yesterday can be inverted yet still true: the bible got itself '*(sem)*itself (ishly)' smuggled north as it tarnished, draped and adorned itself with some northern sentiments (the new testament as the draught horse, the postal runner steed, etcetera); it hid behind and infiltrated in the slipstream of sentiments and statements of moral disposishies and practical attituded that resonated with northern time to open source the jim bell ideas on the voluntarization of 'targeting tagged' taxes ... if you're gonna aim for/at and/or 'pop' ringleaders (pop goes the peaceblocking top) you need first displace those who crowdsource what becomes 'their' money in order to shoot a top into place who will continue to legitimate the systemic rot

Jim Bell played with a very complex mirrorhouse of now you see its, then you don'ts. If i recall he thought a lottery type scheme would have to flex muscle once or twice then sail on deterrence/rep.

It would boost security services something awful .. and he thought he could use it to keep the perps from view to escape retaliation, yet reliably identifiable for scheduled reward payment upon proof delivery ... all this inspired by his being awfully awed with encryption (PGP had just come on line etcetera, still early, pre-internet days then)

.... wait, not even clean money can do a dirty job, then stay and/or continue TO free. Since most monies are dirtied nowadays it would not work to flush and polish ... more dirt would rise .. totally different currencies are easy to keep down

So he was really talking about money amassed the ways jews habitually adopt and practice to oust and do away rather than put in place their liddul pliable pabulum and lies gurgling babyface stooges.

That sword in stone story relates to the ramheaded snake / torque and the bag of coins a celtic god (who has managed to gain support of and shown flanked by Roman gods in a famous work now in a french museum) lets run on the ground ... very much appreciated by all animals, whose Lord he was indeed, keeping soil and thus all that lives healthy with that very 'current' (acceptable) currency.

A god like Cernunnos was the soil's banker and his bringing roman gods to heel the inspiration for the new testament; just like nemrod, offspring of two mighty imperia was ascribed great promise ... not a blade of grass left in his former realm now though ... and the sculptures of cernunnos all but crumbled. Gary Moser ('inmendham' [[he built websites for that place but got fired]] or 'donotgod') is a near perfect specimen of what i call an abuser.

He's interesting to me cause his outward (ly discernable) jewishness is kinda minimal, like mine. He however, unlike me, does allow the gruesomely grumbliest of his otherwise tucked out of sight and for all practical purposes perfectly hidden jewish genes free reign and full expression. Kinda nasty .., i mean both him and rabbichaimmoshe are extremist white jews, very 'alienative'.

They both hate women and femininity they can't control.

I see jewishness, in the very first place, as a type of resistance, not against seduction, pleasure so much as against the results of 'inbound' traffic.

... population (op)pressures (credit not at all tied to permies is bad practice and before long .. presto ... poppresscoverage of denudations, massacres, etcetera).

Tragically enough, the semite does not so much fight against womanhood perse but against his own male shadows in that the women and their receptivity get lots of these dumb superficial male 'taker' traits (exigence, convenience,

Antinatalists like Gary fight the runaway exponentiality -- means nothing more than blow-back after it bounces off an impenetrable border it makes an ever straighter run for ... the backloglash hits unexpectedly nevertheless cause it usually dishonours and exploits a slew of them before running .. them .. over and over and .. away from them .. onto the next before it runs out .. of them -- of the family (ing) chore Jews indulge in early and often, de rigueur for their 'cute and ruthless' type secrets to success cultage. That is to say, parenting age down, reflexivity and numbers of offspring up, shallowheadedness up, fleece and flee all go ... gradually, through refinements such as invisibilization of the fleecing, digital coinshaving etcetera ... shedding shock value to pick up insipidity instead.

Subjects/perps always ambivalent (deathdefying) and/cause fed up with forcefeed (ing) .. this constitutes many a 'teufelskreis' .. many a not at all rainbowcircle / medicine wheel / mandala of 'matrology' let alone grippie- like population EXpressures Fumbling for the brakes when hurtling into a surroundings blurring thanatopist speed is a sensible undertaking and worthy goal but circumcision is a great big fail

... on top of that it has bred a dangerous combo of the thing resisted most (feminine guile and secrecy) with the most dangerous expression of machismo: biocidal weaponry.

Then there's the jew gene factor -- using wealth to fuck and breed in all directions, inoculate every race with jew blood jew talent and due degeneracy .. drawing attention to them selves as well as hiding agents of and for them and their cause. Most of the moral issues in this vid are indeed overturned by the metrosexual artsy folk with a smidgen of jewish 'more' (moor?) tucked into their disposish .. invisible to themselves in most cases and all the more if or exactly as far as it acts up and out.

AJones has eyes firmly focused on and for only naZionist progression; he tries and tests how far he can run ahead without losing his position at the head of the woowoo crowd, a comfortable lead 'indeed'. "The Innocence of Muslims". A lot of these people weren't coming out to protest the film per se—they were already going to protest American imperialism, and the film just became a rallying centerpiece. But you can see why it would anger anyone it was directed at, as apart from the derision there ...

thanks freddie, you makes me realize i've heard it all backwards up till now; what these films, stockpiled, redone and rerun until wrung (out to) dry, timed for 'momentization'-pregnancy and max 'momentonation'-proneness; often hawked left and right to no avail before 'breakthrough' as in this Coptic made version ... what these films can and do is to delegitimize protest about genuine and reasonable grievances; it disrespects, dirties and disregards them; it's like the Izian who cares not a whit about the plights of Palestinians ... people with perhaps less but really hardly less of a book and certainly more of a blood based claim to the 'holy land' (cough retch choke puke).

The west, to top of a much weightier bombing 'issue' .. for good measure (a no good and on top of that 'for good' measure) engages in hate speech plain and simple .. the dourest and stickiest layers of hatefulness lies not in the portrayal of whomever, or the degree of vilification so much as in the distraction and deflection, the bait and switch; the role reversal it's the exact equivalent to the agent provocateur in western lefty protests; the window breakers in standard police boots and all that jazz - the fbi bomb seminars for logger companies.

Boots and bombs vs digitized 'lensation' ... guess who's gonna win this?

Exactly, the boots and bomb people who employ the 'digilensudation' (boobtuberation) savvy savants ... same as it ever was ...

the bankers took away from the bulletpeople initially but helped raise the stacks and stakes to irresistible and in every way indefensible levels

.. they also helped install the gratification postponement and plottage mean in the originally by nature very impulsive and reflexive hi-testmacho ...

.. so we now have a dwarf in the neck of a monster with a panoptation array probing into the solar system and beyond; the way remote control panel arrays can stack up is not in any principle way different from the pyramid of preferred reserve currency baskets as the extension of an all angles covered castle guild lane forest stream orchard field complex of yore; but the scale extent and unnatural one-waying brought to bear.

Kevin MacDonald and all who hold to him (including my former self, died seconds ago) are sanctimonious assholes ... it aint the jews who installed and relentlessly instill the ideas, memes and programs of multi-culturalism (in order to weaken whitie rule and eventually dislodge them altogether), it aint the jews who tell themselves this: 'hey, come hell or high water i'll never go back to europe' ... well .. actually they do do that too, right alongside with and also, on top of that, aggravatingly and tensilizingly (strengthening a globalism gone badly wrong) from totally different angles (partly as a punch ball dummie and partly as a way to hide and distract from the eurasian attempt at white genocide - dark pages the holocaust propapieces also aim to cover over and keep hidden behind themselves).

Multiculturalism is, in the first place a justification for whities on red soil; and you might argue similarly sick ventures in africa were prior to that " In other words, only the Jews can criticize Jews."

Why Palestinians Want This Video Removed ----- Redemption1948 • 4318931 x
The Arabs who occupy the land of Israel want this video to be removed .

jews did not end their grudgy bookie kept ways, incubated in terminally termitic ghetto stackery .. but they did manage to stop the spate of expulsions that happened just exactly as regularly, soon and often as they shirked and stopped practicing their own fucking scriptural jubilees, preferring their more concentratedly hateful books and better hidden cabals ... the whole things is based on the secret sex act ... but not by female choice rather to force and artificially inflate their numbers just as phonily as they inflate their entitlements.

Judaism is nothing but the 'salonbepaehigung' of ghettoistic 'fokhok' stackery (breedpen, blood, guts and less glam version of the lofty heady prime estate of real heady office compcubicle collidolDpoopscoop)

... a campaign funding, orwellspeakian voterfuckmechanism whereby the elite can remaintendroid in the garden patio unperturbed by the thought and in full knowledge they are able to do so by the (DIS)grace who are held in their ghettos a lot less voluntarily (by staccato tides of loose sand dunes plopped onto every escape route almost as soon as they open up and growing faster than you can climb them could be a great new sport ... scaling the steep sides of dunes when the rich kids can get out of their bmwz and the poor ones can stop themselves from burning them).

times changed since 'das deutsche Volk in schwere Zeiten' which, despite the depressing title, talked examples of the opposite .. transformative remigration, .. succesful pilgrimage, repairing the birthright chain ... changing the stream direction from refugee to revenue.

..... the upward mobility concept has obvious vertical / radial connotations, radiCal ones also if you allow us to burrow and mole a troll to the real grounding nitty gritty ... but dutch for instance, has lost that meaning completely, using the word 'promotion' instead; meanwhile both ways to express this process and proolly most synonyms (i can't think of any right now ... or else ... you'd read about it just about here) DID get started in soil sensible sciences before being leveraged away from them completely ('leaving' them gutted) TO socially calloused ones

hearing someone called a climber we assume social pecking order context in the first place and not mountains trees or stairs ...

the original, useful but alas, forgotten social function of monuments / rituals was in my opinion this:
the stockpiling of rocks carried in from a long way off .. in order to crush and distribute them locally so they supplement and complement local trace mineral deficiencies practically 'eaten up by the disheveling levelage ... used to kick severed heads down for instance .. which then had to be passed through little eyes on the side of the basin to escape similar fates. Gaming is a life and death passtime ... ask any toddler.

CAUTION, DENSE NOTE COMING UP, BRING YOUR BEST TOOLS

the removal in time = commemoration the noosphere ... is that close to 'noodeugd'? .. short for 'van de nood een deugd' (profit through adversity ... easily slid and slithered way down into the satanic subregisters of ethicality, namely the rejoicing over a fellow man's, a neighbour and/or neighbouring entire people ill fate - basing 'GdP' = 'Gruesome National Product' on it even!)

Barrett and Tarpley:
<http://www.americanfreedomradio.com/archive/Truth-Jihad-32k-101212.mp3>
10/12/2012 Friday - 1st Hour: With Vincent Gillespie. 2nd Hour: With Webster Tarpley.

i have the KB w WT file from the 23rd ... it's actually quite interesting
.. on polygamy and zionism both sponsored by the British Corp

only one brief comment;
... it makes me quite mad that KB allows himself to be shut up about zionism after WT claims it by "no means has a monopoly .." yada yada .. which is a veiled (seenot, notsee not say - nutsie nazi) kind of way of admitting that they infect and spawn freely to either hold up the new victim as the new thing to celebrate or shoot down, depending on political winds, perfect right left combo, target and/or hide behind (Al-CIAduh volunteerage peerage) ... such deflection helps attain seniority ...

In the last minutes he enumerates a few crime syndicates (a chinese one and the bahai included, adding Whahabis as an afterthought later#) which the Brit Empire created .. and KB doesn't even propose to include zionism as a grandchild, let alone a favored one, a true heir, the most 'succesful' (nefariously influential) one and remains mum instead.

- Webster Tarpley shows his LaRouchian roots when accusing Brit Intel of creating Joseph Smith, Karl Marx, Bab of the Bahai, the celestial kingdom of the Tai Ping (1830-1840 ...Hang - protege of unnamed Baptist from South Carolina, a 'Secessionist Proto-Confederate' minister) who declares himself the younger bro of jesus christ.

Nice swipe at secessionism there Weepstar, did you get it dirty and crying?

----- 1847 Hong Xiuquan studies with Rev. Roberts in Canton, then travels to Guangxi to visit Feng Yunshun, robbed on the way, but still makes it to Thistle Mt. Guangxi, convinced God is protecting him. Now over 1,000 converts at thistle Mt. Becomes more Anti-Confucianist. Destroys King Gan idol. ----- 1848 Yang Xiuqing, a Hakka charcoal maker becomes voice of God the Father when in a trance state, Hong accepts this. Xiao Chaogui, a Hakka farmer, becomes the voice of Jesus

From the site linked below. Elsewhere there his full name is given as Issachar Roberts; i wonder how available the evidence of this tutor's interaction with Hong is. Either way, the religious frenzy of this leader triggers hysterics to the tune of 20-30miljan victims killed dead according to Tarpley.

But the tally here taipingrebellion.com/timeline.htm does not substantiate that claim ... if collateral damage increases the fighter casualties by a factor of !!!!40!!!!, doesn't that make it worth mentioning????

Tarpley continues to list the violence in india (BIOffice), transnationalized into arabia whence it emerged as whahabism (already morphed to salafism, different dress code same dogma) ... did he leave out any continents?????

God has a wife who gave birth to Jesus, Hong Xiuquan and Yang Xiuqing.

The Taiping land program was based on the nine grades found in The Rites of Zhou (Chou)??/? one of the ancient classics, describing the supposed utopian state in the ancient Zhou Dynasty. All would receive an equal amount of land, based on productivity, excess would be stored in a public granary.

from a small page which claims that the 10 commands were taken rigidly and literally .. hence the excuse for piecemeal murders which of course i doubt not, snowballed rather monstrously.

<http://taipingrebellion.com/service.htm>

the site has a couple dozen such pages, using very veiled language, i see a ref to a US missionary Rev. I. J. Roberts it's obviously a case of civil war, internecine, intertribal war due to ... a bible translation .. whaddayanooooo ... i don't suppose myster Tarpley will allow me to call it a zionist supremacism screed .. how about a zionist holy book subverted and/or misunderstood as .. etcetera .. after all, who can have a monopoly on that slippery something called meaning ? What difference would it make .. to the facts?

I don't only see facts, i see a pattern: globalist intriguelings being taken in, rescued, taken pity on, their farflung ideas, ... just as farflung these viral vectors, rogue adventurers, fortune seekers and unrest triggerers themselves are farflung in the flesh, ,,, get a hearing, tasted, partaken of, swallowed, indulged in, become instrumental in self glorification ... we be the great messenger's host, no we be the man's long lost treasure he claims to be after, we're better than our gold, better than our peers, we have better arms all of the sudden ... we write ourselves into a brandnew future that doubled back to pick us up, just let's make a little room for us ..move a few things out of the way with as little disturbance as possible ... but they might as well have taken suicidal venom

the inventions of applied savantism would all turn out gardener approved were it not for violent minds weaponizing hem.

One and all must herdify, pool and bundle themselves and stuff to get leverage .. BUT not aimed to mobilize and voluntarize at once it will turn garden tools and implements into arms presto!!!

ps: bold portion tacked on post C post

all you idiots have dirty minds ... if i was to focus on the 1830s i'd do a program bout the implications of 'forest rites' ... look it up!!!!

i'll try my hand at it: jews famously poured a hell of a lot more than imbibed .. and that itself is an indictment it was a kind of ammo for them. Read Solzhenitsyn most controversial book, it remains untranslated unless you don't mind paying a visit to the far right.

As far as i know it inflames and arrests brain growth, even severs the hemispheric connections needed to nurture neotenous genius.

It's a blatant agression against, prevention, preemption and betrayal of a peaceful impulse. Here, have a beer and sign up for a few free bullets.

i actually watched it on the zionist crime network account where the vid is renamed:

The Fearless Ken O'Keefe vs Supremacist Rodent Daniel Pipes
i listened to Scott Horton w Ran Cohen from 09 yesterday and he said something you don't hear very often and it explains the israeli serial agressions, the breaking off of which they expect gratitude and compliance for. They like to be seen as merciful not usurpers triggered by the constant reminders of rightful owners being crowded out and together just next door. Ran Cohen: 75% of Gazans once lived in places Israel 'took over', much like they did in Biblical times. Shameful claim squared.

i wrote this on their pad (with the incomprehending live response from an Assad hater left out):

this whole thing strikes me as a huge diversion; after all, let's recall the root of this problem, look at it from below and past it to the present within a few paragraphs.

here goes: nerdy bookkeepers began to be necessary and had to be carefully tended and bred, they were hi priced and thus attracted a good deal of coercion from which they suffered enormously; neotenous near autistic talents were sought and unearthed. This caused psychological and genetic scarring, bookkeeping became a grudge nurturing and the nerd began the seesaw tides between bullets and coins for thousands of years ... betting on both ends .. just to be safe ... or to keep safe .. at the other end of courier and career lines with huge lengths and strenghts ... those today as quite as toxic as what they convey and 'remotate' cause digitalia, economics and the art of war (=fight 'fairing') have been spoiled by this ancient injury embedded in the very bones and textbooks, blueprints and manuals of this desert culture .. with roots in the first mass societies, irrigating civilizations .. etcetera.

It can be bred out only if/when and as long as kept and restricted to permaculture very very stringently.

In dutch there is the wonderful expression:

van een nood een deugd maken ... and that's exactly what happened to the nerdy roots and symbol shuffling core of jewish culture, they turned the tables on an oppression ... they began to enjoy their symptoms so much they made them virulent, celebrated and 'shared' (infected with/weaponized) them, raised them into a standard.

deugd = virtue, a prized moral and ethical trait

both the soldiers and the freedom fighters need to have an opt out alternative ... to study permaculture and begin to have something positive in common .. instead of being the operators of arms (but not loving arms).

today the main dutch religious daily paper shows the culprit on the front page: a man walking in the desert with a huge torah roll that puts the finger on the sore spot exactly .. textbook, blueprint and manual of supremacism; root of institutionalized ... official class divisions, .. all sorts of artificial divisions. nasty divisions.

i remember what i was gonna say: in light of the above it makes no sense to me that a bunch of hackers are gonna overthrow and/or undermine the folks who have the market for hacking pretty much locked up when it comes to teamwork ... something to do with decisive headstart laws i believe. I think a back up plan is in order how many western izreal consulates turned to rubble and ruins will it take before they decide things must change?

Voluntarism and Anti-Zionism

let me see .. you say: no such thing as a voluntarist (voluntarism based) state, iow, a state of grace is an oxymoron, .. it's impossible to formalise 'voluntization'??

Not prudent to commit, be regular and dependable .. to bundle, coordinate and time efforts? Sacrosanctify chaos?

* - by that i mean mobility in the sense of Arnold Keyserling (an eso guy you may like though he too mixes kaballah and i-ching) except i turn the states of it he describes and calls dimensions also, .. into a verb in order to increase his merely 'stated' axes of mobility (/space commandation / niche filling), .. i add: unfold rock .. a paradox AK wasn't buyin

To actively have a hand in and thus partake better of these various graduated and sequential states, one may and must make dust .. unfolding rock increases the complexity and yanks the natural increment of/by small 'chainzj' for all beings .. pleasantly. In a desert or on very high ground this may sound absurd but with a little heat concentrating glass, both flat and bulbinated one might find comfort and power aplenty in formerly marginal land ... that's what gives me the confidence to recall all whities back to europe by the way (big deal actually).

contrary to the dowhap97 NM guy, Ry Dawson (his admirer NewVinland), Tarpley, the cabbie guy (34thou views for his rant already) and cetera. Here's why: Let's compare founding texts to hardware of the very wrong kind.

Now skip forward a few millenia and InDustTreeVolitions (i wish) and see Netanyahu do the same with the hard stuff; he says ok ok alrite already .. i'll give you your goddamn poxyclops. It aint me after all, HE is the reluctant messiah and i am his MysterJones. Just kidding. No, what i want to show you is a deeper layer.

He goes (well, it's as if he does in the unutterable subtext acted out rather than written down .. he's welcome to copy this though), acts as if to say:

see, all that stuff we withheld funds --for other than this purpose-- from, all those arms we have traditionally invested in instead -- in order to be able to distribute gold to soldiers (rather than to farmers who would promptly hang it on their women in all sorts of shapes and keep the stuff too dilute to ever gather back together again) -- is really no prob, it's practically childsafe, we can use it upon very close by fr..ehr.. enembours and yet suffer no ill effects ourselves. We gave you all those substitute phalluses and now you get the gratification of sticking them to the man, stick them in me pipe and i'll smoke them already. You see, he just doesn't realize attacking gaza is really attacking his own culture, even the very root of zionism, cutting his own flesh, they truly don't know what they circumcise.

Now Zionism likes to have, well, .. at least claim and breast(pound) themselves with at least the reputé if not the actual decency of sticking to roots, being unbudgeable, defending themselves merely if need be, if the outcry 'phoney'!! gets a little too loud after a claim reinstatement (they just won't stay put persky thinks) ...

This flixmixrace, this displace-a-race; implacably vengeful desert god warshopkeep demanding waste of space cannot defend decency other than in that familiar mistaken, wrongheaded and thanatopical and COUNTERproductive fashion (as gay and feminist as paris x wandervogel x hollywood) as they did left and right across the diaspersion manouvre era, casting everything into a confusion that whips them in the lash real hard rite now and as no amount of prohibition or interdiction stopped them along the way they're on their own now, up against themselves and if Tarpley's dark speculations are to be believed, this will end very badly but that guy hasn't a clue about anything other than arms. He's proly pissed about having to hold back and/or hide his truer LaRouchite feelings, even darker rot in my opinion, about rockets and Mars .. put off and away till times wax opportune; he means to talk us past or out of a WW in Siberia scenario first i believe. Good luck getting him to say tree-army.

Israel's much touted, aped and parroted pabulum prop, to wit, their 'right to defend themselves' blocks the very very life or death matter type urgent perception of such rights denied their target .. preemptively!! .. and aim to establish an inequality from the getgo, a required course to get a coward to pick up some courage if and when vastly superior weapons and thus unfairing of the fighting isn't enough. Now, don't get me wrong, it think a reluctance to fight is more honourable than an eagerness no matter how arms grades are distributed. ... But the pacifist force bundling that should be so easy if whoever really is a group clout touting group of significance rather than a collection of pleasant peasants.
Thus the dubious insistence on that premise and clause is the first among lies doubling over lies over and over .. having cornered all the rights to defense there aint nothing left for their opponent and that's the 'safe to attack' signal (rather than an 'attack for safety' sort of thing).

Mirror game addiction symptom, exhibit 2:
After rebranding provocations and tucking them into the blind and mute angles language mirrors, the onslaught proceeds apace .. again and again, for decades, centuries, millenia. Sometimes they 'revisit' displacingly, to put it mildly, and thus unrightfully 'settled' land.

Local Interest Free Currency or this money scheme..by Tilasmi

i actually forgot to point at the great champions of local currencies panoply like Rittershausen, buddies with U v Beckerath but the rant goes on a lot longer there (linkie supplied)

Talk about money, an/or about media including the slipperier massage fluxifluidities for that matter .. and the deceitful entitlements of the cerebral ones, that most infamous and ancient of crowdsourcerage, the UKnowyahuism, are never very far away, implicitly and seemingly in (ex)tracably so even. Once you get used to noticing this, it simplifies the implications enormously - once you know they focus on fucking up the causation records no matter how high the correlations mount and stack up, letting impressionabilitation run riot, iow, rig formal and ignore free expression - it all starts to makes sense .. and all them protocols do too.

Neotenized despotism is a brainy affair and so it's already astounding enough they never WILL but positively unbelievable they CAN't even ever mind the obvious (ly evil) hijacking, the denomi- & deracination of true nature mintage here, which they rob and mutilate, then hoist and worship; i'll give you a sketch of it unmolested here, not a luxury or superfluidity, seign that urbanity kills the green thumbination in no hily risen time flat:

squeezing the rawrockmaterial for the soilbanking system is/as the standard, the stipulated means of fillfilling not a debt but duty and decency obligation, a natural jubilation, relaxation of a cramp .. an action quite as ideal as effective .. a pile of rocks, a monument, which some benign rescuer, adopter, creditor even fed you for DISTRIBUTING in advance .. resulting in a crush, ashlike pow-d-er ..

... not central power compounding natural scarcities with artificial ones, like not just narrow but moronically literal views about measuring up to standards vs a standardization of uppity measures; to demand gold in payment* is the opposite and betrayal of gold's meaning, similar to the standard meter in paris which would FOR SHITSURE inspire fear if (/when and as long as) measures made and taken with that original were the only ones that counted but those done with copies were null and void ...they don't keep the reckoning unit undented, unworn undamaged and clean any longer but are parasitized by the coercion industries, SUBcontracted, DIStracted and sidetracked into MILITARY CONTRaction

* - One can express prices for contracted deliveries in gold's unit (y) of account always without ever handling or seeing the real physical and tangible thing ... as long as it circulates freely enough someplace; it can be referred and tied to indirectly via a series of price and goods vectors (check & balance chains of varying lengths and lifespans); this works all across the world and with anything standardized such as indexed baskets and even if all ingredients remain on one side of it, as long as they are marked to market in situ then the trade ties will translate into local price levels, you idiots don't understand that cause you have refused to take the advice of me and a handful of others to look at the relevant evidence.

You don't want to handle Keen not cause he is far defter at juggling debt's conjugations and endlessly varigated split and rebundled risks and virulence, which he is but certainly not bycause he touches on any of my fundamentals which he doesn't.

Gold mining is the reverse of my natural course of event depiction: gathering distributed traces from gigormous collateral polluted and discarded dusts and dignities .. the opposite of the the fertile attractive folkway expressures .. the cash .. good to go, good to grow and know.

It's more important to point out that associating gold standards with austerity and rigidity like your guests do and you joining in with a claim that shortsighted debt handlers are looking to mime this meme .. about lurking danger of fuses blowing and circularity shorting from 'only the best', past 'only the best for us' to 'the best for us only', entitlement gain seen only in terms of others losing them and then even robbing outcries over injury and loss when times are bad everybody longs to turn invisible hands of time back to good, regular and sure one. the filthy rich as the only ones left who can afford a pretend autonomous life (dutch glossy 'Landleven', .. makes me puke just to think of that kitchified or at best museumized nostalgia) which maps one to one over the jews who cries ouch while he injures his target. Pure hunger and eagerness to express that lifeline sympathy. dey djus' cain't wait.

I hate to be hard on you for a one liner which by definition can tell only half of half a story at best but never have i seen you broach the Real Doctrine subject, the matter of stipulation and acceptance. The guy's who's very name (Knapp) implies austerity (means Knappheit) nevertheless came up with a brill form of formulating and institutionalizing voluntismz of a kind no amount of clever anticipation had hitherto for (wo) managed to formalize.

Exchange rates mean fuck all don't they; subject to tides of stockpiles goin on the block wholesale, dormancies ending, contracts maturing, wars breaking out. The ethics of the substance the symbolize and merely represent is what does the real 'counting', for example:

An Iz man will not leave 1 piece of fruit to the palestinian for every hundred he steals, he prefers to raze the orchard and invest in rockets a hundredfold of what the palestinian can afford to spend on what amounts to little more than a token of protest over such colonial injustice. This is the root of our economic woes, the cause of Chinamen getting ideas and invading Tibet, etcetera.

Meet the head of the IDF's social media unit, Lt Sacha Dratwa, who steered Israel's lousy hasbara campaign on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and elsewhere, which Hamas beat hands down. Dratwa has a very public Facebook account where I found this photo. Imagine, the arrogance of not caring that his 1000+ subscribers, not to mention curious observers like myself, can see his dark painted face with the words "Obama style" underneath. Apparently you can be as blatantly racist as you want in Israel and still enjoy Obama's unadulterated support.

cause they simply did -- easy, cause i could source more neotenous stages lower on the genetic tree back to where the ethnic branches of my parents stopped mating and parted ways - learned this from Andrew Lehman but the gender crowds prove as resistant to my pointers as those dealing with shit to my rock dust ones -- i WAS denied public space i DID ask for though .. to do some recombina-linetoe-tricks - i was 'raped' (more like seduced) by footfetishist at 16 and saw the gamut since, being quite optimistic about my catalytic rolemodularity for a rapid run to running peace in place . in to the ground .. for grounding

... but ... you can prolly guess, i was ..
instead interpreted as a devil with evil paedophilic intent .. by my mom first and foremost (though mutely, it basically rests on her [[also silent]] outrage over my refusal to marry and commit) ...
i am after global roamery, once again at her side and we are condemned to each other till my prayers about offering her better teachers than i am are heard: 'o father, take this cup away from me lest i drown in it.'

ptyl wonders about "black Zionism" being real or not, by nature more obscure than the religious and survival varieties, both possibly instrumentalized and directed by the first mentioned one, who by the way, he claims are not in Iz, going about working the dark rootzone in the worst possible way. I can give this train of thought a lot of credit but ... does he wonder if his parents actually exist instead of being as much a figment of imazination as their aim directing the blame away from their own peers -- was it ashkenaz vs sephardim, a clash between khazaric and more semitic jews. Their direction and aim of warwoe blame was well flawed if they call the hollycoast a

the words you spoke before that? "racial inheritance"
No, nothing wrong with 'thaat'; it IS wrong to PRETEND to have kept a race safe .. held onto it's integrity ... 'be a certifiable / bankable member of a race (rather than identifying with a genetic trait that seems to breed true to some parasitical code or other, the easier the more blissfully innocent the host it gets inserted into), even wronger if that's the very one you are fighting and edging out, the race whose rights you claim and attempt to steal. Bycause jewishy faithers identify with suffering tout court and in general, they are blind to passing it along, beaming broadcasting and bombing it about.

If you are saying inheritance is wrong then you'd get along with my parents who think, quite biblically, one has to work 7 years to earn a wife, nothing is a given and this earth ain't our home.
Inheritance can be discontinuous and intermittent but indigenes must be left to shrink or swell their soil, +/- fallowness due to duds .. but to wangle these into sell-outism is what most despicable of specialists do and the army is proof that it don't go fast enough for the bullets and beans counters.

So, to recapitulate, the blind eye gets turned to MEANS, going from dirty, past deadly to downrite devilish ... in order to over-obsess and project ENDS .. which are neither centrifugatively racial, centripetally gendered nor culturated and classlike or purely personal but rather all of the above tumble bumble fascion.

It is wellknown, although often forgotten, that the Zionist leaders of Irgun Zvai Leumi (National Military Organisation, NMO, otherwise known as Lehi or the "Stern Gang") in 1941 made a proposal to the Nazis for an alliance to fight against the British. In the text of the proposal one can read a perfect synthesis of the common roots of Zionism and Nazism:

"The NMO, which is well-acquainted with the goodwill of the German Reich government and its authorities towards Zionist activity inside Germany and towards Zionist emigration plans, is of the opinion that:

1] Common interests could exist between the establishment of a new order in Europe in conformity with the German concept, and the true national aspirations of the Jewish people as they are embodied by the NMO.

2] Cooperation between the new Germany and a renewed folkish-national Hebraium would be possible and,

3]The establishment of the historic Jewish state on a national and totalitarian basis, bound by a treaty with the German Reich, would be in the interest of a maintained and strengthened future German position of power in the Near East." (14)

This is like Synagoges in Gaza rite?? i see sell out ones, pretend ones and the occupiers of genuine or no Tibetans; the audience (glimpse at 1:12:40 hours) composed of very composed (but compostwise disfunctional no doubt) chinese functionaries. The nerve!!! Is this what your little errand boys in the west since the dawn of gun powder, zionists, are gonna be allowed to do as the agreed to sign of gatitude for 'services' etcetera? They were good little weaponizers of the sino 'boom!

i got yours' message after all. Except you could afford the luxury of not wearing too many visible signs of aggressors since you went for just about THE most perfectly pacifist region in the world!!!! Even impossible work wants to be rewarded eh?

Yet the theater sketches are in Tibetan which is confusing.
Those parts were done in front of a totally different audience i am sure.
How many of the occupiers even speak tibetan?????

v=rV9Fa1ZVC4w Dear Douglas,
The argument you put forward during the 44th minute (show on the 22nd)-- to wit: that jews are not to blame for the demise of the caucasian race aborting themselves out of replacement figures, though not as draconianly as the chinese do, is true ... (only) if/when you want to claim children have only themselves to blame if they do not better protect themselves against abuse. Do you? Surely not.

HOW, i think you are awfully mistaken about this part of your elaborate look at demographic policy (for which i thank you) and that is it's weaponization, oddly enough it's orthodox

the green movement to push their agenda which has nothing to do with saving the environment and the principle with widest application, the most universally

It's not hard for me to believe that you read

If I'm calling you a bootlicker, the word "you" will

All this in a 'context' (cloyingly goying 'consent texture'), a 'given' and gone roughest overshoot rogue, .. etc .. pfffffiuuw, .. that this 'takes place' within and on a continent i would consider non-white (other than the diffusive and cometary spice ups, downs and arounds). So, getting out of non-white's faces might involve gettin off of their continents if you're willing to shoulder ancestral burdens.

the original palestinian who sold the migrant abraham a burial ground was a traitor, a sell-out, an imminent regime puppet, guilty of opening the floodgate just a seam, a seemingly insignificant seepcrack for the vanguard of an occupying force to plant foot firmly in doorway. But refusing the deal would have made him the first, pioneer anti-semite .. , great spiritual, brown, civilizational crossroads father for subsequent 'territation', resulting in pish posh push overed, push offed and pushed out 'originals', almost every groupuscle of which also claiming to be chosen, not over all or everywhere, but just right there .. to remain in that choice place of tradition and inviolate familiarity (apart from often ritualized and festival type border cross [to affirm 'm] ventures).

Some of us look for and if not see, hope for a revival of just such originality in battered remnants of a huge genocide on turtle island, people who lived on continents renamed the americas long before the imposition of unfair fighting, coward's rule was complete, .. who were 'offered' the deal you simply can't refuse (and hope to live) type injustice (only under occupation, which lasts only untill and while you are delayed and held up 'getting it')

'syndicatizen'

crisscrossroads of primate to human races got .. predictably, overrun and run down .. with a certain amount of wear and tear on folks hanging there The most notorious of these turned into what is now Israel / .. quite like what was turtle island turned into america

Turtle Islanders, before a bible fueled stampede began, never ceded land in treaties .. the price of vigilance against infringement and damage was thought fair enough proof of ownership and way to pay for it.... BUT (more and more nowadays) as we all know, keeping things off the market, unexploited, off-limits and even (ouwh groce, archaic, barbaric, backwards) taboo is a mortal sin against multicultural massification, lowering of all standards, prices, thresholds, barriers, mountains of objections, dykes and borders, etcetera, ... so we can all wallow in the mix and help each other keep it clean and head towards that ideal free for all, right? Yeah, if you want to twist marketability into market dominance that all makes perfect sense.

The term anti-semitism really is code for a particular kind of herd management, a mechanism, a mental lever used to degrade one's equal into a herd to be steered and managed; it applies to the degree of awareness amongst the herd of their herdsman, their elite cowboys, those who cow their fellow creatures; a willingness to do this makes one a friend of israel (exactly as much as a willingness to do so by deceit and secrecy makes one a protector thereof, that is to say, of a global crime syndicate, running drug and gun rackets on black budgets, worshipping cats and all that).

First, 'the Jews' is a grossly inaccurate and atavistic way of referring to the Zionazis, who are just a faction among Jews, though they enjoy (or extort) at least the passive support of nearly all. Second, the disproportionate political power of the Zionazis is due to the fact that the decisive element in the British ruling class consists of Jewish international financiers, almost all of whom consider Zionazism an excellent investment. The other parts of the British ruling class consist of privileged manufacturers (especially armaments manufacturers), large landowners of feudal origin, and finally a body of persons distinguished solely by birth whose contribution is to maintain a panoply of bullshit mystique. Abby and Tarpley on Italy vid; Rowan goes:

The title misses the point when it calls it a "right-wing cult". Beppe's movement or non-movement doesn't care who joins it, right-wing, left-wing, religious, anti-religious, pro-state, anti-state, or anything else. It's a catch-all sell-out vehicle for anyone stupid enough to be taken in by it. Now here's the mechanical anti-fascist bit:

Not that Grillo doesn't mention capitalism, the faults of bankers etc. He does it. However, there's no peculiarity in that part of his discourse, he simply revives all the cliches of European right-wing populisms. The issue is framed in a simplistic neo-nationalist way: "real" capitalism (ie productive capitalism) is described as good because it is rooted in the territory, whereas financial economy is degenerate because it's in the hands of evil transnational cliques and lobby groups ... We all know that there's often an antisemitic streak underlying this kind of talk about "nationless" enemies. Is it a coincidence that antisemitic tirades and insults are frequent in the below-the-line section of Grillo's blog? In November 2012 a guest-blogger on beppegrillo.it attacked Gad Lerner, a Jewish journalist who dared criticise Grillo, by calling him "Gad Vermer". Verme is italian for "worm", a classic insult in the antisemitic repertoire...

This is clutching at straws. It's tiresome and beside the point. It's obviously true that physical production is a national asset, whereas international finance is a parasitic imposition, More to the point is their observation that of course Beppe will sell out the the international financial system the moment he has anything to sell. If his movement is happy to welcome fascists into its ranks, that is because it will sell them out along with leftists, centrists, and whatever other -ists have been stupid enough to join it.

NB: implicit in what I'm saying, as I'm sure Helvena will already have spotted, is the distinction between genuine fascists, ie those who believe in the classical fascist ideology, which is nationalist but not racist, and the pseudo-fascists who have proliferated since Baron Julius Evola's post-WW2 defection to Gladio, which took his thousands of Italian followers with him on the spot and paved the way for the Italian "strategy of tension", and over subsequent decades took tens of thousands of Evola's readers and remote followers world-wide. Evola's defection was based on the idea that anything, even NATO rule, was better than communism, which was the last stage in the decay of civilisation, corresponding to the final stage in the regression of the castes, from warrior rule, to priestly rule, to merchant rule, to slave rule. He got this so-called 'law of the regression of the castes' from René Guénon, for whom the priestly rule stage was superior to and earlier than the warrior rule stage, which shows how arbitrary and unrelated to real ancient history the whole scheme is. The esoteric message of Evola's post-war work was that the NATO empire, with its characteristic defense of capitalism, would at the very least arrest the regression of the castes at the stage of merchant rule, and might open up the possibility of a return to warrior rule. This is all rubbish, but Evola was revered as a mystic sage by his young post-war Italian devotees. I devoted quite a lot of time to helping to translate some of his pre-WW2 works via French from Italian to English. They are here. To me this was definitely time not wasted. I feel that I understand fascism as a form of nationalist idealism, sufficiently that I often have to check excessive sympathy towards it, which is just as it should be. I'm not like those mechanical anti-fascists, with their mish-mash of ignorant stereotypes and their Pavlovian hatred of 'anti-Semitism'. But equally, it's vital to understand that post-Evolian pseudo-fascists are overwhelmingly likely to be Gladio pawns, whether they know it or not.

the whole point about 5-star is that it is a catch-all party, so this is pointless moaning

Italy kingmaker's anti-Jewish views under scrutiny

AP, Mar 8 2013

Comic Beppe Grillo's populist tirades were seen as a benign outlet for popular anger in the days his protest movement was a sideshow in Italian politics. Now that he's one of Italy's most powerful figures, his views are coming under greater scrutiny, and a history of anti-Semitic statements has started to raise concern outside the country.

Ry Dawson replies to my comment on: Iraq War how and why did it really start?

That's not what happened. Big oil was actually opposing the war in Iraq. There was an oil for food program before the war and they already got Iraq's oil for pennies. Post war no one got it as the infrastructure was destroyed.

He is an ultra radical in the (paradoxically) rootless sense ... the postermouth for the entire lefty zionist attrition process. He's the philosopher of cataclysm, all of it direct result of his germophobia. Never was and never will be in touch .. but he's making the most of it, defiantly, all too humanly. Ugly as fuck fucker numero uno. He discounts all nature unless it's raw material feeding technology.

i would go further than Christopher A Brown of St Barbara (though along the same vector) who makes, to me at least, plausibly clear that whities were driven mad as a measure of and a kind of experiment in self-defense .. after all the other known and trusted methods failed; the defenders were prepared to take some risks and incur damage. They managed to program, robotize, in fact hypnotize a few of their own so they could function as a kind of reverse or counter weaponization, they in fact used tagteams, lightbeams, in addition to specific times of day and location instead of like the whites did, something like smallpox, turned into ammo cloaked as charity in the blankets that bore them deadly spores.

Where i go further is in stating that whites who decide to become americans are turned crazy and already a little bit when they even toy with the idea of emigrating (euphemism for joining an occupation plot of the worst sort, the ramifications of which are felt as far as Tibet).

Petras fundamentally doesn't get it: "the mercenary islamists currently taking over syria are sworn enemies of washington" - +3

Let's start with a couple of what the French call précisions. First, "'Washington' is an unreal abstraction. 'Washington' doesn't matter, as Petras should deduce from his own report. What matters is the international haute bourgeoisie, which is obviously Jewish at its core and which is, excuse me, in bed with the fat slimy Saudis and enjoying itself. The CIA, MI6, etc serve this duo. They serve the rich. 'Washington' doesn't matter. It's misleading even to talk about 'the Obama-Clinton administration' or 'the Obama-Kerry-Hagel administration'. They're just puppets. Now, we reach the most important précision: 'Israel' doesn't matter either. It's just a tool. All states and so-called 'nations' are tools. The haute bourgeoisie will bang one 'nation-state' against another until both disintegrate. The point is the destruction of capital, which raises the profit rate. That's all. 'Israel' is not some sort of sacred trust for the haute bourgeoisie, just a particularly profitable tool in terms of the pretexts it provides for invasions and conquests. Nor does it matter whether the USA gains or loses the profit-making opportunities generated by conquest and state destruction in Libya, Syria, Iraq or anywhere else. Turkish capital, as Petras should know, is integrated with the CIA global money laundering empire and has been for forty years. Petras doesn't see the global, Jewish-led haute bourgeoisie behind the national facades, because he supports an aging Left convention whereby it's permitted to attack zionism, but not permitted to attack Jewish money, explicitly, or to draw attention to the obvious fact that the top bankers everywhere are Jews. This is why Petras doesn't even attempt to explain the evaporation of the US Left – RB

Actor/comedian Jim Carrey has taken to twitter recently announcing his plan to release a song titled "Cold Dead Hand." His song will rant against our right to bear arms and the "heartless motherf%ckers unwilling 2 bend 4 the safety of our kids." He exploits tragedy to push the liberal Hollywood agenda of gun control. Carrey, nevertheless, has used firearms in several movies for acts of violence, intimidation, and murder.

most americans are schizophrenic .. stop being suprised about it. A Jones wants all americans to have guns ('cause 'political power' grows from the barrel of it when not everyone has them). Meanwhile, leave it to dutch media to 'report' about 'Corprat' success rates responding positively to gender balance. Yes, that's right, i don't trust them when they bend, buck and buckle trends ... cause i know how easily they slip and settle for that o so seductive mirror gaming, tricks of the light .. using lenses, not to amplify minutiae or concentrate light ... but for mirroring perfectly .. the skitsketch godplay arp arplay .. arp, wroof .. and all .. but it's develishly usurpish, devious, pure ousting and take over hostility in disguise.

To illustrate

Just this morn, a holohoax survivor (you know, that smokescreen that is kept up to hid what happed behind the iron curtain .. what the victims were perpin theresabouts) gets to point at a tiny part of a fresh monument/'toll' (/weatherbell)booth for this rapidly growing propachurch that was originally at this Rotterdam where over 600 kids began a journey to re-education or re-settlement camp ... or auction or something oh wait, no it was early days of torture and genocide against those they pretend to be to. Talk about professional displacers. Rap me a river.

They can't help it, their cultural congenitality was lie and crime based for too long to leave them to their own devices and expect healing; that's gonna take a very high and long wall again.

The hebrews (the part that was taken away, set adrift and started wandering with a hardcore and hybrid buffer zones characterized by enormously revved demographics :: primitive accumulation :: greed :: entitlement :: fist[s] making), always aimed for, sought out and nativaged the turbulence of population pressure induced clashes, toweringly stacked classes and other oddities 'against' them; all the while honing and perfecting a particular type of neoteny, a code jungle and testing the distro ripples of each and every wave they made thus developing high priced rationing genius that spikes class formation and helps through, as well as feeds, endless oppression.

This bias / orientation / talent / vice package has left them everything but a green thumb and the germans were about to try to invert the Midas Myth to bring it more in tune with their own genius, .. it managed to inspire the soft (early / beginning) phases of nazism and zionism both!!!!

Anyway, i think everything points that way, their interest in tibet especially ... i may be an extremely rare human to understand and penetrate this calendarization-like game of relay and tag.

sent all above to SpaFis at this point .. but doubt he will be able to guess the next essential qualifiers, not so much entitling as firmly positioning me for attainment, of these insights ... if i don't point them out:

My dad was prolly pro-german (not too sure though) and so dutch punishment would steer him towards mixed marriage ... my mother too was recruited to push for that integration ideal and be all the more firmly cut off from core and tied into second tier (christian zionism) as HER just deserts for that effort/sacrifice; she had an uncle who was, and had prolly seen the picture postcard boy for the nazi caricature of and focus on jewish 'Miene' (expression / mean? / mean?); the perk for her was my dad's savant ability to playfully do the stuff jews do and a lot more, .. like .. not be secretive about anything much yet remaining (or becoming ... all before my time) sexually repressed nevertheless, as was me mom.

His wife turned out a severe punishment indeed in loads of ways (and i feel wistfully sorry for him often and more often .. as well as more and more often) ... from having only me and not a lot of better sons as well .. to compensate for me ... too far off into left deep green field for him to dial back evils of the chemistry bandwagon (fertilizer, pesticide, soap and paint .. for starters) which he blinded himself to in order to get on it and keep up a pretense one can keep one's conscience clean there; he sure was a modest user; heavy on transport .. but otherwise his meat (SA gaucho culture raised) was clean. Top of the line stuff, .. and very exclusive contracts .. no brothers to compete against and having to share with .. so why on earth didn't i step in you may

by the way, in the 'green heart' of some of the richest most populated cause extensive lowlands of the world, east of Rotterdam, a new house on the peat soil sits on very tall piles sunk into it indeed but even the little gardens and paved paths and garden sink 5c a year and so some people resort to huge foam rubber under them to slow the sink. Well, here's my 'garden culture' sync think:

I was a replay/rework of classic stuff in semite versus teuton and the reconciliation efforts .. like Theodor Lessing and the rightish dude, famous graphologist mythomaniac he grew up with.

I think Jesus was a man who studied the north and tried to do a 'best of' medley down south when he got back home ... and they wanted none of it, kinda like my appeals to MY dad and symbolic crucification (oprot premie = get lost bonus) ensued, i was bribed to leave -- here's a nice job in south africa son, just join this preacher who has conveniently come to share our dinner ... very rare indeed and i wasn't suspicious but flat-out didn't like no slave drivin prospects, even if it was in the orchard business which i did try to aim for at the time; 'nother aim of which mere tattered stub remains -- and given a little starting capital ... the way they drain the west of violence by positioning nice and shinily dark weapons far from home to tempt these loose guns into uniting with the real thing; and it's in the news so no need for black budgets this time.

xxROWAN sezz: There's a great deal of pseudo-profound amateur psychology towards the end of this, of the sort that Jewish authors delight in producing, like the miniature Freuds they all secretly hanker to be. Much of it would be irrelevant if such authors could grasp that above a certain level of security clearance, or "initiation" as the insider jargon has it, functionaries know it's all fake, and below that level they don't. By the way, it's no good looking for security levels beyond TS/SCI, because the higher levels are merely "compartments" within the SCI (Sensitive Compartmented Information) scheme, precisely so that no-one can find them. And Bradley Manning, for the n+1th time, did not have TS/SCI clearance, only routine "Secret" clearance, and that is why none of the Wikileaks files are in fact TS/SCI – RB

All that flies in the face of the point RG made about jews, namely that they pioneered the ending of human sacrifice. During this period many German families were forced to sell everything they had in order to survive. Hence the upper-class Jews with foreign financial connections were able to buy up much of Germany's material wealth for incredibly low sums. Jewish carpetbaggers abounded, consuming the nation like so many parasites consume a cadaver. All classes of Jews in Germany had a feast in the Weimar years, glorying in their perceived victory over the heart of European Christendom, for now they would own it.

from the narration of the vid (for which i can find no sources and so 'chasluim' might be original here):

.... treasonous, hence, similar to how the japanese were interned in the united states, jews in germany were rounded up for their subversive activities; the germans demonstrating that the communist ideology was jewish spawned, and vented much jewish propaganda. Germans did this to combat the communist propaganda, anti-nationalism and essentially, the end of germany

1- You can't buy what someone is not willing to sell.
2- Jews in Germany were German's or were they denied citizenship? This should more appropriately be labeled Why did the Christians dislike the Jews. Oh but I forgot Christians don't hate or dislike. My bad.
3- If the communist ideology was jewish spawned does that make it automatically bad? Or is it bad only if you are a capitalist- afraid of losing your wealth? But then again this video says the jews were well off. I don't buy it.

you forgot "" "communist ideology was jewish spawned" ... least you could do to approximate correctness .. the vidmaker pastes part of an article by the generally very boring Finck having a lucky, proly once in a lifetime lapse/leap into brilliance though void of solutions (2009) but the narration seems original ..
better quote:

"Jews with foreign financial connections were able to buy up much of Germany... Jewish carpetbaggers abounded, consuming the nation like so many parasites consume a cadaver.

a good ('capital is tools, leveraged labour) vid spoilt right at the start with a gun to the (NATIVE'S) head meme, flat out denying the 'taking' of america -- populated by a noble and intercontent (ancestor honouring) collection of nations nicely spaced by grace note filled buffers of allmans(&allotherbeings?besides) lands for sanctuary, reserve, mystery, passage, vision -- by bible addled intercontinentally incontinents WAS robbery but you are wronger than wrong; it was way worse: bio-warfare ... which turned western eurasian cabals rich, demonic and genocidal in both directions, betraying those they displaced ('a[ff]ffront') and those ('ar[r]ear') from amongst whom they vacated and vectored the virus back at (hear Douglas Dietrich on the hidden history of that).

no such thing as nowhere; people who carry rapacious and naive cultural baggage and arsenals mustn't be left unguided till cured (usually an intergenerational chore, like nuclear waste and we have the latter cause too careless with the former); must't be allowed nohow noway nowhere to bother more decent modest traditional embedded peoples ... any longer. Minimal requirements like a few John Liu vids might do wonders though. I think it won't be long before the fracking begins

Interestingly, one of the titles of the Rothschild banking dynasty is 'Guardians of the Vatican Treasury'. 'The Jews', as a people, have been used for centuries as a 'scapegoat' by these international banksters and their secret societies, such as the Jesuit-controlled Knights of Malta. To label 'the Jews' as running banking, Hollywood, etc, is to throw out the proverbial 'red herring' designed to throw us off the scent of the "real controllers."

yeah, eurab(ID)ites now enjoy the (Na)zionism vector but with signs/implements reversed ... begins with guns, guerrilla and knives, not spades and community ... and just not as massively as after the generations long musical chairs jews go through after a swarming, it's like a claim stake race in the goldrush; those who failed to gain a firm foothold within a given time and mix just enough to either completely escape and/or join the prosecution -- that dastardly equivalence devil again; all jews and partial / crypto hybrood breed brewbroos have it ... selling antlertissue to the purist rawfood crowd for instance, it's a joke to them, a badge of detachment, a need to deride -- of less mercurial kin who are requested, expected and supposed to kindly 'settle' the scapegoatpen where they can perform what awaits them until it's their turn.

Questions of Power are always questions of powder really either warlike explosive or peaceful nourishing kinds QoP r tugs of wars between those who would pay taxes happily to fund rock grinders on the one hand and on the other those who lost all moorings to a sound state- and/or fatherhood if they had any in the first place; roaming bands of boys of the loose, who will shoot in any direction as long as they can shoot. Tarpley is a moron to focus on one half of this equation when looking at Venice, especially since that was the EUrasian entry and popularization point of the oriental 'bill of goods' science. And yes, since it is a full remove away from natural money already, it's no wonder negative connotation of that expression proponderate if it's referred to at all, .. the world having moved on to stronger strains of horror, overshadowing the real roots of it - which, again, nevertheless and still, lie in venice - even further.

The old testament in the middle of your global / intercultural incident (insistence [apologists serially call iterations 'an incident'] / habit) string / sum up about the relative gender valuations triggered this:

if you get rid of a surplus (real or perceived) and/or manage to ration it without being raided the price rises; when women are made inaccessible somehow (myriads of ways, humane convents as the decent version of the temple whose stuff that introduced the at first extremely shortlived possession of your one stop shop taxes paid token, yep, gold stayed very close to the girls for a long time) and (m i) way beyond the price parity we get a chosen / lucky few who must live with the temptation of indulging enormous entitlement (rather than bemoaning the sacrifices of siblings a demon turned into competition, or worse, assailers to be fought off and got rid off); ...

....now if these unfortunates are the mascottes and models of a culture, their queens .. they will all begin to act upon and out such a vice (or prudent emergency brake use if you like) turned on its head and sold as virtue (bracketing the tweakability of distributables out in favor of a fuckwit(h) distribution, taking the former as given .. the latter as* something to take to, then of and from as much as can be gotten away with), a cultural entitlement model. Does that describe judaism and its metastatized manifs like the 'by deception' zionist / mossadi crowds and their kkkristian minions????

* same principle of rationing artificial scarcity after all; it leads linea recta to miniaturization arts and sciences, then to

Jews have high entitlement quota to fill and there aint no interpenetration, hybrid and pollution they don't like, if it's not really viable in any of the above sense if will automatically foment wars and raise the stock market which is nothing but a measure of defense industry's momentary fortunes and salonfaehigkeit ... prince of peace following preachers will bless arms en masse ... etcetera. Jews who indulge this are evil, jews and part jews who have learnt to distrust and fight this innate tendency are 'self-hating' and most often too far from the control lever to amount much beyond a pearl in a chain of never ending but momentary spectacles; serial number so and so.

begins in the US the financiers of war - Ry Dawson·816 videos

it WIL all stop but not until a while after peaceful fathering can start and has had chance to set the tone, help folks know better and frown upon, even prevent all these wrongs. The thing is, raging bad examples (Nukes!) needing containment and provoking reactionary, counterproductive resistance preempts and eats into more and more of that very benign potential. You need well publicized pilot projects for that;
that's why i plead for areas of sanctuary for both soldiers and rebels, well guarded but devoted to 'regreenment'.
John Liu and Geoff Lawton in Jordania for example await the heirs of the bail-out era to launder that loot. No chance

Palast on the Steppes of a Dictatorship
Alen Ruff, Counterpunch, May 7 2013

Rowan: Yes, that's silly. I didn't notice that on Counterpunch. I hope it's not a sign their editorial standards are slipping, or another one – letting Louis Proyekt write there is surely a slip, even if he's good sometimes. I just read the Palast piece you posted. It says almost the opposite of what that guy claims. It seems like he only read the first paragraph. There's plenty not to like about Palast, but he's good when he's good, and that was reasonably good, I thought.

lafayettesennacherib -- May 8, 2013 at 8:36 am Oh sweet God no he is an insufferable orthodox trot.
Proyekt that is. I remember reading his refutations of commenters critical of the FSA and the nature of the imperialist juggernaut facing Syria. he replied completely in tired slogans.

Rowan: A standing feature of the US political system is the well understood bargain that immigrants who become rich in the US may, can and should fund 'independence' movements in their home countries, in association with the US's own secret services, which will end up controlling them. It's a form of colonialism by proxy

piles of conscience burdening moolah, posted to Ry's latest on Syria.

Mary Rizzo by the way had this amazing assertion about Assad's lead/hot line to Ghadaffi leading to the latter's death.

Assad should have stood right by Muamar G instead, specially in light of what 'happed' since ... payback for Grozny to some extent

A swiss raggae guy spoke to a Syrian who said that the way the SAA go about bombing an 'infested' area is to fly back and forth loads of times first, which, if true, must be the greatest FSA recruiting gift Assad can 'level' against 'levelling the planting feeld.

Targeting Stephen Hawking and Dustin Hoffman: Right-wing 'pro-Israel' advocacy as hate speech

brings a dream to mind, last nite's, i stand between 2 mad girls and keep them from going at each other with hand on their hearts, both racing, leaning into me.
the dance between the front, so beautifully done, people start clearing the way for you, cleaning up after you, etcetera, showing each other their mirth, glee and tipping off the best showside seats further down the line of heartening expectation to each other; playing god is an easy job if you know how. Just a matter of being patient and waiting till the death driven have done their drive by things and thinned each other out, pruned back to tolerable enough levels, to where they can show an interest in the rest of the world instead of repulsion at clones holding up mirrors and aiming gunsights

Anyway, yes, similar thoughts to those expressed by Burston have occurred to me also, and yesterday as well.

At first glance, the highlighted statement seems extraordinary, not to mention, offensive. One wonders whether the anonymous Israeli diplomat had been drinking. But then one recalls that Jewish history is always written on the assumption that all goyish rulers have to be paid off to avert 'the evil decree.' In reality, unless this is all bullshit from the Russians, we're going to see these S-300s go up real fast, with Russian operators. And then, as we have all been told about 17,000 times, the IAF "will know what to do," that is to say, they'll send a wave of fighter-bombers across Lebanon from the sea to fire air-to-ground missiles at the S-300 sites in Syria. Since these planes are attacking Russian-manned positions, the Russian fleet at Tartus will start shooting them down. Then the IAF "will know what to do" again, they'll attack the Russian fleet at Tartus. Then the Russians will respond by blitzing Israel's naval facilities at Haifa, and possibly some of the dozen or so major IAF bases too. Then the US will bluster for a day or two, after which it will start World War 3, or 4, or 5, whichever group of idiots happen to be keeping count of how many World Wars they think they've won recently – RB over half a billion for Gloria's lottery ticket yesterday (she's 84) reminds me of the post Khmer movie thought about how a certain zoggifying principle affects not just the white race; it goes like this: celebrate, gamble on and invest in that nerdy family member's invention -- and work the welfare racket to nurse the 99% who are useless - causes common(s) fabrics to tear and make it go transit -- transient, transistor with resistors, insultingly liddul and toxic insolayering .. can hell snowball in a runaway mode? -- so society can tier up .. and tear up all together in front of the screen yet in isolation of each other with pretty soon nothing communal enough to be proud of left, to the contrary hell they'll even call a lottery names like 'national'.

As the world unites against Colonel Gaddafi, Panorama reveals the real story behind the country's revolution. Using remarkable new footage, it tells how a group of young professionals bravely stood up to 42 years of dictatorship.

Reporter Paul Kenyon travels across the front line to uncover how the Libyan military fired on unarmed protestors and tracks down the man accused of ordering the shooting - Colonel Gaddafi's son, Saadi.

aside on hasbara methods: knead public opinion through near enough monopolized depententacles to immerse then drown the, even now, still unsuspecting public in, in numbers little dissident shoestring splinternet segments can only dream of and provide pinpricks, laughing stock, scapegoat, amusement, laughing stock and shock horror to, while self incarcerated in a group of spread thin and out converts, very preachable but not martyr minded enough to regroup and make, not a fist so much as another roadside secession stand, knowing that BB's emergency call upon reserves to reinforce gang ups will come top(ple) and can't be matched, so they stay put, lost in their own sockpuppet / mirrorhouse parkmodes going nowhere. And this whole drama might be part of the matrix cubicle accomodation services plot.

What most anti-hasbarites don't realize though is that their fire power (automation fortified pretty much a given in this puzzle/muzzle dot connection scheme) is never allowed to take up all their time; they don't go for the purely idealist, independent gimmick at all; THEY NEVER STOP CATERING TO BASIC NEEDS and thus amass fortunes that will always outstrip the occasional truly independent fortunate maverick, usually their very own heretic/heir, only a percentage of which - similarly negligable, in fact the same as mentioned previously - will engage in 'trutharts' anyways.

I want to convince you that unequalizing market participation is the achilles heel of a dominance doctrine and why, (it is) exactly why they stop and thwart ethical consumerism (which would stop it from being oxymoronic, 'go it' on par with advice like: chew before you swallow)

Biggest fortunes are to be had catering to emergent, contingent and expedient needs; done intelligently such sources typically dry up and are (barring the odd unforeseeably surprise calamity) edged out from areas in full tilt thrival.

So, demonocrologically speaking no suprise, faking real or fake mishap(*pin*es) has taken off with startling abandon.

The flaw that is most satanically hidden proves best in the long run from the exploiter's point of view that is; and these flaws tend to diminish in stupidity and become increasingly telling about the calculatingness of callous indifference involved in amassing fortunes; it practically predicates them. Rich paperboys indeedy.

Hasbarites not only have no qualms about putting money earned catering to basic needs to purposes that totally contravene - are totally opposite and work against - serving basic needs, it's the principle article of their faith; iow, they spend it in cyclebreaking 'counteractive', ways on the grand equivalence, ANYTHING GOES market where grain can trade for arms at the speed of a nod (or a keyjerk's keyjerk, a key tapper's key tap, peak your poisson).

Any and all change of this demonic exchange depends on wether, if, when and no sooner than much loss of indifference takes place, a mere turning their backs on and ceasure of complicity at the more aware low end would collapse the horrendous hell on earth exercise in a flash but lamestream is their to displace, usurp and never allow truth that kind of growth rates.

Also, why would the Syrian govt bend over backwards for these so-called rebels, many, most, if not all of whom aren't even Syrian? Commentators who don't like the new comments system should realize that I had nothing to do with it. Haloscan's operations have been taken over by a new group. They forced the change. The only option I have is to find an entirely different comments system (is there one compatible with Blogger?), go to the default Blogger system, or eliminate comments entirely. --- at 12/20/2008 10:45:00 AM

Did Jesus try cheer the roman oppressed jews with an Asterix (the gallier) type story (Cernunnos, lord of animals, god of wealth, shaman of 'solidark' churning the green rite out of it, feeding soil a shatterscatterrock(dust); minting the healing coinage of the realm, fresh clay, apply to compost in service of health and hygiene)? Yes, clearly. Is he therefore an incarnation of the person he championed? Clearly No. Your false equivalence between Obama and Shiva is laughable.

Which brings me to a crucial footnote, and the warm goo it loves to wiggle it's digits in: jews never ever cast their hopes on one person, that is not what the messiah means, nor is it what jesus meant by the way ... Nor does 'duh' jew believe in the apocalyptic once and for all .. anything .. except for their targets of course, relieving them and all their generations thereafter of essentially inalienables in a swell foop ...

you people are a very dishonest lot, a few points: the first whites on turtle isle you claim were genocided, did in fact assimilate. And why do you think you have the reputation of being supremacists? Could it be cause you failed to fight fairly, thus making your demographic success as invasive as that of the folks you love to hate and blame the most?

Let's start with the fact that he never drank alcohol. In addition, the distance of the cottage to the neighbors do not allow them to see anything or hear. In addition, no one has shown that witness neighbor.

All the neighbors know the diplomat as a very loving father, and found him in a very friendly relationship. It's just a vile provocation!

you got 4 thumbups for 'no proof' without proof? Double negatives aside, i wanna see what you base that on, if it's not too much of a bother. I'll give you that dutch media culture has the illness that blew around most continents (across russia more cruelly than most) templars, jesuits and other hybrids way ahead while (orthodox and other) masses managers followed; the bibler and opium wars are on a par but don't forget pretty much number one in the trinity: duh ferment, worst of all three.

If the police have information about wrongful regarding a diplomat to the children, the police must inform the consul. Consul will come and solve the problem. If then unlawful acts of diplomat confirmed, he would be judged in his country.

Do you realize that the apartment of a diplomat is actually? - the territory of another country? And the invasion of armed men it actually means the invasion of another country?

you will benefit an entire array of (commentari) call criteria from reading / listening to Sibel Edmunds ... it's to a large degree scum that 'volunteers' for diplomacy at difficult posts; NATO for instance, is to a disastrous extent devolved into a handy dandy tool of the pharmaffiose crypto sjacher cabal i was complaining about shades of Robert Graves i guess who's 'King Jesus' proolly came out before that .. 1946 Schonfeld wrote his thing 20 years later.

Neither one even remotely allude to my growing begrip (begr(H)ope = intuitive understanding) that Cernunnos flanked by roman gods might have had another momentous and important supporter and accolade, a semitic throne claimant not shown cause away on a mission ... the first and last real CHRISTIAN MISSION .. In order to have working comments I've switched to a completely new template. The comments line now pops up without having to jump on it before it disappears, but I haven't yet figured out how to retrieve the old comments. Anyway, the new template is cleaner, and looks a lot better on Firefox. I'm now trying to contact JS-Kit to see where the old comments are hidden. If you click on 'Comments', a 'Leave a comment' line appears, which, when clicked on, leads to the comment box. Still no spellcheck.

III. The household and Labor Markets

On the one hand some scholars seek to describe China's economic performance whether good or bad as the result of imperial policy. Despotism then can be made responsible for China's supposed demographic incontinence or the presumed low productivity of its workers. [from zzz to Elvin or Deng, wang]

In either case markets are unable to bestow onto China the same riches that they offered Europe because the emperor stands in their way. The European contrast is one where competitive political structure made it impossible for rulers to intervene to the same extent.

another magnificent piece of deniability, look at the length of this: "of course he wasn't working for us, he was on a uh, rogue mission," ha ha ha

There are a multitude of things I could say about this, but I shall restrict myself to two: (1) they're all Jews; and (2) they're all dickheads. I have removed various epithets and insinuations which I found offensive, ranging from a description of Chavez as "mercurial" to an assertion that Iran routinely tortures people – RB i am not taking bets on when if ever Rowan will deign to dignify my favorite radio voice Douglas Dietrich with a comment .. so i'll do it myself: when in doubt or crisis, unsure or insecure DD tends to choose fancy SF .. which is a flight forward making stuff[fuck]up worse. I say a recoil, retrace and retreat is necessary.

If i continually fail to 'find the others', my reading, insights and views of Cernunnos .. beautifully clean mud as any and all reptile's refuge, fall back and dormancy default .. an intelligent culture's cache to meet reparation obligations ... state papers, once held as the stablest thing by my dad, echoing Spinoza faintly (yall seen that ghastly new statue of him by the bridge i crossed almost daily for half a decade?)

As i said, IF/as long as i fail, these insights remain too frail and precarious (2 new vids out on it though, one from my old haunts in Massachussets and the other from a dairy in the north of the Netherlands) it'll be due more to the DISTractors from, than to the DETractors of shining examples like that. The type of exceptional and incidental stuff more usefully generalizable than homosexuality or stampeded demografux .. i mean multiculturalism. Look at the world's multicultural corridors ... the crossroads, the long marches and teared trails, the pilgrims doing their own and that temporary, therapeutic trade a disservice by failing to go home. All of them doped beyond repair and reversal. We need a type of quarantine that looks like a containment and a protection rather than an incarceration ... change the guards on the ME wall for starters i say ... and let Sauds continue to feed the inmates ... but in natura this time ... no more hownky labour migration pownkey

To countless people a binary worldview is good enough, seems enviably practical, etcetera and they gladly (but alas, just as foolishly) forfeit fancier maths; .. this begins a drift and drive to the margins and at it's extremes schizoids especially get stuck at a flickswitch flipflop stage and no longer satisfiable with a mere wanna be naughtyness they institutionalize the stalk pounce routines headed strait for that bigger fist maker prize all seek after and get bought out before:

cross continental coverage, go ogle it. Noses one way, little spread, total impact, boome!!!!!!

... So now we got another flare up of inflammed felines who stalk and fancy a little easy meat ... hey, they say .. let's fry some in a breadoven and see if it's tasty.

leave sorting [\[whatevs\]](#) into groups to glacial epochs, don't do it to humans, never leave a neighbourhood with it's able bodied folks extracted ... remedy labour migration ... and treat it as a disease; similarly, planting in rows, etcetera, .. it's never advisable, always inspired by the never stationary, ever disrupting types of mechani- mobilization.

the wife of god reads the catechism of the genocidal failth which Nazis around the world have practiced religously for centuries and centuries .. being all about stampeding one people, race and nation after another being haters of purity. Ignore the last portion of the lady's vid by the way; it's her personal bloodline obsession getting in the way.

Where was i, oh yeah, nazi passtimes: stampeding peoples .. or confessional gro(w?)ups they manage to infiltrate, infect and buy into with their economic prowess derived from a full-on schizophrenia which makes these mixrace (and therefore 'bloody' insecuritized from getgo) people's minds work 10thousand X faster (and frantic at that) than those of ordinary, relaxed confident and unsuspecting peoples .. but we are all autisticatable; it's the primacy of latest overlays, alphabetic in this case.

They sacrificed a whole bunch of germans, jews, americans along with samples from a good many more races in order to move an occupation force into the 'promised' land where they can play palestinian (+ oilbookies with an stake in security on the side) and claim they are harassed by invaders. If there is anything the House of Saud knows well, it is rounding up fanatics as tools at the service of Saudi Arabia's patrons in Washington. They did it in Afghanistan, they did it Bosnia, they have done it in Russia's North Caucasus, they did it in Libya, and they are doing it in both Lebanon and Syria. It does not take the British newspaper the Independent to publish an article titled "Mass murder in the Middle East is funded by our friends the Saudis" for the well-informed to realize this.

suppose I should apologise to the multitude of harmless & lovable Left-wing Jews who undoubtedly read Niqnaq every day. "Why blame us, by way of this generic 'Jews' thing?" I hear them say. "We are fighting tooth and nail to make Jewishness back into what it should be, and in fact was from at least the 1930s to the 1960s, viz overwhelmingly a force for progress, humanity and good fun." And this is true, they are. It's hard to see them, and having seen them, it's hard to trust them, because they make the most unprincipled alliances, but no matter how nice they are, they are powerless and likely to stay that way, because the power centres are very firmly held by the Right, and short of mass assassination they are going to stay that way. So it is arguable that all these furry, cuddly Left-wing Jews are doing is selling us down the river, even though they don't know it or accept it, and anyway it's well known that mass assassination (even if it were practical) won't achieve anything in the absence of class traction. Of course it is. Anyway, among the demands that will be screwed out of Jackass & Abu Mazen over the next year will be (a) Jewish control of West Bank camps, schools, towns, (b) Abbas recognition of the 'Jewish State', (c) Abbas relinquish Jordan valley (in fact, the Plastelinan statelet will be nothing but the little archipelego we've all seen on maps), (d) no right of access to 'Arab' East Jayloomia, which will be gradually depopulated of Arabs, (e) Abbas forget about Gaza, which may be going back into Egyptian control, at least if Egypt stays in the Sisi mould, (f) territory exchange of the Triangle, very important but so far only Liberman is allowed to talk about this, (g,h etc) add whatever at will – RB

Rowan: You want to know what I think? I think all the bourgeois governments, or at least their intelligence services, are fully aware of the fact that AQ is totally phony, that 9/11 was phony, and the whole GWOT that flowed from it is nothing but a ceaseless sham fight against pseudo-gangs. Putin knows, Khamenei knows, Xi knows, etc, but none of them say so. Why? Because this is the game they play as bourgeois governments, alongside the US which invented this game, and to blow the whistle on it would be to finally leave the bourgeois club of governments, which none of them wish to do. Contrast this with Lenin, who on his accession to power published all the secret documents found in the chancelleries of all the nations represented in Petrograd as it was then, and in Moscow, and all the secret treaties and minutes of all the previous Russian governments. This is what a real revolutionary should do, but there are none of these among the governments of today. Still you may say as Hegel said of Schelling: "To give out the Absolute as the night in which, as we say, all cows are black, that is the very naïveté of emptiness of knowledge."

kinda like compartmentalizing music and taking pleasure in the changing signature, turning it into a fashion / hype (narcissism of small differences) so that the situation that brought it forth and which it accompanies (grace notes) can be dismantled piecemeal, transported, repurposed, verpatst etcetera. The dutch pride themselves on being a transport hub and subsidize all industry related to it; they are in fact slaughtering nativity around the world by proxy that way.

NaZis are mixbloods sacrificing masses upon masses of purer bloodstrains in the name of ... purer bloodstrains, ostensibly, in name only ... in reality they do the opposite ...to mix and atomize, all the easier it is to monetize. Breeding masses of douches 'kneusjes' (Dutch for the bruised, meaning special ed candidates; the queer quirked up and handicapped) .. in order to benefit from the exception who is a nerd savant inventor.

NaZis are mixbloods sacrificing masses upon masses of purer bloodstrains ...
This doubling and duplicity is prime expression of the schizotype resulting from a runaway alphabetization culture.
Book keeping is grudge holding.

As per my thesis of seeing semiticizing folks (semitic blood quantum admixers) 'semicization' -- somewhat, almost, not quite, both/and mongrelizing brianstainerz -- move north and then in part both left (Russia) and right (Sinosphere .. to a much more dilute and advance force hard core pioneering extent) i have this to add:

The claim that Iran is an enemy and obstruction somehow is to cover for and deny that, not only did many such semites pass through on mentioned migratory way north but that they kept the decent ones and did not so much tolerate the unco-operative. One CAN blame Iran for not curing them and instead letting them go sicken and sacrifice to their heart's desire all throughout the whiteosphere.

NaZis are mixbloods sacrificing masses upon masses of purer bloodstrains ... both sides of their own heritage, cleared to make way for them the new the next ... and so it was inevitable they'd go back to a root kept 'alive' (undead really) as a now you see it then you don't stage prop all along the campaign trail. And so it's better to say that they'd inevitably, eventually go 'back' .. and harass the (IR) hell into the remnant of that ancient rootstock .. which they do their best to uproot (1000s of olive trees gone already) and assault with the unexamined, uncared for, rejected, unappreciated, ejected product their trauma as well as their bowels. Yes they managed to weaponize their turds and flood Gaza with a stockpile of them ... whenever rainfall quantity permits and grants them that kind of offensive.

All priesthoodness and punditry is drag rocket science which will take generations to flush out.

Sam Emerson (best so far):

Craig should have stuck to podcasting and improving his podblanc video website. He was pretty good at that. He had 40 years of experience showing that he had no leadership ability, but he started a project that demanded exceptional leadership.

Is there anyone who didn't know this project was stillborn?

He had steady, decent paying work during the great recession, which was what he promised. All the jobs there are based on the oil boom. Craig's thread on the North Dakota job market is great. Moving to North Dakota to cash in, assuming you didn't have any responsibilities that would prevent it, was a great idea. Moving into Craig's unheated shack, not such a great idea.

Clearly it wasn't realistic, since it failed, like everything Craig does.

He's a dreamer, with not a practical bone in his body. I and others warned him here what would happen, we were mocked, attacked, now it has happened. Those who urged him on have not done a thing to help him now the predictable consequences have occurred. He's in jail because he's stupid. Stop making excuses for failure. He belongs in the past, along with the klan, the NS and all the other costumed actors and clowns that have made the movement a laughing stock. WN is serious business, hippies, drunks, bankrupts, degenerates don't make it. His behaviour on VNN was that of either a drunk or man with severe mental issues. He tried to out several VNN members, and destroy them and their families. He has now made WN and PLE a national joke. His DNA shows him to have black blood. He and the town drunk ramble along a road waving rifles about, yelling, shouting. What was the expected outcome of that?

A lifetime of past failures indicates a future filled with failure.

Take a look at his online supporters. Do they strike you as the kind of people to run a government. What have they done now that he needs them? Nothing. They have run.

WN is about secession, becoming the government, making laws, creating and running countries.

Secede. Control taxbases/municipalities. Use sanctions, boycotts, strikes.

In the 1960s, my father was Director of Publications for UNESCO. That means he commissioned all the lavishly produced books they used to publish. He was a high flyer, was my Dad. After that, he went to CERN, which was probably not a good move, because some years later it emerged that a leak in the radiation shielding of the big accelerator had been bombarding the administration block with high energy sub-atomic particles all along.

there is fun and there is "fun", like larry david pissing on picture of christ that a typically retarded goy shiksa mistakes for miraculous tears. harmless fun.

let's turn it around by a quick counterexample, i am sure we could think of better ones given time; a dwarfish hunchback rabbi is whacking his head against the wailing wall in jerusalem and his beard gets caught in stone crack. a cool goy offers to rescue him by having his great dane lift his leg and squirt on the face, beard and wall to lubricate rabbi's escape. ... equally funny, no? show me where the analogy fails.

and by the way: dieudonne seems (i don't speak french and have no 1st hand knowledge of his skits) to aim at the geopolitical misdeeds of israel and its rabid international patrons and supporters, rather than insulting either the ethnicity or religion of jews for the purpose of giving vent to innate nastiness.
lobro --- January 23, 2014 at 9:08 pm

I can offer something a little more specific on that score (though I cannot understand rapid, spoken colloquial french either), and that is in relation to this strange gesture, the 'quenelle', which Dieudonné invented. First of all, let me just point out that the upraised right arm salute is not specifically Nazi, but generically fascist; it originated with Mussolini's party (of which, incidentally, Jabotinsky's Revisionist Zionists were enthusiastic supporters). Anyway, my interpretation of this strange gesture, the 'quenelle', is that it is indeed an aborted fascist salute, very much on the Dr Strangelove principle; you remember in the film, the Peter Sellers character who gives the film its name, has a problem with his right arm, which keeps wanting to leap up in a fascist salute, and he has to keep holding it down with his left hand, to stop it doing this. So the 'quenelle' is exactly that. But anyway, my theory is that Dieudonné is making fun of the French extreme Right, which he is suggesting would like to be neo-Nazi but does not have the courage of its convictions. And this interpretation is compatible with the fact that Dieudonné is in fact an extreme Leftist, who despises the French Right wing, for its anti-Arab racism in particular. So, my point is that the 'quenelle', and by extension, Dieudonné's entire political stance, can be read in several ways. ---- the world wars weren't fought by germans with remote/& faint partner japanese vs the allied powers .. but between mainland and island nazis, together pincering a noland citystate region of huge diversity, community strength and common sense.

The World Warz was the British NaZi Empire 'versus' slightly less wind&watery more lumbering and rootsy assimilees ... perhaps to be called InZis in order to bring out what i argued before regarding the butch/femme commando/star terrorist/spook divide in race mixery fall out.

I'm basically saying it was a family feud.

A true nordic loose alliance of peoples, fighting reluctantly .. as a necessary and passing evil, to save and secure their pacifism against 'others' inched closer to routine cynical acceptance and promoting every new little specialism which the violence career paths continually sprouted and offered as lifelines and opportunities up for grabs and to pride from, credit for ... over qualmllessness doing so, considering it 'good sport', etcetera. Cooperative vs competitive capitalism.

A cowardly nerd abuser's idea of martial success. Don't be valiant, be clever. Go for the splendid elite isolation in a 'see if i care' in your face john galt style.

Keeping all these qualifys in mind i made put it more crudely:

THE WORLD WARS were fought between BritNaZis WITH TeutoNaZis to deracinate and Stockhom Syndro (S)mite more rootsy peoples all around ..

... and the latter only affected and infected by those who came to warn them (the towncrier / hypnotizer, ransomer and hostile taker overer rolled into one).

Half (, quarter-, etc)breeds suffer and to pretend cypher themselves away (transliterated expression from dutch meaning to discount themselves right out of the sCrypt), recognizing their dead endedness (like Theodor Lessing did), speaking about Hybrids (he might have said hibreed hebrews to make himself clearer) they promise to end their lines and die defending the purer strains whose mistake they realize being.

That is the storyline they give you more or less .. if / when asked ... but they prefer to hide their freakishness and let the pure themselves announce their immanent deaths. Hence butch nazis won over their femme brothers (those of the bubenschaften, sexual openness, taboo breaking, nudity in duh nature hippie types) in an extremely uncivil dispute dragging resources from all around the world into it and the result is: the zionist state; a tentative attempt at world headquarters ... very very far from the type transparant it will one day be ... if necessary at all and not overtaken by telepath, mail pigeon and word of mouth decency.

This micro ethic is too simple and gentle for tax refusers and fight w law enforcement pickin sovereign (ore)rs, courtbattlers and whathaveya (people who like free hi-tec energy much more than clean lo-tec energy and do not notice the former is a contradiction in terminis and the latter is not; but one's degree of splitbrain / gender handling must, sort of osmotically find the perfect cover and blend in).

To think that polishing rockfaces and dusting soils is all it takes to be a guardian and gardener of this potentially green and pleasant earth makes one wonder why Al Qaida is not yet the champion of swale digger circuses worldwide and why organiccomputerushing is not a downhometouch with desert shrinkin diversification clout already.

kudos for mentioning land trusts and co-ops as the way of the future (towards the end; something folks like Doug Henwood could never bring themselves to acknowledge; blind to transparency as the prize of pricing - see Ulrich von Beckerath -) getting lost / victimized when priced ... so onwards, back to a 'delicating' of delegatory layerments .. perhaps this time devolving aaaaall the way back down to soil banking .. where we restore the d circumscribed out of and scrapped away from empowerment

NYC, tibetan Foundation run by the daughter of Soros, that noble savantry and nerdism champion, chasing women up ever bigger piles with predictable results, room with a view for one without common sense vision up each of them. with a name like trace i would think, in fairy tale justice terms, you people ought to be able to ferret out folks like me but hey i am not getting my hopes up.

if you care to 'trace' mineralize outhouse and soilbuilding practice - mint the coin of the realm - i have been the go to guy since 1997 .. i was way into Theodor Lessing at the time and expected Soros calls every other day... but jewish philanthropists fund the most dastardly disastrous bullshit .. on the whole .. i am one of those assimilee dutch people with a smidgen of that bloodquantum - from early most venturesome migrants on their way to empire wickedness ... like the decent jews lingered in iran and worse went on to go Bloshoi &/or bolshie - and i have an eye for it.

I warmed to Tibetan culture considerably over the last few years (youtube music playlists to show for it) and played with loaded prayermill concepts .. to harmonize the unjustly separated areas of human balance; but a sociological, spiritual and economic defense of permaculture - staple discipline of most renewal and reformite movements .. unless they are the topheavy heady types and lost before doing battle - has yet to arise; i wish to engage in that endeavour .. strive for a mellowing of marginal territories and turn the urbanization tide ... even with growing populations.

At the very least i expect an answer from you with reports (or pointers thereto) about Tibetan permaculture.

I can spare you the trouble of checking G+ for 'saudi permaculture' ... it's a blank page. ... No bank, sway and/or swale you can 'spring' for there eh?

Spilna Sprava, translated as "The Right Deed," is an Open Society Institute supported and funded group. George Soros' Open Society Institute, now known as Open Society Foundations (OSF), doles out grants to activist NGOs in central Europe attempting to undermine the Russian Federation. It builds upon and continues the work of the Ford Foundation. Since the early 1950s, the CIA has used the Ford Foundation as a funding cover. Spilna Sprava is mentioned in the 2009 annual report of the International Renaissance Foundation (IRF), an organization described as "an integral part of the Open Society Institute network established by George Soros, that incorporates national and regional foundations in more than thirty countries around the world, including Africa, Central and Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union." IRF cooperates with the IMF and European bankers interested in "economic reforms" and "integration processes and trends" in Ukraine and Moldova. The offensive against Ukraine raises profound historical questions. In two world wars, Germany sought to bring Ukraine under its control and committed abominable crimes in the process.

Kurt Nimmo particularly moronic in that last line ... the germans avenged the killers of 20 million, starved to give the Bolshies a few more bucks on the (ir) way to the Soros Billions ... but i am sure your bladdy will disavow it (ancestral involvement burden that is .. the novelty thing is going to far ... a jew specialty .. brutality of a primal deep sea variety ... curse the day they started to drill for that in their genes ... damn priestchemisthoods).

Dutch radio dominating leftyism has yet again spewed their rotten breath all over the ether not realizing topnazis were just haggling about and gambling away with the very ranks that spawned them too (just in a different wave / generation) and are to be left far far behind, resettled, restrained ... you see, a mix race has more likely than not a hatred towards both parties for letting it get that far ... and forced integration is very simply 'giving' occasion for conflict to arise. Lefties, with their syrupy mouthed 'oh my, don't i sound beautiful' jealousy of the people saying stuff they resist hearing .. just cannot grasp these truths.

<http://twitter.com/TonyWicher>

The Anglo-American Empire has always loved Nazis, including Hitler, as long as they are "anti-Communist". As long as it was thought that Hitler was going to attack the Soviet Union, they loved him. They didn't give a damn if he killed every Jew on the planet and they still don't care. They just use Israel as a pretext to occupy the Middle East. At the end of World War II, hundreds of Nazis from Ukraine and Belarus were brought into this country by fascist sympathizers such as Alan Dulles and Frank Wisner and Prescott Bush,, and became part of our National Security State. They were also used for Gladio operations from after the war until the 1990's -- all in the name of "anti-communism". See "America's Nazi Secret", by John Loftus. Since then the Empire has used Islamic militants for the same purpose, to destabilize and overthrow non-compliant governments. This policy is inevitably leading to big-power confrontation and nuclear war. The imperial fascists running this foreign policy are as crazy as Hitler. They are risking nuclear war to force Russia and China to their knees, and they think they can win a nuclear war if one does happen. Anthony Enos Wicher (@TonyWicher) February 1, 2014 at 4:07 pm

Yeah, but Loftus is a disinformation artist in his own right, and although he is not Jewish, he has made an industry (and I mean that literally) out of supposedly advanced private intelligence. Have you read "The Secret War Against The Jews", which he co-authored with Mark Aarons? Or his previous book, "The Belarus Secret"? He is one of the most unreliable surveyors of post-WW2 covert operations history that I've ever seen, and he has the same agenda I am criticising in all my remarks about Eric Draitser, to wit, creating fantasy fears of 'anti-Semitism' in order to obscure reality. My argument, and I stand by it, is that the US is perfectly capable of using Nazis and their ilk without precipitating any 'anti-Semitism' whatsoever. SNIP So we find Mossad agents working alongside Nazis on various covert ops post-WW2, and there's no friction, because they are all ultra-Right-wing anti-Communists fighting in a shared cause. You may not like to believe this (and there are quite a few Loftuses & Draitseres & Chossudovskys & etc to obscure it), but it is true. Nobody cares about 'anti-Semitism' any more in the real Hard Right, because 'the Jews' are now on their side, to wit, the anti-Communist side, the anti-Left side, what has become the NATO side.

niqnaq - February 1, 2014 at 4:16 pm

Look, Anthony, I'll boil all of the above down into three (admittedly long) sentences for you. None of this is about 'the Jews'. It never was. It's about capitalism versus communism, or in today's terms, about NATO versus the rest. The 'Nazis' know that, or at least their leaders do. The rest is camouflage, most of all the artful pretence by the New Jews that they are like the Old Jews: powerless, shivering, helpless, terrified, pathetic, innocent members an ancient and venerable race, persecuted without reason by a vast and hideous barbarism. All of that is bullshit, to deceive the gullible. - niqnaq - February 1, 2014 at 4:47 pm

Jews, beyond a certain scale of wealth, begin to gamble with their money, on the stock exchange or in inter-bank trading, using progressively more and more arbitrary terms of wager. Hence the continual derivatives meltdowns, which have to be covered by inflationary "quantitative easing". Not to mention the ridiculous lawsuits between Jewish oligarchs in Russia, which seem to revolve around broken informal promises in most cases, and cause the oligarchs to display the utmost irrationalism. niqnaq --- February 1, 2014 at 6:38 pm

Leith, North Dakota is a registered ghost town of 16-24 people. Its inhabitants are mostly farmers or ranchers, with land passed down generation to generation. The town has an apocalyptic beauty set against a prairie backdrop of wide-open sky and fields of wheat.

In May of 2012, an outsider named Craig Cobb moved in and started buying up property. He accumulated twelve plots of land, some empty, some with houses in various states of disrepair. People figured he'd moved in to be close to the Bakken oil fields some 70 miles north. Turns out he was a notorious white separatist who was plotting a takeover of the city government. Shortly after his plans were unveiled, a family of fellow white separatists moved in to start fixing up his properties.

Leith, N.D. is a short film offering a glimpse into a town struggling for sovereignty against one man's extremist vision. Filmed in the days leading up to Cobb's arrest for terrorizing the townspeople on an armed patrol, Leith, N.D. is an eerie document of American DIY ideals played out in one of the most under populated states in the nation.

The second half is in german. -- My thoughts:
The dominant and domineering cult amongst and rising from multicultural clutter classes has roots to the most rotten and toxic orthodox desert spreading and seeding core holding on to outdated tricks, fads, fashions, runners and prior advantage through early adoption. They morph mix and remix everything and everybody in order to reach equivalence (not equality but monetizability).

i expanded that alinea (above) into 6 (below) the next day (and added another 3 for good measure some time later) as follows:

Money and payment preferences (taxpayer earmark rights) are THE only way to allow democracy to honour, become and remain like soilbased structures .. a primal ties that binds .. AND loosens .. a sensitive soft, absorbent and hospitable filler between root and rubble .. cracked buckle or smoother layers of similar watermight tightening affluvia settlements.
Trace rushes and races down the river till slowed before a dam enough to fill a gashed out valley above it with smooth levelling particulate.

People's choices expressed daily in the type of money (from/on a full spectrum palette, bullets and mangos) they can earn and spend is much like a vote that is daily cast and up to date expressed in people's choices ... and you won't be telling me that i'm reasoning 'circulatterally' .. after/if/when / as soon as you come to grips with the next alinea succesfully.

The movement of basics are prerequisite and condition for financial bubbles ... and by bundling some to play off against others a huge inequality is instigated (and Wall Street is an institute); However, if those basics and their valuation decision would remain at the bottom (bit like the NORM parity crowd an organic farming hero of mine was on about), these populist checks and balancing scaling specs ... would prevent bubbles, power to pull the plug on least and earliest signs of them would remain in the hands of those most likely to be hurt by them (a majority by definition)

In short, the basics would be the rudder, lever and dictates financial specialists MUST follow and serve rather than the other way around .. like now ... when the latter, once again, have shortcircuited preferences for a particular means of payment into money preference PERIOD (any old type, what ... is there more than one? i'll be damned, i am fearing none at all), leaving the particulars to the highest bidder to traffick, abduct, tortured and abuse BUBBLING ABOUT as they see fit. Hi demographic pressure = highly suppressed female prefs ... cheapened lives.

Border crossing companies are a tangle and clump of scalable aspects: bits of bloodline, strains of clanny clubberishness, strands of team strenght .. etcetera .. often working with concentrates .. all geared towards applying friction in a throng ... pushyback tugthug crowd kinda stuff - entitlement pride ...theater-, parliament-, stadium- and spectacle-prides.

The dominant and domineering one amongst them, arising from this aeon long multicultural clut&class competition bears aspects of all 4 root races and the deepest roots (points of dishonour in fact) go back to the most rotten and toxic orthodox .. desert spreading and seeding core imaginable a bunch of the quaintest freaks, holding on to outdated tradetricks, fads, fashions, raid & roadrunners and prior advantage through big sales after early adoption, maintaining ties to the present waves thereof. They morph mix and remix everything and everybody in order to reach equivalence (not equality but monetizability).

These repulsive revulsionists (not a misprint) rework their propaganda every generation; Bolshies, liberals, socialists, neocons and zionist lobbyists -- holding up an ideal spectre of retreat to roots and inviolable purity, not as an example for all to follow and attain for themselves but as an exclusivity, for all others to compete over, bribe and buy into joining rites/"rights".

They instrumentalized Ukrainians during the holodomor from the left and now again, but from the right, (take) aim to jumpstart an atomizing friction (that good old arms capital destruction perk with subsequent buy up and into the ruin on the cheap afterwards).

the contradiction (and 'counter'friction', contra mine anyway): refusal to honour and count individualism under tribal, exterritorial yet tribal rule on the one hand and on the other, employing a liberal intello bundling and massifying as rule of their furthest from green thumb, knowing full well 99% of it all comes to grief and will not escape suffering yet on the look out to pick up and profit from the nerdy savant exception which will in turn all the massification mechanisms for an even higher stake with even worse attrition.

march 3rd, kin 124 was a longwinded one .. and there's yet more to (add to) it, .. see below, google non results for all variations of "earmarking rights for taxpayer" (and suspicious at that ... other stuff goes on almost immediately ... they obviously handpick me over and over and have ever since i roamed turtle island in a crisscross manner .. long before i was halfway done there)

"taxpayer earmarking rights" = 0

"taxpayer earmark rights" = 0

"earmarking rights of taxpayer" = 0

i happen to think EARMARKING RIGHTS FOR TAXPAYERS (Taxpayer Earmarking Rights TER)# are, if not THE best, certainly ONE OF the gentlest ways to break up over extended centers where centralizers concentrate*, slowly phase out politician, that is to say, obsolesce lying cause bribable blow (high off the tower = Dutch proverb) jobbers.

= TER kinda sum up what certain libertarians and classical liberty / freedom literati of the previous century called 'emission rights' (now applied to nitrogenous waste rates in the Dutch duocultural belt {bible and dairy pasture '1 2tje'} ... there was a brief time of cultural flowering()*), when this was applied statemanship, provincial and municipal knowledge, yes totally stackable, scalable (up and down) and fit for harmonious integration.

* = and before you know it big banks turn into giant gambling houses uses their trusting clientele and mobilizable 'reserves' as the stakes to increase their everything but .. iow, less and less voluntarizing influence sphere

(*) which promptly overshot it's goal and caused young men to be collected by 'talent hunters ... or rather chased from ancestral grounds which the targetters had an eye on for looting 'purposes' which couldn't very well succeed if they let native born sons there in peace there. So drum, froth and trump up a lying 'remotating' form of patriotism and make sure the 'border' is far away and violent enough to have them fail to return hail.

It's remarkable how few the exceptions really are; Ken O'Keefe ... doesn't understand my form of pacifism enforcement though ... same goes for Alain Soral in Paris, grown up with kids of the guys who my father's generation lured north with lucrative employment ... or at least satisfying to a renunciatorily motivated migrant worker, sacrificing his life for a homefront he feels for and keenly from across even very large distance.

In any case, SECESSION will increase competition, de-escalate and localize competition .. cut off the march towards a deadon collision with the 'overtreffende trap', keep lootpiles at less tempting sizes AND withing easier (over)sight and reach of those who collect, bundle and present them in the first place. Ukraine could break up into 10 countries and thrive as easily and surely as Holland could. Water quality in the latter, where i am, is atrocious due to diabolic cornercutting insensitivities to degeneracy (stopgap crisis actionfigure management under gvt {DIS}functionaries foaming at the mouth for and striving towards the 'state of exception' = 'expectional states' = apart from, exempt from, over and above the state ... see famous Carl Schmidt = the dicktoterail' type free = what they want to see their executive power be, kind of like free trade on steroids), ...

As to the EU stars w swastika (per Thomas), that's your lef' nazionists triumphant .. there never was any fascism other than international ... it's subversion of blood, splinterment as group strategy ... alienate and unicize (make unique via freak marriages .. into money more typically) then instrumentalize (gather in) the chips as they fly; offspring more likely having a hard time standing the loneliness of being a freak among locals if not fortified with a serviceable skill and gravitating to default, usually an atavistic (not always bad) appetite for sex and song (see neoteny.org for the deep on this) soon derailing into pimperry and lies (LA%DC/NYC), so .. the cute and agile, the cute and hypocritical and the plain savant/nerd (theater, politics, banking) all find themselves victim of a group strategy and set up a Stockholm Syndrome household ("worldhold") remixing totally tasteless, bland hyper abstract symbols as golden oldie

OK, at first I thought this was an April's Fool joke but art usually substitutes and surrogates for nature (in a nostalgic mode ... rather than directing back to it ... the tide will turn when Saudis begin paying permie course bills instead of madrassah and bullet ones).

there's a constant stream of anti-anti-semitic pests descending on MoA

Peeplz is getting banned for 'anti-Semitism', always humiliating to the remainder. I protest, fairly vigorously but not by pleading for their return, simply by playing my own cards. This comes from here but it could come from anywhere, because the argument about 'Jews' and 'anti-Semitism' keeps breaking out all over the place.

Obviously, Israel is a massive and counter-productive drain on US resources and a fatal obstruction to US regional strategy, but the 'Israel lobby' by its control over congressional and presidential campaign finance, thwarts rational decision-making. That much the 'Jewish Leftists' admit now. But the 'Israel lobby' is treated as a force external to the US ruling class, which is regarded as a black box about whose social or ethnic composition nothing whatever is allowed to be said, because there is a degenerated marxist rule to the evident effect that class forces must be contemplated in abstraction from the national groups which may happen to be their carriers. It's a degenerated marxist rule, because it is characteristic of degenerated marxism to cherry-pick pseudo-left-looking rules and ignore their wider theoretical context, which in proper marxism would be properly analysed and described first.

Marx himself, as I hope everybody knows, was never shy about Jews. But he never completed his final, mammoth analysis, which was supposed to be focused on how surplus value gets transferred from the labour-intensive industries where it is generated, to the capital-intensive industries that actually need it if capitalism is to develop. His analysis went all over the place and landed up nowhere, because although the corporatist state already existed in his day, at least in skeletal form, its mechanisms were by no means as obvious as they are now, 150 years later. He refused in Das Kapital to consider banking as an autonomous factor in ruling-class economic strategy, though in his journalism there are some very frank statements about, for instance, rival Jewish banking cartels in France and their effects on the clash of parties in Paris. And in Hobson's 1902 "Imperialism", which preceded and influenced Lenin's book of the same title, there is a whole chapter on how Jewish financiers in London organised the Boer War, obviously in order to get their tentacles around the world's premier supplies of gold & diamonds, which they still own today.

It is simply unscientific to consider the US ruling class or any other class as a black box. 'Elite studies' are a difficult field because the first thing that the really rich buy with their money is media silence, which in most cases extends even to their very identities. Few truly rich people allow themselves to be tracked by the media. And they're in an excellent position to prevent it. They own the media, along with everything else. So we can't just go to Forbes Rich List and expect to say, "Aha! There they are!" We have to infer the composition of the ruling class from the actions which it causes the state which it rules, to perform. And in the case of the US, it seems to me that over the last few decades, Jews have demonstrated effective control over US ruling-class decision-making. When they gained this control is hard to say, because until fairly recently they were successful in staying pretty well out of sight. They would like to be out of sight again, so they try to swamp even the blogosphere with characters who will rant and rave and wheedle and threaten and cajole about anti-Semitism, until everyone shuts up.

Is This The Best Writing On Jewish Power Ever?
Paul Eisen has got to be the best writer on this subject. He is funny. I love his sense of humor.
Please read his 10 page article on Jewish Power and you will understand all you need to know.

i count 17 monitors behind Brendon. That in itself is a jewish triumph / achievement. The favoring of command line profusion that can be instrumentalized by an elite / top league in this type of 'sport', so the masses remain herdable, sedate, docile and milkable on end to end display!!!
What war was ever won using the trickle handme down tools of the skewculprit?
Least you could do is split the screen and have somebody turn the info compaction (-) around / right side up into the sun grown up and down soil - pounding, on the 'other' side.

deutsche welle has chosen a jewish reporter for this mission into the very jaws of the terrifying bear

These configurations we're seeing now prove a point which has been argued among revisionist historians and political analysts for decades, namely, they prove that Nazism was never primarily concerned with Jews as such. It was concerned with communism as such. It still is. In fact, Nazism and these various neo-Nazisms do not deserve to be classed as political theories in the proper intellectual sense of the word 'theory'. They are patchworks of fantasy, riven with self-contradiction, and they are only viable at all to the extent that the rank and file are dumbed down enough not even to think about their twists and turns. I have been arguing for some time that the so-called anti-Semitism of the radical Right is basically a blind, and that the Jewish bosses know that. Nevertheless, the Jewish press maintain a constant stream of hate propaganda against those who the empire wishes them to discredit. This does not mean that Jews do not control the empire, which I believe they do. It just means that big Jews will terrorise little Jews and throw them to the dogs if it is profitable to do so, as they always have. The little Jews, I think, know this, but feel they cannot escape, because becoming ex-Jews is not an intelligible option for them except as they see it, by 'converting to Christianity,' which they quite rightly regard as soul suicide.

Religious thinking blocks political thinking, because this is the way they're brainwashed. Even the so-called reform, progressive, liberal etc Jews, from whom one expects reason, are fiercely protective of their Jewishness, a thing they themselves have defined out of existence logically, but cannot dispense with emotionally. Hence this Jacob Resneck becomes the ideal emissary. Who would dare touch, or even insult, a Jew? – RB:

putin may not be a zen grandmaster of strategizing but the results seem to support that thesis.

why roll on the floor and caterwaul like a jew on bum acid trip when the developments on the ground are going your way without you lifting a finger?

look: any time kiev sends out a credible military unit out east, it promptly jumps ship and mutinies, setting a powerful precedent and incentive to the remaining ones.
and what can kerry say apart from ponderously waving appendages and twisting head like a ripe banana?
the only force oligarch jews can count on is this al-qaе, i mean right sector, moonlighting between bank robberies.
so, the only military option kiev has is to each time take a careful aim and shoot itself in the foot.
I guess they have a choice of which foot.

so putin and lavrov can kiss talmudic greasers and eat their passover challa bread or whatever, so what can nytwapo-wsj show by way of pictures, frothing antisemites?

and consider this, admittedly far-out possibility: are these well trained, professional, patriotic ukrainian units setting a dangerous example for some west point officer cadres if some day they must pull the trigger on their own people as planned by the nwo masters of evil?

Kerry doesn't have to say anything, at least not in public.
Brennan already told them: if the army won't do it then use the nazis. There's no shortage of them. That's why I keep talking about nazi goon squads dressed up as 'National Guard'. And worse than that – in Mariupol, obviously, what happened was:

- (1) besieged troops fire in the air
- (2) snipers fire at troops from unknown positions
- (3) troops fire into besieging crowd, killing 3.

If there were to be any shortage of nazis then I am quite sure that just like jihadis, they will come to the country in their thousands if invited, from Germany, Poland, who knows where.

The success of critics using the projection genius of their 'target' / charge / suspect isn't quite what it's cracked up to be. It's taking fair fighting too far and plain wrong.

this is fairly interesting, but as i have proved at length elsewhere, dugin is really a crypto-zionist, hence his refusal to identify the US elite he castigates below, as jewish

My proof regarding Dugin and the Zionists is here.
<http://niqnaq.wordpress.com/2013/11/07/dugin-on-the-jews/>

I believe that Dugin is going to become an important oppositional or quasi-oppositional figure in France, where he is being vigorously promoted by Alain Soral & co. I should like it to be understood as widely as possible that he is a crypto-zionist and hence totally untrustworthy, despite his sometimes spectacular showmanship and pseudo-mystical frames of reference. I have changed 'American' to 'USAian' throughout, as is my normal practice – RB

as in the run-up to the syria war, i can see again what a schoolboy fake antiwar.com is

It's what Sibel Edmonds was the first, in my recollection, to point out. It's a mainstream news aggregator, fine. For the absolute beginner in foreign affairs media analysis (which is what I do here, primarily), AntiWar.com is not a bad place to start. It's convenient and it's fairly thorough, because it pays its staff to do just this, collect MSM stories and post links for them. It actually pays its staff, I stress, whereas the rest of us are all working just as long hours (at least during the increasingly frequent crises) completely unpaid. For me, the best thing about aggregation as AntiWar.com do it is that so much of it is wire service material, ie Reuters and AP, and to a lesser extent AFP. Reuters and AP by themselves are so complex and interesting that you could produce a pretty accurate MSM landscape just by using them alone, and because doing that would give you a nice tight closed field of writers and editors, you could apply formal techniques (detailed content analysis, word counts, comparison of the effects of different editors on the material submitted by stringers) and nail everything right down to the individual level. With the broader media you couldn't really do that, except possibly with the NYT, WaPo, conceivably the London Grauniad, but go much further and it all vanishes into a haze of unaccountable and sometimes unidentifiable media subcontractors. If we imagine a post-WW4 world with the culprits being brought to some sort of international court, these writers and editors, at Reuters most of all, could be prosecuted as the Goebbelses of their time. Better completely new international institutions, in my view, than the existing ones, all of which I regard as discredited, but unfortunately even post-WW4 I expect politicians will value continuity over truth, so it will still be the same 'International Criminal Court', perhaps not at the Hague, which may very well be nothing but a large crater by then, because unfortunately there is an enormous concentration of NATO HQ entities right on top of the supposedly world-class impartial court there.

Brendon O'Connell - Media Reporting - A Current Affair ---- Brendon O'Connell · 4 videos · 19 views - Like 4:Dislike 0 = Published on May 5, 2014
This is the worst media hit piece I and many others have ever seen. I'll pull it apart later but here is the video as it was broadcast on May 26th, 2009. This was exactly one week after I had plead not guilty in the Perth Magistrates Court and met the media outside the court. Only the "Nine Network" did this reporting. ----- The Nine Network was formerly owned by Kerry Packer who was blackmailed by Jewish Mafia Don Abe Saffron through his string of Brothels with one way mirrors. It is widely believed Packer and Saffron were importing heroin into Australia through Packers string of cattle stations in the countries North West. Now Packers network has been sold off by his son - James Packer - to an investment company based in Lichtenstein. Perhaps this explains the BAD, BAD reporting? ----- Hammond Layers took on my case and they were going after the Nine Network and I paid $675 for a letter that was never sent to to te Nine Network and I have never seen. The lawyer Lauren Rathbone agreed to ask er boss John Hammond to get me my money back. John Hammond refused to do so. I am going to make an example of John Hammond.

Brendon, what happened to you is entirely as predictable as what went down for/with Craig Cobb in the last year or so (just out from over 3 months isolation and the rest).

I thought theatre pieces leading from contentious frictionful factionfilled centers (Seattle, Goeteborg, Copenhagen, NYC, Frankfurt) out into the diffuse periphery with proceeds of intelligently concerted forces would do the trick (rocks in dust out principle, the red threat throughout all my studies) and imagined these pied piper hero scenarios over and over ... relying on lsd at the medcin wheel that is 'mainfire' at rainbow gatherings (in the mid eighties) combined with goetter breedboasts (being the son of a migration triggering [irregular]employer) but i have now come to the insight / conclusion one must never be confrontational (*non matter how cute one's face or how intent on soothing one's voice), go out into the streets (as Ken Jebsen keeps telling the thousands already out each week in Berlin); keep it impersonal and present a cure too good to want to ignore, to unassuming to trigger harassment and/or prosecution.

I think i have it all thought out and neither the recently watercannoned apart group in Brussels (Soral and Dieudonne were gonna be part of it, with Belgian parliamentarian(!) Laurent) nor folks like RDawson and the circles he moves in, nor Ken, nor Morris, none have given me any indication of ever having taken any notice of let alone to my theories or dismissed them; yet i consider myself a cut above you all cause i do have and advocate the pacifist yet forceful solution -- has water proven a little irresistible here and there lately or what? i have mars and saturn in pisces = perfect macho doctor - perfect jew protector/medcinman -- that will get the profit factors spiral in amazing increments and not a boombust zigzag ... so .. it's a toss up wether you all will get to me first or, rather, Adelson / Soros et al do

Note that this Fursov appears on a TV channel which also features a great deal from Alexander Dugin. I would interpret it as white supremacism in the service of Judaism. Also, these people labour under the peculiar misconception that Israel does not take sides in the Ukraine conflict. A little more close observation would have made the truth clear to them, but they are in thrall to the Jewish elite of Russia (which Fursov denies exists, below) and only see what it wants them to see. Their casual white supremacism is simply a symptom of the garbage the Jews feed them, just as they fed the Americans. One can always detect a culture enslaved by the Jews by its racial megalomania, which obviously will rebound upon it when the Jews choose, and by its sentimentalism and false ecumenism regarding religion. So the fact that these Furzov materials were posted to the Vineyard of the Saker blog, which repeats all these symptoms, is unsurprising -- RB

6,792 vws --- May 15, 2014 -- Like 570 : Dislike 24
EU's views on the unfolding crisis in Ukraine has sparked fury in Germany. A campaign party meeting in Berlin was disrupted by protesters angry at their country's stance in the Ukrainian conflict. The demonstrators booed Chancellor Angel Merkel and waved banners demanding the arrest Nazis in Ukraine zionism and bookkeeping, grudgeholding antecedents have for thousands of years specialized in preservation artistry; the storage problem has been hyperturboed on an 'out to launch' runaway basis that makes their madness of crowds and closepackerystackery come to the fore with such a distributed as well as institutional vengeance (LATELY?) that the old horse cure -- expellation, 109x from all the nationstates where they were getting too, if not conspicuously, certainly too notoriously leechy for even their very sly cloak and dagger lifestyles to hide -- is well and truly as anachronistic as the state these mindsetters founded .. which is like the headquarters of any imperial venture before it, a HQ of topdog 'justice' (just as legal as criminal syndication, minutely fortold by discarded folks like Marten Toonder, THE most underrated racist in this wide off mark whole world).

Riddle me the 'saving for a rainy' day going horribly wrong as the stockpiling triggers and eggs the weaponizations onwards and upwards.

I recommend recognizing compartmentalizations (specialisms of all sorts really) as the soft and tidy faces OF, iow the run ups TO 'violences' ... hot spotpointers follow:

A protest, since it's no longer a one day affair -- since the advent of [old style forest defense protest camp] has gone mainstream exacerbating the siftshift probs [and possibilites of course]; so far it's the lowest common denominators that prove most infectious -- a protest CAMP engenders the never sleeping, undead unalive space equivalent of that compartmentalization trend/aspect ... even as it protests the commuterization with it's very continuity amidst abounding contradictions and frictious factions .. with its 'overrunnethy' brimfull timecups that necessitate shifts (corporatization?) and these imperil peaceful projects, no matter how nicely set up (open, inviting, etcetera), to getting undone by subsequent shiftless schizoids going for the fast lane brutality .. the impatience and inflammatory slide to destitution.

Vlad the impaler's goon set upon ecologist and journalist like there was no tommorow, Kiev putschisti carry that infection forward; it's the fate of the challenger that can't leave well enough alone ... breach and liberate urgeonitis fools rush in; i instead sing the praises of Robert Irwin Friedman and condemn the russian jewigarchs Solzhenitsyn describes in his '200 years ..' who sent all the waves of cutsiefied, neotenized and conscience shallowed (through earlier marriage) immigrants to goget in & thru to Wall Street past/via the cut-throat gauntlet of globopolitanically peripheral illegal trade to compartmentalize ['monocultivate'] In the name of efficiency

---- favors machinisms as the way to entrench and keep looking at IT as the way forward ...

----hampers a sort/combine, curate/propagate and filter/scale for quality control THAT IS SUBORDINATE TO WHOLISTIC INTEGRATION tactic

The elite and pretty ones (magmug role modelers) indulge koerperkultur and the working class equivalent .. streetculture that uses playground bars (that minimal sign of post WW civility)

to exerceize and stay warm rather than alcohol, is now known as the right sector (i can't imagine there'd be less in east than west ukraine but hey ... let me know). These kids round out and bulge up what they did not get that way in the genetic first place ... and this lifestyle quickly forms an ungrounding elitism (a community garden / park scape / permie culture with age / size and sorts mixtures is NOT what ensues and results from their specialist efforts) ... the privacy and sovereignty perks of community-scapery are apparantly impossible in such a panopticated hi-rise apartmentality turmoil cocktail and their sense of pride and self has not way out but in.

These privileged guys march singing in harmony and well dressed in the sunshine ... when stopped by the lefties -- who usually get their first and are perhaps overly protective of their prime protest positionings, afraid they can't outsing the rivals and thus try block them -- they go for the asterix village formation rush and with sheer force of push that makes their day clatter wizbank uncluttersome, they 'presumably' retire to their villas to celebrate [networking limits preclude conclusiveness - i am just describing the footage as compiled by StormCloudsGathering].

Next their wannabe followers take the stage (in a scattered, ragged, frayed and wasteful, infiltration op offering 'mass' onslaught), as nite approaches; they too ugly and poor to make the grade in any other way than a confessionalism and distance admiration society. Oligarch fitness programs. They will go the push one better, take bribes and bullets (usually one and the same shipment) from those ready for this episode in the unfoldment of protest culture and do as they're told.

just like the most intimate factors of life - which very few people love to see monetizable and even fewer are suitable to engage with and disengage from again unscathed - the demonetization of every location's permacultural zones (or remonetization in the sense of old fogey 'parity' hawks [charles walters, faint echo of whom heard thru Michael Hudson who was in the former's mag AcresUSA if i recall]) is 'in child's shoes' as yet (as the dumbed down dutch express it).

(ps: fun fact: it was lifted around the same time i wrote this, .. what? .. weeks? .. later?)

And on a related note, i watched a vid last nite with 1 Pussy Rioter interviewed by Judith Butler and colleague no less, in a large theater. Only at the very end (when answers were already cutting to a black and white blowout) an audience member brings up the buzz that CWurst's win might have been a dickslap in the face aiming for Putin, and the PuRier answers she likes women with beards.

Now, .. considering top levels of Nazism to have always been intense body culture (going after 'pervasive' powers over it) and a sort of A: race-mixed, B: repressed butch form of homoeroticism -- sacrificing the C: base that brought them to power via D: the friendlier and more grounded femme form; the Conchitas that move among normal people and are loved teachers, what the priests were earlier -- tetradize, rinse, repeat ... i think we can see the hi-test parallel plainly with Hillary's demonic laughter over the demise of a benign dictator like Ghadaffi's demise.

Generally speaking given that some of the world's greatest atrocities happened on the watch of lesbos like her in power, this can easily leave a sinister taste on palettes like mine ... after all ... i can reason my way from rocks past trees and coldbloods, like insects, beyond the socialized mammal and it isn't all too 'impositional' ('onnavolgbaar' and 'nicht nachvollziehbar') but a freer breathing catalyst instead, i hope, if i pose the question - wether disappearance of bees isn't a feminist conspiracy to you (too) ... cleverly (they think) getting rid of the 'onegirlupgirlshape' left standing evidence ... Saker & MoA are both more or less still boosting Putin as the world hero of our time. I wonder how much criticism of Putin is possible on MoA. There may be a stealth campaign going on to collect info on Usaians (and even Canadaians and Ukians and other western dissidents) who write messages supporting Putin, which bernhard & saker are agents of. Maybe NSA is hoovering them all up. And in a few days, Greenwald will tell us so. Then all kinds of shit will hit the fan. But those of us who say Putin is a worthless swine (or 'piece of shit' as i unhappily put it before) will be exempt – we'll be counted as honorary neocons in this context! I hope! -- :}

aahh, so it was Saker via Rowan whom i briefly contrasted in my mind with Bloom who asserts the opposite and more (the whole world of rocketry (US too) dependent on Ukraine)

Putin is part of this process, an important part because he pays people to paint him for guillible western eyes as a great hope, and this is the

also 2 days ago (next paragraph in fact):

So I shriek, continuously. And you are very welcome to go elsewhere if you think I'm a hypocrite. I have my own core of readers, most of whom came to my predecessor blog with me from Xymphora over ten years ago, and then migrated with me to this one, presumably by telling each other on Xymphora that this was where I had gone. So my support is quite concrete, and you should go and look at Xymphora to see what kind of people they are. I never do that myself, because I don't want to lose my independence of viewpoint, so it may be quite tame nowadays.

Rowan on Rickard:

It's really good. It was recorded Apr 18 2014. Well worth listening to. He's very clear about the fact that "Russian mafia" means "Zionist mafia", ie "Jewish mafia," though in the usual way he doesn't like to use the word "Jewish," let alone the word "Jew." This is definitely the real deal: media, metals, offshore banks, diamonds, ethanol, GM foods, big pharma, the lot. Well, they don't get down to organ transplants, white slavery or drugs, but you can't cover everything in an hour and a quarter. In the last quarter hour, he manages to say the word "Jew", when he's talking about Mogolevich. Then they both start drawing false distinctions between religion and politics, saying "This is nothing to do with Judaism, this is political." They know they have to keep religion out of politics, because they've been taught to do that.

Christoph, if you see this: do you believe the meme that the Donbass industries were white elephants, and that neither the west nor Russia could really want them? My instinct is that this is complete bullshit, intended to rationalise the dumping of the Donbass people. For instance, I saw somewhere: "oh well, their method of making steel is obsolete, it uses 4 times as much energy per ton of output," etc. But on the other hand, most people admit Russian weapons (which are made in Ukraine) are better than NATO weapons. So then it's "oh, Russia is busy building plants to replace that." Like anybody in the global overclass wants that. The aim is to disarm Russia, obviously, but what is interesting is that the Russian propagandists are singing this same tune, "oh, gee whiz, we don't need Ukraine industry." So again, Russia is sold out already, Putin is sold out. And this is why Saker hates me, cos I keep saying this.
niqnaq ----- June 1, 2014 at 6:06 pm

Yes, I agree that this meme about the Donbas industries is bogus. As for the Russian weapons, Putin seems to go along with the Rogozin faction, which is strongly in favor of manufacturing everything at home. Given the shenanigans which are going on behind the scenes, this is perhaps just part of the kabuki theater aka the new Cold War.

The first quote appears to be from an article (Hungary and Panslavism) written by Friedrich Engels and approved by Marx who wrote for the same publication (Neue Rheinische Zeitung), in January 1849.

not so fast there .. first off, who would deny duh capitalism and other amassers and massifyer and (media), massificationists, stackers did NOT run roughshod over an ethnicity or two? The writing was on the wall in Marx's days.

Second, the article referred to (worst/best / most avid) supporters of monarchies (history had digressed way past and off the point where Cernunnos flanked by Roman [colleague deified .. artisanship, craftiest of craftsmen] enthused all sorts .. root of respect for whittie that has lasted long past sell-by date and cause continuation .. {addition 8th of june 2019:} and even beyond that cause turning into it's polar, thanatopite opposite!!!), amongst which was Jesus on a study trip; the latter however went home with truths that cost him his life and the white race undying enmity of the book/grudge keepers

Today in Ireland, unfortunately, there are a quite a number of ignorant and misguided people associated with various subverted so-called 'Irish Republican' movements who admire Karl Marx, Friedrich Engels, and other key Marxist figures and other assorted Leftists as well as the ideals of the destructive, mind-rotting, and failed ideologies of Marxism / Bolshevism / Communism / Socialism and Leftist ideologies in general.

Most Jews, whether they think this through or not, just cannot understand why all the world shouldn't be happy with zionism. Why? Because it's a radical change from avoiding their 'own' blood being shed (while continuing either way to catalyze the war model that has only lately come into focus via alt.media). So, what appears as a conventional adaptation, indeed capitulation to the model they heretofore promoted from outofsite side- and bylines, dictated from background beanturfin blockhead 'balance' sheet signatures and triggered all along, was gonna continue apace but with much less hypocrisy. The bad Jews can now celebrate instead of hide their bad conscience and critics can get the old Bolsh treatment at the hands of the too big to be [] little (Stalin, Madonna, Putin)

Move the mixrace [s]pawnhybrids figurehead sell-outs into positions of authority, sweeping enough to turn conflict into bordercrossing mayhem cause only they are alienated from both sides of their family trees enough to turn on and sacrifice the hell out of them (a hysteric reaction to being an infertile dead end as Theodor Lessing put it .. not quite understanding the implication of deep bifurcation as Andrew Lehman has put forth in his www.neoteny.org). Some turn out real good, pointing to disparity between the present and a cleaner greener past they can tap into; one of which I confess to being.

the racial connotations of the word Jew have completely eroded and cobble-clump -/- accreted anew, emerging from a swirly hotspot soup multiple multicultural times and places, fragmenting their surroundings with ancient entitlement tools to justify enormous demografucked gloat and bloat (Solzhenitsyn has written a few sharp lines about the consequences of early marriages) and competing with far off peers over the former's heads; incapable of a more personal introspective form of self-criticism (one wishes Otto Weininger would have remained alive to do more than hint at some possible reasons; let's just put in down to confinement bias/syndrome for now).

There is some gibberish coming in today. I can hardly make head or tail of this, except to say that a Grad salvo is 40 rockets in 20 seconds. It's worth stressing though that the infamous destruction of Tshkivali in Ossetia involved a whole battalion of Grad launchers, 18 of them, thus 720 rockets in one volley. Kiev doesn't have that kind of firepower out on Mount Karachun. Strelkov thinks they may have 2 launchers, but not more. There is no such thing as an IS-152 M1944 field gun, so the exact type of the gun which was rumoured to have been renovated is unknown... :-} – RB Rejection of Jewish nationalism from the 1920s, attempted to prevent the establishment of a Jewish homeland in Palestine by violence and defiance of any form of Jewish political power; including any plans to share stewardship with Arabs which crystallized into the expression of Palestinianism. No other positive definition of an Arab-Palestinian people has surfaced.

off on just this day? If this is Florida time, it corresponds to 15:49 Moscow time. Where are all his readers supposed to be waiting? Kamchatka? But what I have always said is, his claim of 20,000 readers a day is technically impossible for what is in fact just a page in blogger.com, not even a subdomain (in which case it would have its own site name). Blogger.com would not permit anyone above 10,000 readers a day to remain in this format. I would expect them to intervene long before that, to say, you need a more expensive package. And if he said no, they would throw him off the package that he has, and let him find another hosting company.

Saker is like Moon of Alabama in that the posts themselves are hardly even worth glancing at; what is worthwhile is the links people leave in the comments. Not the ones they just dump there without any explanation, because who has the time and energy to explore all of those? But the ones they take the trouble to say: this says so and so, go look at it. And if it's sufficiently interesting sounding, I put it through the Yandex translator. As regular readers know, I was banned from commenting at both of them two or three weeks ago, because I described Putin as "a piece of shit." I think Putin is a traitor, like Gorbachev & Yeltsin were, and the 'resistance' is nothing but an agreed-upon pretext for ethnic cleansing. Strelkov didn't know that initially, but he's beginning to realise it.

According to our intelligence, it was a battle between soldiers from Dnepropetrovsk and Lvov. Most likely, Dnepropetrovsk troops were killed by Lvov troops because they were preparing to switch sides, and the Ukrainian authorities decided to cover this up and blame us for the deaths.

It's entirely my own hypothetical. But the first thing that I imagine would happen would be that Putin would be, to put it mildly, deposed for having agreed to such a cynical arrangement. In fact, I should think he would be lucky to escape being lynched – RB don't think my effort (on 230) went over that well:

practically all of this morning's news is ludicrous nonsense, but here is a piece of pertinent, ludicrous nonsense of record, so to speak

First, let me say a few words about the international situation in general. In Iraq, we have a government which Usaia no longer regards as legitimate, requesting airstrikes against ISIS. But that's no good, because the CIA says it has no idea who it would like to strike or why, and that makes sense, because actually ISIS, like AQ in general, works for them, via Bandar Bush's global terror network, which is off-radar because officially Bandar has been sacked, so that makes it all completely deniable, but clearly Bandar is endeavouring to serve Usaian goals, by making everything ungovernable and particularly (a) stopping the Chinese from drilling anywhere for oil or gas and (b) stopping anybody's oil or gas reaching Yurp, which are two clear Usaian geopolitical goals. Afghanistan also lacks a government recognised by all the players, so that's another lawless zone where the CIA and its AQ assets can do what they like. So is Syria. So is Libya, where the pretend govt is complaining about CIA or JSOC snatching people, but that doesn't matter because the pretend govt no longer controls anything, the CIA's General Haftar controls it, and he isn't complaining. Now, having dealt with the rest of the world from Usaia's neo-liberal or neo-anarchist point of view, let us return to our beloved homeland of Ukraine, which doesn't exist, because the west half is genuinely Eurocentric and the east half is genuinely Russocentric, so it should be partitioned. It's hard to believe these two nice Jewish boys are actually in Donetsk, but they're pretending they are, so let's indulge them, bearing in mind that there is no reason whatever why they should be there, or even in Kiev, when they could be sitting in New York, simply making this stuff up. There's nobody to stop them doing so, because in today's Usaia, anything the bosses say, goes – RB

Disillusioned by Russia's drift away from Europe, prominent journalist and editor Leonid Bershidsky has finally decided to emigrate. It's essentially a new type of Templarism .. except it's not even approaching the stage of moving goalposts as a resource grab ruse yet, on the contrary and far from it, further from it still every step of the way ...

Now, the Ukrainian way of dealing with tires does strike me as harm- and wasteful but hey, widest patch of rich ground around so i am told and so the zionist grain weaponizers (distilliers) had an evil eye on it early on (main reason i thought i couldn't or shouldn't try follow the rainbow family to their gatherings in that direction; i found them too to have become a little too pyromanic for/past my liking).

Good story. The KSA-USA role in sponsoring ISIS is getting more attention the last couple of days. NYT just posted on its web site a story proclaiming the obvious: U.S. is orchestrating a coup to get rid of Malaki. Naturally, Ahmad Chalabi is being mentioned as a Yatsenyuk-like fill-in. You have to admit the butchery and buffoonery of the U.S. make a guy like Putin seem awfully appealing.

the dollar propped up by arms sales and Dugin propped up (souffleured) by Rowan:

We know that the price the dollar pays for its continued domination of all international trade is that it is paradoxically forced to become objectively valueless in order to retain its value. That is, the Jewish cabal in control of the Usaian federal reserve is only too willing to print dollars by the trillion and 'lend' them to the Usaian Treasury, which then spends them on buying back its own bonds from the international markets in order to keep the nominal value of these bonds at a fictitiously 'healthy' level. Thus, in turn, major holders of these bonds, such as China and Japan, can at least pretend within their public accounting systems that these assets are worth something.

More broadly, though, the factor that prevents the massive dumping of US Treasuries, and of dollar denominated assets in general, is a more private one. There are no 'communist' regimes any more, in any real sense, since even 'communist' China is, like any other bourgeois state, essentially the property of its creditors, who hold their personal wealth in dollar denominated assets, and like any other bourgeois personages, would rather see 'their' countries bankrupted than themselves. It may or may not be the case that President Putin himself possesses an enormous personal fortune, denominated in western currency and stored in western banks *(cough)*...

It would be idle to imagine that revolutionary communism can be regenerated miraculously in a mere instant of time, and great masses of proletarians aroused to turn all these bourgeois rulers, throughout the world, out of office. History shows, however, that the fact that the topmost layer, the super-elite, of the global bourgeoisie, is composed of Jews, offers possibilities for a more rapidly and easily organised form of global revolution. It is only too obvious, in country after country, that the most conspicuous members of the supra-national grande bourgeoisie are indeed Jews. It would be extremely easy to arouse vast mobs worldwide by saying, instead of "turn the bourgeoisie out of office", "turn the Jews out of office". The populace would be very easily roused against them. And once they were ousted, it would merely be necessary to fend off the right-wing gupistas who normally assume power after such upheavals, to double-cross them and proclaim the revolution of the proletariat instead...

he stands a better chance of leading a colony of dissidents (of the type the dutch history radio loves to indulge hours and hours of anecdote dotted timeline tracing and trajectories of individual specime) into a perhaps reviving soviet this morning i saw a placard saying feminism is communism in drag ... and almost began a rant with:

now, the sexual revolution can clearly be seen as the admixture of widely and long divergent branches of the human genome reuniting, a crossbranch graft as it were ... which causes a throwback to primal prefamily gens of extended family constituted tribes and clans ... hence .. yada yada but i didn't ... no even when minutes later the weird bearded bright colour flamboyant with lapdog in garish colour also triggered a memory of crowd pleasers and paedogagglegigglephlies, boyscout leaders and koerperkultur maniacs .. being the motors and first stage of the nazi rockets, prelaunch fuel bundlers, not yet lifted off, nor in fact intending to ... resisting that even, being grounded and gentle ... hence they get slaughtered by the butchy bullet boys of the kind we see win favor as a battering ram for grander and foolisher designs.

Curious.. What's the difference between a "race realist" and a Zionist? Don't both support ethnic segregation? Like "white nation" vs "Jewish nation" (Mind you Israel does practice ethnic cleansing of West Bank Arabs, 85% of Gaza's population are refugees, on top of the million or so Palestinians living in diaspora). Not to mention, that most zionist, like most race realists believe they're selected ethnic group is superior than the "others".. It's good for zionists to point out that Israel has an Arab population of about 1.5 million. While negating that Israel has over 2 dozen laws discriminating against Arab residents. One of which actually dictates who Arab Israelis can marry IE NO Palestinians from the occupied territories.. Not to mention Israel has practiced eugenics on it's Ethiopian Jewish community by giving them depo provero, to limit their population growth. Israel currently imprisons thousands of black Sudanese refugees in the Negev for the evil crime of not being Jewish in a Jewish state.. So I'm curious.. How is it one form of "race realism" is disgusting socially, yet in the form of zionism it's more socially tolerated? Shouldn't we be consistent and call bullshit on all forms of racism?

Yes, I think frequently done by govt and NGOs incl. media these days. For example, when a tribe of Indians shows up at the front of my property shouting "whose land, our land" and "get off our land" -- those are examples. More circumstances are intended acts trying and succeeding in getting one fired from his employment because of his religious and political beliefs. Attacking, with chainsaws, private property on which religious signs are displayed is another. Internet death threats. Govt officials publicly declaring a non felon unwelcome to reside on one's own private property. In other words, the stalking occurs physically upon your residence or employer. Ancillary means are also used. But the threatening intent and result of economic or physical harm are the more primary elements. It's like an orchestra.

Via Syrian Perspective: The Iraqi government has wasted no time asserting its air supremacy by purchasing close to 90 Sukhoi-25 Fencers multi-role bombers from the Russian Federation and Belarus. But who is going to pilot the jets? Enter 400 retired Syrian Air Force pilots trained to fly Sukhois who will complement a few Iranians. SyrPer has learned that the Iraqi government is paying top dollar for these experienced pilots whose role will be to provide air cover for advancing Iraqi army forces and devastating fire power against the hordes of U.S.-sponsored, -funded and -trained ISIS terrorists infesting brotherly Iraq.

I have been informed that even active-duty Syrian pilots will be involved in orienting the retired officers to the topography and geography of Iraq.

The battles for the salvation of Russia inevitably will replace the liberal traitorous elites with patriotic ones. This is scary for rouble elite. Now patriots move in, with no intention of conceding to these rouble elites even the courtesy of verbal reassurance, let alone practical support. Now the Kremlin is playing for time. It hopes to ride out the economic collapse of Ukraine, and by default a social explosion. Then, they say, Kiev will no longer be able to maintain its war, and Ukraine, possibly, will collapse by itself, or simply become more compliant. Perhaps this plan would work, given the rather low qualification of the leaders of the junta. But the West is fully able to prevent that outcome. Somehow they will stabilise the situation. There will be an enhanced Ukrainian army and a stripped Donbass. Then by order of Usaia, the Ukrainian fascists will inevitably attack Russia. This is the risk the Kremlin is actually running by pursuing the current policy of dumping Novorossiia. The Kremlin is playing with fascism. And now only the lazy would not quote, as a result, the Kremlin will get "both disgrace, and war." Their rejection of the Project of Novorossiia has forestalled the creation of a buffer state vitally necessary for Russian Union, whose pro-Russian and anti-fascist potential could be used in the fight against fascist Ukraine. Otherwise, we give Ukrainian fascism time to gain strength for the destruction of the largest possible number of Russian people. So far, Novorossiia can rely only on themselves and on the active patriots of Russia.

https://wikispooks.com/wiki/200_Years_Together posted during the course of an argument that site's maker (i assume) has with Rowan over Bolshies just before it he makes the great remark:

The Ukie Junta is viscerally anti-Russian when in truth and justice, what they ought to be is viscerally anti-Judaic-Bolshevik; if only because the Bolsheviks killed far more Russians than did the Nazis. But with Kiev and its junta the geographical and political inheritors of the Pale of Settlements, together with near total Judaic domination of the empire, the utterly ridiculous and viscous confusion of its apologists and foot-soldiers is pretty much complete –

Rowan: As I have pointed out often enough. I am a Marxist myself, and I do not regard myself as a Jewish apologist, nor do I regard Marxist as a Jewish movement. So, logically enough, I will not put up with people saying, assuming or implying that it is.

And if you try to introduce that sort of terminology again ("Judaic-Bolshevik"), I shall ban you.

obviously the meme of jews being open and/or laid open not being left/up to other than jews (if other than jews are even up to it) has been internalized by Rowan (who likes to keep on secretly celebrating and apologizing for jews even when it appears he's exposing them. He simply doesn't believe there are alternatives .. has no feel for them, doesn't think they are possible, blocked from seeing them like he blocks me And by the way, what he ascribes to Putin fits these twists to a t don't they?)

Anyway, an hour later he redeems himself with some depth of his own (here's a taste of it):

But when the Zionist State declared itself not pro-Soviet, as Stalin had been led to hope, but pro-capitalist and pro-Western, Stalin realised that he had been double-crossed, and from then on they were open enemies. I have written about this at length, here.

Good for you RB, be your own man and never sell yourself for ratings. The Jew elite never went through a feudal state. That rang a bell, check this out and note the last comment. (Sorry I couldn't get the link to copy at the end of the post :))

Cu Chulainn: thanks nn for the analysis above; Soral and more recently Gilad have thematized class divisions in jewish society, the latter re. the eugenic formation of a cognitive élite, the former describes his own position as a defense of "le juif du quotidien" (e.g. Jacob Cohen) against a predatory élite

i agree with crazy ivan, this is a seriously radical text that calls out putin's regime for what it is: lazy, politically bankrupt and sold out --

54 Killed, Over 450 Wounded as Israel Preps Gaza
Invasion ----- Jason Ditz, AntiWar.com, Jul 9 2014
Israel continues to escalate airstrikes against the Gaza Strip today, with officials reporting 550 strikes in the last 48 hours, and the attacks leaving at least 54 killed, and over 450 others wounded. What the families are actually saying, and it has nothing to do with so-called 'human shields', is this: "This is our home, God damn you: we live here, and you can kill us if you want to, but we're not leaving." And there are people all over the world saying this; in Novorossiia too, and it's really a completely apolitical, or pre-political statement: we love our home, and we won't abandon it, we'd rather be destroyed with it than just become refugees. This is not the sort of statement the mass media can even hear, but I can hear it – RB

Chi Sasa: +Mary Davis i have no idea what you speak of, i don't read gospel, bible, cause they began to promulgate, inculcate and incubate the extremismz of literature, linking it, baselining it to weaponization rather than pacifism (very few hints left of that in gospels / bible, which is why they distract from it ... but this may be a case very similar to John Zube who used Ulrich von Beckerath's work as the crystalization seed around which he grew an enormous [microfiche] collection which drowns and chokes the original inspiration)

(see this amazing Israeli film : youtube.com/watch?v=eB7tr0MBTjA). There really is no difference between German Nazis and Jewish Nazis – it was just a competition was which grouping was the ubermensch. Zionists saw the Jews as old fashioned, backwards, and despicable. So when you hear that mabey Hitler was in the hands of Zionists – maybe not that outlandish after you see this movie.

The Jewish 'God' is the Christian 'Satan' claims his inverted pentagram helps, wants to go underground and shut up in Jerusalem

Once again, you are missing a chance at improving that formula thusly:

the tolerance for genocidal doctrine days are numbered ... simply remedy: permieculture' manuels as not their holy but ONLY books, put them on a strict moral diet, restrict their movements to freedom to ground, assist them with opps for grounding ... create a completely new synthesis of reform school, prison, monastery, thinktank, pilgimage destination and concentration camp ... keep them up for as many generations as it takes to soak in soilbuilding genius so that that's what comes and can be let out.... perfect the zionism behind very very selectively penetrable walls idea come on Brendon, i'm counting on ya!!

Not that i expect you to find that sort of thing at all relevant*). The world could do with lots of secessions, regionalization, etcetera. Stationary, clean, low in- and output generators are entirely feasible and i told Putin to look into that rather than pipelines but the drive behind 'roadery' and cultivating the hormone levels that get their Stockholm kick out of mayhem aren't as easy to stop when enormous weapon stockpiles become the stakes to move & sweep markets. Protest against the Israeli attack on Gaza, Tel Aviv, Israel, 19.7.2014 - yisraelpm -- 1,360 - 26,649 -- Published on Jul 19, 2014 -- 168:20
 the full on murderous guilty and the reluctantly compliant vocal opposition put on a show; both sides somehow feeling justified thinking they are exemplary, true front (ier)people believing they can go back yet hold on to all the modern privilege securitizing supremacytec.

about apartheid-related issues is utterly commonplace, and I can't see any reason why Peres should be an exception. properly speaking, the sentence ought to be shortened and the meaning broadened, namely, But hypocrisy among Jews is utterly commonplace. to humans, hypocrisy is a filthy vice, evoking sight of a snake's forked tongue, but to jews, it signifies a valuable skill of multitasking as it were.

jew is an utterly goal oriented materialist who has happily traded his soul for the present gain, karmic balance is beyond comprehension or interest to him. the skill in deception and manipulation is a point of pride the way a master chef prizes ability to season a dish to perfection. when will humans understand this and respond rationally?

i started developing a thought that hypocrisy occupies the highest rung among judaic virtues: ... hypocrisy among Jews is utterly commonplace .. then it occurred to me that this exceedingly clever and wise man said pretty much the same thing: Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith .. note the Pharisees, hypocrites! contains a comma, rather than "and", let alone "or". i believe that in a number of european societies, the pairing of pharisees – hypocrites, expressed an equivalence class, i.e., the intersection was identical with the union for all practical purposes. ----- amongst 72 on occidentalobserver

Evidence mounts of mass psychosis in Israel, which is the full flowering of Zionist supremacist and colonial ideology. Zionists used to boast "they made the desert bloom" in Palestine. But bloom with what one has to wonder!? We know it has indeed bloomed with racism and social hatred so profound the society is disintegrating and rotting from cultural dry. -----
This individual (old enough to know better judging by his head) was photographed in a Jerusalem pub Wednesday morning. It is doubtful that he is an Israeli army reservist because in the case of US and UK, most of their combat veterans come home with psychosis, addiction, & other mental health problems; thousands commit suicide over guilt and grief at what they saw and did. ----- Juicing it up in the morning might mean this individual has a shred of humanity left but when you flaunt ethnic cleansing on your shirt and drown your sorrows in a pint while psycho politicians praise you for your crimes, chances are there isn't much left and what is left isn't worth the bother.

Ditto Freemasonry, Kabbalah, the Crown and the when some players are invisible. I believe the channel of control is the so-called 'Intelligence Community', which is far more integrated globally than we are led to believe (i.e. totally). Mossad may

I would say that it, too, has its factions. Mossad is a

Lacking the empathy, insight and ethics, many societies and communities fail to ground, anchor and engage the restless portion of their offspring and these become the explorers, adventurers, tourists, agents in foreign parts (called foreign agents once there's enough of them), gangs, the armies and colonies, the Israels and Daeshes of the world, often still spoilt by guilty parents who try to give them a conscience assuaging 'oprot-premie' (get lost, keep away bonus - an embarrassment to their status) ... this misunderstanding of distance so thoroughly diseased powers of observation that 'nice' (but obviously uebercynical A dam / London / NY / LA type throngy elbow rowxpert) ladies claim it's all whities's fault*. Or that it's outrageous to say all jews are for cruelty to Palestinians. In israel most of them sure are .. and that's proof of my conclusion: shifty segregation siftery at/as the heart of the prob.

Jesus presented this perfect ego-bloat antidote back home as it's pr-man, prophet and messenger but counterproduced undying enmity towards all -- and especially these, meanwhile completely and unrecognizably crypticated and buried alive -- things northern, 'threatening' their unhappiness and domination addiction. To learn who these people are, what they are fighting for, and who funds them, PRESS TV goes deep into their camps and brings you face to face interviews and exclusive footage. Many of those who were initially infatuated by the group's promise of justice seem to be horrified and utterly disillusioned today.

semites and semite addled whities colluding to satanically arm the schizophrenized and unleash them upon those with the decent stupidity to attempt a talking cure ... rather than capturing them and supplying them with permie basics only (exclusively) for a few generations - this, in the long history of institutionalizing the mentally ill and then (/now), after the abandonment of such communal living arrangements (since then reserved for insular pharmaffiose undertakings known as hospitals) helping a lot of them with self incarceration in cubicles and the power to infect / 'reproduce' via home connectivity, has never been tried but i see it as the only growth industry (and i mean that very literally and in the respectably organic sense too). UKRAINE – What Just Happened?

This last week has seen a dramatic turnaround in the fortunes of the Novorossian Armed Forces (NAF); from barely holding on, to turning the tables on the forces of the Kiev junta regime. The NAF has from the beginning imposed heavy losses on the Kiev forces, often in the order of 10 to 1, but they were unable to hold many strategic areas as they were greatly outnumbered and did not have the heavy equipment needed to sustain heavy attacks. So what happened?

is OliZogUkraine stunt one big 'financage' of wannabe nazis psyop in favor of the holocaust industry??? ... nothing better for them than a real time refresher course on how bad the real ones were ... added bonus, hiding the fact that Palers have that damn khazar blood in spades; the one tool they, like true coward machos, hate the most. Stolytkin buried in Kiev. Look him up in this context.

The germans get to support Nazis AND call the target nazi.

In all russian defense i miss any admittance that just like anywhere else, let a few semitc, restless dirty mercantilism powered bloodlines diffuse, migrate and pass thru your territories, you get added and taken up in a runaway chaingangbang event and must count on the next incoming tide of backlashes from the additional backload, backflow, blowback grudges - held aggregated and accumulated since they were kept off the market and on the books at sacredly inviolable nominal values, being floated from and or rolling from one haven to the next like a hungry fireball - to be that much more virulent and worse than the previous one; hence, nazis as fought an international communism but the outcome is a both nationalist (strokes with notionalism quite nicely) AND international, empire bent hegemoniac strain of the very same thing the let slip an failed to arrest .. again, ... Stolytkin turns in his grave.

it's all very well to use righties as a battering ram but to then let them dominate the revolution rather defeats that purpose; this is why in 99 i had very clear visions of what a UN worth that name would have to do: employ / fund / educate the marginalized and adrift; with nato like clout providing protection and especially safe passages for those ready to desert radicalism that aren't. Defectors corridors are quite vital and long term security for global climate war pow[d]er[er]s of banked, swaled treeplanting pioneers must be garuanteed.

rowan indulges a paragraph made up of a very long and a (n also very) short sentence:

There is a surprisingly sophisticated psyop going on to distract attention from the actual, physical front lines: this psyop has two wings (which suggests CIA planning, actually, because the Kiev goons are not intelligent enough to apply these strategies): one wing is to say, we have to devote all our attention to civil organisation in the rear, and a tempting target is Zakharchenko himself, because it appears he is involved in black marketeering of relief goods, along with Akhmetov; so getting rid of him by means of an internal DND coup would certainly be a very good thing, but it is wrong to infer from this that we should let the fronts collapse and learn to live under junta occupation while we supposedly reorganise the rear areas. Once stated clearly as I have just done, the idea is obvious nonsense.

I realise it sounds very harsh, calling for an army coup, but this is where I disagree with Strelkov (not to mention Dugin, who I am convinced is himself the Sixth Column he warns us against) – when the political echelons on both sides are entirely composed of lunatics, fools, and sold-out capitalist bastards, how could army rule possibly be any worse? – RB ".. hypocrisy pervaded by my era's spiritual leaders. And underneath it was this "blank space"—who controls our money system?"

anyway, ideal vs real ... nominal potemkinite vs grounded, backed real bill doctrine is difficult to unmix under privacy - clever pranks / free markets / secret weapons - glorifying conditions .. and speaking about spiritual .. the same troubles apply trying to define the word 'jew'.

Contest and contention drives people into droves, throngs, heaps and congestions. A radical and a fundie both want to disperse that but thinning of trace (in rock), of trees (in forest) and of man (on markets) is hard to argue (with spanners in the works like the synonyms for tolerance meaning both leisure or choice or a state write offripeness - speelruimte (playspace) and speling / rammel = 'rattleroom' - speling van het lot = twist of fate).

The loss and sacrifice of (trace, ground, base) ID (transparency / freshness, etc) on and along the way to[wards] be[ing] paid a price for bulk and bundle - same language veils here: inschikken = close packing .. in schikkelijkheid = compromise ability (not in the sense of corruptibility ... but hey, smire and foke alert) .. schik is joy ... marriage market dance echos even in so thoroughly weaponized societies like the dutch must be minimized if not altogether prevented.

The bible and the other / entire desertifying monotheism palette stands in the way of reinstatement and rehabilitation of nontoxidoxy

why the world is collapsing -- September 16
But as to who weaponised feminism, as a deliberate strategy to cross-cut class warfare and thus rip marxism into a million powerless, twitching fragments... someone did that, and I think they did it in exactly the same way that they had previously used nationalism, religious factionalism, and the phantasm of 'race'... and have since used the so-called 'gay issue'... These are people whose profession is to cook up distractions to assist in the process of imperial divide and rule. Perhaps we should call them 'military psychologists'.

in the paragraph after next he echoes Ivry Dov ... who he will be jealous of if i point him out again it's an usually long jeremiad but not entirely wrong, just very very far from the best possible take on things, as usual; he simply is, was and remains determinedly obstinately, not good for nothing/everything.

Come on bud, don't be so dense ... or i'll have to rank you with 'Feminism LOL' who solicits donations for domestic violence case courtproceeding transcript purchases a la 1thou canadian dole hours.

Men find it extremely pleasurable to use physical force on women. But over the course of the sixties, the law began to change on this. Women began to network and to apply public pressure, to change it. And they succeeded, first in Usaia, then in Ukia, then in Euia, the geographic spread being exactly as you would expect given the well-known centres and vectors of the liberal contagion.

Now, I think, you see what I am talking about: cultural liberalism, the very thing that Russia is supposedly rebelling against. Now you see how it fits together. But if you are a woman, you will probably say to yourself, "Ha! We shall still run things, from behind the scenes, even after cultural liberalism has been rolled back and conservative values reign again. Our power will not go away, now that we have it!" Well, to that I can only say, we shall see.

kind of odd that it seems Rowan listened to the [WiC] show Douglas did on the 13th (linked blow) ... or some other time when he touted the Sauds as the real winners. No less likely than that what i tried to tell him over 7 years ago finally sunk in and hit him square in the cranium.

The general strategic environment determines everything else. Therefore, we have to pay attention to the spectacular reversal of alliances on the part of Egypt. How is this possible? Is not Egypt the recipient of billions annually in military aid money from Usaia? On which the Generals live like princes? Yes, this is correct. And we may assume the Generals have given thought for the future; for some reason, they expect to continue to enjoy such wealth. How can this be? In one way only: they have determined that Saudi Arabia is stronger than Usaia, permanently so. But is this possible? Yes, in one way only: Saudi Arabia has arrived at a lasting alliance with Israel – completely covert, of course, but today 'covert' means only unspoken. It no longer means 'unknown'. And we know. Anyone who has watched for more than a few years, must know that Israel is taking over control of the world from Usaia. Israel has carefully prepared many strands of this rope, on which it now drops Usaia into the pit with a broken neck.

Russia is the ally of Israel, Egypt and Saudi Arabia. This new alliance excludes Usaia. Not formally 'excludes'- they will play the game with Usaia for as long as the latter wants to go on pretending that it is still master of the universe, but their laughter will be audible and their sneering will be apparent in every comment. Usaia may play the performance of clown with delusions if it wishes. The world is able to judge the real intelligence of political players without having to publicly comment on the fact. The world has two levels: what is spoken, and what is unspoken. This is also true in individual society. Much that is generally known and of decisive importance, is never, literally never, spoken about out loud. Therefore, society also has two levels: those who evidently know, and those who evidently do not know. Fathers are expected to tell their sons, when the latter reach the age of discretion; mothers their daughters, ditto. Persons commenting on this blog who attempt to retain the previous fictions will receive a very brief welcome. I have always endeavoured to tell the truth, not to conform to such conventions of silence as described above. I shall continue to do so, unlike, shall we say El Murid. But he is important – RB that's not an exact enough answer to my question, though i agree it's semite/bible addled whities who should bear the cost and commit to the effort of returning the blacks as well as themselves, if that's what you imply, If not, try again. Second para: agreed ;)?

Fethez Nocturnus Libertus +RockSoilerToil TaleTattler No, it's the christians period. So many religions have the myth of the "chosen people", and nationalists use it to commit genocides. So what I was saying is that white nationalists should carry that shit back to Europe, instead of killing people, and bombing other countries because they won't part take in it. (Like the american government).

so, again, since blacks, as far as not infected by the white supremacy to perp their own, can therefore stay .. a ok .. on the red continent?

Rowan is getting frusty about his loves of actionheros and selfawarded talent to pick such winners around the real life and deadserious theaters,, all slick and scoopy, are never requited for very long Never before associated him with Dana Horochowski (set and determined on being the only one left standing in 'her' field, it seems) but here's a first.

My anger at all this is accumulating to dangerous proportions. I can see that each and every one of the writers I have been following despises his own readers for being stupid enough to believe the particular deception that he, the writer, is putting forward, and that the main gimmick of each of these writers is to pretend to let you into the secret by condemning the rest, for doing what I have just described.

Thus each writer says:

"The rest are taking advantage of your naivete while secretly despising you precisely because you fall for their own tricks. But I'm different – I'm giving you the low-down. So you can feel proud of your own discrimination and sophistication, in having correctly landed on me, the one and only true source among these legions of phonies."

The key to selling disinfo is always to make the target feel privileged that he or she is clever enough to have landed on the one true source. In other words, they appeal to your vanity. We didn't need these scum from Moscow to come and tell us this. We already learned it long ago, from the supposed CIA and Mi6 "whistleblowers". So fuck off back to Moscow, scum, and take your dreary pseudo-war and its fake 'leaders' with you. I don't give a fuck about it, and nor do you. A well-known Ukrainian Jewish community leader and anti-Zionist, Eduard Hodos, has come to the defense of the newspaper and the articles' author, Vasily Yaremenko. In the course of his speech intended for a hearing of the Appellate Court of the City of Kiev (scheduled for May 25, 2004, but delayed indefinitely for reasons unknown), the author denounces the Talmud as "monstrous" and defends Mel Gibson's 'The Passion of the Christ', which has come under attack by 'human rights advocates' everywhere. You can read it here: <http://web.archive.org/web/20050310165024/oag.ru/views/love.html>

Prior to being shut down, the newspaper published the following letters from readers, which were reprinted by Jewish organizations and used as "proof" of "anti-Semtism."

...Jewish publicists deny the fact that [Jewish people] organized the Ukrainian famine in 1933. However, eyewitnesses claim otherwise.... Not one Jewish person died from starvation in 1933. ...We are not anti-Semites. However, we believe it is dishonorable and demeaning to stay quiet when Zionists are taking over the political and economic spheres of our country*. We must let people know the truth about the doings of Zionists in Ukraine. ...He told the truth about the vicious activities of Zionists in Ukraine. ...We cannot allow Zionists to destroy Ukraine.

Rockefeller and Rothschild United—The New World Order is Built on Oil Monopoly --- August 29, 2014
Texe Marrs explains the reason for the reordering of the Middle East, the U.S. invasions and Israeli aggression in Ukraine. The multibillionaire oilmen and bankers, Rothschild and Rockefeller, have merged their operations. In a few short years, the United States has become the #1 world's oil producer and is now selling its oil and gas to other countries. Only Russia can compete in the oil and gas market, and the Illuminati elite are working to remove Russia and Putin from their oil perch. They have ignited a false, new Cold War.

now, having done the morning's chores, accounting for the empire, let's turn to more interesting matters. It seems to me that there is an interesting anthropological error in this. It is a curse against the supposed 'Caucasians' who, Jewish anthropology tells us, "appeared in the Caucasus mountains, the southern Russia of now, and spread their peculiar form of death from Mexico to Moscow." The error becomes apparent when the curse says, "Blacks and Reds, Apaches and Jews, all know where they come from, but you don't seem to know..." I think the 'Caucasians' who "spread their peculiar form of death from Mexico to Moscow" are in reality the Khazars, ie today's dominant strain of so-called Jews. The gross anachronism of this is unimportant in the universe of imaginary history. But Paul Kantner never quite figured that out. A good curse, despite its misconception – RB

Isn't this the ridiculous ideology practiced by the zionists disguised as Christians and the zionists disguised as Jews? CHRIST and the state of israel are two different things. America and state of israel are two different things. The House of Israel and the state of israel are two different things. PLEASE, wake up all of you good Christians and/or American citizens. Take care and GOD bless! ?

this touches on the mistake the otherwise incredibly useful truthspeaking voices raised like 's, make.

He thinks divestment from Iz is a realistic and realizable campaign focus but it's too much of a tabooed painpoint to dress and address.

Migratory aspects of sociography are not like rocket stages that fall away so threatening the offspring is a threat to earlier generations and vice versa.

The fact that americans are as unlike real americans as Jews, specially the zionists, are unlike (less dilute, diffuse drift subjected and liminalized) previous 'states' of jewry (migrant grows [into] a people) indicates and hints at an undead dependency, an unmournable, unburiable toxicity (fukushima), their ceremonial delusionality is joined at the hip; they use each other as shield / buffer / figurehead, scapegoat, legitimacy guarantee. At the very least it ain't a divestment Ry asks for, it's a divorce, a disownment. The age of secession will begin when easy local power generation is finally seen as easy and clean as it is, always was and can be any time. THAT will curb the gun 'rampantcity' more than anything.

just wait, the ties between zionism and nazism are gonna be expressed in a whole clothwad or so lessened swaddled ways than there:

Quote: Yet, one would wait in vain for the N-word to be mentioned by Western press. BBC coyly reported that: "nationalists demanded that MPs pass a law to recognize a World War Two nationalist group which opposed Soviet forces."

UPA, the organization responsible for the murder of thousands is presented as "the opposition to Soviet forces."

The BBC's squeamishness is very typical of western coverage of Ukrainian violence: as long as any group has challenged the evils of Stalin's bolshevism, their Nazi collaboration is to be ignored. It is this privileging of anti-communism at the expense of anything else that enables the press to insist that "There are no Nazis in Ukraine-- it is all the invention of Kremlin propaganda." /Quote ps (on western press, with few exceptions like http://www.salon.com/2014/02/25/is_the_us_backing_neo_nazis_in_ukraine_partner/he_goes): "surprisingly timid" my ass. downright criminally negligent, hypocritical, diabolized, in one word (trendy among the sharper tighter and better observers for years already): ZOGed be more like it

"The mainstream press, however, happy to detect rudiments of neo-Nazism in Russia, fails to recognize in Ukrainian rhetoric of anti-sovietism a camouflaged version of Nazi's "Judeo-Bolshevism.""

see niquaq on various zog 'favour' flavors available; a schizo always fights/denies a version of himself, a sockpuppet will do, hired mercenaries and people so 'olig orced' and desperate they will accept shooting paraphernalia and shooting direction instructions along with an otherwise unobtainable (due to dumbification, alcohol, .. whatever) wage.

so the heavy metal 'hard rock' soundtrack surely forms part of the predic(a)tive programming .. with the 'no, it's a warning' deniability factor built in; leaving consultations about what exactly heavy metal has to and can do with hard rock, such as mine, with a 17 year long publication trackrecord, completely tabooed and offside.

That fact is no part of why it is easy for criminals to meanstream their message.

what worries me is the rage, dislike and antipathy that will break thru on a wider scale via the onslaught of more 'ITec' more catchy and truthful than this. But jews need not worry as it will remain un/nonscalable due to a 'splinternet effect' caused a combined hard and soft component:

1 -- the neglect of open sourcing finance (ride the WayBack Machine to ledgerism.net .. Bitcoin is ponzi scheme compared to that).

He brought jews to the Pale (if i can believe Solzh) and even so, they ended up doing their far away starry eyed bolsh-brethren's dirty work of stealing from and exterminating their hosts; as they do palestinians and now russokranians as well Colonel Cassad has just put out the most horrifying torture accounts. just leave them to their criminal fantasies and focus on creating multi generational quarantine spaces for the too hard to teach. They are the human equivalent of radioactive waste. Them we reach only via a mixture of compulsory monasticism and therapeutic imprisonment - involves lots of gardening, on success of which we let their population growth hinge, gradually dwindling rations and urging them to drop their religious delirium for the permie manuels we will generous grant them. Consider it a way of spoiling them, showing we want only the best for even our enemies. This is the insight that gets this war won before the decade is out. Trust me.

Adrian Azzopardi +Piety Piet duh Pious Poet I agree to a certain point, but the Jews have been our mortal enemy for the past two millennia. Black people are simple used as a tool, to get back at us. So it is us who are continually on the receiving end. If the mainstream media only reports white on black crime, then I feel duty-bound to counter their disingenuous efforts.

that's a sure fire suicidal self-defeating strategy, it leaves absolutely no way to claim your denial of bias is plausible (the big prize these feint feign n fakery days 'doe ntsja no?'); absolutely the wrong way one should understand and implement the word 'complementary', the root of which refers to grounding, not living alongside and thus condoning / avoiding and attempting to outgrow the bad execution of whatever media / currency and other (size / weight / distro) ranges or spectra of energy/matter movements 'one' wants to compete with. A full emancipation is not only pretending they have no future and will piecemealwise lose the expanses / extensions 'one' can defend / secede with but succesfully ignoring them. A luxury considering events in the Donbass where deathly proof is delivered daily about just how difficult it is to scale that 'branch' of endeavor (this top end real estate region .. much involved with Russia's pride and superiority -- ballistics).

I don't claim to have it covered, but I am not aware of much better news from the opposite, intimate border end, the intentional community founding and squat legalization front discounting claims by until they decide it's time to become transparant and share their database of large landowners deeding their properties to these globalists who, unlike most of them, try to make it a point to keep their show clean and scalable.

I meant 'green thumbing' (much more of an established expression in Holland, famous for nursing trees, though safely? ... not so much); Stolytkin tried to 'ground' jews and no doubt inspired zionism ... which explains, also no doubt, the latter's expansion into that same Pale once again. i really wonder how much the 'zionbie culture' has to do with sugar, one, if not first of those desperate pick-up tricks that go so horribly wrong ... you know ... stuff that goes from high priced to 'dirt cheap'.

It went from extremely rare, novel and status token ... to commodity (obsolescence / ubiquity) and then downright danger to the unwary .. and falsely humble, those who suppress the awareness of slaveries and addictions that quite typically refine to death and produce white substance.

Policemen and doughnuts = emotional powderkegs and you could recognize them from hundreds of yards away, if they did not have to do their beat in cars .. and because they have to do their beats in cars.

...prevent going through spawning the mischling they themselves were by putting distance between them (to take/return the stray party home ... however that was before Dresden and such OVERthetopCRIMES),

Initially the NaZi aim was to prevent both sides from spawning siblings for them, the 'mischling' they themselves were by dialing distance between ethnicities back, taking the stray party home, they carried the zionist thought ... pretty much in their name even ... (however that was before Dresden and such OVERthetopCRIMES; none of which this speaker has time for in his hasbara zeal).

A redone on said '19' date:

Nazis were noting, feeling -- and fearing .. had 'dunkle vorahnung' ... note homonymity of expectations (a captive confidence) and ancestors. Nazis, them evil twins of zionists who cast suspicions on and questioned the wisdom of their own, something the american could use an ueberdose of) btw, instead rejoiced in, furthered, tried to find an edge to sharpen on, etcetera, it.

imagine the globalization bug transferred by fucking .. like most others .. but they saw the restlessness resulting in most of their peers .. tried to fight it, yet failed to walk their own talk into bulwark against those who instead rejoiced in, furthered and tried to find wetstones for to sharpen it etcetera

Thus what they felt and could have steered became a thing they feared (.. note beautiful doubling that is less a split than an extension and continuity, less a dangerous confusion than an affirmation. It is the homonymity between that and the type of expectation that is affirmative since 'ahnen' means forefathers ... and/or casts suspicions on one's ancestors, something the american doesn't manage to face head on, instead compelled [by impending critical threshold crossing type desperate circumstance] to try an ueberdose of any damn thing that suppresses it).

Nazis were noting, feeling -- and fearing .. had 'dunkle vorahnung' ... note beautiful doubling that is less a split than an extension and continuity, less a dangerous confusion than an affirmation made possible via homonymity of expectations (a captive confidence) and ancestors. Nazis, them evil twins of zionists, cast suspicions on and questioned the wisdom of their own (something the american could use an ueberdose of) that those who instead rejoiced in, furthered, tried to find an edge to sharpen on it etcetera.
.. note relation to 'ahnenerbe'

What i point out has an element of bridge burning (read Theodor Lessing on Hybrids) ... the other way than say ... emigration to someplace that would make you filthy rich and a better jew .. but never one that would help you best the jew .. any better ... though the info-war strictures and fascism cultures are truly divergent on either side of the pond ... and even though german was spoken by most americans at some point in the past (1840s? i forget). In other words, a bridge that leads to betrayal of 2 races in favor of a multimuddle culture, the bridge of emigration, should not be crossed but burned.

Nazis were aware of and intuited .. but also tallied effects which led to only per- and conceiving of miscegenation ... no such thing for the market and state manipulators who cause this in the first place and by the boatload (a token refusal of a Rothchild shipment to palestine is about as convincing as the zionist wall containing crime - from the inside and the worshipful kind towards it).

Such was the case with his 1975 book, "Calalus."

Covey proposed a theory that a group of Roman

What I am witnessing is whites being hunted down by blacks, not the other way around. When did you last check government statistics? Racism only seems to work in one direction, for you.

As for the Indians (war), let us examine Texas for a moment. So what will you do for the genocide of the Confederates by the Unionists, or the genocide of the Apaches by the Comanches, or the genocide of the ancient Pueblo People by the Apaches, or the genocide of the Firstview People by the ancient Pueblo People, or the genocide of the Plainview People by the Firstview People, or the genocide of the the Folsom people by the Plainview People, or the genocide of Clovis Man by the Folsom people. Notwithstanding the earlier annihilation of the Mexicans, Spanish and French. At one time or another, every territory belong to some other people. So, the rightful owners are the original people, ...Clovis Man [WHITE EUROPEANS]. But they aren't around any longer. So America belongs to its last and present owners, who happen to be ethnic European too.

I find his 2010 advice to diversify away from the dollar -- or at least fray it up considerably with local and regional varieties to claw back some delegated savings with which the absentees gamble big time ... kinda like Google+ frayed up and diffused the commentariat -- a lot more interesting; here's a vid with german subtitles:

9 minutes long and careful to show, starting the 6th minute, how Fox distorts Putin's carefully neutral formulation into accusations of parasitism illustrating the flip which the sell-out of burgerz performs between batches in his 'care' ... all the bad things western media accused russians of were mere wet dreams and hopeful, anticipatory plans of what was in store for westerners VIA these same media ... simply dry-run stuff. All this noted in the 90s on far-right internet media i might add.

In the end Bolton claims Obama asked Putin to mediate in the Lybia crisis and goes on to claim Putin delivered nothing. I for my part would have wished Putin to deliver the credible threat to stop Nato which only now, years later, safer and closer to home, Putin has been forced to make.

i liked the jolly tone too .. so far ... but after linking abot 4 such vids, today, finally, a few grave suspicions have arisen; the jolly would be justified if he had a failsafe method to spring on the childish and dangerous drift of events to tweak it's unfoldments and steer it on a firm, re- and affirmable pacifism course.

Failing that, and i think it safe to say it does and will continue to chronically there must be another explanation for that jolly (joleit in dutch); here's a few i can think of.
1: can't change it anyhow, might as well take what haps inevitably lightly somehow the jewish / John Ray of body-electronics fame type dealowealo that basically thinks it must be free to not only recommend, account for and justify betting on both sides in a fight but help the necessary polarizin, opposition and antagonizery along as well. 'Encompass duality as JR used to say ... but it's unsafe and 'disgrounding' to abstract space coordinate and hygiene measures into time and stageplay.

Betting on insider knowledge 'correctly' is one pure hell of a thing to be proud of? Proof of clever destination choice? Either way, cosmopolitanism must be financed so we'll call out evil machinations and pretend to ridicule and deprecate them but do a little bulk money flow direction consulting on the side and rest assured in the knowledge that we'll be safe as long as we don't really present alternatives (like digging a swale or two .. gvt funds going to regreenment for sure; like building a slow and steady gravity circulation differential harvesting device or three).

You really get my goat with formulas like 'no other choice' (but oddly enough it's not even applied to any kind {of} retract and retrace from wrongdeadheadon thanatopist admonishments) which raises even more aggravated suspicion confirmation that you might just be one of them dissimulating towncryers, shock of the vaccine dispensing 'immunizers' (infectorvectors), perhaps more of the exacting than the distracting kind but who wants to stay 'on topic' like that, .. go look evil in the eye squarely, while unsuited to disarm like that?

Black and white may seem to reflect good and evil one to one but without ground/contact there'll be spark/shock; depth of soil (dark) 'vs' height/weight of clouds? I think not, to grey and green is not a vs matter, an against with sufficient force/pressure yes but, as i hope to have made clear by now, the art of polishing rock and growing soil is, as noted above not the reason for jolly deliveries or else they would be by now.

Sorry to be so nasty, but it's distinctly relevant. The logic of this is that close observation of the ruling class is forbidden, because of the danger that some of them might be Jews, and if they are, then drawing attention to their identities and behaviours would inevitably arouse anti-Jewish feelings in the populace, which would be tantamount to a revival of Nazism. Therefore, the entire ruling class can claim impunity from close observation or identification, by wrapping itself in the cloak of anti-anti-Semitism, which makes anything but the most vapid and generalised form of anti-capitalist journalism completely impossible, and that is the aim. As for the author, he doesn't appear to do Jewish issues as such, which is clever of him. He does hit pieces on UKIP, and pseudo-Left pieces on costs, rents, wages & prices. His background appears to be in the so-called 'trade press' and possibly in PR. Here he is:

I'm engaged in a constant battle against the spelling for idiots tendency, which I initially blamed on Usaia, but in some ways it goes back to the days of the British empire. For instance, the refusal to use vowels in their distinctive Asian pronunciations, the idiot tendency to write Asian 'i' and 'u' as 'ee' and 'oo' -- that goes back to the British in India. But anyway, I think the best spelling of this man's name would probably be Parubii -- RB

Usaia ("America")'s defenses are dependent on the value of the dollar. If, one fine day, the major Asian T-Bond holders dump their bonds, then the dollar collapses. Usaia will have to start selling all its missiles, its aircraft, its fleet and its ground vehicles, just to pay for imported oil to power domestic needs, for food and drink, clothes to wear, everything it imports just to stay alive. That is exactly what happened to Ukia ("Britain") after WW2. Ukia didn't recover until the 1960s.

It's certainly possible that thus weakened, Usaia, which is a sometimes reluctant federation of States, like Euia ("Europe") will just fall to bits. Some States have viable economies, a lot do not. Some are overwhelmed with recent immigrants, some are not. Bits could break off. Some northern States could choose to join Canada. Some south-western States could choose to join Mexico, at least if their actual populations were to decide. California might break into two pieces, with the southern half joining Mexico. The Gulf States might go independent. Florida might become an independent republic of fascist Cubans. The State of Maryland might reclaim the District of Columbia from the federal government and force it to decamp north to New York, or Boston, or someplace.

I'm afraid this is one of those comments that keeps morphing, as I reconsider. That's an advantage I have here: I can change my comments, even while people are thinking up responses to them. :-} niqnaq - June 3, 2014 at 10:25 am Putin did make a tactical mistake before state armour began 'speaking', with his advice to the 'Eukies'. He pleaded with them to allow the 'E Ukies' to secede (from the westU, with a more and more clearly problematic PaleBreed - cue Stolypkin / Solzhenitsyn).

To petition for autonomy is great AND great advise but would have been much more effective had Putin not only dispensed this wise counsel to the various components of the former soviet empire under his jurisdiction still but actively offered approval if not means and wherewithall. It was a failure to disarm suspicions and accusations of hypocrisy, a kind of disarmament that can only thrive when perfectly undeniable and 'massively critical' (= widely well received).

3 TRANSLATIONS: ENGLISH -- HOLLANDS - GERMAN

Hi. My name is Genia and I'm an ethnic Russian.

I don't speak German, my German friend helped me to make this video. I'm sorry for my accent.

I know, that maybe my message is not going to be heard by many people, but I feel that I must try spreading it.

I'm sure that many of you agree with me if I tell you, that what is happening today around the world is not supposed to happen in the 21st century. Long time ago, our people were brought to fight. Germans were deceived and blinded by the same force, that bombed your cities while Russians were defending their territories. Many Russians are blind as well. They don't understand, that our nations were provoked to fight. Two forces were ready to stand up against one evil, that took our planet in its grip. If Russians and Germans would have united back then, we could have defeated it and live in peace by now. Instead, we let them blind us and this war led to rivers of blood and destroyed families. It almost led to our genocide. Did we manage living in peace. It's believed, that Russians won this war, but I think, that there can't be any winning in murder and destruction. Today we're brought to the same situation. The same forces want to make us fight. Can we let them do this to us again? All I ask you is to wake up and think. 90% of the world's MEDIA is controlled by the same force, that pushes Europe and Russia into another war. This time it might be nuclear. Don't let them blind you. Don't send your children to war. Don't spread lies. Russia doesn't want to attack anybody, but we'll be forced to defend ourselves if there's an invasion on our territories. We just want them to stop killing our brothers every day. We're being provoked to defend them. If Russia gets into this war, it'll be global, don't you understand. When are we going to stop being pawns in this game? Wake up! We can't let them push us into fight again. Don't support war! We're the same people everywhere, the same children, the same families, the same defenders of peace. If you want to live in peace, please support peace. Don't support war.

Ukraine Crisis: Donbass. Chronicle of Genocide.

Extensive war crimes in Donbass committed by Poroshenko and his army of murderers from July 27 to August 14, 2014. Kiev's warmongers/Zionists continue genocide of civilian population of Donetsk and Luhansk People's Republics. Most of the footage and interviews you will see in this documentary film have never been shown on mainstream media of any country including Russia and Ukraine.

A team (textbox claims it's US mercs but i hear no english) drives up in new black pick ups to a lefty hotspot (residents look suspect, hair too long, etc.) and all these armed guys jump the fence. the captain begins kicking the guy that's been on haunches and huddled, demanding to be led to the weapon cache ... guess he hasn't got enough.

Do they not realize they are being set up by intrigants who choose the hottest head to make a little sacrifice [betray/kill some hapless underling] in order to ignite/[jumpstart] the pent up nowhere to go but prepared for brutality? i'll prolly not manage to stomach too much more ... i'd like to remark on that fella who got raided by a huge SWAT team on suspicions of growing dope; his rural place in Tx has all the markings of the hardcore hippie and he had a small team as well as a suckling infant. Outspoken fella though. Look him up. And then of course, all the evictions from squats on hysterical suspicions of harbouring freedomfighters while leaving inhumanely armed colleagues they support and shill for, this diabolic 'security' effort, their own back-up, should they go .. i mean be sent after bigger fish, unquestioned, on the contrary, doing everything to extend the reach and revenue of state and interstate terrorism, always relying on and protecting the incontinent.

Can't they 'voluntarize' fighting with stakes in the betting money; it might soon soak up more Saudi money than the neocons manage to pamper the bully boys with after inculcating and enculturating them to cruelty. I'm not for fighting but neither hope to stop those hellbent on it.
Using harmy army arms in stead of their own though, only manages to sacrifice the gullible and innocent, raising their popularity amongst the cruel supremacists like themselves exclusively .. at best .. and worst at the same time ... but zio cleverness of superior arms is gonna run its course one of these centuries (pretty soon i hope). Meanwhile righties are brawling their way to the top and culling their own lower ranks via overextended sorties prepared from cowardly distance with cruel brutality, to show they really have what it takes to turn the western tricks of their zioarchoid neocon paymasters without batting an eyelid i guess .. never having studied US veterans and all that i bet; behaving like izzoids in the fabled 40 year long desert primmin, preppin, drillin n primin trip.

Ry & Syriangirl on ISIS, Foley, and Hypocrisy in the media
When 2 contestants and competitors want to end their conflict or at least cool it what might be the procedure and what it's difficulties?

Both propose secessions yet both believe themselves the better and most trustworthy party, so their opponents, the more guilty half of the troublemakers must make the first voluntarily break up move.

Old empire memes die hard and so this, any allowance made to and for voluntary break up is perceived as cutting into their own flesh so to speak.

Putin's proposal for the Eastern Ukraine provinces wasn't at all the same as granting the same for Chechnyans who could probably achieve comparable approval if their independence were to put to a vote and though it would certainly have prevented the Ukraine bloodshed had instant vocal backing from the rest of world spectacularly materialized, which triggered Putin's BRICS efforts i bet.

Hope it's not left up to top down trump like that while so many in all walks of life get or would love to get bent on reigning in the disservices of centralization, iow reigning in the more brutal version of moving any border at all (means of payment or actual paragons, goalposts and other arbitrarily drawn lines wether defended or not), which, since modern times are called balkanizations to imply the schumpeterian+immense suffering (indiscriminate destruction) of this break-up version, bleeding yet breeding profusely. In the short span of a single generation since the nineties yugo wars (see Weight of Chains) we saw/see Iraq, Lybia, Syria now Ukraine wars of awkward, not to mention diabolic pretend break-up. I usually add stuff about truely basic daily and beneficial break-ups that these nasty forms prevent and pervert (distract from, blaspheme disrespect, etcetera) but this time i'll suffice with keeping you guessing about them.

75-Year-Old Map Shows Europe 'Ready for War'. I should be serious about this but you gotta love the Italian preparations : "Donkeys inspected for war." Also funny is that Latvia "approves Soviet-German pact". Well they must have been quite disappointed when they were annexed thanks to this pact :) In the case of Romania , days before the start of WW2, the country is still filed under "allies". Just look at the troops on the Western border pointing towards Germany. That all changed in the late hours of 23 August 1939 when the Ribbentrop-Molotov pact was signed and it became obvious that we were going to become vassals of the Soviet Empire. I still have mixed feelings about our choice.

Micronations, which only attempt to achieve and continue a personal law status for their volunteers, i.e. make no territorial claims but only uphold individual property rights, & other individual rights, which their members do appreciate, might be easier to achieve and continue. – After all, most of those aiming at micro-nations are opposed to the large to medium territorial States and what they offer or impose. – jzube@acenet.com.au pity ... sooo much more objective than dutch lamestreamedia just a tad too sceptical on putin perhaps but he has his past against him; this is however missing many subtleties, like the increased russian support for the battered and beleaguered East of Ukraine conditioned on the departure of the rebel who fought for Chechnyan independence before leading the novorussia forces quite succesfully.

Putin however DID plead for secession before any hostilities began and that DOES plead for him.

Apparantly he acquired a bit of an alcohol prob some time before he passed away within the last few years or so, after i stopped religiously visiting their archives every few weeks, proly due to the gender/currency mixing none of which was done very well .. certainly never got into J D Unwin and alike, like Walter Schubart ... let alone me ... i think i managed to squeeze in one or two message before being thrown out for too much off topicness ... certainly not for my take on Strauss: updater of the protocols if one may put it irreverently without damaging the irreparable further needlessly .. or impossibly ..

since we're talking the by definition irretrievable here. Don't get me wrong, the jews along with a host of other ethnicities were going extinct in jesus day along with the natural springs and rivulets and growths on their land, yes their very soil.

To mix right one must often (more and more often and urgently) first unmix the wrong[ly mixed] in as far disentanglement (and disenstrangement) has not become a point passed yet.

.. yeah cause all good 'fapicists' are expert at harmonizing the lowly and lofty, root and crown, force and pacifism, rock and leaf, slowing torrents, excessive and erosive waterflows while loading others with the glacial milk so famous for fertility, stepping down steepes to nestle marginals on thus rapidly demarginalizing lands. There just hasn't been a single one in living memory succesful enough to regreen deserts ... and instead of that vision, the whole world seems bent on realizing all the bad prospects slammed across, on- and into that provision vision, in an attempt to bury the bringing of heaven to earth. a note on inferior, hyped being and product (check +Ry's hilarious jeremiad and disappointment about his new iphone).

1 hell of an awkward sentence (the only good thing about it is that i didn't use and thus 'sully' the word compost in it ... cause i was trying to 'pone' a contrast to it i guess):

An extended note on not just that which but also those who without artificial, further disfitting and unsuitablilitating 'life' support would just fade, quit and stop being, let alone become/remain salable product, those who and which without strut, strap n scaffoldholdup and 'that's life' support woud just die.

IOW, I want to draw 2 parallels - or draw attention to 2 interlacements rather - , one to ethno-social [1] and the other to eco-med [2] staying and playing fields.

But first a note on Ry's possible mistake.

I don't know for sure cause wars over cell resources have kept me well away from them and i find it tragic enough my cries to relieve me of this fulltime (since 90s) frontline keyboard spot have gone unheeded long enough to get me well and truely, possibly irrearably shellshocked by now ... but it occurs to me that present day people, not just the police, are inescapably subjected to militarization and part of this weaponization is the push/subsidy for a steadily enlarging arsenal -- best in/on this from brand so and so ... hooked up to best on that function/front from brand such and such ... hitched to best abraça to fit your dabra ... well you know the world of customization, spoilery and luxurious wallows and how they get polluted by symptom celebrants of own flesh cutters [origin of the term 'butch' i'm sure] as good as i do.

The dark aim in all this is awareness splinterment (in the unwritten drive/pursuit to stamp out wholism, the state of coherently scaled up and down aggregation ... which in this way scarcefied, gets allowed only above a certain lower limit top tier - a classic hi-jack w torture and distortion, always serving the demographically in[ter]continent and invasive).

All aggregation / drill down / transparency - trees (upNdown simultaneously) efforts that sprout up and arise (from) below quickly end up 'hoovered' and taken up (thru that dead[ening] border line) from their/any ground. Bottom up is totally taboo since these first and most obvious, always FUNdamental forms of mobilization and voluntarization get too close to fullfilling the saying 'een goed begin is het halve werk' (good starts are half the job), at least according to the 'sensibilities' of .. those 'ter' guys i mentioned at the end of last alinea.

The scapegoat for this process is the native and natural, the more free and wild ways of life at all molecular scales (aggregates ['wholes'] of sorts) hence

eco-med [2]

....migrating birds blamed for the fatal enfeeblement of their siblings kept captive by humans ... those sibilings 'their' humans are trying to protect from that evil evil outside natural world. H5N8 shows up in england holland and germany ... yet they blame north south movement of birds instead of thanatopian ghetto concentration camp methods pushed forward by margin enlargers and those hellbent on profit at smallest possible 'foreterm & shortsight' cost

'When santa was a shaman' came out in the noughties and i attented a talk by the author, wrote about diffusion vs invasion but all to no avail .. a decade later the misconceptions and prejudices as well as sick sorts of cliches proliferate and are 'crescendent' (hope that's a word). not a lick of sense to be heard and i quit waiting in frustration a long time ago but here and there i still turn the radio on ... and apparantly our poster child soccer player of mixed heritage is willing to hold up the charade that playing fields are level and conditions excellent to ritualize aggression. Completely non-prioritizing native tradition in the hurried allegement to stirring jetsam flotsam shipwreck and venture capitalists alike into the mix as if none of it could possibly spell trouble. This is a 'word for word' take over, borrowing from, leaning on and coopting obscuration of stirring fresh rockmud into its organic equivalent, the breakdown and rearrange phase; iow, compost science. It pretends that the mix is always the result of a level playing field and strangers are always long [thought] lost family coming to a happy reunion and so anybody who asserts to perceive otherwise (too terrible to repeat on the newsitem apparantly) even though it's merely on one of them easy to drown out and/or selectively hi-lite mass media like twitter is guilty of propagandizing ripe to be an example of that should be legally acted against if the person doing it teaches even the tiniest of class; soon it will be blogs eh? Forget tone and context eh?

Where lateral equities and equalities are essentially distorted and prosecuted like that, it becomes imperative to hysterically reiterate and idealize the absent thing, pretend an effective defense is not only possibly but the asserter and newspeaker are active agents thereof ... iow,, media hype it, throw all the poster boys at it you can find; raise the zog rewards and bonuses, attract willing 'juttekoppen' (don't bother, i made it up).

Of course in reality the lateral forms are nothing and not there without the vertical ones ... let alone a happily spinning along a musical chair itinerary and trajectory of multiply .. not yet and no longer percieved .. axes, poles and sheltering substrate protusions (how's that for a tree simile eh?).

Uitzending: maandag 1 december, 20.25 uur op NPO 2

sunny is having her bright moment of the decade. truely brill, specially that last dykie lass ... one wonders what her daily dealings are with coloured folk. Is she ferry smuggling them

More likely she just schizophrenically 'reactiveinst' attempts to exorcize her own still very fully internalized supremacism, projecting it upon the screen of another in deflection mode, .. in order to make it visible and condemn it. Much like the leftie pc crowd that lives amongst themselves and busily arrange restoration, restitution and affirmative action of all sorts except the rematriation kind, no motherland and fathertongue or vice versa for them ... they are themselves being suffocatingly protective, spoilingly proud and playing by the very santa claus rules they purport to condemn.

The bigger pic is a little more complex; 'when santa was a shaman' shows how shaman, indigene leaders were picked off/out to help subject their people but this was done irrespective of race; if you look at white shaman cernunnos and how his message got stolen, held captive, abuses, distorted, mocked, blasphemed and exploited, tortured and dismembered, closely enough you see that hegemony, subjection, invasion, occupation is no respecter of race or anything outside their internal 'sociostratification' spikage.

The Atlantic --- "...fool themselves into thinking that Americans who are angry at elites and corporations also favor wealth redistribution."

low, americans goin native??? FoeGET it!!!!!! One more line of argument culminating in the not inevitable but most prudent measure:

tell teh jewzis to turn the onewayers into roundtrippers and ferry them back to the land of their heritage, betrayed, forsaken and left behind ... to this time put up an intelligent fight for it.

You think pop density increase a prob? NO!. Plan and grow multistory treehouses by the hundreds on the swaletrails into aridity effecting 'flowslowth' (increasing rainretention) and 'whealthstorage' (biomassively).

reply rewritten 5 times (Five X)!

?+Derwen - as Douglas Dietrich (freedomslips.com) put it [incompletely*] last tuesday (2 days ago, 5hand, kin 187) we saw whitie massacring blackie under the pretense of defending against 'yellowie' (you know, japan, which he hails from, along with china eu and native america - though i never heard any anecdotes about the last mentioned portion his blood quantum sourced from). I see Japan as long gone anaemic elitist, insular and 'insectarian' (=miniaturizationward) myself

.... he spoke about the japanese offensive unleashing firestorms by transpacific balloon against which the '3 nikles' (or nickles .. 555) an all black fire brigade were mobilized using parachutes that were so inept they broke "every bone in their bodies" .. and i think he even implied before touching ground ... but he's prone to groce exxageration at times ... he must have a long history of baffling enemies verbally rather than fighting them; he pulls them off serially with a compulsion that reminds one of Robin Williams and would have even more if RW had been born as underprivileged and army embedded as DD was.

* = To complete DD's formula you'd have to mention all this happened on RED soil. Well, Andrea is all for a fair shake to&fro ruddily red reddies ... as i am .. wearin my hear long in their honour and every schoolchild in this village knows it. Helps them understand why i am such a fascinatingly attractive, yet forbidden and shunned, marginalized ... prodigal son in this place of my birth .. under the polluting streams of Rotterdam's traffic jamdrivers polluting each other at close quarters .. in their mad rush to outdo my dad (letting go of his golden rule 'move it fast but grow it slow' ethics with gmo and steroids) .. yet dad remained resistant to rockdust merits and wanted none of it .. but he didn't see i couldn't help myself nor how nobody would. The stories about proper treatment of migrant labour i held up as a catch worth 10 years of fruitlessly searching wisdom ... like this here vid by Andrea .. and the one i discovered the other day by .. Seneff* ... this wavespell is kinda productive that way, the in 4 which has 4 seals of the same colour (one more than the others) seems to perk efficiency a bit

So Derwen, do you catch my drift? It depends on the colour of the ground - with lots and lots of margin for error ... but native americans themselves were masters at keeping them sacred and as empty of themselves as the pilgrim protestants keep the holy of holies type portion of their living room. It's a bufferzone, nomansland, spiritland, places to go and observe nature's ways and take the next lesson from.

That's what the entire imperial confusion in the middle east stems from ... nobody seems to wonder about the 40 years of wandering a tribe needs to do before occupying something and just bycause they wrote it in a book heavy enough to kill with if you lock, load and aim it well enough, they get to call it their own evermore???? Do you believe real promisedlandites even exist anymore? There's a more and more globalizing and generalizing cult, responsible for walling people in, occupying their 'hearspace' .. and, of course, most of the troubles Andrea and Mr Bryan Fryer describe. The PCites are on a mission and truth or innocent blood, whichever comes first, is what they thrive their evil hive on.

So long to that i guess. Time for gravity wheels and orchards, dried fruit to feed rapidly desertifying regions which are in fact even worse off.

schizophrenia is a one size fits all (those susceptible / immune / ethics / grounding deficient) principle, but the degree of expression / shamelessness differs vastly ... cause it thrives on delegation and is cumulative like all disruptive pollutions. Delegations had innocuous enough beginnings with the 'old 'plumps-klo .. but it soon began to also wash the old preferred paraphernalia of schiz pharmaffiosely sterilizing polarization into everything; porkostinko might as well close his rant with 'all hail obomber the frackING, may i be as loved by my people so i stop the draft as well'.

+Sherezade 786 Thanks to those sanctions, Russia does not import a lot of stuff now, but is finally giving a chance to their own manufacturers. When ordering a pizza, the pizza is not a frozen pizza imported from Italy, but a freshly made pizza with Russian grown vegetables, cheese and meat. Quality is higher, prices are cheaper!?

Dave Andrew

+V. Burn First pro Russian comment I've seen which is based on logic. Yes, Russia needs to invest in developing it's own industries rather than just relying on oil and exporting AK's to idiots. The problem Russia has is the same problem we all have though and that's corruption whereby the few rob the many. Taking Russia's defence industry as an example...

Russia has the capability (i.e. scientists) to be able to develop all kinds of stuff. The problem is that allot of the money goes 'missing'. It's the same here in the West with the difference being we have allot more money to go 'missing'
This problem isn't unique to Russia or the West mind you, it's now a global problem, defense industries are ultimately indefensible and one sure as hell can't compell 'it' to keep straight and honest books in a 'free' market. WesternTaxpayers don't have earmark privileges either but must sit pretty and be betrayed by sold out mediawhores antics uncomplainingly.

The entirety of his presentation, and most of his responses to comments are shown in the video. Karl Marx was not a Jew as a communist. His family converted to Lutheranism before he could read. Marx spend the next 20 years as a Lutheran, even writing pro-Christian works. He became an atheist. But for his entire adult life, Marx was a vicious Jew hater. The communist solution to the Jewish Question is Cultural Genocide. See marxists.org/archive/marx/works/1844/jewish-question/ Marx's partner and funder was the German former Lutheran Engels. And it was ther Germans who transported the Bolshevik leaders from Switzerland to Russia, funded, and armed them. Communism wasn't a Jewish plot. It was a German plot.

via <https://twitter.com/InfiniteSynths>

A new language has already grown up. – Don't you hear the wiretaps made "with the permission of the Justice"? Maybe so. It is another language. We are facing a kind of post-misery. That's it. The post-misery generates a new culture of killing, aided by modern technology, satellites, cellular phones, internet, modern weapons. It is the shit with chips, with megabytes. My commanded ones are a mutation of the social being; they are funguses of a great dirty mistake.

Notes: Marcola is the first nationwide criminal leader of note in Brazil. Perhaps, the most important in Latin America. PCC stands for Primeiro Comando da Capital – First Command of Capital. Here, capital means the city of São Paulo.

<https://medium.com/crypto-brief/should-21-million-bitcoin-be-the-cap-755b7f02ac4e>

This tweet storm is pure evil (but fortunately we're fairly tolerant of such things at this blog). The point it raises is going to fuel an important argument, down the road. Better to explore it via an appropriately constructed altcoin, and in the market, though, than to wreck Bitcoin in the course of the dialectic. Hard money philosophy is baked into the Bitcoin protocol. If that doesn't seem like a good idea, the solution is to try something else.

ANARCHY THROUGH PERMACULTURE. A Month To Save Mankind. -- informationwarfare - Dec 7, 2015

hope he speaks arabic .. he'd steam thru the isis ranks in no time with some suddenly enlightened saud moola backing but .. speaking about miracles i'd say this:
neo-reaction has an eco blind spot; the consequences: under liberal cathedral conditions rightieite leanings are denigrated, isolated, marginalized and their activities pushed across the peripheries and horizons (even encouraged to - and instrumentalized when they - do so ...case in point, ukraine).

this is due purely to the dilution of pollutants righties / rurals typically experience, along with other health bestowing environmental factors (which however, are very much unacknowledged and taken for granted) vs the urbanite masses amassing missive mission massagers, typically misdirected, missing the true targets of compost heaps but going tut tut w raised finger towards rapacious ravage of resources; the eco gospel is the unwritten dictat granting leftisms rights of ways constantly countered by counterproductive emergencies and exceptions like the wars for democracies which actually cater to spoilt rotten top end of rightieites totally dissociated from their base and no less polarized with them than loggers are against treedefenders.

thus differences within races are lots worse than those between them ... and they all start with soil/turd related disabilities, that is, a range of labourdivision related 'delegatoses'

it would really take a miracle for somebody named 'nick land' to NOT become a shill for occupationitis ... i tried to be that miracle ...

Another fact to consider: in 2004 a security publication estimated the IDF had an active duty force of 125,000. That means that in the decade between 2004 and 2014, the IDF grew by a factor of 50,000! That's a 40% increase.

Burkaverbot und Konserven im Keller: Was sorgt wirklich für mehr Sicherheit? - ARD

Angela Maier uploads ZDF boilerplate also, with, of course, an exceptional, totally unrepresentative guy (speaks german very well) who in truth represents nothing so much as the sterility of 'shitey' smiley, voice/content polarized, 'liesputch' [deadeye] losers who lack legitimacy but are suffered cause we're as delusional about the consequences as they are.

muss ich hier uebersetzen oder laesst du es meine deutschsprachigen G+ leser per, leider komplexifizierender auto[-]link machen?

this is what happens when lefty elites think they give you a complete picture, simmer it down and taylor's this info (disinfo?!) to what in their estimation is the average ability to grasp the issues; trying to prove that the people whose places they usurp are just as phony, kneejerk pref driven and superficial as themselves

boerka = the mental version of the very very urgently needed sieve but never never to be confused with and/or substitute for it ... as happens here .. and happened word for word, earlier, in holland; London, stockholm ..

flipping ground into figure in order to monetize it is a tactic of outrage and conflict; the thanatopian lobbies which work at it with a certain continuity of going after their evil goals ever since amassments, reserves, crowds became reality love to prank their audience by transposing properties of a physical filter (long term effects) onto a mental version (immediate ones) is fine cloth any use in a purification system, treating waste waters, giving rocks a drink and thus, homesoils the wherewithall to keep dependents happy??

thus, employing a burka too early in the process of turning rock to milky versions running off mountains to feed the populous deltas, runs the risk of a tear cause woven too fine, too impermeable for the preceding rougher stages along the, again, urgent process of trying to filter rock into the compost pile, sprinkle it across any and all redeemable, transformable stink; emergency rule one O one .. unless you are talking a flood or something but we're talking stampeding of people by the sneakily manipulative media jockeying globalist mixuppers here a burka IS really functional in a dusty environment, ruled by the pazuzu 'gedrochten', speed devils, hi testo ballashtick boys who manage to get themselves catered to, spoilt and equipped rotten with all their favorite yet alas, thanatopian toys ...

8/29/16 - Pale Hominid NPR remaining shamefully (or is shamelessly?!) deaf, dumb and blind towards the red race. Taylor treats them, as the dutch have it, a 'passed station' .. but they are squatting squarely all over and over damn near of it! They occupy, violate, desecrate it 24/7 for going on over a century (or two)! Fuck that 'noiz'. He and the movement he doesn't lead deserve a little 'reRACEage'. Reversing the betrayal and stampede their forefathers were duped into, not to mention repairs, restorations, clean-ups, healings all around.

Yeah, and you use that. Since 'dagger' is in lower case, I don't know if it's anything in particular. What is it and why is it banal? Like Arendt's thing? Is it one of those 'whiteness' things? In which case, you tend to claim to be that, I had thought you made it up. I saw some photos of Stalin young yesterday, he had been handsome.

I think some people are so knew to these people they don't know that Ms. Klein was once 'in good odour'. he was in a group blog at least as far back as 2005 called 'Long Sunday', which included Jodi Dean, Michael Sayeau, Adam Kotsko (the Zizek 'protege' who is half-theologian, I guess), Nina Power (she gets around and always has, rather likable), and the lovingly known 'Mlle. Arpege' lasted about a year (long for her to be civil) while keeping her blog Alphonse Van Worden and then Le Colonel Chabert. She interviewed China Miéville while there, and then left because all the academics didn't want this redneck named 'lustmolch' to be allowed to comment. Ms. Klein continued to troll the blog after leaving and 'adopting' lustmolch, who constantly made filthy remarks to her, calling her a 'putain', and exploded everybody's asses at one time once, claiming she was a 'capitalist' and describing how she made her money on ForEx, and how she 'bought their eyeballs' (she worked in TV in NYC herself before the inheritance allowed her to move from UK to Paris to Greece). She and 'the Wayner' (you know the one) trolled everybody, and even Ms. Klein was finally dismissed from that lofty Valhalla of 'Lenin's Tomb'. So she's CHOSEN to be at the bottom of the barrel, where she imagines it's 'honest'. But she always did the truther number, and once told me that I shouldn't dislike her for it, because she 'hadn't said anything about it for a few months..."

But Mr. Jarreau is wrong to think these people are purely 'powerless'; they try to do as much harm as they can, screaming their heads off at everybody, endlessly trolling the more high-profile younger journalists, not only Seymour, but always Molly Crabapple and Laurie Penny (I'm not the interested either, but still...), and once Mlle. lectured actress Martha Plimpton about her Ideological incorrectness. Now they're moaning that Chomsky's deserted them, that the Gates Foundation is only stealing land, etc. Once Arpege told me she was having in physicists to stay at their luxurious Paris apartment that weekend, and that she would ask them personally if the 'pancaking' of the Towers' collapse was, in fact, possible...But they do nothing but polemicize, and Ms. Klein defends her and her ilk against criticism of THEMSELVES by saying 'we are a small, harmless group'. They are NOT harmless.

So, let's make this crystal clear — the long game is the total and OPEN centralization of economic and geopolitical power into the hands of a select few financial elites. Not the pulling of strings behind the curtain. Not shadow governance. OPEN governance of the world by the elites, accepted or even demanded by the people. (Close enough for government work.)

Any concerted movement to consolidate global economic governance around "the IMF's Special Drawing Rights basket currency mechanism" will support Smith's analysis. (The UF prediction: It won't work.)

Also crucial (the heated partisan language can be moderated without loss of signal):

If Hillary Clinton, a well known globalist puppet deep in the bedrock of the establishment, wins the election only to have the economy tank, then the globalists will get the blame.

[...] If Trump is either allowed in office, or is placed in office, and the economy tanks, CONSERVATIVES, the primary enemy of the globalists, will get the blame for the resulting crisis.

November 15, 2016 at 3:40 am Peter Archer says:
The book Maps and Dreams, by anthropologist Hugh Brody, describes an earlier similar clash between the two worlds, circa 1970. In NW British Columbia, a pipeline is being built, over Indian lands, in breach of a treaty.

The white men have thier maps, and they have their dreamsâ€¦. â€œscientificallyâ€? drawn maps of the physical terrain, and dreams of enourmous wealth. The Indians have their hunting maps, which are a lot more than just of the physical terrain, their maps EMBODY some sacred apsects of themselves, and also act as a guide for the finding of the Great Hunting Ground, when physical life comes to an end.

And, the Indiansâ€™ dreams are of a much more sacred nature than the white manâ€™s dreams. The Indian dreams are of the sacred hunt, where they dream of the animal that they will encounter the next day, and pre-enact what will happen, thus bringing it into reality. In their dream, they make a mark on the body of the animal, and, when they encounter the same animal in the â€œrealâ€? world, the mark is there, right where they put it. Brody actually witnessed this happening.

'whitie' wouldn't have - in their 'rightie' minds, unburdened by desert viruses distilled and 'deadpilled' into 'books' - venture to set off a chain reaction of regrets culminating in fracking 'science'.

Sure, culture mixes can be everything good, especially if they respect, protect and improve stabler older ones, .. but the predominant practice is betrayal to and plunder of all confluent sources, sides, backgrounds AND adjoining as yet unaffecteds.

Mr 'van Mechelen' (a belgian name, the country to the south of 'mine', feeling and knowing myself to be very mixed myself) is proud and despite it all, pleasant sounding enough but, i'm guessing, neither ready nor willing to ponder and weigh that worming his way out (of that meanwhile severely and ever escalatingly endangered gene package, spreading beyond them at alarming rates#) again is possible and the exactly right thing to do for those who wish to forgo and spare self and others entirely preventable suffering, provide visions of real repair even,
* = v=geRYcKPdvs4

LEFT ON THE BIG PILE, a shorter older version of this: Standing Rockers MUST stop their downfall*, accept my course correction and have the props readied in easier climes or in miniature. It's life or death for most of protest culture manifestations to develop of sense for and vigilance against out in the open, but criminal nevertheless, in fact more, ritual abuse traps set up for expressions of righteous outrage; they fish and filter for troubled consciences, offended and assaulted sense of justice (which) the protest culture participants act upon before coming across cautioning words like mine (although i've been in the midst of frontline discussions on indymedia threads since the earliest noughties) ... in order to 'tag' them '[R]Adbait' (burden, hurt), slow and weigh them down with PTSD

* - this vulnerability rests very squarely on ignorance concerning the amplification and spread of the less known and accepted ways (in which) the core of the nazi cult lives on; not only did they fill the cia and such but an equally invasive and much more wholesale wetware version of NaZi memes emanates from Israel (open your eyes to the filamental triggerchainlinkwork strayedght from HQ fortress of mix-upNdown, stampede & pervert deceivalists, experts in scaling emotions up and down to cause tidal waves) and their sattelites in media (hello AJites, how's that paymaster triggered squander of streetcred built with vids like these# feelin?), banking as much as in pharmaffiose and political endeavors.

Kissinger:

"Putin regrets/resents (reverses?) the collapse of the Soviet Union" and manages to say it like he discovered the ugly secret that proves the crime ... which in fact is that 'the US' did not, out of sympathy, devolute (& decentralize .. 'transparanticate' .. etc) right alongside it, in order to allow the efficiency of (the same!) mercantilists (check the reporting of Michael Hudson about that time) to clear up stagnant and opaque state institution, nor did it go through the motions.

Instead it celebrated and pretended it won.

US-usSR - us-USSR US-USsr - us-ussr

.. a loss of 2 letters and drop to a level that allow the contest menacing equal sign being placed between it and the place for which the soviet was in fact the dress rehearsal, another truth Kissinger reverses (being the good screenjew man he can't seem to help himself nor allows others to help him being; nb Kissinger's 'dress rehearsal'. 2:05 www.youtube.com/watch?v=_1Djv9ULi9Q)

In truth however, 'the states' and one after the other before and since (see Ulrich von Beckerath) have been invaded, burrowed into and hollowed out by oligarchic money in politics which overrode, overran, overruled and ousted the money OF politics!!!

The US/UK and other formerly colonial powers (plus the occupied Axis) pretend and potemkinize (the process of) being sensitive to and (the state of being) in touch with their voter base, they co-opt, usurp, obstruct, siphon off and one-way-lay awayzificate the process of innovations reaching the socializable top with private profits along the way at every stop while generalizable and scalable bennies descend from heavenly palace directors. But their besttool, the digital coinshavery wares are the worse for wearing and tearing into the social fabric, though the parts brutally gutted on it's periphery struggle to get thru to the atomized tecced up and 'zioninsulated' hearts and minds in the richest parts of the west.

Aquarius Z - Hitler decided to attack the Soviet first as he knew the Soviet was prepared to attack Germany.

yes, USSR stampeders, a threat Hitler reacted against [Yats got that part right], but they crossed a number of divides, left their former hosts (and sacrificial pawns) stuck with the rep & tab from that past only to turn around for a mirrored rerun, abusing them (AGAIN / STILL MORE) from an even more scrupleless, ruthless, remote and resourceful perch (but Yats isn't up to speed enough to see through this and accuse his own sponsors).

Senk Oogur: How is that rewriting history? That's exactly what happened after Germany failed to capture Moscow, not to mention the mass rape the Russians did in Silesia and Berlin.

yeah myster Rank Odor or Ogre, except that the setter uppers are now trying to stampede these in principle fraternal peoples in-/onto each other from the other side

Z Aquarius: Yats the Yid is behind it. Yats the Yid was chosen for this role by the US, which doesn't really exist as US, it is a Yid haven.

Hitler, a German patriot comparable to Arsinius. The difference being Hitler lost. Hitler never really had a chance as he was surrounded by the enemy, the Talmud. The Soviet was also Talmud. The Russian people held captive by this Talmud group.

What we see today is the final moves of the Talmud. Their days are done. Germany was free from 1000 years of occupation for about 4 years. The time of Hitler.

The Talmud occupation of America, Canada, Australia, UK, EUSR is still significant. We are in changing times. The zionist is in it's last days. Hope!

A couple of observations about this, before we carry on: first, "Gloomy" was expecting this; he said so a week or two ago. In fact, I was worried that one the various more or less unaccountable militia-type forces in the DND or LNR (the latter being actually more lawless of the two), might just blow his head off, like they did with "Batman". So it is good that instead of that, he is out in one piece. Second, as you know, I always keep open the possibility that both "Gloomy" and Strelkov have actually been working for the FSB all along, the object being to spark a rebellion in DLNR which would provide a pretext for Kiev to conduct a real ethnic-cleansing initiative, which would otherwise be difficult to justify. I know this is an excessively cynical hypothesis, but we have to see it against the background of the general global policy of the ZOG, which is not so much about just sparking wars, but about gaining control of territories, if possible, minus their populations. The ZOG in Washington look at an area like the Donbass and say, we want this area cleared, not just, we want to rule it. And they then conduct what I call "creeping genocide". If it is too fast it creates undesirable headlines, so they do it slowly. They don't specifically want everybody dead, they just want to drive them out. So strictly speaking it is "ethnic cleansing" rather than genocide proper, but nowadays people use these terms rather vaguely. The best word of all might be "ethocide": they want to destroy the nation (or incipient nation), as a nation, they don't care about another few million refugees, who are nobody's problem and no real political threat. Just more "human dust". And that is the score with the Plastelinans, also. Thirdly, it is worth noting that nowadays the Russian FSB runs the GRU also. This is not often the case; generally, civilian intelligence services and Army intelligence services are quite separate and somewhat hostile to one another. But in Russia this is no longer the case; FSB (the supposedly 'civilian' intelligence service) controls GRU (Army intelligence), and thus is in a position to orchestrate the entire Donbass revolt, from behind the scenes – RB

If Igor will return, under his wing to make-not a thousand, not even two army soldiers. Immediately you will say that all these Zaharchenko, Plotnitsky, and izhi with them there and then will leave on the second plan. Because people are just hungry for a really really strong and honest leader capable people to lead, nor Zakharchenko not Plotnitsky such do not apply. If Igor will return, guarding him will be such that Batman didn't even dream about. So Batmanesque option, with a shallow attempt already here will not work anymore. I think that the return of Igor Ivanovich simply necessary. Then just militias will come to Kiev, and even further. Because Igor is the rod and the flag, which is able to lead people. And people will follow !!! It has already been tested !!! I even think he has this mission to lead people. His return just fundamentally will remember the whole situation , many civil people who have already turned away from Zakharchenko and Plotnitsky, it will help to rally. I think if the new Russia will perish, and Igor all this time will stay in Moscow, he himself will not forgive until the end of his days. The life of the person and given to spend her bright, not sit and burn it in the privacy of the office. Now when it was the days of hostilities but must understand that his military experience, now you are more important than in the quiet of the Moscow offices, and on the battlefield. I just was on the phone with a friend a reserve officer who was burned in the house of trade Unions, and then he was arrested SBU, and only 26 December, exchanged for prisoners of Ucrain. He now heads one of the artillery units in DND. Now he says in shock from what he has to teach civilian, who never even in the military did not serve. It's actually not experienced cannon fodder, but with these people he needs to win. If I was allowed health. I, too, was already there. Unfortunately comisiwn with army for health reasons and i am very very much regretting not preparing my recording machine for it ... not until, with the second half immanent, i am spurred to turn down the program interruption (station break, a ghastly, routine overload and overexposed one) ... it really goes along with all the shit Michael Ringley does to his body; even someone at my distance can quickly surmise that much after catching him on freedomslips.com which i did a few days ago.

i'll attempt a recap of what i think are the most salient points made in DD's first hour:
khazar theory actually resulted from a missionary and jihadi form of judaism .. yet original khazars killed off (*not unlike how canaanites were exterminated) by the portions of this expansionist creed which drifted a little further and faster (the foils of duuh venturism i guess) further and hybridized with polakis (drew polakis into their orbits, extracted fresh foil from the polaki, take your pick, all the while perfecting their bead and mirror strategies, franchised out and down to their underlings in subsequent centuries).

* - canaanites exterminated

In 'obesant' honour of it an english doctrine of enslaving prey/target populations got superceded by americans .. thousands of years later (!!!!), amis who also routinely (aim/seek to) destroy their enemies, thinking themselves the chosen ones .. all this of course to the exact degree the khazar/bolsh/Ashk mindset took over and hold .. holds duuuuh sway (at which point all controversy gets to be mock up and as fake as a CCCP operated cultural center of an ethnic they have taken under their wing - choked and swallowed) ... note: DD doesn't actually mention bolshies except to call them the russians which exterminated way more germans in the concentration camps then there ever were jews destroyed there; the latter had been put on hold cause the US did not want them (they were given the wrong feed while fattened or something; i remember an anecdote about race horses to that effect though it spoke about the UK not america 6 quarter centuries old though), all the while a bloodhaggling went on under cover so that the remnant germans - taking the serial hits FOR it ever since - really did know nothing OF it ... kinda like how ukrainians don't know how their own fringe provinces are actually inhabited by humans i guess (imagine that) while mainstream media in the west shows a starvation diet of the most contrived and repulsive scenes if any ... all of which HAS to work in Douglas' favor when wondering as to wether or not you should give him a hearing or not.

So amis ::1:: destroy in imitation of the bible vectotems / carriers (a book which is a kind of wallet that can be pulled but not emptied, one with the bills stuck in it for a very specific and inviolate purpose: to keep and make the canonized and canonfodder recruiting bibliogravytrain whole; the expense that goes out for it, the saving action is entirely make believe .. amen)

.. then ::2:: think they are chosenite themselves (after a sufficient percentage of cultYore bearers have brought duh dupes to bear [up under] such rule of thumb) until the establishment of israel that is, when a reversion to worshipping occured which takes the form of doing the dirty [wars for israel] work

Behind the Bibliots are the Talmudists (not a word DD uses), protochamps of displacement who unleash antisemitism on their immediate surroundings by claiming that title and performing crimes under it in the routine manner the father of false flag fact finding, whom i first encountered around the milleniumturn on indymainwire threads, long before blogs, Rowan Berkeley has been tirelessly logging since then <http://niqnaq.wordpress.com> ... who, i hope, will hear this show .. at the latest when it is uploaded in a few weeks ... though i noticed Ringley did slack on that service .. or extended the wait or something.

sea plane strike forces are kinda central to the whole deal ... contrasted with carriers and nuke subs as white elephants ... he implies Amis are forbidden correction by the, against common assumptions, victorious Japanese. I'll watch that Hirohito docu next i guess.

Raleigh Waller posts a Holodomor picture w blurb denial of jewish 'guiding' role every time; here's a few more: 2 = russians vs germany ..
.. Putin flat out denies it, trying to exculpate both russians and jews but as Douglas Dietrich said on air last nite, more germans were exterminated in the camps after the russians took them over than jews, who were put on hold there, .. as the top layers of jewish world affairs directors were already getting stiff competition from new arrivals transitioning there to shake off the crimes and bad reps amongst former hosts getting wise to them. These waves had the ways and means, quite apart from the unwashed masses who were to be holocausted as the burnt offerings of old, to constitute the need for homeland (seekyourIT).

.. the jewISH cult is covert yet again (still rather) and before the wars the dupes doing their bidding are the good guys (liberators and punishers alike) but afterwards, oh dear, they get all the blame.

trying to exculpate both russians and jews???? as Douglas Dietrich said on air last nite, more germans were exterminated in the camps after the russians took them over than jews, who were put on hold there, .. as the top layers of jewish world affairs directors were already getting stiff competition from new arrivals transitioning there to shake off the crimes and bad reps amongst former hosts getting wise to them. These waves had the ways and means, quite apart from the unwashed masses who were to be holocausted as the burnt offerings of old, to constitute the need for homeland (seekyourIT).
.. with the caviat that real jews, way back, were ultimately the victim of their own migration enthusiasm gone bad, becoming a supremacy doctrine (displacement syndrome will do that to any .. primate) which did not halt at local genocide - canaan wether or not in service of egypt as Theaux claims .. a toughie old timer who has taken up vidding - but spread it around, which required sacrifices that backfired in a profusion of mutually competitive if not hostile hybridized factions amongst the far off missionary, home interest furthering 'dependances' / delegations which in the process decimated diversity and grew power blocks with extermination in the long run as their motto; one which as i said, DD claims America proved not so adept at adopting when it came to germans and japanese. As for 'jews', what we are left with (for the most part) is a supplanter and cultic rerun bunch with worldwide uneven gradient, keeping the worst of an extinct people undead via live reverence, homage, tribute ... mimicry, woowoo, 'transpositionation', more and more toxic novelty at ever increasing clip.

.. the heart of this jewISH cult strives yet again (still rather) for a measure of deniability and coversion of coercion so that they can count on lamestream dupes to continue coming to their ever so tastefully dressed counters (not, garish as hell, vulgar and perverted, massifying to amassify).

brave enough woman .. yet her story can't run on it's one leg ... in the 29th minute she goes "but americans are waking up to the fact that ... "

... that what? That they themselves are "breaking international law every day from the moment they get out of bed" (all sleepers are innocent i guess) .. "on expropriated land" AS WELL / JUST AS MUCH??????

tackle both and once and you might have a chance peace and permaculture break out, intimacy returns, counters and congested traffic 'veins' (dutch call 'm that) disappear.

As for the point with which Cu Chulainn hijacked the thread, my answer is this: (here I speak from the hypothetical Jewish settler, by no means a camp or transvestite figure):

" In the end, this is a struggle for survival between the US Jewish community and the Israel Jewish community. Numbers: approximately equal, at around 6 million each (yes, that magical, uncanny number again). One will grow and the other will diminish. We intend to make sure that the Israeli numbers grow relative to the US ones. We don't care if it's all Lubavitchers, anything will do."

NEXT MENTION OF JEWS 42:24

25TH: americans intended to use genocidal weapons ... due to worship of the descendants of abraham .. wars for israel ... for the jewish people as you misperceive them segway to the 3rd reich (which he claims is in exile and never surrendered, to the contrary ... etcetera .. for the whole second hour) is truly nonsensical and non sequitur though he starts it with "this brings us of course ... " 27th minute.

38:10 feudals are not out destroy thier targets but to be victorious over them, and so long as your enemies fear punishment and desire reward, there's glory in war (the profit motive). Americans on the contrary (corrupted by satanism) destroy (native americans) arguments fleshed out for 4 minutes before this climax:

when americans say we want 'unconditional surrender' they mean 'we want you dead' 42:00 this went back to the days of hebrews and the people of abraham, who annihilated the people of Canaan for their god, in what they term a holocaust

bycause of this genocidal pioneering on the part of the hebrews and bycause the americans worship the jew as relatives of the boss, the americans decided to carry on that holocaustic technique bycause they believe that mass murder is next to godliness

42:37 and bycause of that they said we will kill all the germans and all the japanese .. unconditional surrender .. and bycause of that the nationalsozialisten of the 3rd reich were faced with that, they could not surrender, there is no surrender to U S and this is why they had to relocate their leadership and their pop. so that the A would not ..
they even assassinated the leader demanding such US FDR this is why i have gone into the Ass. of FDR and will proly ...
... cause they were dealing with a maniacal sick genocidal culture that was newly born, had no history of it's own, so decided to claim the culture of a thousand year old murderous, mass genocidal culture known as the hebraic culture, the people of abraham; now, what's so sick and twisted about all of this, is that a converted race of foreigners known as the Khazars, known as the .. among various Turkic nationalities of which there are many, .. within the fall of its empire, the revolt of its slaves, slavic peoples under its serfdom, had to relocate itself to central europe, suffered its own genocide in central europe, underneath the regime of the 3rd reich and the various collaborationist sattelites like rumania, hungary. The greater part of the holocaust, 25% of it, took place in Poland, the Polaki were the worst when it came to exterminating these turkic peoples .. the same ones the americans refused to negotiate over .. in exchange for various other settlements 45:05 the americans didn't want the jewish population; prior to 1945 the american people did not view the jewish people as relations to the boss, 45:19 they believed themselves to be the inheritor to the commandments of abraham, they believed themselves to be gods chosen people ..they carried out a genocidal war like the jews in canaan because they felt that they WERE the ancient israelites; all of that changed with the establishment of israel .. and a new religion was born in america 45:41 the religion of jew 'warship'

.. and a new religion was born in america 45:41 the religion of jew 'warship' .. worship of the israelis .. and whoever the israelis kill .. the americans would go 10 steps further and say 'we'll kill 'm for you' .. that 's why they are in iraq, that's why they're in afghanistan, that's why they're in pakistan, .. that's why they're everywhere they're at, killing whoever they feel there's a threat to their true god on earth: the jew ... ahhand, .. this is what your american mentality brings you .. terror, fear, .. you live in fear .. why do you live in fear? because you go around killing for a minority people, who are not even descendants of the people of abraham that you once felt you were the embodiment of .. and because of that you fear 46:30 'the moslim's gonna come and kick my ass, they're gonna come and blow up my skyscraper .. that's why we gotta kill them first'
... and since you no longer have the capability to genocidally exert yourself, because thank god you lost the 2nd war, got your asses kicked and can no longer go around throwing around atomic bombs you're left to your doorstep .. all this fear would disappear if you'd just stop killing other people does that make sense? no of course it doesn't .. because you're crazy, because you're psychotic, because you're sick ... so, .. what did the 3rd reich do when dealing with sick psychotics like you, basically, it's recorded, that 6000 officers and 200 submarines disappeared ... the second hour sorta incoherently collates factoids about the antarctic ..

Conclusion

The Ukrainian government is on the road to disaster.
My advice to them is to completely reverse course.

Stop talking in propagandist terms like "Putler", "terrorists" and "cyborgs". Talking in nationalist abstractions creates a parallel reality and makes discussion with the other side impossible. Talk with and about people instead.

i would put add a fold and counsel to reverse reversed course.

the THINK-TANK THAT BLASTS FROM THE PAST – THE CASE OF CASE, CRONIES AGAINST SELF-SACRIFICE IN EUROPE

By John Helmer, Moscow

There are about 450 think-tanks in Europe and the US currently focusing on international relations, war, peace, and economic security. Of these, about one hundred regularly analyse Russian affairs. And of these, less than ten aren't committed antagonists of Russia. That's barely two percent of the intellectual materiel which can be counted as non-partisan or neutral in the infowar now underway between the NATO alliance and Russia. In this balance of forces, think-tanks behave like tanks – that's the weapon, not the cistern.

i'll have to frakkin tell you myself .. rite? ... Putin grabbed the krim cause he .. what? does he really want to stay in the maritime game and be that type of ruthless yet also claim he can afford not to be (rather than 'harbouring' and plotting plant to keep all the other klitzi klets klatsch cunttenderers from getting their sickened rock(IT)s off?).

The admiration of the most zionized contree in the world (france)?

Don't get me wrong, i think that, in the face of history, a new construction stop ribbon should run right down the dnjepr with 5 miles either side and NATO has to find a few therapists instead of trying to bring their worst yet online and into position, it needs to be told off in no uncertain terms and in chorus. These kids have no idea what western ukraine under alcogarch is really like obviously.

don't listen to these diabolic DC switcheroosters, nor to the old style Kievites, the Yanukovich forces went out of their way to be (and surpass) model western officers: passively defensive to perfection ... which created the opp for westoids to take some of their projection (alibi/protection) back and try it on/out for size.

Divide Ukraine down the middle and be done with putschist battering ram sponsoring, there's more than enough violence in sports and games and moneys already. All arms care has been stolen from loving ones and their are those who could get unemployment down to zero with a swale digging campaign alone. And yes, that IS related

Israel and Palestine have been wrapped up in a century long battle for territory, but are currently at the brink of all out war. How did this conflict begin? Let's jump back a few decades to see what really started all this fighting.

I've decided to award Strelkov three large credibility points for having consistently maintained that the Cossacks are nothing but bandits and protection racketeers. But Plotnitsky's idea of the LNR is not much better. I think I would describe the Cossacks as 'sub-nationalists'. By that I mean that they are always ready to come out with gusts of pseudo-nationalist rhetoric, but the only thing they really care about is lining their pockets. That is why LNR is still nothing but an anarchic mess. Alexei Mozgovoi is a Don Cossack by descent, but he clearly has a higher ideology than the rest of the Cossacks. He is culturally isolated in this respect, and Alchevsk is firmly inside what the Don Cossacks are pleased to regard as their 'historical land'. And that is why he isn't able to assemble anything larger than a Brigade. By the way, Nestor Makhno was not a Cossack, and the Cossacks are by no means anarchists, so it is somewhat misleading to accuse the Cossacks of 'Makhnovshchina', as is often done – RB

Cossacks are ready to integrate into the LNR, says Plotnitsky

Check the mineral needs of soil .. all the liddul ones in there (outweighing us gazillionfold if it came to a vote), served small 'change', little fresh dust coinage, spent on and dissolving / saved in their habitat, soilbanks -- our meanwhile thoroughly betrayed and squandered good standing under his now crumbled and forgotten directive (was jesus attempting to import it to jewland is their undying hatred stemming from that? reasonable questioner wants to know) did indeed get taken down and your frust is understandable but your cure of dark allusions which do not apply to 'soiling' rock by lightening it up to boost the greenery in the sense described, therefore isn't one.

But let me not end on a dark note alone, add a little radionics, Demeo, maybe even a gravity wheel .. if we can get enough heavy lifters convinced it's worth their time.

i've already said a thinkg or two about the way the devils figure they can play this in the eye of the working public with little time to dig for truth on the internet and not charmed by the likes of those who do .. like me. I had a christian who sings in the comfort of his home nearby with 3 daughters already run away when i accused him of being biased which he tactically saved himself from by claiming i was interrupting him and he was just about [getting ready] to balance his demonization spiel (unmarked fighters yada yada).

make the EUkrnns look bad by sending them inexperienced youths that would only get in the way of WUkrnn oligarchs anyway and instruct them to terrorize, drug and drunk them up, then make them look up to the actually paid private supremacist armies who do a little exemplary free market lancing on the side by sluicing well paying westerners through for whom fsg (first shooter games, no questions ever) are not real enough.

for those who don't know, the poroschenko shot in the beginning should be enough to tell you what sort he is (USraeli stooge) as the mobilizations are far from voluntary unless you like to picture the alternative, abject oligarch finagled poverty a choice.

so Donbassians will seem cruel if they shoot those who refuse to retreat and/or don't heed folks like Gubarov (-ev?) shown in the beginning, urging them to go home (and as usual the soldier is threatened from both sides)

would it not polarize zeitgeist fashion, showing environmentally intact and pristine culture next to science tox or the latter contrasted with clean science woowoo (and very little in between ...) would it be better if half the time in/of the film was dedicated to showing the stuff people like David Sheen filmed (the intentional community scene) before he went and turned his attention to the depths of cultural abjection in IzRealHell??

the skitsochumps project all their own peccadillos onto target/prey and THEN try to 'take them out' (note: not 'cure them') .. and not before that (distancing / 'delegating' / disownment of their own crime). It's the old 'scopegate' of the arms industry, planting 'seeds' of toxgrudge in keeping with books kept about this play for keeps yet runaway demograde diggery. Highly profitable, hence their chokehold. It's good to flex [pop]density but the very bottom layers are the only ones where this (rock to soil) 'trick' can be done without any sentience coming to harm. On the contrary, growth factors down 'theah' are not out of but in to this world, it's most important 'limiting' factor, from there on up to the whippiest tops of treecrown tips. Peace activism without this earthy / earthing component remains ineffective, counterproductive even, cause competing with warmemes and -mongers must include 'marchandizing' with matter of life and death. I am living proof grasping this and graduating into grippiedom isn't possible on battlegrounds like the splinternet. I chose unwisely ... but shouldn't have begged for help hoping i'd get a bigger budget than the people i could simply pay to execute my designs. I hope to transition ... on the 'double'.

Rowan finally tired of the machine ambiguation but it has affected him .. as i hope to show if, as my supposition stands now, that clay/fresh dust coin, the likes of which Cernunnos let run onto / into the ground and thus fed fair fighting with (from one cellers on up) is what Jesus wanted to replace the metal ones, not turning tables in the way it's usually taken, that of reversal, but in order to point to its prime growth and fight fairing factor (as) constituted by way of mentioned money touch down, thrown all rite around, where it doeth hit and disappear into the ground, ... then .. there is eminent and, i might add, the ecofem type sense in saying that famous Jesus gesture was anything but unpolitical.

Why oh why am i following all these ornery types whom i seem to disgust and won't have none of me, no job offers, rides, pity ... nuthin ...

Parable of the pimples

I've no real idea who Psknick is attacking, and who he or she is defending, here. The humour, such as it is, lies in the parabolic construction, which appears to be accidental. Psknick is not aware that he has rewritten the parable of the mote and the beam (to put in in King James' vocabulary). Now, we could work backwards until we had listed all the legitimate grievances of all the players in this limp tragedy of so-called 'Ukraine': from the north the Russians (who are in fact Swedish), from the west the Austro-Hungarians and the Poles, from the east the Tatars and the Mongols, and from the south the mysterious slave-trading Khazars. But if we paid any attention to the original parable, we should know that the point is, you can never reach the end of an enumeration of grievances. It goes on for ever. So, Jesus is saying, you have to interrupt the series somewhere, and engage in some forgiveness, which is not a political thing but a personal one. As for politics, it has its own standards, which Jesus refrained from teaching – RB

Screenshot from 2015-05-11 02:44:35 - it reads: and all sorts of gleeful trolls? Here, they say, they are having problems. What? if You neighbor has rolled out a claim from a neighbor to go get a new zit on your nose, what does that have to claim? With his pimple neighbor himself, in working order, will understand, and You to settle the claim... instead of rejoicing are empty, type of pimple on the nose of a neighbor. it would be better attended to how to handle the situation with the neighbour's claim! imho (psknick) #13007

So what are the standards of politics, which Jesus refrained from teaching? Well, first of all, let's be clear: politics is an inhuman science. The subject of politics is not the human being, but the polis, that is to say, the state, which is an inhuman construction, a machine in fact. It reduces all the human beings who take part in it to the status (but not the real condition) of cogs. We need to define the status-but-not-condition of the cog, to avoid letting it fall into outright slavery. The Jews have no vocabulary for it, and nor do the Christians, as such, but Jews and Christians between them have spawned the hybrid discourse of Marxism, so I suggest we use that – RB

as to your weird wordplay, i'll just throw one of my own right back:

make sure that verplichten en toedichten samenvallen
make sure that obligation and ascription overlap ('leave no room' ... in order to allow leaves to arise from what was/had no room under previous [pre-aufgehobenheit / pre embrace ... see my rock polishing designs] rocky conditions .. i mean status ... well .. you get my meaning).

both in our own world (keyboard mirrorynth) no doubt .. yet such a an extra set of worldpoles further apart than most.

Grounding is one of those 1% cases where taking 'it' literally (ground your food arose from, or deeper still ancestral grounds you hail from ultimately and more liminal, the grounds that fed those grounds in quarternary terms, etc) surpasses and transcends the mere metaphorical succour and 'surrogature' ('denaturality') available thru language / media. choyung, the number 6 million has some occult, kabbalah significance, portending the imminent arrival of jew messiah who will not show up unless those 6 million jews are sacrificed, so they are trying to even deceive their own greasy god by cooking the holocaust books, kol nidre bites yahweh on his snake-tailed ass.

note how the ju-box goes into hysterics just prior to the bolshevik coup in 1917 (oktoberbloodfest) frequently pairing 6 million rus jews near extinction with how nice it would be to find them a warm spot in palestine (they don't call it israel).
so guess what happens: tsarist russia collapses at hands of jew assassins, then ottoman turkey collapses soon after -- note that the sultan was the custodian of the holyland who steadfastly refused to give it up despite rothschilds and montefiores offers to buy it, then comes the dread nazi crocodile who swallows 6 million jews whole, then comes u *(jew)*n that signs off on palestine to be raped and sacrificed on the moloch's altar. got that timeline? that's the story of the 6 million in a nutshell.

+Piety Piet duh Pious Poet You got it right, but for the wrong reasons. We taught them to disrespect us by giving them lodging, food, healthcare, work, pocket money....all at our expense. Though, if still unhappy, they could always catch the next boat home. No fat chance of that ever happening. When our patience runs thin, they'll be begging to leave. It's only a matter of time. And the saddest thing is that when people see red, they are unable to distinguish between the peaceful and troublemaker, the legal and illegal, the welcomed and unwelcomed.

Re 35th minute (plan of action): i invite you to check my proleptic take (learned from Robert Graves himself) on Jesus as the apprentice / hostage of Cernunnos returning home. And no, i don't believe it's quite like western educated royalty who return only to betray their people ... even though that's how the 1% of jews left ruling over 99%+ 'jews' have taken it.

57th minute (my age also) your sparring partner goes into a delusional rant. Iz is the most intertribal hence obviously confessional (and Niqnaq, my fave blogger, called it orthodox yesterday) country. Of course it's much more like a colony of ideological goldiggers deploying impecunious pawns (and stampeding the rest there with scary fireworks, the oldest trick in the impious priestly book - see naeim galedi) than a nation.

Luke Ford with the petite, wide dentured bleachblond jewess an hour 13m in you claim minority import (migration) never benefits the host, neglecting to differentiate between hosts that wiped out natives and therefore have to keep a token but steady flow up - downplayed trickle / hyped flood? - in order to legitimate themselves retroactively (and avoid accusations of elitism) .. without reversing their heritage back to the point they betrayed and/or fled their heritage.

Location is not everything without pinning a timespan to it (mountains become seafloor in a god's eye blink after all).

Holland takes pride in being a haven for refugees (owing to quite inhospitable hidey holes ... the very first fucking Northern european (after the roman) corporations have their save haven / base to thank the menorah shaped dammed swamps of amsterdamed for that). Coalition building is easier the closer one remains to bare survival basics and/or discipline (hence arms race of maritime empires).

what you miss in the next few minutes is related to a concept i coined and use often: 'incontinent demographix' (demographic incontinence - bleeding into demographic intercontinentalism).

president vlad putin of the russian federation is the exact analog to presidents andrew jackson and abe lincoln.

i showed the parallel with lincoln but consider that putin declared war on rothschilds when he tossed khodorkovsky in slammer for 10 years back in 2003 and repossessed yukos back into russian ownership.

was khodorkovky a rothschild agent? what was his last act when his jet was blocked on the tarmac as

mug as only incest in the pews of the synagogue of moreover, putin also destroyed rothschild banking anchorage in russia by setting up another banking system with china, the one that israel is now begging to join and if possible, poison from inside

while jilted america sits helplessly on the sidelines

so yeah, the powerful parallels are clear to the naked

he aint gonna listen to you, purging the faith is a one in a million hit in a missillion ... funny .. at the time i wrote a comment directed at blacks (perhaps the ones at TRNN's 'black globalist' vid, but they don't usually censor me) where i voiced a conviction i ought to be famous for one of these decades again, namely that blacks are not a whit wiser if they don't see the racism that matters and will forever matter in the americas as much as the one on whites will in eurasia, and that is the one on reds and i don't see blacks defending reds from whites nor do i see them shame or bribe their peers back to africa any better than talking whites back to europe is able to prevent lots and lots more suffering as yet ... but it will someday ... migrations are fine .. mass migrations necessary sometimes .. but the latter better be reversed on the double and if there's anything at all for the UN to focus on and have a chance to find broadest possible support on it is this.

There is a very logical explanation for this course of history .. i'll throw out a few keywords / pointers and hope yall can catch up ... but i have been warning about stuff others only get around to 10-15 years later routinely so i'm learning to not hold my breath anymore.

mixed marriages have the effect of resonance reaching back down the respective family treebranches to where they first split .. read neoteny.org for that ref. This often lands awareness / sensibility of offspring in bonobo territory (read 'Demonic Males' for that), hence they communal prepatriarchal sharing and intimacy bent societal structure an opulent in the sense of abundant surrounding afforded them (as opposed to the chimps who on the other side of the uncrossable river had to compete, form male bands, learned the ways of war .. etcetera). There is a decided streak of that in jews (quite the contrast with the babylonian / khazarian war by deception / encryption i know) which can spawn the feminist and gender limination phases and spaces. Since they were pioneers in propagating schizo profit motives and had lots of nondescript assimilative fall out and off this whole thingie has become damn intractable unless you have the time and talent for it .. and even then it takes 57 years to write it up succinctly enough to achieve a period, here it comes:.

our job was never to take america back but survive it's break up. GIVE it back and allow the healing of it, go break up khazarified oligopolized EUrocracies; claim the rights/rites* your forefathers squandered. Cernunnos spends / grounds fresh coined clay coins; a redemption trick that attracted the attention of the roman empire's intelligentia (see him flanked by apollo and mercury in Reims Museum ... quick before it crumbles into total ignorability)

i'm beginning to think Putin's most solid lease on life is his decided and complete ignorance of things ecological; his trade at any and all, specially lowest cost is not a runner much longer though; he has a lesson in stationary dynamics waiting for him sooner or later.

Black on White Violent Crime is 12 to 1

if blackie began claiming they are getting whitie back for what they did to redie they could keep it up for a while and whitie might retrieve and get set straight on their long lost connection to 'demographic incontinence' and intercontinentalism.

Bondaruk - 76th: Damien ??? so putsches / central elites and secessions have nothing to do with each other .. it's nothing more than an attempt to reverse the chase out of an absentee landlord? What about the murderous bullshit of (projective surface / projectile target demaind raising) schizophrenia worshippers / profitters? Why not have most of the line redrawing and some crisscrossing done voluntarily? Why be sanctimonious liars and cheat on a scot referendum?

You're rambling, your point is what exactly? Are you advocating the reinstatement of Yanukovich? Yes or No?

Croatia: Barry Lituchy's Fabrication Of History Or When Greater Serbia Lobby Gets Desperate
February 6, 2014 by inavukic 49 Comments
I once read that actions such as the denial of the Holocaust, and the use of racist strategies generally — against Jews, Muslims, Serbs, Croats, whomever — contain the foundation of the destruction and failure of those who practice them. I agree. Keeping that thought in mind and heart, I hope that Barry M. Lituchy's Serbian propaganda will soon stumble upon its deserved demise.

That's a relatively small success rate compared to the Jew-S of A and the Jew-K and other Jew-ro-pean countries. As far as mixed marriages go, the Chinese prefer Whites, hands down, and all 7 days of the week, with much better looking offsprings to boot. +RockSoilerToil TaleTattler Sorry, but the linkage of "Israeli" "neocon" and Bolshevism is utter horseshit. It was the USSR and the East Bloc that recognized Palestine in the 1980s (which the USA/UK/Germany still can't do today), it was the USSR who supported Egypt and Syria with their treasure and blood. Mao and Ho Chi Minh are certainly not "secret Israelis" nor are the hundreds of millions who followed them. Why wouldn't those who stand to profit (self and others) by/from and stand in need of the most transformative therapy imaginable, receive best and soonest versions of such efforts? Therefore i say, install, allocate and designate sanctuaries, sanatoria, sequester zones ... where the exclusiveness the mindset that upsets you can heal in seclusion, even if it takes multiple generations. I can think of such a 'prison' regimen i would willingly be subjected to, can't you???? Not possible for him to be Native American of ANY stripe and have been born n Cambodia - the US did not have Diplomatic Relations with Cambodia in 1976 PLUS there were a grand total of ZERO Native American GI's in Cambodian POW camps in 1975 when he was conceived. Furthermore, IF by some miracle he actually IS some sort of Native American it is such a vague connection it's akin to claiming to be descended from Attila the Hun or Charlemagne. And it may have escaped your notice but Lakota and Northern Cheyenne are NOT the same thing plus it's ILLEGAL to be a member of both tribes.

2 Deanna Spingolas ??

(come on girls, one of yous change it) could you alert V to my response and persuade her to activate the plusery? piss in the pot or get off.

the fact you speak about 'homosexuality' as if it's a monolithic 'thingy' (hard and sharp delineable due to hardness of sharp and blunt contours which remain within 'overseeable' [the dutch purely teccie meaning implied here, not the anglobritzy hierarchy one] and thus manageable magnitude) shows your inability to distinguish between butch and femme ... and that's the reason i keep referring to neoteny.org which makes of gender a rather iching-like 8 component binary.

beginnings of nazi popularity was very much on account of the latter, doing disarming things ... which the butchies would have none of of course. it scared them like the women they married scared them clear out of the house into rocket factories ('gravity's rainbow' ... helloooooohooooo).

in fact, if you likewise don't distinguish between the jews and the jewish (jewishish) you have little of any value to say about why the ish word grew into stellar magnitudes greater common parlance than preceded by any other ethnic noun ... they basically ished themselves clear out of existence except for a tough, dirty, rotten and small core that spoils the game for all others, obsessed with increasing their lines of ish defenses without noticing how they choke themselves into undead fossils that way, always investing migrations, most rather nilly than willy.

JaysAnalysis w/Mark Hackard: Strategy of Tension and Technocracy -- Jay D -- 952 - 1,057 Jan 13, 2015
In this new interview, Russia analyst Mark Hackard of SouloftheEast.org returns to discuss the recent Paris events and Gladio, the fishy elements surrounding it, as well as the history of Sovietism and Nazism, the banking dictatorship, technocracy and feminism, Dostoyevsky's works, cults and SPECTRE, and much, much more!

"the bolshevik revo was a bankster revo"

The endless, eternal war on terror is a contrived strategy of tension the Atlanticist establishment has used for over a hundred years, dating back to the exploits of Harry St. John Philby, T.E. Lawrence carving up the Middle East and Britain's "extra-special" relationship with Saudi Arabia. Nothing's essentially changed over the last century other than the focal point of the terror attacks, as the Middle East must constantly be broken up, destabilized and reorganized into "micro-nations" more amenable to Washington's corrupt corporate and ideological expansionist domination.

Bolsh and zionism ideologically indistinguishable not exactly too ... zionism is an emperor's pretend garment on top of the distributed suction system even while passing the pretend disguise as an honest localizable kernel

right when the olympic games were going on should have been a very very serious warning to Putin

you people are as non realist equalitarian as the source of you 'resistance' / infection herd; totally missing there's a, like with most things, differential effect. quick example: climate debate ... can only escalate bycause both heating and cooling are, as we humans behave now, anthropically affected and aggravated.

in the same way, crediting porn for less rapey stuffzz is totally missing porn as a cohering organization 'sabotagative' crowbar .. biggest most recent example the prominent IMF 'dorknoper' Kahn-Strauss ... there's a docu with Berezovsky explainiung / confessing half of 'principles' used while the footage does the rest ... and/or go ask the anti-judaica / zionicoo / semitosis folk and semi semite assimilee ... or for that matter ... for the umpteenth time, i implore you, go see the parallels of exploitation as elucidated by our ID fluid compartmentalizers commercializers / mercenarizers and luxurious mental wedge via media driving jew scholar Otto Weininger.

in short, you are drawing and confining the issue into the personal and ignoring the mundane aspects and spheres (again, look at climate issue parallels, might help).

Zionists try collectivize (harness, tame, exploit) white genius / traits, jealous of virtues which their own ancestors long since lost and sacrificed to nerdiness, the 'upclassment of which is, in short, the whole of the Judaic and all it's dazzling splinters' ('nerdity' inducing breeding) programs.

likewise 'femanizis' covet yet hate and punish independence of and in men and women instead of curing an unjustifiable feared generalized unmerited projection and imposition. case in point is the type of repulsive cow insisting on safe slutwalks and the like, the US islamophobe version of the EU islamicized / islamified feminism rabbi yaakov shapiro claims to be disheveled due to mourning for the epidemic that took 30 or 300 rabbis. i suspect that this is really a disguised form of celebrating the discovery and harnessing of infection mechanisms, opening the alt doctor / genocidaire, pump/dump pomp/slump career launching pads and paths; rabbis my ass, chabadniks, lubavitchers and still worse, .. the black antknights for feminudaism ..

have you noticed the zionists put the palestinians in, if not EXACTLY the same positions - they (yes they, not the germans) put less 'visionary' (cough) jews in, so as to manouver into the .. pickle they are still deadset to make the most of no matter what - then pretty damn close to it?
They do it subconsciously for sure, knowing karma bills come due ... and they do everything to incite their opponents into the behaviour towards them which they inflicted on the germans. See the docu 'Hellstorm'. Don't fall for it; put them on a permie manuel diet intellectually for a few generations.

soldiers and all who participate in war racketeering HAD NONE OF THE NOTIONS BACK WHEN THEY CHOSE THE WARRIOR PATH AND WEREN'T POINTED OUT ANYONE IN POSSESSION OF THEM

To my distress i found out (that / upon) returning to one's birth village in order to break the locally dominant biblical demographic entitlement - coupled with that machine supremacy fetish which make a life of 'service' seem such a cake walk - is damn near impossible ... even when you impress the youths with skeeler skills and would love to keep them out of the 'zuipketen' (workers barracks on wheels used to practice the noble sport of drinking oneself into a coma .. in hopes of getting raped? how the fuck did this get started?) and even when you were never pestered for being too nerdy.

Surviving many travels and the local success of my dad, none of it helped. In fact, i can't even get any of them damn churchmen to admit my dad helped them build a brandnew clubhouse (diakonia in 'nederlands hervormd' parliance) much less display the books i collected (english and german are not exactly spoken widely here and so admittedly, most of my stash is out of place here).

all i managed was to keep the kids who play soldier way out of earshot after they were duely impressed with and in awe of my peace talk ... but the effect did not really carry to the next generation and by then i was totally sick of trying to engage the youths and soon after sensing they were forbidden to talk with me further.

that one with all the blessings and not the least urge to share, in fact full of trepidation about consequences thereof ...

that one out of very very many who happens to be found worthy and searched out successfully by millions upon millions of his 'followers' (let me play A J Miller and Brian Golightly Marshall as well as Bob Dobbs rolled into one for a minute) ... can't be that difficult can it?
just ask around, who's the expert on peace here?
who thinks he has the data, mindset, rough plans and groundwork under his brainpan if not belt?

i always thought they'd be drawing lots to try move up in the cue fanning out far and wide in every direction never daring to do more than make humble requests and happy filling the ones dropped in the form of hints as expertly subtle as only a vet commentarian can and all the rest of them beseechment arts.

anti-christ is a real jesus w real blessings, really holding them back cause he sees no damn good come (out of making too obvious a show) of an easily replicated perpmob to mention just one not in the least 'neutral' shtick ... etcetera etcetera.

I like the sound of that .. They certainly were macro players but neither seem to have had any regard from the bones that need mining from rockbottom belowz ... but not very much below it, ... juuuuust a scrape, graze .. and polish will do in most cases ... anybody up to getting composts and stoneyfaces up to buffsnuff yet (before the diabolical ones kill and commercenarialize that word as well)??

Douglas Dietrich: Illuminati vs freemasons [???

the second hours of both the 29th of august and the 1st of september performances by Douglas Dietrich on Revolution Radio - freedomslips.cm - concern his proposed (purported / contrived? dunno for sure) opposition between the illuminati - blackballed / fictionalized / slandered by Robert Anton Wilson ['RAW' church of satan member] and a whole slew of increasingly digital conspartists' in his wake - and the freemasons, which according to him one can view as conservative imperialsts (if there is any such thing; globalism in order to protect localism .. supposedly) vs more .. schumpeterian and scrupleless exploiters sailing under the adage 'by deception' and mingling into races when it serves a slide into power, then mixing up the subject race wholesale (displace euros so they turn ultra religious and to 'frontier insecurity predicated violence is what i can imagine he means); well; that's him in my words as far as i sort of buy it ... but the real reason i upload this two part tale is cause of the stellar performance on kin 151 (8monkey, also a day on which i did a clever G+ post if i say so myself).

rooting vs uprooting .. the old farmer vs nomad thingy (See William Irwin Thompson's 70s lectures at archive.org)
but rock 'vs' water .. ?? when you look closely and openly (shutter termwise) enough you see a very mingly muddy mess .. on which i remarked as follows yesterday:

rockefeller ?VS? rothschild :::: freemason VS illuminati come one ... they are playing field levelers (multiple agents always evening things out, matching stakes in hopes of ... kind of a poker choker way of life ... but they can't poke a rock worth a turd)
... most ancient guarantee for confrontation and clash (they read it as cash) .. cause god abhors equality and they like to irritate the fuck out of him.

Thanking vets for their 'service' very solemnly, as i just heard on some radio station (1st of sept) might seem goodhearted and grateful .. but much more decisive is the mindless component; let me explain:

soldiers and all who participate in war racketeering had none nor were aware of let alone encountered to acquire any notions about quick and effective peacemaking. It so happens that i managed to nurture and ripen just that sort of thing since i was in school; you know, back around the time they chose the warrior path.

How easy is it exactly, to have them pointed out / towards anyone in possession of said concepts .. in at least faithlubed rough outline?

I think AFP has a special place in such international announcements, being interpreted as 'the French voice' in international media, as opposed to the 'Pindosi' (or possibly 'Jewish') voices of Reuters & AP. Therefore, AFP is used for preference whenever it seems appropriate in international (or global) image-making terms, as especially here, where the self-evident fact of Pindo direction and control has to be dissolved by all means available into the 'international' facade – RB

what makes engelhardt etc useful to the system is their absolute inability to understand that all pindostan is, is the current global ZOG enabler and enforcer – it could be replaced with the people's republic of china, tomorrow, literally, globally, and the PRC would do the same job better

The entire first paragraph of this is absolute shit. Not only does it read like a tourist brochure, but I believe it is factually untrue, and conceals the keystone in the structure of global ZOG illegality. What I mean is, the myth of "training". These assholes are not "training" the vassal armies of what the Brits in franker days called "native troops." They are acting as de facto commanding officers, both at staff and field level, which is illegal under Pindosi law without Congressional authorisation. Therefore, always and everywhere, they call it "training." And we, being the dozy pillocks we are, seldom pause to question. We must learn to challenge every assumption concealed within these texts, especially those concealed by their very obviousness, in that they are presented as basic presuppositions: of course it's "training," always and everywhere only "training," because they choose to call it that – RB baron reuters' minions are probably trying to defend a (hypothetical) israeli deal to let putin keep assad as long as he completely abandons ukraine -- October 2, 2015 – 5:05 am

Such a deal would not bind Israel, once the surrender of Donbass was physically complete and the 404 Nazis were in firm control, secure in their mission to commit a slow but thorough genocide, so that Israel could construct the Third Khazaria on its embers – once that is in the bag, then they can double-cross Putin and Assad – RB

Pindostan unlikely to defend Syrian rebels from Russian strikes

Matt Spetalnick, Phil Stewart, Reuters, Oct 1 2015

I want to issue a particular alert here for deception of Russia by Israel. The sequence of popular logic below is quite clear: what if the Pindos covertly get MANPADs of an effective nature into the hands of Nusra and/or ISIS? And the reassuring voice from the television (so to speak) says, don't worry, Israel will never permit that. The reasoning being that Israel is genuinely afraid that one of these crazy aliakbars (as the Russians call the Jihadis) will shoot down something Jewish. But this is a false, misleading, disinformationally-generated fear, analogous to Br'er Rabbit's "Please don't throw me in the briar patch." There is no danger that any of these pseudo Jihadis will fire at anything Jewish, except for the occasional demonstration intended to maintain credibility. For instance, they could fire a few duds so that the Jewish airliners could show off their anti-missile add-ons (widgits under the belly of the plane which fire thermal flares). If Israel was genuinely frightened of ISIS (let alone Nusra), everything would be utterly different – RB

Q. : Your book The Feathered Sun reveals your interest in the American Indians. May I ask you what the stimulus of this interest or affinity is?

Indian Tepee

F.S.: The Red Indians -- and especially the Indians of the Plains -- have much in common with the Japanese samurai, who very often practiced Zen spirituality; morally and aesthetically speaking, the Plains Indians were one of the most fascinating peoples of the world. It was the great mistake of the 19th century to distinguish only between "civilized people" and "savages"; there are distinctions which are far more real and important, for it is obvious that "civilization" in the ordinary sense is not the highest value of mankind, and also that the term "savage" is not suitable to the Indians. What makes the value of a man is neither his mundane culture nor his practical or inventive intelligence, but his attitude in the face of the Absolute; and he who has the sense of the Absolute never forgets the relationship between man and virgin Nature, because Nature is our origin, our natural homeland and a most transparent Message of God. For the Arab historian Ibn Khaldun, the very condition of a realistic civilization is the equilibrium between Bedouins and city dwellers, which means between nomads and sedentaries; between the healthy children of Nature and the representatives of elaborated cultural values.

If the Catholic Church considers usury still a mortal sin as E. Michael Jones alleges, why does no usurer have to confess his or her sin and receive absolution before attending Holy Communion? Since 1830 under the pontificate of Pius VIII, mortally sinful, unrepentant usurers have been admitted to reception of the Eucharist without having confessed. The Canon Law of 1917 approves interest on loans. The Canon Law of 1983 requires clerics in charge of church funds to receive interest on money.

kneejerkers, weaned on faux-democracy (DEMOCKERY is a better term) object in their snooty, superior way.

Well, just think about it for half a minute.

There is one, inviolable reference point, above any contaminated cultural goods Jew may import and he cannot do the usual holler of Antisemitism! because the law does not specifically apply to him (IT), so he is stuck.

And all these numerous, opulent Buddhist shrines, temples, pagodas, sanctuaries, monasteries, retreats, schools, they are all covered by this law as well and cannot be rubbished nor infiltrated with view of infecting them with Judaic rot and decomposition. He (It) will forever remain on the outside looking in, unable to gnaw an entrance rathole.

Indeed, this is what The Protocols gloat about, how Jew was able to infest and weaken from within the feudal system in Europe, through corruption, camouflage and intermarriage with the feeble-minded aristocracy that had lost its way and warrior honor. Without that, no arbitrarily defined nation-states, no takeover of the maggot ridden carcass.

It ain't because the fact that he's Jewish, per se, gives Blumenthal any kind of immunity vis-a-vis the Jewish right wing, because it doesn't. If he seriously pisses them off while covering a demo, they will lynch him. Image problems no longer concern them. Pindostan is regarded as completely under hypnosis and ready to believe any shit you throw at it. There is no worry about criticism in Pindostan any more. If you have seen the shit that Blumenthal pulls at right-wing demos, you may have wondered why they haven't lynched him already. Obviously, they must regard him as their man in the enemy camp, and his left-wing pose as just a cover. And almost certainly, they are right. Similarly, Gilad Atzmon, etc etc. Even that big roly-poly lunatic, the one who does the anti-religious things, worked for the Shin Bet while he was in the army, and probably still would if they twisted his arm, something they would doubtless enjoy doing. I keep saying, the scientific way to do attitude control is to control both sides. And they do -- RB

Max Blumenthal & Chris Hedges Recall Last Year's Assault on Gaza --- Adam Johnson, Alternet, Oct 16 2015

Recent tensions (SIC -- WHAT A GREAT WAY TO START -- MEANINGLESS EUPHEMISM -- RB) in the West Bank and East Jayloomia have brought the long-standing Israeli occupation of Plastelina back into the news.

Discussion of a third Intifada and a "wave of violence" have Jackass Kerry rushing to the region to "calm things down" (at least the guy is sussed enough to put sneer quotes on that himself -- RB) and pundits scrambling to lay blame. Missing from recent news is an important piece of context. Plastelina is still reeling from the Israeli assault on Gaza last summer that left 11,000 wounded and over 2,200 dead, 70% of them children. Hedges and Blumenthal recently sat down to discuss the situation on Hedges' new Telesur show (wow, an international star! what a gravy train! -- RB), "Days of Revolt," a series that focuses on people around the world fighting injustice. Blumenthal said: The homes are three to four stories high, and each floor represents a generation, so when it gets hit by a missile, you see a family liquidated.

As the false symmetry of "tit for tat" framing plays out in our media, their discussion is a useful reminder that over the past few years, what's happened in Plastelina is anything but symmetrical.

RIGHT. NOW, DO WE NEED BLUMENTHAL TO TELL US HOW MANY STOREYS GAZAN BUILDINGS HAVE, OR WHAT A DIME BOMB IS? NO, WE DON'T! BUT BECAUSE HE IS A JEW, HE IS ALLOWED TO CRITICISE ISRAEL, AND THE REST OF US ARE NOT, UNLESS AUTHORISED BY A JEW, WHO MAY SEEM FUCKING ULTRA-LEFT & SHIT, BUT IS ACTUALLY THERE TO MAKE SURE NOBODY COMES ON WHO SAYS ANYTHING HOSTILE TO JEWS AS SUCH -- RB

They are well represented in genres where the relationship between the performer and the audience takes the form of spectator and spectacle, but are no-shows in genres where the performer is more of a background instigator trying to work the audience members up into a participatory activity among themselves, such as dancing.

Though he gets kind of mealy-mouthed when discussing Holocaust (and I never did hear him once denying it outright, at least he is in favor of honest historical research and revision if necessary, which is all that matters), here he comes up with an interesting point:

It is not a secret that in contemporary Israel, it is the orthodox Jews and the followers of the Talmud who lead the most racist and murderous abuse of the indigenous Palestinian population. Thus, we have a clear question to answer. If it was the Talmud that restrained the Jews for centuries, why doesn't it restrain orthodox Israeli Jews now? The orthodox rabbis argue that it is the addition of political orientation that interfered with Judaic peaceful teaching.

Another possible answer is that we were wrong all along.

IT WASN'T THE TALMUD THAT RESTRAINED THE JEWS, ACTUALLY IT WAS THE 'ANTI-SEMITIC' CHURCH THAT REPRESSED JEWS.

THE COLLAPSE OF THE CHURCH together with the rise of Israel and the influential Jewish lobbies in the West have LED TO A SEVERE SENSE OF IMPUNITY that is translated into a tsunami of violence and rise of Jewish supremacy that is religiously driven.

I'd like to know what Phil, The Thinking Man has to say on this, to me it pretty much echoes what The Protocols gloatingly acknowledged but practically no one paid attention while reading them.

let's see if we can run across this terminological minefield without getting blown up.
This is all sententious shit. They know perfectly well it has no bearing on reality. Their job is to maintain the fiction that Pindo Jews are powerful and moral people who want to benignly divide Plastelina into the same two halves proposed with such fanfare at the disgraceful public Oslo surrender of Yasir Arafat, a division of the country that everybody except them, the White House and Foggy Bottom (the State Dept) recognises is nothing but a completely dishonest subterfuge that will never happen. So Weiss and his friends are actually just as guilty as Meir Kahane and his friends. But that is not my main interest here. I want to see how consistently I can carry out the desublimation of 'Israelis and Palestinians' by restoring them to the reality of 'Jews and Arabs' – RB

Cause? Obviously (for me anyways, but i learn that i am an unpleasant exception yet another way almost every day) a europe that fails to curb repatriate their own waywards, metastatizing their hang ups into steadily increasing 'permanent' occupations.

I apologise for all the unsightly scribbling across Rania's story. As I say several times in the course of it, I am especially annoyed when 'subaltern' writers (sarcastic pomo term for non-ruling-class writers) ape ruling class journalism, with its incessant pomposities and unnecessary pedantic definitions and all its other vile habits. Pindo cops trained to use lethal Israeli Jewish tactics
Rania Khalek, Electronic Intifada, Dec 4 2015
Since the beginning of this year, Pindosi police officers Pindo cops have killed 1,046 people, with Black victims accounting for a disproportionate number of them. Deadly police violence in Pindostan is bad enough as it is. Adopting murderous Israeli tactics will only make it worse.

thanks .. for making me feel disappointed ... worse, .. ignored and worst, too much of this to yet again indicate why complete pacifism entails and includes:

2: conversion (retoolment, as putting life to death and bringing what's 'dead' alive are comparable in hardware expenses ... and what's funny, both can help build soil, be 'instrumental' in granting heavily taxes extenses of it a rest)

3: the alt protest doesn't push for the sacred pomp parade prestige and prime real estate to the breaking point but rather makes a point of micronizing breaking points (see the huge set of remarks i spread all over the net all over the last 2 decades) .. that is to day, it 'occupies' itself with giving examples of it's distributive intent by dancing around the disputed disreputable centers in squiggly (mock isolation) encirclements performing the above bullet points to the joyous and photogenic extent possible, planning for duration and monumentality of whatever gets planted and blessed in the process.

whatever you do 'don't mind the immovable and allow the opposed side to see fit what action it will take (the famous pepperspray incidents somewhere along the weakest links in the eventchain).

the 'permanent cultural' [composting of wastes] aspects are already a lot trickier to kickstart but once the pacified areas are allowed to grow (feeding on 'groundfacts noone can dispute, which allows them to generously feed on largely their own reput) and get protected by arms holders who see the point and don't let their opposedly minded colleagues beyond such points made, in lines held and spheres cherished .. hermetically, .. as above .. (so below).

4: Then there's a huge poin to be made about why such a big deal was made over a years old essay ... it's the old neocon hollowcastianity 'roepetoeteritis' at work. iow, the usual choicelessness left the rest of us by the ['selfiechosen'] who let lionine vanity rule them.

LoveMaking should be off limits for the moon of Nine before LeoNine. Between them and dogs we got the most cloying axis of our celestial make up i dare swear. (sorry jltalkz but your vanity will turn caricatural within a decade i have no doubt, so keep hammering at those other skills you can't just ply your lips around in so bewitchingly seductive a manner; if you read any of my work i'd prolly sign over title of my house to you in a heartbeat).

Not a word about Hitler simply ready to trade the rounded up 'toegelande' 'medelanders' and 'incontinents' to a more conservative and reformative set of masses managers (the tiny sliver of green thumb zionists who indeed used a pacific shingle for a short while) peacefully but misreckoning the collectivizability of those too far gone along the exploded demographic (their cousins the 'in[ter]continents') to see any other than THAT very process - which propelled them to their o so precarious out on a limb posish - furthering investment as worthwhile (it's a world of extreme obliteration of all [that myriad of] in betweenie memez)

They are just fishing for stories from all the nice old ladies and gents that they know who are associated with the ruling elite, most of whom happen to be secret agents whose job it is to exercise political influence indirectly, by planting stories or working them up from trivia (hyping them), or working them down to trivia (dismissing them), as appropriate. neo-reaction has an eco blind spot; the consequences: under liberal cathedral conditions rightieite leanings are denigrated, isolated, marginalized and their activities pushed across the peripheries and horizons (even encouraged to - and instrumentalized when they - do so ...case in point, ukraine).

this is due purely to the dilution of pollutants righties / rurals typically experience, along with other health bestowing environmental factors (which however, are very much unacknowledged and taken for granted) vs the urbanite masses amassing missive mission massagers, typically misdirected, missing the true targets of compost heaps but going tut tut w raised finger towards rapacious ravage of resources; the eco gospel is the unwritten dictat granting leftisms rights of ways constantly countered by counterproductive emergencies and exceptions like the wars for democracies which actually cater to spoilt rotten top end of rightieites totally dissociated from their base and no less polarized with them than loggers are against treedefenders.

What's the verdict? In the end, the Dark Enlightenment should be taken seriously at least by anyone interested in contemporary political thought; its beliefs are reasonably argued and its leading writers can be an engrossing read. And it is becoming increasingly evident that major structural reform, maybe radical in nature, could be what America requires if it is to continue to flourish in the 21st century.

Still, something essential is always left out of the neoreactionary equation. Universal equality and classical democracy are not synonymous with an all-purpose, lowest-common-denominator leveling of mankind. Rather, they speak only to an existential fairness in which each of us has the right to value, direct and make meaning of our own lives. May the Force be with you.

Heart of Darkness Revisited
Prospects for Europe are nothing but bleak. French-Iranian researcher Farhad Khosrokhavar has been one of the few who identified the crux of the problem. A Jihadi reserve army across Europe will continue to feed on batallions battalions of excluded youth in poor inner cities. There is no evidence EU neolibcons will be fostering sound socio-economic policies to extract these alienated masses from the ghettos, employing new forms of socialization. So the escape route will continue to be a virus-like version of Salafi-Jihadism, sold by wily, PR-savvy profiteers as a symbol of resistance; the only counter-ideology available on

Sorry, but Greg Hallet is a nutcase with no proof but many wonderful speculations, including his own royal ancestry. Angela Merkel has polish and jewish roots, that's no theory but proven.

The oversimplification of history leads to false conclusion. Hallets perception of history is a grotesque bending of historical facts, so they might fit into his totally English centred world view. In this, he simple is one more the Anglo's. Meanwhile, books come out from a younger generation of historians who are not loaden with all the time copying from each other (as in former years), but who use much more documents which are now available and they come to a much more realisitc and balanced view about the 20th century wars and happenings.

Hitler family has much more to do with family indreading than with any Rothschild connections. I've also read Antelman as well as others, but they argue very clumsy and with no hard proofs. As Jack Heart mentioned, read Norman Mailer's "A castle in the forest" to learn more, because he was "fed" with the important details about Hitler.

It should be noted, that neither Antelman, Hallet nor other "Hitler was a british agent" proponents work with real facts and sources, one can read it but accept only proven facts no simple speculations.

interstock. Here lies the reason for the difficulties with integrating person and group, rock and compost, village and city, ethnos and traderoutes.

I'll give you one example of what it leads to today in Holland :

Harry v Bommel has a new book of his burned cause it contains the word negro.

acknowledgement activist contra the ottomans whose choices have led straight to the yorkish floods cause .. atmosphere 'nexXcons' empires - has a new book of his burned (20 of them, by some vanguard PC minions or other) cause ... he (merely) cites an east indian mix blood (from surinam, who has fed the dutch media limelight-scape with his raucous tumulticull presence for a

And so the left leg of the ZOG beast can make all sorts of moves undetected yet again (under cover of this present propahoax - 'geschoten proppenvuur') - cause, obviously, what Obama has really allowed to MISHappen in Africa rivals the Leopold Saxon Coburg score quite 'ROYALLY' (see Greg Hallett to know what i hold of that type of term) AND is due to his hybridMIXity -- i mean the status, not the inborn 'can't help it' / dindo stuff but rather the 'haven't been told', 'got no help breaking the habit', 'dinsee a permie chart ever', etcetera. Think about it; freaks like that and like you like that and like you are like that also cause unremediated inchoateness is quite savage as we can see when the density and friction isn't carefully guided to the MINERAL REALM/HEART/ache/CAKELAYER, which is what i write most often about by the way (call it a study in drumming) Mixrace specimen often are allowed and expected to run rampant since day one cause the whole hostage / exile / saviour complex baggage that comes into play with populations that expand into each other, driven by the machinic fervour of literacy.

They lead into battle, they can be expected to jump into a fight and betray both sides and therefore their own (but have no trouble distracting from that with a little help). Harsh reality but true; america is full of these cases. Half dutch / half native american history was an eye opener to me in this respect. In short, distraction with a mirage / spectre / toxic cloud is a tactic much like you yourself employed, insisting on supposedly warning alright in you generous magnanimity of stooping to their level, about their ties and tie-ins with a construct from the past upon which guilts, debts are heaped up to this very day, punctuated with submarine orders.

I watched that video. Very disappointing. A sad display of SJW style ad hominem, circular arguments, disingenuous bullshit and sophistry from Sargon, desperately trying to reinforce his 'liberal' credentials, meanwhile saying practically nothing, during more than four hours, other than "I don't care what you think", "You are a Nazi" and "Are you a Nazi?". Apparently, according to Sargon, there is no threat to Western civilisation and there is no threat to European people posed by mass African and Islamic immigration, and anyone who thinks there is is a "fear monger".... but apparently calling somebody a 'fear monger' isn't an insult. Never mind, silly feminist girls ruining video games is a much more serious issue. -- · 921 white emigres are threefold treasonous: traitors to themselves, treasonous to the land they make their own, and they commit treason to the one they leave behind, orphaned and defenseless prey to those who inevitably end up displaced. What stops you from understanding this? Mixed heritage is a mixed blessing at best .. and usually displacing, pre-empts and sabotages the mix that needs to happen .. along vertical/radial axes: taking the cramp out of rock so they can mix mingle and merge in the dynamic ways of soil. On Thursday, Hotovely told Galei Tzahal (IOF Radio) that Israel was not willing to accept the precedent whereby ambassadorial candidates supported across the political spectrum in Israe--339l (balls – RB) would be rejected because of their ideological positions (open and official support of continuous and wide-spread illegality amounting to ongoing genocide, etc – RB). She said (showing an understandable concern for the safety of her own career – RB):

Our leader, Chancellor Hitler, has promised to deal with the situation himself. As is universally known, his commitment to Jewish racial supremacy is absolutely unbreakable, even in the face of the communist negro in the office of the goys' so-called overlords, so in the end I think a 'solution' will be found to this crisis.

Outbreeding — Nick Land — The Dark Enlightenment: The Complete Series, part 4d

<https://hbdchick.wordpress.com/>

..... is the crucial resource on this topic. Over the course of a truly monumental series of blog posts, she employs Hamiltonian conceptual tools to investigate the borderland where nature and culture intersect, comprising kinship structures, the differentiations they require in the calculus of inclusive fitness, and the distinctive ethnic profiles in the evolutionary psychology of altruism that result. In particular, she directs attention to the abnormality of (North-West) European history, where obligatory exogamy — through rigorous proscription of cousin marriage — has prevailed for 1,600 years. This distinctive orientation towards outbreeding, she suggests, plausibly accounts for a variety of bio-cultural peculiarities, the most historically significant of which is a unique pre-eminence of reciprocal (over familial) altruism, as indicated by emphatic individualism, nuclear families, an affinity with 'corporate' (kinship-free) institutions, highly-developed contractual relationships among strangers, relatively low levels of nepotism / corruption, and robust forms of social cohesion independent of tribal bonds.

the jews are determined to reduce any remaining arabs to the status of talking beasts

This is what Hitler wanted to do to the Slavs (among others), but it is also what the Khazars (having become Jewish subordinates, shall we say), successfully did to the Slavs, for several hundred years in fact, viz enslaved them and sold them to the Turks (hence the double meaning of the name 'Slavs'). Indeed, the Jewish view is that all non-Jewish humanoids are not in fact human but merely talking beasts. In due course, when the process of tikkun olam is more advanced and Jewish world government is a literal and visible fact (rather than a fact hidden behind the doors of counting houses), then all non-Jews will be subjected to this treatment of diseducation and reduction to animal status. But this is too far ahead to be meaningful or credible for most to imagine – RB

i appreciate your 5x a whole hour+ work (though the levels in part 1 are too high and the tec at one end of the convo tinny throughout). What i liked less are:

A: you blocking comments (and not from the beginning either, causing bad blood due to the not unjustifiable feeling of robbing your contributors - most don't save a copy due to good faith) although i understand the 'defiled' / 'yuk' reflex.

I know this is hard to deal with even without pc police making you responsible for your audience .. which, if you don't manage to keep them interested AND dispersed become a liability for you AND a perfect cover for the very rotten .. cults you are actually trying to build preemptive ethics against ... but ... we digitarians must get our heads around the fact/form of not owning commons / comment sections .. they ain't yours nor for you .. exclusively ... Disqus tacks kinda hint at that via the very format (which requires copying twice if you want article AND comments).*

I know the open door policy can actually ruin the host (indy sites! / germany?) due to a good portion of the commentariat's chronic obsession (lack of checks against repetitiveness - a complaint Jaron Lanier explains expertly ... ONE COPY is ISIS enough for the whole world!! - combined with copy paste allowances)

B: your ditching the babe in a washout (around the 20th minute); THE most inspired yet rigorous, universal 'rite thru bullshit cutter' / (airclearing rock into dung cutter - my dept .. but i was a lousy lieutenant) shaman / reincarnate king / saviour is not Bob, not crazy what's her name, none of those reams and mostly devoid of teams people who used to populate the institutions, a serious rival to banks and gvt buildings from getgo by the way, .. not Bri Golightly, nor any of those who enjoy a shining example for lack of / while not / second best to .. being one was .. Jose Arguelles ... thanks to his deft use of colour to clarify the difficulties of diagrammar (a truly magic flight landing) vehicle once the how thing begins to sway and recochet like a marble track in multiple potion motion .. miming volcanos .. again my dept, my fail .. that's why you never heard of him before .. but let me start this derailed sentence over) ..

THE most robbed and borrowed from spiritual guide of our day and age is undoubtedly a man who published a lot, spoke in regular intervals and kept his movement very grounded while he was alive is Jose Arguelles who thought of himself as the return of Pacal Votan, who (claims to have) telepathically tweaked the quran components so that the odd (Sura) sequence, length, etc, mix up hides as many a calendrical secret as those bent on stuffing the bible with same ever managed to fit in it, ... singlehandedly!!!!!! with a little help from the mentioned 'gridiots' (a defensible but certainly never to be taken as substitute for 'rocksqueesievers', croppie-crypters .. for the combination of which by the way, i myself was an early down to earth .. 'rocktsar' 'als je begrijpt wat ik bedoel' - hint: julius hensel x hamaker X me x kwetal x cernunnos).

* the strange case of the xymphora blog where the commentariat was huge, well behaved, live and kicking for a handful of years during which the host would never, at least not under his moniker, participate and only sparingly refer to stuff going on there. Guess there IS such a thing as 'ethical deniability' eh? Who knew??????????

unfortunately, for the weirdest reason he began complaining about having his long long thread treasure threatened and then, after a few months managed to delete the whole lot!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Ouch, drawbacks of unengaged host .. or one that feigns disinterest as a defense against PC scrutiny and persecution.

the rule is simple and they show they know it themselves: national designators are OK, racial ones are not January 6, 2016 – 12:31 am

Of course, I don't read Arabic. But I would imagine that despite the description below, the comparison was rigged, with racial designators of 'Arabs' on the one hand, and national designators of the 'Israelis' (the normal euphemism for Jews) on the other. To say "kill all the Israelis!", while absurd, is not literally racist – RB lady, for the sake of your progeny, lest they get even more insensitive to the groundswell wound in all this than you already are, get your white ass off red land and back to the land your ancestors were deluded into, opportunistically or cowardly betraying; an abandonment that was multigenerational squared as the (flipside) assault on a race which is nobler on account of better grounding alone and will rise back up as assuredly as livingroom-size girth trees will be the normal of a saner millenium than ours (the next? .. about a thousand years from the moment most of the likes of you see the reason, heart and sense of my plea and warning).

yesterday i described you thus (after hearing you on revolution radio):

psyop[{{shipshapeshop}}]per selected lassy pleads about state sovereignty and power to be held -- that emasculated powder word again eh?? always suspect .. often foretold, the thingkkk to prepare for .. expect ... and behold, all them holds/holdings and unfoldings .. cue my hints about nature's currencies, omitted here -- but no fits with scales of extension? No federations of any terrestrial kind able to trump selfdeclared and/or wangled 'inviolable' wholeness of nationhood??? Are you even aware that despite all the gun-libidity-lovers crime has gone intercontinental via the US many times over the amount it managed via the 'britzis' and britraelians and other assorted multiculticliques????? .. is this about the right rite place mention / recommend sorting .. roughly .. by colour ??? .. and that native means the looOoooOoooOoOoOoong string of those who came before you???? oh wait, i DID THAT already.

Read 'The Dragon and the Ice Castle' ... about a formerly sacred site (in the NE) becoming a crossroads for all sorts of 'new' 'owner' conduits: trains, cars, pipelines, a toxic dump even and a few more things ... i suspect this might be similar .. bunch of occupiers spoilin for a pile up not my strategy .. too much damage ... the galt way or no way ... i m spread thin over 3 languages and 4 continents

"Democrats or Republicans (ie) Rockefellers or Rothschilds": the forum via Rowan

T'lads and lasses down at t'Antiquaries are rightly incensed by Edward Limonov's latest bald statement of the inevitable, cos it destroys the cover in which the Antiquaries lurk and exposes them to the merciless cold air of the fucking street at night. So anyway. here it is:

Carrots for donkeys Kremlin - Edward Limonov, Jan 17 2016 – There is however a third option. This is not to surrender the Donbass, but to recognize the independence of the Donbass republics and help them to liberate their territory from Ukrainian occupants. But this variant in the Kremlin will not go, (because they are) terribly frightened by sanctions in the form of seizure of their accounts and property in the West. And therefore with high probability, (will) bite on this carrot of a promise to lift sanctions, and will return the Donbass. At least they will try to do so, if this is not interfered with by various force majeure circumstances. Therefore, if there's nothing to prevent it, we are waiting for the shame, and then the war all the same. The Kremlin cowardly shied away for almost two years. When (they send) forces of seven or eight battalions to occupy the Donbass, Kharkov, Kherson, etc, then they will bring war to Russia, because of his cowardice.

Hey, ... Rowan is leaving out the brackets ps: i forget if the '---' is mine or his, prolly mine

Zachary Mider, Bloomberg 'News', Jan 20 2016
it's very long ... note how rowan improves 'conservative'
Mercer is one of the most enigmatic and powerful forces in Pindo politics. Beginning around the time of Robinson's race, Mercer has put at least $32m behind 'conservative' (neonazi – RB) candidates for office, including $11m for a group supporting Cruz's campaign for the Republican presidential nomination. So far, Mercer is the biggest single donor in the race. Working with his daughter Rebekah, he's spent tens of millions more to advance a 'conservative' (neonazi – RB) agenda, investing in think-tanks such as the Heritage Foundation, the media outlet Breitbart.com, and Cambridge Analytica, a data company that builds psychological profiles of voters. Groups he funds have attacked the science of global warming, published a book critical of Hillary Clinton, and bankrolled a documentary celebrating Ayn Rand. Mercer, 69, has never spoken publicly about his political priorities, and declined a request to be interviewed for this story.

lobro: Self contradictory terms like Benevolent Colonization are quite simply beyond my understanding and I view them as auxiliary Hebrew language, goy attempt at hasbara. Benevolent Ass-rape, anyone? Colonization surely has something to do with Colon and I refuse to be Politically Colorectal.
Red Onions posted on Cristobal Colon's marrano roots and it was worth bookmarking, as the colonic circle closes on itself. Benevolently, I hope. Anyway, the thread is old enough if not mature enough to permit a digression from the main topic and I want to draw your attention to something that I didn't know, namely the interesting phenomenon of Iran, a peacock that learned to be a phoenix. This,

While the Saudis succumbed to the lure of easy money, Iran – facing a shutdown of exports – didn't fall into the trap of total dependency on oil production. Instead, Iran had no choice but to build up other sectors. As Foreign Affairs points out, Iran's economy is highly diversified as a consequence, with oil and gas accounting for less than a fifth of GDP. At roughly $17,000, per-capita GDP is ahead of China and Brazil. With some 4.4 million young people enrolled in universities, 60 percent of them women and 44 percent majoring in the so-called STEM fields of science, technology, engineering and math, Iran is clearly an emerging powerhouse.

Of course, if the Sabbatean inbreds attack, they'll get wiped out over the weekend, I don't think the Tel Aviv boss would allow that.

Rowan: i am waiting to see whether iran has in fact agreed to ditch russia, ditch hezbollah, ditch assad, and sell out completely to the west, which i think it proly has by George: I am not sure why Iran if had any say in this nor Bahrain as the following release discloses Russia itself grounded these planes from any flights until further notice. Russia suspends flights of Su-27 fighters after crash Postby Gary » Sun Jan 17, 2010 7:00 pm Russia has suspended SU-27 Flanker fighter jet flights until the cause of a deadly crash earlier in the week is determined, a Defense Ministry official told RIA Novosti on Saturday. The fighter had been performing a scheduled flight on Thursday and was about 30 km away from the Dzemga airbase in Russia's Far East when it disappeared from radar screens. The body of the pilot was discovered earlier on Saturday. "Until the reason for the SU-27 crash in the Khabarovsk Territory becomes clear, all flights by this type of aircraft have been suspended," the spokesperson said.

Rowan:
aha, ok. Still, I have a feeling: If Iran goes over to the West, then the reversal of alliances I have been predicting for years will be complete. Israel and Pindostan will have ended up on opposite sides of the geopolitical divide. Israel will be allied to the Toads, Egypt and most importantly, China. And best of all for Israel, it will look as if the Jews did not contrive this reversal, though in fact they did, aiming to dump Pindostan like a squeezed orange, just as they did to all their previous hosts: which in reverse chronological order would be: Britain, Russia, Germany, the Netherlands, France, Spain, Portugal, and so on all the way back to ancient Rome.

The Martinez Perspective (01/22/16): The Litvinenko Assassination

then (15th m) you dis on Ry D and that reminds (me) of 1: neither of you offer paths to peace from peace from scratch ... not even a condescending mock / genuflection (cause softening rock in strategic places doesn't strike you as other than sissie and not macho enough).

2: something i just caught on dutch (nite)news: the russians are trying to 'pester' (bully) the poor american embassy employees by erecting a memorial for native americans in front of it as if that is on anywhere near par with murdering the RT director in DC (as a warning to Alex Jones who radically changed his tune to get with the islam bashing program, according to Douglas Dietrich anyways).

There is precisely zero evidence that Litvinenko himself was involved in smuggling pulonium 210. and then to magically poison himself the very moment he sits to meet with former KGB agents. I'm sure this fantasy plays well in Russia though.

+Brandon Martinez .. even an old horse in the 'splinternational' 'intelligence' stables you stake your bets on knows better: "Indeed, Litvinenko, in the months before his death, had targeted several well-known members of the Russian Mafia with his blackmail scheme. That they would take umbrage at this is hardly shocking. Furthermore, there are indications that Litvinenko was engaged in the smuggling of nuclear materials. That he wound up being contaminated by the goods he was peddling on the black market seems far more credible than the cock-and-bull story about a vast Russian plot originating in the Kremlin "

does he need more examples about how close London pawns play the piper's tune outs a thousand miles away?? how bout this one:

yeah, ... but i remember the (2006?) days i had to repeatedly correct you on positing nothing but one rift after another between 'arabs' and 'jews' (or pro- and anti-semites if you will)

+Rocks-to-Earth-SPIinner I checked the sourced article in the Telegraph. It says Litvinenko allegedly told Sacarmella that this happened in the year 2000, six years before his death while he was still working for the FSB. How does this prove that Litvinenko poisoned himself in 2006 with the same materials??

most people are blocked / cut off of some area of experience or other ... even the wealthy ones .. and i'm gonna argue ESPECIALLY them.

If, when, soon and long as one, instead of feeling this very state of affairs a matter of deep shame and a cross to bear, one looks at one's looking at hang-ups / pet-peeves / sore points etcetera and turns it inside out claiming 'lookie, don't i know a lot about this, let's hang an inviting snake-oil / teach/therapy reli/poli practice shingle outside the shack so it magically becomes a guarded zoo garden gate with some strategic matters of monies and mouths dirtying roeptoeter feed thus you Martinez don't realize you implicate yourself for all to see when you claim no self-criticism nor any of those you shill and cover for, allowed .. by doing just that, all out, zealously .. to make yourself believe your make believe first and foremost, the rest be damned.

Bernard Avishai has just published a book about Jews and sex which I cannot be bothered to name. He is a visiting professor of government at Dartmouth College (Connecticut, Pindostan), and an adjunct professor of business at the inimitable Hebrew University of Jayloomia (HUJI). How either of those specialties qualifies him to write about Jews & sex I don't know. Maybe just being a Jew and a compulsive masturbator is enough. I would have liked to spend my declining years at HUJI, not with this miserable 'liberal Zionist' but delving into the kabbalah. I suppose they wouldn't want me publishing all the filth, though; especially the story about how all the foreskins removed from Jews since the beginning of eternity constitute a gigantic barrier in space which keeps the demons out. Even Tishby, I suspect, ran into some problems explaining this, absolutely accurate though I am sure it all is – RB

The EU vs BDS: the Politics of Israel Sanctions
Bernard Avishai. New Yorker, Jan 22 2016

This past Monday, the EU's Foreign Affairs Council reaffirmed a November requirement that Israel label products made in the settlements differently from those made in Israel.

So-called (RB) 'Justice Minister' Ayelet Shaked called Brussels "anti-Israel and anti-Jewish." (Presumably there is some fine shade of meaning between anti-jewish and anti-semitic which these cunts are determined to exploit – RB).

all that may be as you say .. but i'm not about to go try verify either way ... and besides, prefer the broad brush approach: Berezovsky known for thinking he is a great spermtraffic director and so, given his ties to maffiya (why don't you do a 20 page eulogy of R I Friedman if you're so motivated to bash russias?) wouldn't put it past him to order thanatopically perverted hardly erasable traceables about .. would you?

As some have pointed out, polonium would have cost millions to acquire on the black market, but would have cost nothing to get if it was a Russian government operation. Unless you can show how litvinenko got his hands in polonium and the source of it, you're just shooting in the dark. Kovtun and Lugovoi as former.fsb agents would have been able to get it with relative ease. They left quite a trail behind so whoever killed litvinenko did a hell of a job to incriminate these two guys. How was that fit with an accidental poisoning? What role did these russians play in your view??

same role most russians with an interest (wether pointy, pointed, pollonyannoid, pixelpatterned or poxy past laden, appointed, annointed, i care not) in London - as the easiest entry to the pits of hell - might have ... in my experience none come to visit the guys that provided the content to message archives like the diggers350 yahoo group ... but ... speaking of which .. here's the main reason i will defend Putin and proof for the claim he has changed a lot running the hard knock gauntlet school gamut: HE PROVIDES CHEAP LAND ON CONDITION OF POPULATING IT WITH ECO-VILLAGE SENSIBILITIES -- that's a little better than the poppylooting policies of those you shill for whenever you lapse from the good policies of describing at least 3 oligarch and 'idiogarch' dalliance and act out cliques on all opposed and tangential sides of any given conflict set/knot; stick w principles and raise you chances to finish the distastefully ineffective literacy 'cur[s]e' all the sooner. Simple. Feed the rootosphere and the noosphere will be one of

All steps along the way should have more transparancy, sharability and consensus in both work load and results ... which takes a few drill down techniques .. like 'read only' originals (this is a principle i formulated before the turn of the millenium)

and the only company that really used this concept is bitcoin but the principles [see jaron lanier and todd boyle's ledgerism days] apply equally if not way more fruitful when governance, where all shites can pile in like there's no ... 'understanding' of the FBI in Burns [good call KrisAnn .. did you read what i adressed to you a week ago?]?.. [par]take in and of it).

Does this mean militias need to strong arm digitalia?

Impossible.

Does this mean militias need a strong digital arm? More like it.

I mean the more 'like' it .. the more the likers must be given robust political clout. Of course the layerrailable curtain show is not in exactly it's most reliably stable nonslippery slide layer cake stage 'rite' now, .. not by a long shot, let alone on one that rules out and prevents the jokes on all us pulled and perped by the (luckily) very very few and very sick few. Stage fright anybody? Turning a deep fear into a point of pride like Lavoy does nobody any favors besides yet another jesus figure to bemoan .. and who has been benefitting from that for thousands of years already eh?????

ps: my first words on Lavoy were wrong .. Fortunately .. but i stand by the conclusion and therefore repeat here what i said:

USA: FBI agent describes moment Robert 'Lavoy' Finicum was shot - Ruptly TV - 127K - 490 views .. Jan 28, 2016 --- FBI Special Agent, Greg Breezing, addressed media on the shooting of Robert 'Lavoy' Finicum, in Burns, on Thursday.

even jesus needed a sturdy beam to keep his wings aspread you are shot in the vest pocket and your hand is not gonna go there???
it's as if it's a sport for the elite to work with the flimsyest deniability veneer they can possibly achieve .. in between mulling over and plotting ways to validate, justify, consolidate, legitimate, update and prolong past sins in nearby caves ...
Lavoy was near enough native to qualify as a worthy enough sacrificial morsel .. and the gazillions uploads of his death with a handful of views each only adds an icing on their early 7th minute: yeah, the macho talk gave the evil ones licence more than anything 3rd minute: "asking actors to sign a talent release" wrong formulation

it's asking people to renounce the rights to profits off the future action the 'capturer'/recorder is betting his wear and tear to profit from on ..
it's asking people to become actors, .. do something drastic and in france many a castle uses [t]his rehabilitation formula succesfully and can only survive by grace of that, it really works .. (fixing stone walls, etcetera) but not so much when you try it in urban, thoroughly and multiply amputated enviros like the Netherlands. Europe flooded with so many males, wayward yet venture, has more reason to champion Lavoy than America right now.
